

THE WOMAN'S PAGE

SOCIETY

By GRACE CARROLL
All contributions to this page, society, women's clubs, and personals, should be telephoned to the society editor by Friday

Each year the Christmas season falls upon one so suddenly, that before we realize that the lovely fall days have really ended, there is more than a hint of frost in the air and a flake of snow to show that Christmas is near. The windows are already filled with holiday goods, and the hurrying crowds of shoppers are intent upon cheer-bearing gifts for family and friends.

The indefinable spirit that Christmas brings each year is one that is bigger than self; that embraces the poor and rich alike on earth, making them one with generous holiday giving.

The store windows are at their best and gayest at this time of the year, and everywhere the smiling jolly face of St. Nicholas gives a benediction to the Christmas scenes. Hostesses are quick to seize upon the Christmas suggestions and give parties, bridge, luncheons, and dances during the weeks to come will have as their motif the spirit of this season.

Mrs. Helen Carnes Purncher and Mrs. E. S. Carnes, of Idaho, have arrived here to be guests of Mrs. Purncher's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Carnes, of Carnes, over the holidays. They are accompanied by Mrs. Purncher's small niece, Barbara Kirtley.

American Legion Auxiliary Dance This Evening
An event of the week which has been anticipated by dance lovers is the American Legion Auxiliary benefit dance, to be given this evening at the armory.

The decoration committee has been busy during the day making the hall festive with green boughs and red decorations in keeping with the fast approaching Christmas season. The Swanee Sereaders will furnish music for the dancing, and a quadrille will feature the evening's pleasure. Candy dances will add to the various events. The committee in charge of the dance are Mrs. E. R. Thurber, chairman, and Mrs. L. A. Dillard, and Mrs. Leo Devaney.

Patrons and patronesses for the affair are Mr. and Mrs. L. I. Crocker, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Catching, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Storey Hess, Mr. and Mrs. F. Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. Jack G. V. Wimberly, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wharton, Dr. and Mrs. D. R. Shoemaker, Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Wells, Miss Agnes Pitchford and Mr. O. M. Berrie.

Mrs. C. S. Heinline will leave Sunday for Portland, where with David Campbell, head of the Portland Music Teacher's Association, she will meet with the board of directors of the association. At this time discussions will be had concerning the convention which will be held here in the spring, to which delegates from all over the state will assemble.

Mrs. Nichols Hostess to Club on Wednesday
A charming hostess of the week was Mrs. L. B. Nichols, when she entertained at her home in Brockway, Wednesday, the members of the Sewing Society.

The ladies spent the time in sewing and following the hostess served a luncheon. At the meeting, the drawing for the beautiful appliqued bedspread, made and donated by Mrs. Harry Kenney, for which chances were sold at the recent bazaar of the society, and Mrs. Horace Berg who held the lucky number, received the award. The ladies made plans for the food sale to be held Saturday, December 13.

Spending the afternoon with Mrs. Nichols were the Mesdames R. B. Spakman, Ed Jennings, Loren Hill, Fred Byron, H. Willett, L. J. Barnes, Harry Kenney, J. G. Bryan, Peter Dahl, J. Kenney, B. Casey, J. Heidenreich, H. Nichols, V. Nichols, E. O. Schultz, C. Krogel, Wall and Miss Lillie Davila.

Mr. and Mrs. Quine Hosts Wednesday
Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Quine were hosts at a smart affair Wednesday evening, inviting to their home members of the young married set.

Forming a pretty setting, a motif of yellow, carried out in chrysantheums, was used in the rooms and at a table where six o'clock dinner was served. The guests found diversion in games of bridge, for which Mrs. George Wharton received the ladies' first prize, and Mr. Harold Nichols received gentlemen's first prize. Bidden to the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Gay Cordon, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wharton, Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Wimberly, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. George Wharton, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gulme, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Catching, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Whipple, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Strong and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McElhinny.

Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Graybill and family leave Sunday for Seattle, where they will remain visiting until the Christmas holidays.

Mrs. McKinney Honored at Tea
Lovely chrysantheums, in the late fall hues, decorated the apartments of Mrs. Harrie W. Booth, when she complimented Mrs. Ivan B. McKinney, of Portland, at a tea on Saturday afternoon of last week. The hostess was assisted by Miss Vera Frederickson.

Mrs. McKinney, nee Tekla Haynes, whose marriage was an event of the spring, was a guest during the week at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Fred Haynes. Bidden to greet Mrs. McKinney were Mrs. Grant Osborne, Mrs. Harrie Thorne, Miss Eva Rice, Miss Lena Baumgartner, Miss Verma Kohlhagen, Miss Vera Frederickson, Miss Helen Casey.

Mrs. Starmer Hostess on Friday
On Friday afternoon, Mrs. Sam Starmer was hostess at her home on Winchester street, having as guests the members of the Northside Sunshine club and a few additional guests.

The rooms were brightened with potted plants and chrysantheums and carnations were arranged in vases. The ladies sewed and chatted, and made plans for their Christmas charity work. At the tea hour the hostess served a two-course luncheon at small tables. Guests for the day were the Mesdames Homer Kronke, L. F. Starmer, G. U. Helbig, C. S. Nicholson, Miss Jennie Barker and members of the Mesdames R. E. Harness, P. S. Regester, Ed Marsters, R. Marsters, L. E. Goodman, Fred Bowen, E. P. Ballou, R. Cavender, M. Colby, Wm. Fisher, B. S. Nichols, George Marsters, J. M. Hartley and L. S. Ingles.

Fullerton P. T. A. to Meet Tuesday
On Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock, the Fullerton P. T. A. will hold their regular business meeting, and following, an interesting program will be presented.

The program will include several special music selections, and Mrs. Mabel Church will talk on "Glimpses of Home Life." At this time also, Miss Ruth Steney, who was a delegate to the state convention of the association, will give a report of the things done at the different sessions.

Mooseheart Legion Entertains Wives
Complimenting their wives, the Mooseheart Legion members had a card party and dance at the Moose hall Thursday evening.

During the first part of the evening several tables of progressive five hundred were in play. Mrs. Chas. Healy received ladies' first prize, and W. F. Wetherall received men's first prize. Later dancing was enjoyed, for which music was furnished by the high school orchestra. Following the dancing the members and guests went to the Grand Grill, where they enjoyed a chicken dinner.

Mrs. Sellick Hostess to Club on Friday
Mrs. S. G. Sellick was a charming hostess Friday to the bridge and Luncheon Club, inviting the members and an added guest to her home.

One o'clock luncheon preceding the afternoon's diversion, was served at one table covered with chrysantheums, and a motif of yellow was attractively carried out in the place cards. Receiving first prize at bridge was Mrs. A. J. Hochradel.

Bidden to the affair were the Mesdames Clair K. Allen, Hiram West, Irvin Brun, A. J. Hochradel, C. B. Wade, Fred Schwan, E. R. Thurber and an added guest was Mrs. K. L. Whipple.

Camp Fire Girls to Sing Christmas Carols
The four groups of Camp Fire Girls organizations have been practicing at the high school each evening under the direction of Miss Hazel Goodwin, music supervisor in the schools, and on Christmas Eve will sing Christmas carols under the community tree which will be again placed at the intersection of Jackson and Cass streets by the Umpqua Chrysantheum.

There are between sixty and seventy-five girls who are preparing to sing the carols, and it is planned, that if any requests are received by the organization to sing at private homes on that evening, following the celebration around the tree, the girls will do so.

Following the regular practice period at high school, the Umpqua group held a brief session Tuesday afternoon, and planned for their Christmas work among the poor. The girls this year will make up boxes and baskets for poor children to be delivered at needy homes.

The freshman group of Camp Fire Girls, which was just recently organized, had their third meeting at the home of Mrs. J. M. Judd on Friday afternoon, and the group at this session decided on a Christmas party to be given near the holiday season.

Woman's Club Has Most Interesting Session

The Roseburg Woman's Club met in regular session last Tuesday afternoon at the Moore Hall, the president, Mrs. J. C. Fonsler, presiding.

The main business during the session was the discussion of the sale of Christmas seals, which the club had been asked to open Wednesday. Mrs. W. S. Jost was appointed general chairman of the sale, and committees were appointed both to visit the business houses and take charge of the sale booths in the banks, post office and other public places in the city.

Following the first day other organizations took charge of the work.

Mrs. Fonsler reported a satisfactory sum realized from the dinner served by the club on November 17, to the auxiliary of the B. of R. T. It was decided at this time to accept the invitation of the Chamber of Commerce to take charge of the banquet to be given by that organization on December 14.

The program committee, including Mrs. Albert Minturn, Mrs. Matthew Campbell and Mrs. W. W. Ashcraft, presented a most interesting program on public welfare. Senator Eddy had been asked to speak on the community chest drive, and he gave a splendid summary of the plans and aims of the committee. Mrs. Jost spoke briefly of the Christmas seal sale.

Mrs. Ellen Post, county health nurse, explained fully the work of the National Tuberculosis Association, and the significance of the double barred cross which always appears on the seals. She brought with her many samples of literature on health measures, published for distribution to school children.

Mrs. Albert Minturn read an especially fine paper on the child welfare amendment, written by Julia Spooner, of the Portland school. Two delightful musical numbers were rendered by Miss Grace Wickham, accompanied by Mrs. Arthur Hume, and by Mrs. Lyman Spencer, accompanied by Mrs. C. S. Heinline.

At the close of the program, a social hour was enjoyed at the tea tables, hostesses for which were the Mesdames W. O. Clinger, Milton Church, R. B. Compton, G. F. Frear, Walter Good, C. S. Heinline, and Fred Hruby.

The next meeting of the club will be the Christmas party, December 15. Instead of the usual exchange of small gifts, it was decided that each member would bring a small gift for the new club house.

W. C. T. U. Meets at Mrs. Kohlhagen's
Mrs. Louts Kohlhagen was a pleasant hostess on Wednesday inviting to her home for the afternoon the members of the W. C. T. U.

The meeting was opened by the vice president, Mrs. Boles. Mrs. J. I. Nettles led the rotations. Mrs. Foster Butler, chairman of the Y. M. C. A. movement in this city, told of investigation of organization W. M. C. A., and of interviews she had had with prominent business men in regard to the possibilities of having the organization.

The first national convention of the W. C. T. U. was held in Cleveland, Ohio, August, 1874, and Frances Willard was its first president. Shortly afterward Miss Willard moved to Oregon, where a branch of the organization was instituted. Mrs. A. C. Marsters was the first president, and is still the county president.

Rev. Joseph Knotts gave an interesting talk on "What Will I Do Years From Now See in Our Work?"

Woman's Club to Sponsor Dance
The Roseburg Woman's Club are making preparations for a Christmas dance, to be sponsored by them near the middle of December, at the armory.

Committees are already making plans and completing them, and Mrs. W. S. Jost will be the general chairman of the dance. The ladies plan to have the hall decorated in evergreens and holly in keeping with the Christmas spirit and candy dances will be a feature of the evening. A punch booth will be provided over in one corner, by a row of the ladies.

Rose P. T. A. to Have Interesting Meeting
The regular monthly meeting of the Rose school will be held at the senior building next Monday night, beginning promptly at 7:30. The meeting this month, in the nature of a holiday program, is in charge of Mrs. Arline Parleigh, and the purpose is to show the exact conditions of this particular school.

Besides several musical numbers, a number of topics will be taken up, among them, "The lunch room at Rose school," by Dr. Shoemaker. "The lunch room, as it could be at Rose school," by Mrs. Josephine Jones, county nurse. Practical improvement of Rose school from a health standpoint," by Mrs. Carl B. Neal; a play "Seven Keys" by pupils of the fifth and sixth grades of Rose school.

This health program will not only be interesting, but will be enlightening as well, to many who are not familiar with school conditions or the daily environment of their children.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. French spent last weekend at their summer cottage at Bandon.

Mrs. Pinkerton Hostess Thanksgiving

One of the enjoyable Thanksgiving dinners had as hostess Mrs. J. M. Pinkerton, of South Deer Creek, when she invited a number of friends to her home on the holiday.

Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Bodie, Mr. and Mrs. John Pinkerton, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Pinkerton, Misses Marion Nichols, Florence Wimberly, Lucy Pinkerton, Vera Pinkerton, Helen Pinkerton, Alene Pinkerton, Nadine Pinkerton, Mr. E. V. Vineyard, and Mrs. Pinkerton. The vocal solos and instrumental music by Miss Nichols and Miss Wimberly were additions to the enjoyable time following dinner.

Club Spends Pleasant Evening at Sellick Home
Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Sellick were hosts on Tuesday evening at their home, inviting as guests the members of the Northside Five Hundred Club.

Baskets and vases of chrysantheums decorated the attractive rooms and several tables were placed for five hundred. Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Wimberly received the family prize. Following the game, Mrs. Sellick served a dainty luncheon to Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Whipple, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Brun, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wendell Wright, Mr. and Mrs. D. Lennox, Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Wimberly, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Hartley, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Crocker, and Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Church.

Mrs. West Is Bridge Hostess
At one of the smart bridge parties of the week Mrs. Birney West was hostess, having a group of popular matrons to her home on Monday afternoon.

Chrysantheums and candles formed a pretty setting where several tables of bridge were played for the afternoon's diversion. Mrs. Fred Schwartz received first prize and Mrs. W. G. Jurt received second prize. Following the game the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Clair K. Allen, served luncheon. Bidden to the affair were the Mesdames A. J. Hochradel, W. G. Jurt, R. E. Gedney, A. F. Rice, Fred Schwartz, J. H. Lee, S. N. Young, E. R. Thurber, J. E. Love, W. F. Harris, M. S. Allen, J. C. Fonsler, S. G. Sellick, B. C. Zigler, H. D. Harris and W. S. Jost.

Thimble Club Entertained Friday Afternoon
Inviting the members of the Thimble Club to her home on 1057 Flint street, Mrs. Z. Sptulski was hostess on Friday afternoon. Late tea hours decorated the rooms, where the ladies chatted and sewed.

At the tea hour the hostess, assisted by Mrs. M. Pearce served luncheon. Enjoying the afternoon were the Mesdames E. A. McGrew, M. Sall, C. P. Brown, M. Pearce, O. Troxel, Chas. Reidel, F. Reidel, J. Frey, P. J. Hohl, E. Troxel, C. Cook, Ben Morgan, Levens, Thayer, Wheeler, Fredrickson, Gail, James, Dowell, Butler, Brower, Britt, Westcott, Crosby, Burroughs and Wood.

Winston Home Scene of Gay Affair
The W. C. Winston home was the scene of a gay affair which marked the week's social events, when Mr. and Mrs. Winston were host Wednesday evening to the members of the Merry-Go-Round Club, their husbands, and family.

In the attractive rooms, decorated with vari-colored chrysantheums in baskets and tall vases, the guests played cards, and music and conversation were diversions of the evening.

Later a two course supper was served. Enjoying the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Winston were Mr. and Mrs. Clay Smith, Mr. and Mrs. George J. Bacher, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Carnes, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Renner, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Skinner, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Winston, and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Falbe, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Spauld and family, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Eastman and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Winston, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Green, Dr. and Mrs. George Bradburn, Mrs. Colby Adams, of Oakland, Misses Elizabeth Renner, Helen Bacher, Norma Winston, Dorothy Winston, and Messrs Lyman Skinner and Earl Smith.

Garland Iles Celebrates Birthday Anniversary
The fourteenth birthday anniversary of Garland Iles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Storey Iles, was observed on Friday evening by a dinner party at his home.

Christmas colors of red and green gave the rooms a festive appearance. At the table a small Christmas tree attractively decorated was used as a centerpiece. Small red baskets were used as favors and caps were placed at each cover for the guests. Following dinner the guests played games and for a time dancing was the diversion.

The invited guests were: Katherine Crocker, Evelyn Cummings, Charlotte Crocker, Marjorie Knight, Gwendolyn Scott, Richard Maddox, Carl Stevens, John Hinton, Derward Johnson, Loren Johnson and Carl Neale.

Mrs. Walter Good was hostess at an informal afternoon Thursday having a small group of friends in a centerpiece of chrysantheums. Spending the afternoon were the Mesdames W. S. Jost, H. D. Harris, and J. C. Fonsler.

Chamber of Commerce Banquet December 14
The annual banquet of the Chamber of Commerce will be held this year on Monday evening, December 14, to which the wives of the members will be invited guests.

The place of the banquet has not been decided as yet. Antler, secretary of the local chamber of Commerce has written to Mr. Jacdine, of the O. A. C. Extension Service, with an invitation to be present at the banquet, and he will be the principal speaker of the evening. At this time the annual election of the board of directors will be held and the annual report read. The house committee will have charge of the selling of tickets.

This year the Roseburg Woman's Club has taken over the preparation and serving of the banquet and the committee which will preside over the preparation of dinner will be composed of Mrs. Hans Lust, Mrs. W. O. Clinger, Mrs. H. D. Harris, Mrs. Paul Huber, Mrs. Washington Hughes, Mrs. D. H. Morgan, Mrs. Foster Butler, Mrs. H. K. Nerbas, Mrs. J. C. Fonsler. The committee serving in the dining room will consist of Mrs. A. S. McKenzie, Mrs. H. E. Coleman, Mrs. W. G. Jurt, Mrs. F. R. Duag, Mrs. H. C. Church, Mrs. Birney West, Mrs. R. B. Compton, and Mrs. A. Micell.

Winston Home Scene of Gay Affair

The W. C. Winston home was the scene of a gay affair which marked the week's social events, when Mr. and Mrs. Winston were host Wednesday evening to the members of the Merry-Go-Round Club, their husbands, and family.

In the attractive rooms, decorated with vari-colored chrysantheums in baskets and tall vases, the guests played cards, and music and conversation were diversions of the evening.

Later a two course supper was served. Enjoying the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Winston were Mr. and Mrs. Clay Smith, Mr. and Mrs. George J. Bacher, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Carnes, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Renner, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Skinner, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Winston, and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Falbe, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Spauld and family, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Eastman and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Winston, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Green, Dr. and Mrs. George Bradburn, Mrs. Colby Adams, of Oakland, Misses Elizabeth Renner, Helen Bacher, Norma Winston, Dorothy Winston, and Messrs Lyman Skinner and Earl Smith.

Garland Iles Celebrates Birthday Anniversary
The fourteenth birthday anniversary of Garland Iles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Storey Iles, was observed on Friday evening by a dinner party at his home.

Christmas colors of red and green gave the rooms a festive appearance. At the table a small Christmas tree attractively decorated was used as a centerpiece. Small red baskets were used as favors and caps were placed at each cover for the guests. Following dinner the guests played games and for a time dancing was the diversion.

The invited guests were: Katherine Crocker, Evelyn Cummings, Charlotte Crocker, Marjorie Knight, Gwendolyn Scott, Richard Maddox, Carl Stevens, John Hinton, Derward Johnson, Loren Johnson and Carl Neale.

Mrs. Walter Good was hostess at an informal afternoon Thursday having a small group of friends in a centerpiece of chrysantheums. Spending the afternoon were the Mesdames W. S. Jost, H. D. Harris, and J. C. Fonsler.

Chamber of Commerce Banquet December 14
The annual banquet of the Chamber of Commerce will be held this year on Monday evening, December 14, to which the wives of the members will be invited guests.

The place of the banquet has not been decided as yet. Antler, secretary of the local chamber of Commerce has written to Mr. Jacdine, of the O. A. C. Extension Service, with an invitation to be present at the banquet, and he will be the principal speaker of the evening. At this time the annual election of the board of directors will be held and the annual report read. The house committee will have charge of the selling of tickets.

This year the Roseburg Woman's Club has taken over the preparation and serving of the banquet and the committee which will preside over the preparation of dinner will be composed of Mrs. Hans Lust, Mrs. W. O. Clinger, Mrs. H. D. Harris, Mrs. Paul Huber, Mrs. Washington Hughes, Mrs. D. H. Morgan, Mrs. Foster Butler, Mrs. H. K. Nerbas, Mrs. J. C. Fonsler. The committee serving in the dining room will consist of Mrs. A. S. McKenzie, Mrs. H. E. Coleman, Mrs. W. G. Jurt, Mrs. F. R. Duag, Mrs. H. C. Church, Mrs. Birney West, Mrs. R. B. Compton, and Mrs. A. Micell.

Everyone Buying Christmas Seals
It has often been said that familiarity breeds indifference, and this has been true many years previous, of the Christmas seal campaign. Last year it started each year about two or three weeks before Christmas, and seems as much a part of that season as the merry yuletide tunes, which is seen in almost every book, magazine, paper and in the store windows where Christmas goods are on display preceding the day when he visits the country.

However, during the past few years the public has been responsive, enthusiastically and especially this year have the organizations in charge of the sale received good results. Excellent results have been received from the rural schools, and the Redemptorist and Smith River schools are far ahead of their quota.

The quota this year for Douglas county is 1500, and it is expected that at least half of this will be raised in Roseburg.

The seals are sent out each year by the Tuberculosis Association to every county in Oregon, and again this year the Roseburg Woman's Club sponsored the sale, having charge of it on the opening day, Wednesday. Various organizations of the city have had charge of it this week. On Thursday the Presbyterian Ladies Aid; on Friday the South Methodist Ladies Aid. Today the Camp Fire Girls organization are taking charge of the booths in the city and are selling the seals. Monday, beginning another week of the campaign, the Catholic ladies will have charge of the sales; Tuesday the Salvation Army; on Wednesday the Methodist Ladies Aid will preside at the booths; Thursday seals may be had from the St. George's Guild; the ladies of the Baptist Aid church will sell at the booths on Friday.

The single flower or bouquet which decorates the coat or wrap has a decided tendency to follow the floral season. Now that the frost is on the pumpkin the shaggy chrysantheum or colorful dahlia is best suited to the daytime ensemble.

The little accessories which add the final clue to the costume are as important in their relation to the ensemble as they are in themselves. The field flowers that bloomed on the spring coast are the appropriate for the fur coat that marches gaily to the football game. The colorful appeal of the shaggy fall flower is unsuited to the formal evening mode, and the delicate tint of the orchid or camellia is appropriately used after dusk.

Each flower, beautiful in itself has its moment of correct appeal. Colleen Moore is seen wearing the decoration in her new First National release, "Wa Modama."

Winston Home Scene of Gay Affair

The W. C. Winston home was the scene of a gay affair which marked the week's social events, when Mr. and Mrs. Winston were host Wednesday evening to the members of the Merry-Go-Round Club, their husbands, and family.

In the attractive rooms, decorated with vari-colored chrysantheums in baskets and tall vases, the guests played cards, and music and conversation were diversions of the evening.

Later a two course supper was served. Enjoying the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Winston were Mr. and Mrs. Clay Smith, Mr. and Mrs. George J. Bacher, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Carnes, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Renner, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Skinner, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Winston, and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Falbe, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Spauld and family, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Eastman and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Winston, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Green, Dr. and Mrs. George Bradburn, Mrs. Colby Adams, of Oakland, Misses Elizabeth Renner, Helen Bacher, Norma Winston, Dorothy Winston, and Messrs Lyman Skinner and Earl Smith.

Garland Iles Celebrates Birthday Anniversary
The fourteenth birthday anniversary of Garland Iles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Storey Iles, was observed on Friday evening by a dinner party at his home.

Christmas colors of red and green gave the rooms a festive appearance. At the table a small Christmas tree attractively decorated was used as a centerpiece. Small red baskets were used as favors and caps were placed at each cover for the guests. Following dinner the guests played games and for a time dancing was the diversion.

The invited guests were: Katherine Crocker, Evelyn Cummings, Charlotte Crocker, Marjorie Knight, Gwendolyn Scott, Richard Maddox, Carl Stevens, John Hinton, Derward Johnson, Loren Johnson and Carl Neale.

Mrs. Walter Good was hostess at an informal afternoon Thursday having a small group of friends in a centerpiece of chrysantheums. Spending the afternoon were the Mesdames W. S. Jost, H. D. Harris, and J. C. Fonsler.

Chamber of Commerce Banquet December 14
The annual banquet of the Chamber of Commerce will be held this year on Monday evening, December 14, to which the wives of the members will be invited guests.

The place of the banquet has not been decided as yet. Antler, secretary of the local chamber of Commerce has written to Mr. Jacdine, of the O. A. C. Extension Service, with an invitation to be present at the banquet, and he will be the principal speaker of the evening. At this time the annual election of the board of directors will be held and the annual report read. The house committee will have charge of the selling of tickets.

This year the Roseburg Woman's Club has taken over the preparation and serving of the banquet and the committee which will preside over the preparation of dinner will be composed of Mrs. Hans Lust, Mrs. W. O. Clinger, Mrs. H. D. Harris, Mrs. Paul Huber, Mrs. Washington Hughes, Mrs. D. H. Morgan, Mrs. Foster Butler, Mrs. H. K. Nerbas, Mrs. J. C. Fonsler. The committee serving in the dining room will consist of Mrs. A. S. McKenzie, Mrs. H. E. Coleman, Mrs. W. G. Jurt, Mrs. F. R. Duag, Mrs. H. C. Church, Mrs. Birney West, Mrs. R. B. Compton, and Mrs. A. Micell.

Everyone Buying Christmas Seals
It has often been said that familiarity breeds indifference, and this has been true many years previous, of the Christmas seal campaign. Last year it started each year about two or three weeks before Christmas, and seems as much a part of that season as the merry yuletide tunes, which is seen in almost every book, magazine, paper and in the store windows where Christmas goods are on display preceding the day when he visits the country.

However, during the past few years the public has been responsive, enthusiastically and especially this year have the organizations in charge of the sale received good results. Excellent results have been received from the rural schools, and the Redemptorist and Smith River schools are far ahead of their quota.

The quota this year for Douglas county is 1500, and it is expected that at least half of this will be raised in Roseburg.

The seals are sent out each year by the Tuberculosis Association to every county in Oregon, and again this year the Roseburg Woman's Club sponsored the sale, having charge of it on the opening day, Wednesday. Various organizations of the city have had charge of it this week. On Thursday the Presbyterian Ladies Aid; on Friday the South Methodist Ladies Aid. Today the Camp Fire Girls organization are taking charge of the booths in the city and are selling the seals. Monday, beginning another week of the campaign, the Catholic ladies will have charge of the sales; Tuesday the Salvation Army; on Wednesday the Methodist Ladies Aid will preside at the booths; Thursday seals may be had from the St. George's Guild; the ladies of the Baptist Aid church will sell at the booths on Friday.

The single flower or bouquet which decorates the coat or wrap has a decided tendency to follow the floral season. Now that the frost is on the pumpkin the shaggy chrysantheum or colorful dahlia is best suited to the daytime ensemble.

The little accessories which add the final clue to the costume are as important in their relation to the ensemble as they are in themselves. The field flowers that bloomed on the spring coast are the appropriate for the fur coat that marches gaily to the football game. The colorful appeal of the shaggy fall flower is unsuited to the formal evening mode, and the delicate tint of the orchid or camellia is appropriately used after dusk.

Each flower, beautiful in itself has its moment of correct appeal. Colleen Moore is seen wearing the decoration in her new First National release, "Wa Modama."

Rose Dining Room

Special Sunday Dinner, $1.00

4:30 p. m. to 8 p. m.

Eastern Star Has Election of Officers
At the regular meeting of the Eastern Star lodge Thursday evening, the yearly election of officers was held, and following, a few impromptu speeches were given. Installation will be held at the next meeting. Officers elected for the year are: Worthy Matron, Mrs. Ethel Burt; Associate Matron, Myrtle Bond; Worthy Patron, Warren Burt; secretary, Free Johnson; treasurer, Crystal Jacobs; conductress, Ethel Webb; associate conductress, Mrs. Effie Morgan.

Miss Lillian Flint, former Roseburg girl is here from Portland, and a popular visitor. Miss Flint will remain here for several days as the guest of friends.

New Idea Club Entertained at Luncheon
A one o'clock luncheon at the home of Mrs. F. L. Calkins entertained the members of the New Idea Club of Edenhower on Wednesday afternoon.

Yellow and white, carried out in the season's chrysantheums, formed a pretty centerpiece at the table, and the same color was used about the rooms, where later the guests sewed and chatted. Present were the Mesdames F. A. Calkins, E. P. Ballou, J. H. Porter, F. A. Stewart, R. H. Williams, C. P. Calkins, Paul Beaver, C. B. Calkins, F. H. Appelhoff, T. S. Sprague and Poole.

Miss Eva Rice, of this city, is spending the weekend in Cottage Grove visiting with friends.

Tickets for Moroni Olson Play on Sale
Tickets for "The Ship," the St. John Irvine play which the Moroni Olson Players will present in Roseburg December 10, have been going very fast since the sale was started a few days ago by the members of the Roseburg Business and Professional Woman's Club. Tickets have also been placed at McKean, Darby and Baldwin's furniture store, Storey Hess confectionery, and at Crocker's Drug store, where they may be purchased by anyone desiring them.

It has been said that a play may be recreation, adventure, lesson, or inspiration, but that "The Ship" encompasses all of those and much more. It is unusual that so much of life is embodied in the several acts of one play. Two very interesting things are discussed in "The Ship," two things that would make the play interesting and worthwhile of themselves. Because it means so different a thing to them men and women will never agree about marriage, John Thurlow, in "The Ship" says "Marriage makes young men timid and careful, just when their adventurous quality is most useful." Moroni Olson as John Thurlow, gives the reason. Thurlow married at forty. Another of the characters says "That's the chief thing, isn't it, to get your desire even when it disappoints you?" "The Ship" brings tears of laughter as well as tears of pathos, it is everything, even life itself, within the confines of one day.

Return to East—
Mr. and Mrs. M. Hoberger and son, who have been spending the past month here visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hildenreich, have returned to their home in St. Paul, Minnesota. They were well impressed with Oregon while here and found the climate very agreeable. They plan, that if they can suitably dispose of their property in the east, to return here and locate.

St. George's Church—Church school convocations regularly every Sunday at 9:45 a. m. in the Parish house, 214 East Cass street. All scholars are urged to be present.

First Church of Christ, Scientist, Regular services are held Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. This meeting included testimonial of healing. Sunday school convocations each Sunday morning at 9:15. All pupils from the age of 4 to 20 years may be admitted. The reading