

THE GIST OF THE BIBLE

BOOK BY BOOK

ARTICLE I

INTRODUCTION—THE BOOK OF BOOKS

The word "Bible" means "book." But the Bible is more than a book. It is a library of sixty-six books, some historical, others poetical, prophetic or doctrinal.

This library was written by at least forty different authors during a period of some fifteen centuries. These writers were of all varied classes of society from fishermen and shepherds to kings.

And yet, despite the difference of their interests and qualifications and the changing ideals of the passing centuries, the product of their writing is not a case of "Many men of many minds," but of many men and one mind, and that mind is the mind of the eternal Spirit of God under whose guidance they all wrote.

The key-note of this entire library is in John 3:16, "God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

This note is sounded first in Eden, in the promise of "the seed of the woman who should bruise the serpent's head," Gen. 3:15, and it is echoed and re-echoed through all of the 29 books written before Christ, which make up the Old Testament, and whose message is "Christ is coming." This same note resounds through all of the 27 books written after Christ, which make up the New Testament, and whose message is "Christ has come as it was written and will come again." Cut the scriptures anywhere and they bleed with the blood of the Lamb of God.

The relation of the Old Testament and New Testament has been well stated in the couplet:

"The New is in the Old concealed,
The Old is in the New revealed;
The New is in the Old contained,
The Old is in the New explained."

Few folks realize that the Old Testament can be read through in 74 hours, and the New Testament in 26 hours, or the entire Bible in one year by spending only about seventy minutes each day in its reading.
