

LOCAL NEWS

On Business — Tom Ward, Melrose rancher, was a business visitor in this city Saturday, spending the afternoon here.

From Wilbur — H. G. Hastings, Wilbur resident, was a business visitor in this city Saturday, spending several hours.

Mr. Woodruff In — V. S. Woodruff motored from Melrose Saturday and spent the day in Roseburg attending to business matters.

Mr. Goff In — Fred Goff motored from Melrose Saturday and spent the afternoon attending to business interests in this city.

From Cottage Grove — M. Evans, of Cottage Grove, spent Saturday in Roseburg visiting with friends and looking after business interests.

Business Visitor — E. H. Bowman, Myrtle Creek resident, spent a few hours in this city Saturday, transacting business and visiting friends.

Mrs. Agee Visits — Mrs. Roy Agee returned to her home at Wilbur Saturday afternoon after spending several hours here visiting and shopping.

Visit Saturday — Mr. and Mrs. G. Humphrey, of Garden Valley, were visitors in this city Saturday, spending the day on business and shopping.

From Looking Glass — Among the out of town visitors Saturday to spend a few hours here transacting business, was R. E. Jennie, of Looking Glass.

Visitors Saturday — Mrs. E. Shircliffe and daughter Rose, of Myrtle Creek, spent several hours here Saturday attending to business matters and shopping.

Return From Portland — Mrs. Frank Newland and daughter, Helen, who have been spending the past few days in Portland visiting with friends, have returned to their home in this city.

The car mentioned in the above dispatch was the property of H. M. Pearson of Winchester. It was stolen a week ago in front of the Antlers theatre and was recovered at Grants Pass in the manner described above.

Visit At Bailey Home — Mr. and Mrs. Palmiter, master of the state grange, and daughter, Miss Dorothy Palmiter, were guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Bailey on South Deer creek over the week end. They are returning home after attending the convention in Sacramento.

Leaves For South — Mrs. H. M. Hensley, of this city, left Saturday evening for California points, where she expects to visit with her two daughters, one residing at Sacramento and one at Los Angeles. She will also spend some time visiting at the home of a sister in Santa Rosa.

St. George's Church Bazaar — The ladies of St. George's church will hold a bazaar next Saturday, Dec. 5, at which time a fine display of hand-made goods will be offered for sale. There has been some misunderstanding as to the exact date of the bazaar, but it is announced today that it would be held next Saturday, Dec. 5.

Glenn Britt With Marines — According to word received here by friends, Glenn Britt, former Roseburg boy, is now stationed with one of the largest marine stations in the east, located near Washington, D. C. Mr. Britt just recently received an appointment as lieutenant, and left immediately for his new post. He is a graduate of Roseburg high school, and a graduate of O. A. C. class of '25. While at the college he was prominent on the campus and a member of the R. O. T. C. He states that he likes his new post fine and is well impressed with the new surroundings.

Deputy Sheriff C. H. Daugherty of Yoncalla, spent the day in Roseburg attending to official duties. American fence at carload prices at Wharton Bros.

Pruning tools and ladders at Wharton Bros. We will loan in Roseburg all monies saved with us here. See our display at Story Hies', Umpqua Hotel building.

Adelbert and Bernard Young have returned to O. A. C. after spending the Thanksgiving holiday and week end here visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Young.

See the display of Christmas cards now and plan to make early selections for best choice at Lloyd Crocker's Drug Store.

O. C. Baker is confined to his home with a severe attack of pneumonia. He was reported to be somewhat improved today.

A verdict for the plaintiff was given today in the case of Neil J. Pearson against William Hilger. The suit was for the foreclosure of a mortgage given on a note in the sum of $4300.

Tom Wallace of Yoncalla, has been named as nightwatchman for that city. The merchants and citizens have been greatly aroused by an epidemic of fires, believed to be caused by a firebug, and are adding to their police protection in an effort to prevent further loss.

Among those returning to Corvallis to resume work at O. A. C. after the Thanksgiving vacation spent here visiting relatives and friends are Helen Churchill, Jeanette Rice, Helen Falbe and house guest Elizabeth Clark, Vivian Orcutt and house guest, Velma Utt.

James Pickens and house guest, Kenneth Lowell and William Thrall. Clyde Hastings of Cottage Grove, arrested some time ago for driving a car while intoxicated, appeared before Justice of the Peace George Jones this morning to answer to the complaint. Upon the showing made by his attorney, George Willett, the charge was changed to intoxication in a public place, a plea of guilty being entered to this charge and a fine of $100 paid.

The Roseburg Woman's club will hold their regular meeting Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at the Moose hall. A splendid program has been prepared, and the topic of the meeting will be "Public Welfare". Mrs. Albert Murn having charge. Mrs. W. W. Ashcraft and Mrs. M. Campbell will also assist. This will be social day and Mrs. W. O. Clinger will have charge of the refreshments.

George E. Goodell, deputy of the labor commission of Grants Pass, was a visitor in this city Sunday.

Visitor Today — Elbert Martin, Myrtle Creek resident, was a visitor in this city for a short time this morning and transacted business.

W. C. T. U. To Have Meeting — The Glengary W. C. T. U. will hold their regular meeting on Wednesday, December 2, at the home of Mrs. Wm. Telford.

Returns Home — John Hays returned to his home at Grants Pass Saturday after spending several days here visiting with relatives and friends.

From Garden Valley — Fred Bonebrake motored from Garden Valley Saturday and spent several hours attending to business affairs and visiting friends.

Garrett's Visit — Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Garrett, of Glendale, spent several hours in Roseburg Saturday visiting with friends and attending to business affairs.

To Leona — L. T. Davis returned to his home at Leona Saturday evening after visiting and attending to business matters here for a short time.

Return From Portland — Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McBride returned to their home here this morning after spending the week end in Portland visiting with friends.

On Business — Claude Green, who resides near Dixonville, motored here Saturday and spent several hours visiting friends and attending to business affairs.

From Cleveland — Mr. and Mrs. George Reynolds returned to their home at Cleveland Saturday evening after visiting and attending to business affairs here during the day.

Return From Washington — Dr. and Mrs. Clair K. Allen and family returned yesterday from Washington, Washington, after spending the holidays here visiting with relatives and friends.

Returns From Eugene — Miss Mattie Perry returned this morning to Roseburg after enjoying the Thanksgiving holiday and the week end visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Fred Rowley, at Eugene.

Returns From North — Mrs. G. H. Hess and daughter, Louise, returned to Roseburg this morning from Portland and Cottage Grove, where they have been enjoying a several days' visit with relatives and friends.

To Corvallis — Harold Wainwright returned to Corvallis, where he is a student at O. A. C., after spending the holidays and week end here visiting with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Wainwright.

Returns to Monmouth — Allen Wickham, who has been enjoying a visit with relatives and friends over the holidays and week end, returned Sunday to Monmouth where he is attending Oregon normal.

To Corvallis — Mrs. Bertha Kohlhagen left Sunday afternoon for Corvallis, where she is a student at O. A. C., after spending the holidays here visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Kohlhagen.

To O. A. C. — Clair Taylor, Chester Morgan and Jack Stintger, who visited with relatives and friends here over the Thanksgiving holiday and week end returned to Corvallis Sunday afternoon to resume their work at O. A. C.

Returns From Coast — N. E. Hoover, of Hoover and McNeil, contractors, who has the contract for the work on the new high school, has returned to this city from coast points, where he has been attending to business matters.

Returns From Eugene — A. H. Marsh returned to this city last evening after a motor trip to Eugene, where he visited over the week end. Mr. and Mrs. George Marsh accompanied him to Eugene Friday and are remaining for a few days.

To Corvallis — Among those leaving Sunday afternoon by auto for Corvallis to resume their studies at O. A. C. after the Thanksgiving vacation were Maurice Newland, Donovan Dennis, Claude Crocker, Clifford Thornton and Clifford Fields.

Visits Over Sunday — A. E. Gotenquist, realtor and rancher of Medicine Hat, Canada, is staying for a day or two with Gordon Cook, of this city. Intending to locate on the coast, Mr. Gotenquist is making an inspection trip with a view to finding a suitable home location.

Arrives From Canada — Mrs. Will Watson and three children, of Alberta, Canada, arrived here this morning and will be guests at the home of Mrs. Watson's brother, Elbert Martin, at Myrtle Creek for a few days. Mr. Martin and family and Mrs. Watson and children will then leave for California points, where they will spend the next two months visiting.

Cook with gas.

Visitor in Town — R. E. Alexander, resident of Glendale, spent Sunday in this city visiting with friends.

To Corvallis — Harold Irwin returned Sunday afternoon to Corvallis to resume his studies at O. A. C. after enjoying a visit with his parents and friends during the Thanksgiving holidays.

Howards Visit Today — Mr. and Mrs. George Howard, of Medford, were visitors here a short time today, enroute to their home after a trip to northern points. Mr. Howard is connected with the Diamond Lake lodge.

Return From Salem — Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Cummings and family returned to their home in this city last evening after spending the holidays visiting with friends and relatives in Salem.

From Seattle — Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Stewart, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Emble, of Seattle, were visitors in Roseburg on Sunday. Mr. Stewart, one of the directors of the Olympia hotel, with his party, are enroute home. They were guests at the Hotel Umpqua.

W. C. T. U. To Have Meeting — The W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. Louis Kohlhagen, on 901 Military avenue, Wednesday afternoon. The program will be opened by devotion, led by Mrs. J. Betts. Helen Ferguson will present an interesting discourse on the mobilization and organization of the W. C. T. U. Rev. Joseph Knotts will give an address on "What Will Another Fifty Years Develop in Our Work?" The program will be concluded with special music.

Prisoner Back — Arthur Ray, who was taken to Reedsport last week to appear in the justice court as a witness in the case against Charles Davis, accused of ownership of a still, was brought back to the county jail Saturday evening. Davis, who was on trial, succeeded in winning a verdict of not guilty. Deputy Sheriff Leas and Singleton had charge of Ray on the trip. While at Reedsport a large group of the man's friends stayed near him the greater part of the time, and fearing an attempt would be made to aid him in an escape a guard was maintained day and night.

Arrives From Oakland — Mrs. O. L. Gannor, of Oakland, California, arrived here Saturday night and will spend several weeks visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Shields.

Back From Portland — Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Throne, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Green and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lockwood and daughter, have returned from Portland where they attended the Shrine meeting and initiation last Saturday. They report a very pleasant time.

Heat with gas.

From Coast — Henry E. Quist, of Marshfield, motored from the coast and spent Saturday in this city visiting.

Bone meal and other fertilizers at Wharton Bros.

Visitors Saturday — Mr. and Mrs. B. Y. Vivehler, Cottage Grove residents, spent Saturday in this city visiting.

Visits Friends — Mrs. D. G. Tyree, of Medford, spent Sunday in this city visiting with friends, returning home today.

Visit Sunday — Miss Leah T. Parks and Miss Margaret Cooper returned to Coquille today after visiting here over Sunday.

From Yoncalla — Among the out of town visitors here yesterday was Avery Laasell of Yoncalla.

Arrives From Oakland — Mrs. O. L. Gannor, of Oakland, California, arrived here Saturday night and will spend several weeks visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Shields.

Back From Portland — Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Throne, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Green and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lockwood and daughter, have returned from Portland where they attended the Shrine meeting and initiation last Saturday. They report a very pleasant time.

Heat with gas.

From Myrtle Creek — George H. Wilson of Myrtle Creek, visited here over Saturday and Sunday with friends.

To Visit Parents — Mrs. A. E. Cummings of Salem, has arrived, and will spend some time visiting with friends and with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lindgren, of Melrose.

Heat with gas.

Heat with gas.

Heat with gas.

Heat with gas.

Heat with gas.

Heat with gas.

Heat with gas.

Heat with gas.

Heat with gas.

Heat with gas.

Advertisement for Gruen Rectangular Wristlets. The Newest GRUEN Rectangular Wristlets. See Our Windows for this Special Display of Rectangular Watches. Priced at— $35 - $40 - $50 - $55. Beautifully engraved reinforced heavy white gold cases. Also made in enamel and oxidize designs—the very latest in case finishing. All the newest dials. Let us show you the difference between a Gruen Rectangular and any other. You will save money—still have a better watch. Make Christmas reservations now. KNUDTSON'S Jewelers 118 Cass St.

Advertisement for Thompson Mineral Vapor Baths. DR. J. H. HUTSON. an experienced and successful operator of the Thompson Baths is here to assist us in bringing an important Health Message to you, and to demonstrate the value of the Baths, in connection with our other Drugless Methods, in following out a Constructive Health Program. The service that sick people have the right to look for. We invite your investigation. Drugless Health Center 327 Cass St. Phone 491.

Advertisement for Thompson Mineral Vapor Baths. DR. J. H. HUTSON. an experienced and successful operator of the Thompson Baths is here to assist us in bringing an important Health Message to you, and to demonstrate the value of the Baths, in connection with our other Drugless Methods, in following out a Constructive Health Program. The service that sick people have the right to look for. We invite your investigation. Drugless Health Center 327 Cass St. Phone 491.

Advertisement for Women Wanted. For Cannery Work Trimming Apples. Good Stock to Work On. Work Will Last Until About December 10 to 15. Frank J. Norton Company Sutherlin, Oregon.

Who wouldn't like the gift of an Adler Collegian Suit or Overcoat?

BEFORE you wrack your brain trying to think what to give Dad or Jim for Christmas come in and see us. We have a capital suggestion—a sure way to make Christmas merrier.

There isn't a man in town who wouldn't be pleased with an ADLER COLLEGIAN suit or coat. An extra business suit, a sport suit—any of these will make the ideal gift.

The men folks know ADLER COLLEGIANS. They know the label stands for the best in materials and tailoring. The value they place on this label makes certain your gift will be appreciated.

$25.00 to $45.00

SPENCER'S A MAN'S SHOP

ROSEBURG'S NEWEST LIVEST, LEADING MEN'S AND YOUNG MEN'S STORE.

VETERANS TO BE GIVEN RADIO SET FOR XMAS

The residents of the Soldiers Home are to receive a welcome Christmas present from the W. R. C. Ladies of Eugene, according to information from that city. The ladies have decided to purchase a large radio receiving set and present it to the institution for the entertainment of the aged residents.

Plan to do your Christmas shopping early—more advisable this year than ever before—better opportunities for Christmas are now on display in Crocker's Drug Store. See our windows.

NOTICE

Mr. Thomas, factory sewing machine expert, will give free instruction at room 209 high school, Wednesday, 10 a. m. on mending methods without attachments; also button holes, blanket stitching and other interesting and useful subjects. You are welcome.

Regular meeting of the Artisans Thursday night for the election of officers. All members urged to be present.

Meadow oat grass has the ability to stand drought, heat and cold. Try a little on your burn or pasture, or mix with your hay for summer feed. Sold by Wharton Bros.

Deputy Sheriff C. H. Daugherty of Yoncalla, spent the day in Roseburg attending to official duties.

American fence at carload prices at Wharton Bros.

Pruning tools and ladders at Wharton Bros. We will loan in Roseburg all monies saved with us here. See our display at Story Hies', Umpqua Hotel building.

Adelbert and Bernard Young have returned to O. A. C. after spending the Thanksgiving holiday and week end here visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Young.

See the display of Christmas cards now and plan to make early selections for best choice at Lloyd Crocker's Drug Store.

O. C. Baker is confined to his home with a severe attack of pneumonia. He was reported to be somewhat improved today.

A verdict for the plaintiff was given today in the case of Neil J. Pearson against William Hilger. The suit was for the foreclosure of a mortgage given on a note in the sum of $4300.

Tom Wallace of Yoncalla, has been named as nightwatchman for that city. The merchants and citizens have been greatly aroused by an epidemic of fires, believed to be caused by a firebug, and are adding to their police protection in an effort to prevent further loss.

Among those returning to Corvallis to resume work at O. A. C. after the Thanksgiving vacation spent here visiting relatives and friends are Helen Churchill, Jeanette Rice, Helen Falbe and house guest Elizabeth Clark, Vivian Orcutt and house guest, Velma Utt.

James Pickens and house guest, Kenneth Lowell and William Thrall. Clyde Hastings of Cottage Grove, arrested some time ago for driving a car while intoxicated, appeared before Justice of the Peace George Jones this morning to answer to the complaint. Upon the showing made by his attorney, George Willett, the charge was changed to intoxication in a public place, a plea of guilty being entered to this charge and a fine of $100 paid.

The Roseburg Woman's club will hold their regular meeting Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at the Moose hall. A splendid program has been prepared, and the topic of the meeting will be "Public Welfare". Mrs. Albert Murn having charge. Mrs. W. W. Ashcraft and Mrs. M. Campbell will also assist. This will be social day and Mrs. W. O. Clinger will have charge of the refreshments.

Advertisement for Oregon Bakery. 231 N. Jackson St. Phone 241. Fruit-ola-nut BREAD.

Advertisement for California Oregon Power Company. This Christmas let Electricity do the work.