

SOME TYPICAL SCENES OF THE GREAT OREGON COUNTRY

1. The Columbia River Highway as it winds itself like a mammoth snake around the sides of the cliffs bordering the Columbia River. 2. Mt. Hood as viewed across the Hood River Valley. 3. A view of the road which links Diamond and Crater Lakes. 4. A beautiful Oregon home. 5. Along the Lower Columbia River, looking across into Washington. 6. A beach scene, within three hours drive from Roseburg. 7. A portion of Diamond Lake in Douglas County. 8. The cliffs towering above the Columbia. 9. Along the road from Roseburg to Coos Bay.

