ELKS' ANNUAL MEMORIAL TO BE HELD SUNDAY

The annual memorial services of the Elks lodge will be held on Sunday afternoon, December 6 at 2 p. m. at the lodge temple. The services are in honor of the members of the order who have passed away in the past year and in those years previous. During the past year three members of the local lodge have died, L. J. Speck, U. G. McLaughlin and Mark Simpson.

The program for the service on Sunday will be interesting, appropriate and impressive. The address is to be made by Dr. Louis Albert Banks.
The exercises will open with an orchestra selection, followed by the ritualistic service conducted by the officers of the lodge and the roll call of absent brothers. The responsive service held by the officers of the lodge will be followed by another orchestra selection after which Mrs. Fred L. Strang will sing "The Lord is my Shepherd."
Following the address by Dr.

ATTENTION, ARTISANS
Initiation and box social Thursday evening. All members requested to be present.

Banks, Mrs. Strang will sing again, "Dream of Paradise." The officers of the lodge will direct the closing ritualistic exercises and the audience will join in the singing of the closing ode.
These memorial exercises are open to the general public as well as all members of the lodge, and the residents of Roseburg and the surrounding community are invited to be present.
If every wife knew what every widow knows, every husband would be insured.

KIPLING SERIOUSLY ILL.
(Associated Press Leaded Wire.)
LONDON, Dec. 2.—Lord Dawson of Penn, the king's physician, has been called to Burwash to attend Rudyard Kipling, whose condition is giving rise to anxiety.
The famous writer is reported to be suffering from bronchitis, complicated with pneumonia.
Life insurance is never a bargain when you buy it—but tomorrow an accident or the "flu" may make it one.
