ANNOUNCEMENT!

We regret that the rush of Christmas business and lack of space resulting therefrom, makes it impossible for us to go ahead with plans for this year's

DOLL SHOW

The dolls already entered will be rewarded—and we wish to thank those who have taken interest. It is only because it is imperative to do so that we call the show off.

COAL STRIKE IS BASIS FOR RAP AT PRESIDENT

(Continued from Page 1.) thractic operators, in the words of John L. Lewis, president of the union. The operators, in his view, are prepared to spend a billion dollars to crush the union. He told the Philadelphia real estate board last night that the union was organizing its defense in the expectation that the struggle would continue until the fall of 1926 or the spring of 1927. Should the strike be prolonged, he said, funds would be provided so that the hungry would be fed and the naked clothed. Anthracite miners have been idle since the contract expired last August. Negotiations for a new contract failed, the miners seeking higher wages and the check-off.
