Christmas with its multitude of shopping and small personal duties, preparation for the family entertainment, of the approach of holiday trips have served to nearly wipe the social calendar clean, and all thought of entertainment is given up during this time by society folk, who must finish a host of last minute gifts.

One of the outstanding events of the holidays will be the Christmas ball on the 25th, which is an annual affair sponsored by the Roseburg Fire Department, and will be closely followed by the New Year's Ball. The younger set will be in the foreground during the week with formal and informal parties for the host of college folk who are already arriving home to spend the holidays.

This evening will be marked by the Christmas dance sponsored by the Roseburg Woman's Club, the proceeds to go to the clubhouse fund. The dance will be at the armory, which has been made very attractive with decorations of evergreen boughs and red bells, and a Christmas tree stands in the center of the hall. The ladies will serve punch throughout the evening and dance music will be by the Swans Serenaders.

Benson P. T. A. Has Business Session

At the last monthly meeting of the Benson Parent-Teachers Association a few minor items of business were taken up, and a number of reports heard.

Heads of committees for the year were appointed, those appointed being: publicity, Mrs. D. Lennox; programs, Miss Bellance Moore; programs, Miss Bellance Moore. The attendance record went to Miss Elnor Sherk's room. Mrs. Stanley Kidder reported the arrival of a number of shrubs and plants for the Benson school grounds. Reports of the Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers were given by those who attended, and a number of interesting discussions were heard. A report of the recent chrysanthemum show, which was a successful event of last month, was given by Mrs. T. B. Vignon.

Mrs. Virden also made a report of the membership drive in which the association endeavored to have every parent of the pupils attending Benson school to become members. In discussing the subject Mrs. Edith Ackert insisted that the Benson P. T. A. would not be perfected until each parent is reached and becomes a member of the association, as the contact established by the entrance of the child in school is not completed until parents make themselves a part of the P. T. A.

Miss Helen Loughary, of Dallas, Oregon, who was a guest of Miss Helen Casey over last week end, has remained for the week at the house guest of Mrs. J. C. Ponsler. She left the latter part of the week for Portland, where she will visit friends over the Christmas holiday. Miss Loughary is one of the superintendents of Ellison-White chautauques, and is a graduate of the University of Oregon, where she was a member of Delta Gamma sorority. During her visit here Miss Loughary was the inspiration of a number of affairs.

Kumjoints Class Has Enjoyable Evening

One of the most enjoyable social events of the Kumjoints Class of the Christian church during the mid-winter months, occurred Tuesday evening when they entertained a large crowd attending. As each guest entered, he was required to pay money, according to his waist measure, the money to go to the church building fund. The program, in charge of Mrs. Elsie Coffell, consisted of radio music and was cleverly carried out. When one of the members of the class sat at a receiving set, with loud speaker, getting music, which came from behind a curtain, and which was supplied by other members of the class. Market reports, orchestra music, songs, recitations and the various things heard over the radio made it seem very real. Later stunts were enjoyed and refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Marsters Informal Dinner Hosts

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Marsters entertained informally at dinner Tuesday evening at six o'clock, having as guests a group of intimate friends.

Covers were placed for Miss Myth Henderson, Richard Hornoy, David Ohtman, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Paine, Mr. and Mrs. George Marsters and Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Marsters. Following dinner the guests enjoyed music and cards.

Hughes-Smith Nuptials Monday Afternoon

At a very quiet wedding ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Davis in North Roseburg, Miss Claire Smith, of Riddle and Mr. Grover Hughes, of Klamath Falls were united in marriage at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon.

Decorations of chrysanthemums, potted fern and holly formed a pretty setting for the ceremony which was read by Rev. W. S. Oberly among only close friends and relatives. The bride was charming in a blue tulle model suit, and was attended by her sister, Mrs. Lyle Davis. Mr. Davis was best man. A buffet luncheon followed the ceremony, after which the couple were escorted to the train by a group of friends, showing them with rice.

Their honeymoon trip will include visits to southern California points and Texas, following which they will reside in Klamath Falls, where Mr. Hughes is employed by the Southern Pacific company. Mrs. Hughes is the daughter of Mrs. M. Smith, of Riddle, and a popular young lady, who is well known in this city, having visited here a number of times.

New Idea Club Spends Enjoyable Evening

The New Idea Club of Edenbow met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. A. Clemens on Pitzer street. At the one o'clock luncheon covers were placed for Mesdames F. A. Stewart, E. P. Ballou, T. S. Sprague, R. H. W. Williams, C. F. Calkins, C. E. Marks, H. A. Calkins, F. L. Calkins, R. Meade Cooley, Paul Beaver, F. H. Appelhoff, J. H. Porter, and one guest Mrs. Chandler.

After luncheon business of the club was taken up which consisted of arranging for several boxes of Christmas cheer for needy or afflicted families. All the members responded to this call heartily and a vote of thanks was drawn up to be sent to Mrs. S. D. Cooley for a donation of several dollars in money which she had sent from her home in Salem to be used by the club for Christmas needs for some good cause. The ladies chatted and enjoyed two fine readings by Mrs. F. A. Stewart.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis Hosts at Dinner

On Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Davis were hosts at dinner at their home in North Roseburg, complimenting Miss Clair Smith, and Mr. Grover Hughes, whose marriage was an event of Monday afternoon.

Miss Edman Entertains Group of Friends

Miss Edith Edman was a charming hostess on Friday inviting a group of intimate friends to her home for the evening. Cards and conversation occupied the guests for a time, and later they enjoyed radio music. Later the hostess served luncheon. Spending the evening were Misses Edith Miller, Elvan Strader, Ellen Landers, and Messrs. Raymond Hewitt, Joe Bell, Wm. Edwards, and Rudolph Edman.

Birthday Circle Honors Four Members

The Jolly Times Birthday Circle had a pleasant time, when on Tuesday the members met at the home of Mrs. Wm. McGee on 3227 Harvard Avenue, honoring four of the members whose birthday anniversaries occur in December, Mrs. McGee, Mrs. V. Campbell, Mrs. Harry Rice and Mrs. Mae Shoemaker.

Concert by Band Was Fine Event

The concert given at the Antlers theater last week by the Douglas County Concert Band, under the direction of Fred Appelhoff, was one of the finest ever heard in Roseburg. The band has shown wonderful improvement under the leadership of Mr. Appelhoff. The concert program as presented was varied and entertaining both to the lovers of classical and popular music. It is the intention of the band to give another similar concert in the near future. With the coming of the summer season the band will be in the shape to give the weekly concerts at the bandstand.

Miss Furlong Weds Here Wednesday

At a very simple but impressive ceremony at St. Joseph's Catholic church, Miss Susan Furlong, of Milwau, became the bride of Mr. John Howell, of Danks, Oregon, Wednesday.

The bride was attended by Miss Edna Bechler, and Harry Rip, of this city was best man. The ceremony was read by Rev. Father B. Clery and was witnessed by only close friends and relatives. Immediately following, the couple left by auto for Banks, where Mr. Howell is a prosperous farmer, and they will make their home.

Mrs. Effie Marsters left this week for Salem and Portland, where she will spend the holidays with her niece, and daughter, Mrs. Lane Morley.

Lodge and Auxiliary Have Party Tuesday

The order of Railway Conductors and the Ladies Auxiliary enjoyed a six o'clock dinner on Tuesday of this week. The affair was in the form of a Christmas party, an exchange of gifts being made. The hall was attractively decorated with evergreen boughs and bright colors, and the party was one of the most enjoyable of the year.

Following dinner each order went to the lodge rooms, and the auxiliary installed the officers for the ensuing year. Those who were installed were Emma Jost, president; Viola Thurston, vice president; Cloy Collins, secretary-treasurer; Clara Bonebrake, Pansy Allison and Mona Allen, members of the executive committee; Jennie Trypan, senior sister; Esther Dunlap, junior sister; Flossie Virden, correspondent; Lulu Adams, musician; Elizabeth Conroy, guard. Myrtle Beyers acted as installing officer, and was assisted by Clara Bonebrake.

Eastern Star Lodge Has Installation

On Thursday evening the installation of officers was held at the Eastern Star lodge. Those installed were Ethel Burt, W. M.; Warren Burt, W. P.; Myrtle Bond, A. M.; Fred Johnson, secretary; Crystal Jacobs, treasurer; Ethel Webb, Conductress; Effie Morgan, associate conductress; Frances Lindott, organist; Maude Plyler, chaplain; Ethel McKenzie, marshal; Alda Williams, warden; J. H. Bernier, sentinel.

Following installation a short program was enjoyed, and Miss Hazel Goodwin gave a delightful song. A social time and banquet followed the group during the rest of the evening.

Mrs. Byrd Entertains Club Wednesday

Mrs. Byrd entertained the Roseburg Art and Embroidery club at her home on Wednesday, at which time the members had their annual Christmas tree.

The important business transacted was that of electing officers for the new year, those receiving ofices being Mrs. Will Carstens, president; Mrs. Snyder, vice president; Mrs. Joan Hicks, secretary. A beautiful Christmas tree had been decorated in bright tinsel and red bells, and here gifts were exchanged. Gifts of candy and popcorn were distributed by a Santa for the children. Later luncheon was served the guests. Present were the Mesdames Bloom, Carstens, Decker, Hicks, Morgan, E. Palm, M. Palm, C. Palm, Stephenson, Snyder, Dean, E. Rhoades and O. Rhoades.

Junior Play Cast Entertained Thursday

On Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock, Mrs. M. Church and Mr. C. O. Broders, two of the high school faculty, were hosts to the members of the Junior play cast, providing cars, and motoring to the Brand Fruit stand, north of this city. A barbeque of sandwiches and other delicious foods which are being featured at the stand was enjoyed by about seventeen young people.

Observes Birthday Anniversary Thursday

The twelfth birthday anniversary of Master Raymond Tuttle was observed on Thursday evening, when he was host to a group of his young friends, at the Tuttle home on Parrott street.

Interesting games and stunts engaged the attention of the group for a time and later a luncheon was served. Those present were Elizabeth Hardman, Elizabeth Williams, Margaret Jean Arthur, Virginia James, Georgine Skinner, Virginia French, Barbara Jean King, Helen Tuttle, and Donald Field, James Summers, Wilbur Conroy and Floyd Tuttle.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gilbert, of Medford, who formerly made their home in this city, are here for a few days visit with friends, enroute to Portland to spend the holidays.

Christmas Musical Program at Baptist Church Sunday

The annual Christmas musical program of the Baptist church will be held Sunday night, Dec. 20th at 7:30. This church is fortunate in having some of the best musicians in the city. The concert will be given by the choir and orchestra. The choir is directed by Miss Grace Wickham and Mrs. Fred Strang and the orchestra is directed by Mr. Wm. Ott.

The order of the service will be: "Praise God"; invocation; Christmas hymn, by congregation; orchestra music; choir; "Hark the Herald Angels Sing"; choir; "There Were Shepherds," Vincent, solo part by Miss Elizabeth Wilson; solo, "From Heavenly Heights," Gabel, by Miss Doris Price; orchestra music; choir; "Silent Night Holy Night"; vocal duet, "O Holy Night," by Miss Grace Wickham and Miss Gertrude Wickham; orchestra music; choir; "O Little Town of Bethlehem"; vocal solo, by Miss Hazel Goodwin; choir; "Sing Oh Heavens," solo part by Miss Edna Sandblom. Members of the orchestra are Mesdames Lovv and Osborne and Messrs. Ott, Goodman, Germain, Woodruff and members of the choir are Misses Sarah Christiansen, Grace Wickham, Lydia Christiansen, Gertrude Wickham, Zoe Newman, Jean Kromminga, Elizabeth Morris, Elizabeth Wilson, Edna Sandblom, Evelyn Hawn, Bertha Pentney, Jean Whitney, Doris Price, Veritta Kohlhaug, Mesdames Andrew Caraway, Clayton Osborne, Messrs. Chas. McElhinny, Chas. Hopkins, Allen Hewitt, Charles Doerner, John Hatfield, Hugh Whipple and Melton.

Young Married People Have Christmas Party

Evergreen boughs, red bells and tinsel decorated the parlors of the Baptist church, where on Thursday evening the young married people of the church had a Christmas party. In one corner a tree stood decorated with bright ornaments with lights. For a time games and stunts formed the evening's diversion, prizes being offered for the games. Later refreshments were served to about thirty-six young people.

The Pythian Sisters Have Christmas Tree for the Knights and their Families on Wednesday Evening

The Pythian sisters have announced that they will have a Christmas tree for the Knights and their families on Wednesday evening. For each member of the family they will bring a small gift, not exceeding twenty-five cents in value, to exchange at the tree. A good program has been arranged and an interesting and enjoyable evening is being anticipated.

Roseburg Woman's Club Has Christmas Party

The regular open forum of the Roseburg Woman's Club was held Tuesday afternoon in Moose hall, with about seventy-five members in attendance. The first part of the session was given over to business and following the intermission the ladies were favored with a musical recital. Mrs. Ponsler, the president, presided.

Due to the growth of the club and the many changes that have taken place within the organization, it was deemed expedient to revise the constitution. The committee on revision appointed by the president, Mrs. Ponsler, some time ago, presented the revised document at this meeting and the club adopted it by a unanimous vote. An order for five hundred copies will be placed with local printers in the near future.

Satisfactory reports on the proceeds of the rummage sales were on the banquet served to the Chamber of Commerce at the annual business meeting were made by Mrs. Wm. Bell and Mrs. J. C. Ponsler. The club house fund now approximates $1,000.00. A letter from the "Betty Home Movement" was read by the secretary, Mrs. Carl B. Neil, inviting the president, Mrs. Ponsler, to act as chairman of the local work. Mrs. W. S. Jost, chairman of the entertainment committee reported that arrangements were being completed for the Christmas dance Saturday evening, December 19, which the club is sponsoring.

New members joining the organization at this time were Mrs. A. J. Carmen, Mrs. John Thorne, Mrs. F. A. Field and Mrs. A. B. Reed.

Much credit is due the program committee, Mesdames Washington Hughes, H. D. Harris, L. B. Skinner and William Bell for the Christmas cheer and the excellent music which they provided. A large Christmas tree appropriately decorated and lighted greeted the members as they entered the hall. The ceiling was festooned with red and white crepe paper, and evergreen and large Christmas bells added to the holiday atmosphere.

In keeping with the Christmas spirit the members presented many and varied gifts for the club house which is to be erected in the near future.

The musical program was one of the best ever presented before the club. Introductory to the singing of Christmas carols, Mrs. Fred Strang gave an interesting reading on the origin and the composer of the carols. Several fine selections were rendered by Mrs. Young's orchestra of the Helpline studio. Mrs. Charles Brand accompanied the orchestra with two vocal selections, "Out of the Dusk," by Ward Stephens; and with two vocal selections by Mrs. Mayers, "Love Sends Little Gift of Roses," and "The Valley of Laughter," both by Openshaw.

The head hostess, Mrs. Louis Kohlhaug had charge of the social hour, and with the assistance of Mesdames W. S. Jost, John Runyan, M. B. Green, A. H. Perrin and A. C. Marsters and Foster Butser served refreshments. The ladies were treated to popcorn balls which were distributed from the Christmas tree.

This was a very enjoyable Christmas party and the spirit of the afternoon was truly in keeping with Nahum Tate's carol: "All glory be to God on high, And to the earth be peace, Good will henceforth from heaven to men Begin and never cease."

One o'Clock Luncheon at Fisher Home

Small Christmas trees and candles formed the attractive table decorations at the one o'clock luncheon Thursday, for which Mrs. Wm. Fisher and Mrs. M. Colby were hostesses at the home of the former on Winchester street, and to which members of the Northside Sunshine Club and a few added guests were invited.

Elks Christmas Dance Enjoyed Thursday

The Elks Christmas dance on Thursday evening attracted a large crowd of Elks and their families to one of the most enjoyable and successful of their winter affairs. The dance was in charge of the ladies, and the hall was made festive with Christmas trees, tinsel and bells. A good floor and good music combined to make the evening a very successful one. Following a few hours of dancing refreshments were served in the upper parlors. The ladies forming the general committee were Mesdames Ida Dyringer, W. O. Gordon, O. D. McAllister and Clyde Catching. The Swans Serenaders orchestra provided dance music.

Mrs. Hutchings Entertains Club at Christmas Party

One of the pleasant Christmas parties which marked the round of social affairs of the week was that of the Past Noble Grands Club, when Mrs. James Hutchings entertained the members at her home Monday evening. Festive decorations of fir boughs, tinsel, red bells and the red and white crepe paper, and the room a bright appearance and in one corner stood a Christmas tree. The regular business session took place first, and the ladies decided to make garments for the Children's Home in Portland at the beginning of the new year.

The evening was enjoyably spent in conversation and an exchange of gifts was made. Later the hostess served luncheon at small tables. The ladies present were Mesdames W. T. Withers, H. V. T. Jackson, S. M. Kelly, C. H. Rado, F. F. Coffield, J. E. Pickens, C. G. Ferrier, H. F. Hatfield, Wm. Ashcraft, D. H. Morgan, J. M. Trefren, D. Lennox, B. Lewis, Wm. Austin, Henry Ward, O. L. Johnson, Ward Tyler, O. H. Pickens, Miss Mae Fisher. A few visitors were Messrs. W. E. Clingenpeel, Henry Wood, S. M. Kelley and James Hutchings.

THE LAND OF THE UMPQUA.

The following original poem was written by Orpha Collins December 10, 1925. The poem was written from the inspiration received by reading an article by Hon. Elmer Herman, entitled, "Early History of Southern Oregon," which appeared in the "Quarterly of the Oregon Historical Society" of March, 1918. Said article was also an address delivered by Mr. Herman before the annual meeting of the members of the Oregon Historical Society, October 28, 1917.

Not so long ago
Where the Umpqua's waters flow,
Roamed the Indian all alone,
And the land was then his own.

Down beside the shady stream,
Or beneath the pale moon beam,
Stalwart brave with earnest mien,
Kept his tryst and lived serene.

Agas passed, the pleasant land
Yielded fruit on every hand,
Streams were full of fish for food,
Wild deer broke the solitude.

Then, the Umpqua tribe must go,
While men wandering to and fro,
Traders, hunters, seeking gold,
Saw the land and claimed it bold.

Rural Teachers' Club Has Splendid Meeting

A splendid meeting of the Rural Teachers' Club of Douglas county was held Saturday afternoon of last week at the county superintendent's office.

Miss Retta Meredith displayed a large number of useful types of handwork made by the pupils of her school. Miss Tjomaland presented the greatest variety of handwork, the most noteworthy being an individual book, made by each pupil, containing the best work of the month, and having illustrations made by the pupil. Very attractive Christmas posters were put on display by Mrs. Anna M. Scott, the posters being made by the pupils of her school. A number of other attractive articles were also displayed. At the next session, which will be the third Saturday in January, the ladies expect to have additional "Ways and Means of Good English." The club, while just being started has made rapid advancement, and the members are anxious to have all the teachers of the rural districts to become members.

Each in earnest taking part Umpqua's strength 'gainst white man's art.

Years passed by. The redman's kind
On Umpqua's trails are hard to find.

Few there be now scattered wide,
Hovering close, each heart beside,
Leaving but a name and place—
Leaving but romantic trace.

Was it right to take this land
From the little Umpqua band?
Though the answer—yes or no—
It seems the Indian tribe must go.

If we of the present age
Leave these questions to the sage,
Let us thank our God above
That we know our land of love.

And in nineteen twenty-six
To our boosting let's affix:
'There's no land beneath the sun,
Like Umpqua Valley—no, not one.'

Cake and Candy in Beautiful Boxes

CAKES and candy that come in decorated metal boxes, make attractive Christmas presents. As everyone knows, Christmas day is not the only one during the season on which one may wish to make gifts. The frequent visiting back and forth during the season beginning shortly before Christmas and extending to just New Year's, the many parties and entertainments, call for an abundance of just such attractive and practical presents as boxes of candy or cake.

As the gift of sweets can be given by anyone of whatever sex or age and whether intimate friends or casual acquaintances, it solves many a baffling problem.

The boxes in which the cake and candy is packed come both in the round and oblong shapes, in one, two and five pound sizes, and are decorated by a process of lithography which on some boxes resembles hand-painting, and on others, tapestry, leather, or intricate metal work. Some show scenes of figures, others are in good-looking, conventionalized designs of birds, fruits, baskets or flowers, or in intricate all over patterns of gothic and oriental motifs.

Among the simpler of the round boxes is a blue and white windmill scene, especially neat and attractive as a container of cake that is apt to be kept in the kitchen. Among the boxes done in
