

THE WOMAN'S PAGE

SOCIETY

By GRACE CARROLL

All contributions to this page, society, women's clubs, and personals, should be telephoned to the society editor by Friday

The New Year, with its never failing promise of hope and joyfulness, was started on its way this week with the energy characteristic of Roseburg folk, whose hospitality was shown by numerous parties, dances and watch parties.

The close of the holiday season has started the many bridge clubs and dancing clubs to the holding of regular meetings, and the winter schedule will be resumed next week. The past two weeks have been marked with colorful parties and dances for the younger folk and those home from college, who will return to school the first of the week.

Mrs. Price Entertains Group on Wednesday

One of the attractive afternoon affairs of the week was at the home of Mrs. Wm. Price, at Dixonville, when she entertained a group of matrons and young ladies Wednesday.

Forming a colorful motif, the season's green and red foliage and flowers were used in the rooms, where games and music formed the diversion. Mrs. Charles Hagar received one of the prizes for the guessing contest and Mrs. Hanting the other. Consolation prizes were received by Mrs. Kinkaid and Mrs. V. Beckley. Bidden to the affair were Mrs. Gene Bolse, Mrs. Ascher Ace, Mrs. W. Bolse, Mrs. Charles Hagar, Mrs. Hanning, Mrs. Wallace McLaughlin, Mrs. Victor Her, Mrs. Kinkaid, Mrs. Burger, Mrs. Temple Brown, Mrs. Parker, Mrs. Fred Boyer, Mrs. Lovelace, Mrs. Victor Beckley, Mrs. J. Kester, Mrs. A. Murphy, Mrs. Wm. Pearce, Mrs. Jack Loyer, Mrs. Agnew, Mrs. John Price, and Miss Nancy of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Ellison had as guests at New Year's dinner at their home in Ramona Court, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Savage, of Calpine, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bass.

College Girl Honored at Bridge Party

On the evening of Dec. 30, Miss Vernita Kohlhaugen invited several of her sisters, Bertha, friends to their home in West Roseburg.

The rooms were colorful in red and green appropriate for the holiday season, where the evening was spent with cards and radio music.

Miss Marion Porter received the highest score and Miss Bertha Kohlhaugen the honor prize.

Later delicious refreshments were served at small tables, the color scheme being carried out with tiny red favors at each plate.

Those present were: Miss Bertha Kohlhaugen, honoree, Miss Marion Porter, Miss Rosina Porter, Miss Florence Wharton, Miss Beulah Jarvis, Miss Marion Ness, Miss Vera McMillan, Mrs. H. L. McHenry of Portland, Oregon, and Miss Vernita Kohlhaugen, hostess.

Miss Bertha Kohlhaugen will leave Sunday for Corvallis to resume her studies at O. A. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Lundeen, of Melrose, had as guests at dinner Christmas, Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Johnson, of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Lundeen, of Roseburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Woodruff.

Seattle Girls Complimented at Dinner

Complimenting Misses Irene and Olive Walker of Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. A. Hume of Wilbur, entertained a number of their friends at dinner on Sunday. The rooms were beautifully decorated with holly and fir boughs. Seated about the large table in the dining room were: Miss Irene Walker, Miss Olive Walker, Miss Ruth Neimber, of Tacoma, Miss Marie Walker, Miss Leota Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. John Walker, Mrs. Viola Wilson, Mr. Frank Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. A. Hume.

Anniversaries Jointly Celebrated Tuesday

The festive colors of the season formed attractive decorations at the E. A. Wood home on Tuesday evening of last week, when the birthday anniversaries of Mr. E. A. Wood, and Mr. R. W. Melner were jointly celebrated.

Games of five hundred and music interested the guests during the evening, and later luncheon was served at a table pretty with a red and green motif. Honoring Mr. Wood and Mr. Melner were Mr. and Mrs. R. Humberg, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hess, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Allison, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Hankin, Mr. and Mrs. D. Y. Allison and Mr. and Mrs. Wood and Mrs. Melner.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McElhinny and family, of this city, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Whipple and Miss Thelma Whipple of Bend, and Miss Gladys Wickham and Miss Whipple of this city, made up a party and motored to Bandon Sunday, spending the day.

Bridge and Dinner Club at Wade Home

One of the jolly affairs of the week was at the home of Dr. and Mrs. C. B. Wade Wednesday evening, when they entertained the members of the Friday Bridge and Dinner Club.

The spirit of holiday time was manifested in quantities of Christmas evergreens sparkling with tinsel with which the rooms were decorated, the same motif being used at the dinner table. Following the dinner hour games of bridge were made up and the guests were interested during the evening. Refreshing high scores were Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hochradel.

Spending the evening with Dr. and Mrs. Wade were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schwartz, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Brun, Mr. and Mrs. B. West, Dr. and Mrs. Clair K. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hochradel, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Sellick, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Thurber and Miss Louise Anderson.

Miss Rita Cobb, of Portland, is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Clemens. Miss Cobb formerly made her home in Roseburg, and is well known.

New Years Dinner at Wm. Bell Home

Lovely red carnations formed an attractive decoration at the exquisitely appointed table at the New Years dinner for which Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bell were hosts on Friday at 1:30 o'clock, having a group of intimate friends and out of town guests.

Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Bubar, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bubar, Mr. and Mrs. Washington Hughes, Misses Lucille Sappington, Ruth Davis, of O. A. C., Eve Richardson of Oregon City, Edith Stevenson, Rita Cobb of Portland, Messrs. M. M. Miller, W. H. Fisher, Walter Germain, and Mr. and Mrs. Bell. Following the dinner hour the guests enjoyed an auto ride into the country, and in the evening cards formed interest for the guests. Following the game Mrs. Bell served a dainty luncheon.

Miss Katherine Busenbark, who has been a guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Busenbark, Sr., at Melrose, has returned to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Sandquist Dinner Hosts Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. K. E. Sandquist were hosts at an informal dinner at their home in Melrose Sunday, having the members of their family and a few friends.

Seated about a pretty table were Mrs. Rand, Miss Elma Sandquist, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Lundeen, Mr. Harry Mabie, and Mr. and Mrs. Sandquist. Following dinner the guests spent a pleasant afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Hosts at New Years Party

Mr. and Mrs. Erwin G. Randolph were hosts on New Years for a group of friends at their home.

Snow and icicles, popular holiday decorations were cleverly used about the rooms where the guests were interested in game and dancing.

Later the hostess served luncheon at small tables attractive with tiny place cards of red, and New Years calendars as favors. At the tables toasts and New Years resolutions were proposed. Spending the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Lauren McCullough, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gilkeson, Misses Shirley Ware, Vivian Gilkeson, Kathleen Slahia, Marie Gilkeson, Messrs. Allen Hewitt, Darley Ware, A. Carlson and Roy Hughes.

Couple Wed at Reedsport

On Thursday evening of December 24, the marriage of Mr. Elmer Samson of Reedsport and Miss Kathleen Terry of Lakeside took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Samson, the groom's parents. The bride was attended by Miss Alice Walker, who is one of the teachers in the Reedsport school, while Mr. Milo Samson of Marshfield, brother of the groom, was best man.

The bride wore a lovely gown of golden brown. The home was decorated for the occasion in keeping with the holidays.

Rev. R. E. Clark of the Reedsport Community church performed the ceremony.

After the ceremony a delicious lunch was served to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Samson, the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Samson, parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Terry and Clair Terry, Miss Alice Walker, Rev. Clark and wife and son Donald, Mr. and Mrs. W. Medlock, Miss Phillips of Marshfield, Mr. John Samson and Mr. Chester Samson.

Mrs. Samson, who is principal of the Looking Glass school at Looking Glass, Oregon, will resume her work at the first of the year. Mr. Samson will stay in Reedsport and resume his work at the Johnson mill where he is employed.—Port Umpqua Courier.

Mrs. Parrott Entertains Matrons Tuesday

The season's flowers were attractive decorations in the rooms at the home of Mrs. Chas. Parrott, when she entertained a few Roseburg and visiting matrons on Tuesday afternoon.

The guests chatted and sewed and later a dainty luncheon was served the guests. Invited guests were Mrs. E. F. Malden, Mrs. George Kohlhaugen, Mrs. John Thorne, Mrs. H. L. McHenry, of Portland, Mrs. George Sewell, Mrs. Mary McHenry, Mrs. Harry Parpeter, Mrs. P. L. Russell, Miss Jeannie Buick and Miss F. J. Howell.

Bridge and Dinner Club at Farrington Home

Mr. and Mrs. Jno. R. Farrington were hosts on New Year's eve to the members of the Bridge and Dinner Club, having them together for a watch party.

Decorations of holly and other holiday greens, brightened the rooms, and were used at the table, where dinner was served, and later the guests played bridge, and welcomed the new year. Spending the evening were Dr. and Mrs. Clair K. Allen, Dr. and Mrs. A. H. Church, Mr. and Mrs. Leon McClintock, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hochradel.

House Guest Honored at Bridge Party

An attractive party of the week honoring a visitor, was the bridge evening for which Dr. Lucetta Smith was hostess. Inviting a few friends to meet her house guest, Miss Frances Potter, of Portland, Wednesday.

Following games of bridge the hostess served luncheon at small tables. Invited to meet Miss Potter were Mrs. J. K. Falbe, Mrs. L. N. Keenan, Miss Bess Wharton, Mrs. Awa Jane Darby, Miss Jane Wharton, and Miss Myrth Henderson.

Busenbarks Entertain for Guests

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Busenbark entertained at dinner Sunday at their home in Melrose for their house guests.

At an attractive table, covers were placed for Mrs. Topping, of Three Rivers, Calif.; Mrs. G. Sigle, of North Dakota; Mrs. Elsie Williams, of Roseburg; Miss Katherine Busenbark, of Portland; Miss Vivian Williams, of Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. Trice, of North Dakota, Mr. and Mrs. John Busenbark, Glenn Williams, and Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Busenbark.

Garden Valley Club Has Holiday Party

One of the jolly holiday parties of Garden Valley was that of the Garden Valley Woman's club, at the clubrooms, Thursday, when Mrs. J. E. Brown acted as hostess.

The rooms were festive with evergreen boughs and decorations, and about a large Christmas tree the group gathered to exchange presents and spend pleasant hours. Later luncheon was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. R. A. Calhoun. Spending the afternoon were Messadames R. S. Hutton, E. E. LaBrie, G. McDaniel, A. Niday, D. Ferguson, R. A. Calhoun, J. Erwin Page, F. Parrott Hugh Ritchie, John Sinclair, Pete Sinclair, A. Schneider, R. H. C. Wood, and added guests were the Messadames C. McKay, Miss Alice McDaniel, and Miss Edna Niday.

Cobbs Entertain at Dinner

A color scheme, symbolic of the holiday, formed the attractive decorations at the home of Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Cobb, in Laurewood, when they entertained at dinner on Christmas day.

Seated about the table were Mrs. F. F. Cobb, Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Dillard, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Cobb, Marshfield, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Cobb, Miss Lott Cobb, Lewis Dillard, Lucien Cobb, Eldred Cobb and Mr. and Mrs. Cobb.

Dinner Guests at Spough Home

Wilbur Spough was dinner host to a few friends and the members of his family on Christmas day. Following the dinner hour the guests spent a pleasant time with their host.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Holdridge, of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Alva Spough, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beard, LaVern Spough and the host.

Country Club Watch Party Gay Affair Thursday

A delightful holiday affair of the week was the New Years watch party at the Roseburg Country Club, a large crowd of club members gathering there on Thursday evening.

The committee in charge of the evening's program was headed by Mrs. C. W. Wharton, and included Mrs. A. A. Wilder, Mrs. Dexter Rice, Mrs. L. L. Whipple, Mrs. L. E. Skinner, Mrs. H. C. Zigler, Mrs. J. Skinner, Mrs. F. Schwartz, James Sawyers, Mrs. F. Schwartz. Cards interested several groups during the evening, and a good orchestra provided music for dancing. Several quadrilles and square dances added gaiety to the evening, and two midnight numbers also added variety, when all the lights were turned off, and the brilliant glow of tapers from outside lighted the club hall. A delicious luncheon was served at midnight by the committee in charge.

Mrs. Samson, who is principal of the Looking Glass school at Looking Glass, Oregon, will resume her work at the first of the year. Mr. Samson will stay in Reedsport and resume his work at the Johnson mill where he is employed.—Port Umpqua Courier.

Woman's Club to Meet Tuesday

The regular meeting of the Roseburg Woman's Club will be held at the Moose Hall, Tuesday, January 5, and following the business session a program of exceptional interest will be presented. The topic for the day will be "Fine Arts."

The program, which is in charge of the Fine Arts department of the club, Mrs. T. M. Ollivant, chairman, will include a talk on "Wonder Scenes of America," by Mrs. Helen G. Snick, which will be illustrated by stereopticon slides. Miss Lois Cobb will give a reading, "An Order for a Picture," and special music will also be a feature of the afternoon, to be under the direction of Mrs. Fred L. Strang.

This will be the social day of the club and each member will be allowed to bring guests. The refreshment committee will be headed by Mrs. Wm. M. Strohmeyer.

DeMolays Install Candidates Tuesday

On Tuesday afternoon the DeMolays, installing six new candidates into the order. Following a luncheon was served the members. Following the installation and luncheon, the members entertained the Bethel of Daughters of Job in the evening.

The group enjoyed a series of games under the direction of A. E. Britton, boy scoutmaster, and later the ladies of the Eastern Star served a dainty luncheon to the guests.

New Years Dinner at Cobb Home

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Cobb entertained at dinner Friday evening at their home on South Main street. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Dillard, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Dillard, Clara Dillard, Charlotte Lee Dillard and Mr. and Mrs. Cobb. Following dinner the guests enjoyed a radio program and conversation.

Friends Have Farewell Party for Mrs. Layhe

A number of friends gathered at the home of Mrs. M. H. Plyler Monday evening, surprising Mrs. Eleanor Layhe to bid her adieu before her departure for the coast. Mrs. Layhe will go to Marshfield, where she will be employed in the new Methodist hospital, which has recently been completed.

The group enjoyed conversation and games and Mrs. Layhe was presented with a lovely gift. Later a luncheon was served.

Dinner Party at Knight Home

Among the attractive dinner parties on Friday was that for which Mr. and Mrs. Fred Knight were hosts, having a group of friends about a prettily decorated table at 7 o'clock in the evening.

Following dinner the group spent a pleasant time with Mr. and Mrs. Knight. Spending the evening were Mr. and Mrs. B. Taylor, Mrs. George Ferrier, Lotus Knight, Shirley Knight, Dorothy Ferrier, Marjorie Knight, Clair Taylor, and Wm. Knight.

Ten Mile Community Club Has Interesting Meeting

On the afternoon of December 30, the members of the Ten Mile Community Club were entertained by Mrs. Edna Allen.

The business session consisted mainly of the election of officers for the year 1926. Following, the group exchanged presents about a prettily decorated Christmas tree, and the small children present were presented with a gift by Mrs. V. McDaniel. The president of the club, Mrs. Anna Coats, was given a lovely gift, as a token of appreciation from the members.

Spending the afternoon were the Messadames A. Watson, A. E. Watson, N. Cabot, G. Barnes, V. McDaniel, M. Porter, L. Sigle, K. McDaniel, A. Coats, Sarah Moss, L. Rowell and Misses Sadie Watson, Eva Breitenbush, Viola Howard, Bessie Breitenbush, Audrey Porter, Blanche Barnes, Anna Sibbold and Mildred Sibbold.

The Ensemble Note

The Harmonizing Costume Is Carried Into the Winter Mode With Smart Results

With the fur wrap and coat claiming much of the attention for early winter, the ensemble costume, which is worn to give variety to the wardrobe, is selected with an eye to perfection of detail.

The matching quality of coat and frock has carried on its popularity for several seasons. The ensemble, which is really chic nowadays, carries its color and fabric harmony into every part of the costume.

The mid-season ensemble is particularly effective in matching frock and coat. Fur, which is used more lavishly than ever for the winter mode, often appears in unusual patterns upon the coat of the ensemble. At other times the coat is barren of fur, while the frock boasts a border of fur which gives an air of chic as it falls well below the hem of the coat.

Many of the smartest mid-season ensembles rely upon cut and fabric to impart smartness and leave fur decorations for later months. When the coat and frock are with-

Friends Have Farewell Party for Mrs. Layhe

A number of friends gathered at the home of Mrs. M. H. Plyler Monday evening, surprising Mrs. Eleanor Layhe to bid her adieu before her departure for the coast. Mrs. Layhe will go to Marshfield, where she will be employed in the new Methodist hospital, which has recently been completed.

The group enjoyed conversation and games and Mrs. Layhe was presented with a lovely gift. Later a luncheon was served.

Dinner Party at Knight Home

Among the attractive dinner parties on Friday was that for which Mr. and Mrs. Fred Knight were hosts, having a group of friends about a prettily decorated table at 7 o'clock in the evening.

Following dinner the group spent a pleasant time with Mr. and Mrs. Knight. Spending the evening were Mr. and Mrs. B. Taylor, Mrs. George Ferrier, Lotus Knight, Shirley Knight, Dorothy Ferrier, Marjorie Knight, Clair Taylor, and Wm. Knight.

Ten Mile Community Club Has Interesting Meeting

On the afternoon of December 30, the members of the Ten Mile Community Club were entertained by Mrs. Edna Allen.

The business session consisted mainly of the election of officers for the year 1926. Following, the group exchanged presents about a prettily decorated Christmas tree, and the small children present were presented with a gift by Mrs. V. McDaniel. The president of the club, Mrs. Anna Coats, was given a lovely gift, as a token of appreciation from the members.

Spending the afternoon were the Messadames A. Watson, A. E. Watson, N. Cabot, G. Barnes, V. McDaniel, M. Porter, L. Sigle, K. McDaniel, A. Coats, Sarah Moss, L. Rowell and Misses Sadie Watson, Eva Breitenbush, Viola Howard, Bessie Breitenbush, Audrey Porter, Blanche Barnes, Anna Sibbold and Mildred Sibbold.

El'low May Wilson Appears on Program at Eugene

Mrs. Ida M. Wilson, with her daughter, Miss El'low May Wilson, and Miss Eldress Judd, have just returned from a motor trip to Eugene, where Miss Wilson appeared on the program at the Eugene Hotel New Year's night.

Miss Wilson, who is an accomplished young musician and whistler, gave several of her delightful solos, and also delighted the audience with a few violin selections. About three weeks ago, when Miss Wilson appeared on a program at Eugene, one of the employees of the Eugene hotel, himself a musician, heard her, and recommended her appearance on the hotel program.

Watch Party at Kent Home

Of the many New Years watch parties this week none was more enjoyable than that at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kent, of Riverside, when they entertained a group of young folk Thursday evening.

Arriving at 7 o'clock, the guests enjoyed games, and fortune telling. Following, at a table attractive with a centerpiece and favors in the season's colors, a dainty luncheon was served.

Those attending were Hildred McLaughlin, Verla McLaughlin, Maxine Vermillion, Catherine Fisher, Esther Fisher, Ethel Stone, Josie Bruton, Cassie Kent, Leola Kent, June Kent, LaVern Spough, Albert Stone, Delwin McLaughlin and Allan Kent.

Mr. and Mrs. Chase Dinner Hosts

Among the many dinner parties on Friday was that for which Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Chase were hosts, serving dinner at 1:30 o'clock at a table bright with red and green decorations.

Following the dinner hour, the guests spent a pleasant afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Chase. Those enjoying the afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. Bert Wells, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Young, Miss Cella Beck, Miss Helen Chase, Miss Dorothy Chase, Bernard Young, Francis Chase, Donald Chase, Adelbert Young and Robert Chase.

Mrs. H. L. McHenry, of Portland, is a popular visiting young matron over the holidays. She is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Kohlhaugen.

Boone-Sinnot Nuptials Friday Afternoon

Amid the simple appointments of a pretty wedding Miss Mary Elizabeth Sinnot, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sinnot, of this city, became the bride of Mr. Daniel B. Boone, of Roseburg, at the Sinnot home Friday afternoon.

The rooms were attractive with the season's blooms of red and green. The bride, advancing on the arm of her father, was lovely in a cut velvet creation in gold over rose; the gown, being a straight model, was caught at the side with a lovely corsage of crepe de chine. The bride's only attendant, her sister, Miss Anne Sinnot, was gown in grey, organette, with cream lace finish, over a slip of cream silk. John Garrity was best man, Mrs. Sinnot, mother of the bride, wore a lovely bronze colored satin gown.

The pretty ceremony was read at 2:30 o'clock by Rev. Father B. Clergy, of the St. Joseph's Catholic church, among only the close friends and relatives of the family.

Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served to the bridal party and guests. Miss Florence Sinnot assisted during the afternoon.

Mrs. Boone, an accomplished young lady of this city, is a graduate of Roseburg high school, following her graduation attending business college. For the past number of years she has been employed at the C. W. Clark Photography.

Mr. Boone has been a resident

W. R. C. and G. A. R. Have New Year's Dinner

The W. R. C. and the G. A. R. members enjoyed a New Year's chicken dinner at the Armory in the dining room at noon Friday.

Following the dinner the groups assembled in the G. A. R. room for the joint installation of officers. The G. A. R. officers for the year 1926 are George W. Riddle, Post Commander; Alfred Muck, Senior vice-commander; W. S. Clark, Junior vice-commander; M. L. Moore, quartermaster; M. L. Moore, Adjutant; C. G. Durland, surgeon; Lewis Huff; chaplain; C. B. Sutton, officer of day; W. A. Krum, officer of guard; Delegates to the Department Encampment are Lewis Huff, A. S. Quant, Philmore Brooks. The officers of the W. R. C. are Mrs. Ruth Cyrus, president, Mrs. Anna Bucker, senior vice-president; Mrs. Ida Staags, Junior vice-president; Mrs. Bell Case, treasurer; Mrs. Helen Ferguson, secretary; Mrs. M. Hagan, conductor; Mrs. J. H. Hagan, assistant conductor; Mrs. Milligan, guard; Mrs. Cora Dorety, assistant guard; Mrs. L. Morris, press correspondent; Mrs. Kate Doss, musician; Mrs. Chandler, patriotic instructor; Mrs. Chandler, first color bearer; Mrs. L. Morris, second color bearer; Mrs. Kirk, third color bearer; Mrs. Emma Wamsley, fourth color bearer. Commander Riddle and several of the members of the two groups gave very interesting talks to the orders.

January starts us with resolutions again. In February we recall our heroes deeds away.

ALL THE YEAR

January starts us with resolutions again. In February we recall our heroes deeds away.

El'low May Wilson Appears on Program at Eugene

Mrs. Ida M. Wilson, with her daughter, Miss El'low May Wilson, and Miss Eldress Judd, have just returned from a motor trip to Eugene, where Miss Wilson appeared on the program at the Eugene Hotel New Year's night.

Miss Wilson, who is an accomplished young musician and whistler, gave several of her delightful solos, and also delighted the audience with a few violin selections. About three weeks ago, when Miss Wilson appeared on a program at Eugene, one of the employees of the Eugene hotel, himself a musician, heard her, and recommended her appearance on the hotel program.

Watch Party at Kent Home

Of the many New Years watch parties this week none was more enjoyable than that at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kent, of Riverside, when they entertained a group of young folk Thursday evening.

Arriving at 7 o'clock, the guests enjoyed games, and fortune telling. Following, at a table attractive with a centerpiece and favors in the season's colors, a dainty luncheon was served.

Those attending were Hildred McLaughlin, Verla McLaughlin, Maxine Vermillion, Catherine Fisher, Esther Fisher, Ethel Stone, Josie Bruton, Cassie Kent, Leola Kent, June Kent, LaVern Spough, Albert Stone, Delwin McLaughlin and Allan Kent.

Mr. and Mrs. Chase Dinner Hosts

Among the many dinner parties on Friday was that for which Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Chase were hosts, serving dinner at 1:30 o'clock at a table bright with red and green decorations.

Following the dinner hour, the guests spent a pleasant afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Chase. Those enjoying the afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. Bert Wells, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Young, Miss Cella Beck, Miss Helen Chase, Miss Dorothy Chase, Bernard Young, Francis Chase, Donald Chase, Adelbert Young and Robert Chase.

Mrs. H. L. McHenry, of Portland, is a popular visiting young matron over the holidays. She is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Kohlhaugen.

Boone-Sinnot Nuptials Friday Afternoon

Amid the simple appointments of a pretty wedding Miss Mary Elizabeth Sinnot, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sinnot, of this city, became the bride of Mr. Daniel B. Boone, of Roseburg, at the Sinnot home Friday afternoon.

The rooms were attractive with the season's blooms of red and green. The bride, advancing on the arm of her father, was lovely in a cut velvet creation in gold over rose; the gown, being a straight model, was caught at the side with a lovely corsage of crepe de chine. The bride's only attendant, her sister, Miss Anne Sinnot, was gown in grey, organette, with cream lace finish, over a slip of cream silk. John Garrity was best man, Mrs. Sinnot, mother of the bride, wore a lovely bronze colored satin gown.

The pretty ceremony was read at 2:30 o'clock by Rev. Father B. Clergy, of the St. Joseph's Catholic church, among only the close friends and relatives of the family.

Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served to the bridal party and guests. Miss Florence Sinnot assisted during the afternoon.

Mrs. Boone, an accomplished young lady of this city, is a graduate of Roseburg high school, following her graduation attending business college. For the past number of years she has been employed at the C. W. Clark Photography.

Mr. Boone has been a resident

POETS' CORNER

Signed Contributions for This Department May Be Sent to the Society Editor of The News-Review, and Will Be Used as Space Is Available.

</