

ROCKY KANSAS IS LIGHTWEIGHT KING, BEATING GOODRICH

(Associated Press Licensed Wire.)
BUFFALO, N. Y., Dec. 8.—The veteran Rocky Kansas of Buffalo, today is the new lightweight champion of the world. He won the judges' decision in a thrilling fifteen-round battle with Jimmy Goodrich, also of Buffalo, last night while spectators cheered in admiration of the stamina and skill of the man whom many regarded as a "has been."

Kansas has had a hard climb in his quest for championship honors. Three times he met the great Benny Leonard and tried to wrest the championship and three times he failed. But when Leonard retired and through a series of elimination contests Goodrich was chosen in his place last July, the rugged Kansas again saw visions of winning the coveted title.

Spectators witnessed his rushing attack in the first half of the battle with a feeling that he could not keep it up. But Kansas refused to weaken. Although the young stalwart Goodrich opened up a furious attack in the closing rounds, the challenger refused to take the defensive. Repeatedly he slid his wicked lefts through Goodrich's defense to open up big cuts about the eyes.

Blinded by blood, Goodrich battered furiously at the body of the veteran challenger. Kansas fought back and staved off defeat.

The judges, who deliberated under the new round-by-round rule of the state boxing commission, ruled that the challenger had won the most rounds.

ROYALTY WEARING 1924 DUDS; STYLE CREATORS GLOOMY

(Associated Press Licensed Wire.)
LONDON, Dec. 8.—Styles for men of London which for many years have been what Edward, prince of Wales, decided to wear, at present are showing a little independence. The leading haberdashers of the west end had waited after the prince returned home from his South African and South American tour for some new novelty in cloths to show their customers. In this they have been disappointed.

The prince has worn nothing new. He still sticks to the cloths which he had before he left on his trip. The designers kept a watchful eye for the prince's appearance in a winter coat in the hope of something new. The royal heir, however, is wearing last year's model.

Of necessity the haberdashers have banded together and hired designers to bring out some new styles and patterns independent of the prince. King George, the Duke of York and Prince Henry all dress much too conservatively to give birth to any popular styles.

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—Paint your cheeks from the inside out, is the advice given Bernard College girls in a health exhibit now on display in one of the student halls. Tennis racquets, swimming suits and other athletic paraphernalia is displayed as a hint on how to go about it.

One exhibit is labelled "antiques" and shows a heavy corset, a petticoat, heavy underwear and a hair switch. There is also an exhibition of what food Miss Too Fat, Miss Too Thin and Miss Just Lite should eat.

AGED FIDDLER, ON WAY TO FORD, GETS POPULAR ACCLAIM

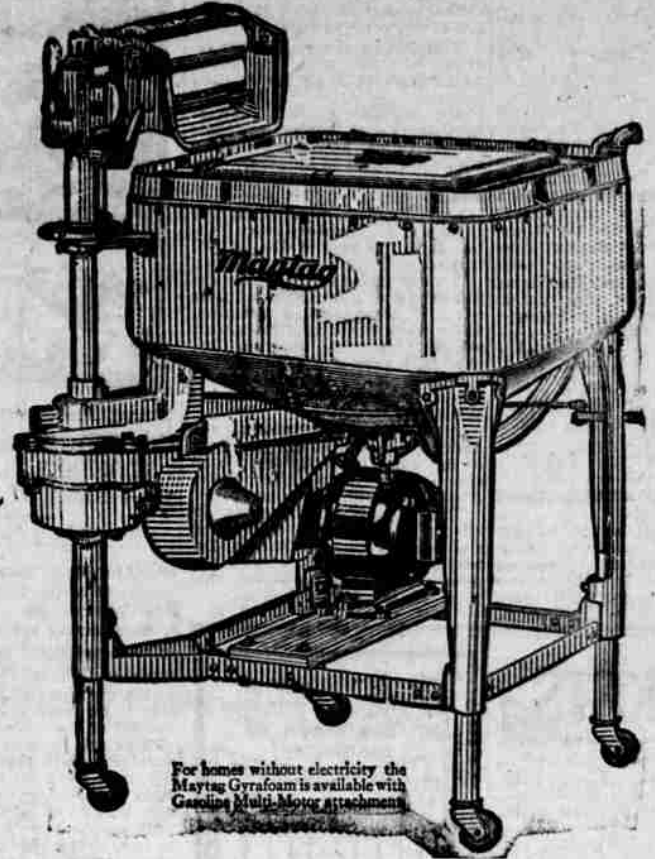

(Associated Press Licensed Wire.)
MONTREAL, Dec. 8.—"Grandpa" Melie Dunham, Maine's champion fiddler and "Grandma" Dunham are well on their way to Detroit, where "Grandpa" will saw out his melodies for the pleasure of Henry Ford.

Dressed in khaki shirt, a woodman's coat with a sheep skin collar and a sheep skin cap, Mr. Dunham, with his streaming white hair, long moustache and rosy complexion and his wife, Emma, he calls her, went aboard the train here late last night after having been honored by the people of the city.

The coming of the picturesque Maine couple was an affair of importance. They were escorted on a sight seeing tour of the city. It was the first time the couple had ever seen a large city. "It was elegant" observed "Melie."
