

SOCIETY

By GRACE CARROLL

All contributions to this page, society, women's clubs, and personals, should be telephoned to the society editor by Friday

The past week has been a round of gay events, luncheons, bridge afternoons, club meetings, and jolly affairs following in quick succession, and taking the interest of society maids and matrons.

Among those extensively entertained this week was Mrs. H. D. Harris, a popular young matron, who is leaving soon to make her home in Utah. She has been the inspiration of a number of affairs, hostesses inviting groups of intimate friends to bid her adieu at luncheons and bridge afternoons.

Mrs. W. A. Cummings, another who is leaving soon, was also the inspiration of afternoon affairs this week. Mrs. Cummings will leave the latter part of the month for Salem, her former home, to reside in the future.

Catholic Daughters Dance Pleasant Event Next Week

A pleasurable event of next week will be the dance sponsored by the Catholic Daughters of America on Tuesday evening.

The organization, until recently known as the Daughters of Isabella, which name has been changed, has sponsored a number of enjoyable affairs, and have secured the Moose hall for this occasion. This is the first of a series of dances during the winter and spring that the organization will sponsor. The committee is headed by Mrs. T. H. Ness.

Thimble Club Spend Afternoon With Mrs. Butler

Mrs. Clyde Butler provided a pleasant afternoon for the Thimble Club of Oregon Rose Lodge on Wednesday, inviting the members to her home on South Pine street for the afternoon.

A short business session was held and the ladies spent the afternoon sewing and chatting. Later the hostess assisted by Mrs. Lloyd Harper, served a dainty luncheon. Mrs. Eddings of Grants Pass was a visiting member of the lodge. Mrs. P. M. Cook will entertain the ladies on Wednesday, February 3.

Auxiliary of B. of L. F. and E. Install Officers

On Friday evening, January 8th, the Ladies Auxiliary of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, held open installation of officers, with Past President, Faye Troxel acting as installing officer and Post President, Nannie Pierce as Marshal. The following officers were installed for the ensuing year: Martha Cook, President; Della Morgan, Vice-President; Roxelle Thayer, Past President; Eleanor Frye, Secretary; Mae Fredricks, Treasurer; Faye Troxel, Collector; Bernice Butler, Adeline Wescott and Grace Burroughs, Board of Trustees; Roxelle Thayer, Delegate; Charlotte Thayer, Alternate Delegate; Bonita McIntyre, Chaplain; Ruth Britt, Warden; Charlotte Gale, Conductor; Adeline Wescott, Inner Guard; Grace Burroughs, Outer Guard; Lillian Wheeler, Musician and Roxelle Thayer, Magazine Correspondent.

Following installation ceremonies all went to the banquet room which was beautifully decorated in the lodge colors, red, white and purple, where delicious refreshments were served. The latter part of the evening's entertainment consisted of games, music and dancing.

Circle Entertained by Mrs. Barnes

Mrs. J. Barnes entertained the members of the Tenmile Community Circle at her home on Wednesday afternoon. The ladies chatted and a program of songs and short readings varied the afternoon. The hostess, assisted by Mrs. Lottie Sigl, served a dainty luncheon later.

Enjoying Mrs. Barnes' hospitality were the Mesdames K. McDonald, P. C. Hookard, V. McDonald, A. Coates, A. Bushnell, L. Sigl, and L. Brotenbacher.

Mrs. L. Brotenbacher will entertain the ladies at her home on Wednesday, January 27.

Progressive Club Has Interesting Afternoon

An enjoyable afternoon was spent by the Progressive Club, when the members met at the home of Mrs. E. L. Tester on Thursday.

The affairs was in the form of a children's party, each member coming costumed as a small girl. Prizes were offered for the most unique costume, first prize being received by Mrs. Lydia Wilson, and second prize was given to Mrs. H. G. Thompson. The group had a picture taken, and games and conversation gave interest to the afternoon. Following a dainty luncheon were served by the hostess.

Spending the afternoon with Mrs. Tester were the Mesdames Lydia Wilson, Nora Dyne, Belle Cooper, Cora Brothers, H. Bell, H. G. Thompson, E. L. Smith, A. Sooley, Mary Teater, H. E. Drellinger, and the Mesdames Amanda Dyne and Luc Cooper.

Bridge Party Compliments Popular Matron

For Mrs. H. D. Harris, who will leave next month for California, and Utah, making her home at the latter place, Mrs. R. D. Williams invited a number of her friends to her home on 502 South Pine street to bid this popular matron adieu at a bridge evening Tuesday.

Lovely blossoms brightened the rooms, where the guests chatted and three tables of bridge were in play during the evening. Mrs. Harris received guest prize and Mrs. J. C. Ponsler first prize. Mrs. Williams was assisted during the evening by Mrs. F. R. Dunlap and Mrs. E. B. Stewart. Following the bridge game a dainty luncheon was served at small tables. The guest list included: Mrs. H. D. Harris, honoree, Mrs. J. C. Ponsler, Mrs. W. R. Conlee, Mrs. A. J. Ford, Mrs. W. G. Burt, Mrs. F. L. Bond, Mrs. Herbert West, Mrs. C. R. Freain, Mrs. E. B. Stewart, Mrs. F. R. Dunlap, Mrs. S. N. Young and Mrs. J. I. Love.

Executive Committee Meets at Home of Mrs. Fulcher

The executive committee of the American Legion Auxiliary met on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. J. A. Fulcher to plan for the year and transact business. The ladies chatted and following a buffet luncheon was served. Those attending the evening were Mrs. Guy Gordon, Mrs. Virginia Jones, Mrs. A. E. Post, Mrs. E. Fowler, Mrs. George Caskey, Mrs. Joe J. McCall, Mrs. Cecil Richards, and Mrs. K. Hobbly.

Mrs. Cawfield Hostess at Dinner Party

A delightful dinner party took place at the home of Mrs. J. J. Cawfield on one of the days of the past holiday season. Symbolic holiday decorations were used in the dining room and at the table were covered with red and white. The guests included: Mrs. and Mr. Charles Ott, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Stoble, of Camas Valley, Miss Lou Bullock, Miss Rose Bullock, of Coquille, Mr. John Stinch, of Glangary, Mr. Frank Bullock, of Coquille, Mr. D. Munn and the hostess.

W. B. A. Has Installation of Officers This Week

The Women's Benefit Association met for an interesting business session at the Macabee hall on Thursday evening, and following held installation of officers. Mrs. H. F. Ogden acted as installing officer and Mrs. Belle Stephenson was lady of ceremony. Officers installed were: commander, Mrs. Gory Rapp; lieutenant commander, Mrs. Helen Huffman; recorder, Lillian Wheeler; collector, Mrs. Jessie Rapp; finance keeper, Mrs. Edna Beecher; lady-at-arms, Mrs. Anna Veatch; past commander, Mrs. Clara Bonacker; musician, Mrs. Grace Fappell; chaplain, Mrs. Grant Wilcox.

Following installation the ladies went to the banquet room where they enjoyed contests and games and a dainty luncheon was served.

Visitors Complimented at Affair Last Week

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Haas, of Molave were hosts one evening last week, complimenting Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Savage, of Calpine, Cal., who left the first of the week for their home in the south.

Games, music and conversation formed the evening's diversion and the hostess served a dainty luncheon. Invited guests were: Mrs. and Mr. E. M. Savage, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Savage, Mr. and Mrs. Dyne, Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. H. Dyne, Sr. and Mrs. Eric Troxel, Mrs. A. J. Carman, Mrs. W. F. Foster, Miss Dyne, Emma Galla, Amelia Galla, Vera Baker, Margaret Carl, Alice Post, and Messrs. Carl Lindsey, Elart Lindsey, Lloyd Wilson, Wm. Cooper, Steven Cooper and Max Carman.

Garden Valley Club Spends Pleasant Afternoon

Following the regular business session of the Garden Valley Women's club on Thursday afternoon, the ladies of the club chatted and made mattress pads for the children's Farm Home east of Cavallito. Later a dainty luncheon was served to the members.

Spending the afternoon were the Mesdames R. D. Calhoun, D. Ferguson, R. S. Hutton, E. E. LaBrie, G. McDaniel, E. McCoy, E. Niday, J. E. Pace, P. Parrott, H. Ritchie, F. Sinclair, P. Sinclair, R. H. C. Wood. Added guests were the Mesdames Parrott and Calhoun and Mrs. James Wood.

Pot Luck Supper at Presbyterian Church

On Thursday evening the Senior Christian Endeavor society of the Presbyterian church sponsored a pot luck supper in the church parlors.

Following the supper hour a program of music and a play was presented in the auditorium. Miss Harriet Halonen gave a vocal solo, accompanied by Miss Lucille Leary. Mr. C. H. Arundel gave a piano solo, "Elysium," one of his own compositions. Then the missionary play, "Two Masters," was presented before a large assemblage.

Mrs. Cummings Complimented on Thursday

For the pleasure of Mrs. W. A. Cummings, who will leave the latter part of the month to make her home in Salem, the members of the North Circle of the Ladies Aid honored her at a party at the home of Mrs. George Quinn on Pitzer street Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Cummings is president of the General Aid Society and past president of the Circle. Devotionals and a short business meeting was presided over by Mrs. F. P. Baltmore, president. Mrs. A. J. Godden expressed the appreciation of the Circle for the untiring efforts Mrs. Cummings has given to the work of the circle, and presented her with a gift from the members. Mrs. Harold Marsters gave a pleasing reading and a reading by Mrs. Harold McKay was enjoyed. Following the program a dainty luncheon was served the group.

Mrs. Knauss Hostess to Bridge Club

Mrs. Arthur Knauss entertained at her home in Laurelswood on Tuesday evening, the regular weekly meeting of the bridge club, having the popular matrons of her bridge club and a few added guests in Thursday afternoon.

Brightening the rooms were arrangements of lovely flowers of the season where two tables of bridge were in play during the afternoon. Mrs. Earl Burr held high honors. Following the game the hostess served a dainty luncheon at small tables. The guest list included: Mrs. H. D. Harris, honoree, Mrs. J. C. Ponsler, Mrs. W. R. Conlee, Mrs. A. J. Ford, Mrs. W. G. Burt, Mrs. F. L. Bond, Mrs. Herbert West, Mrs. C. R. Freain, Mrs. E. B. Stewart, Mrs. F. R. Dunlap, Mrs. S. N. Young and Mrs. J. I. Love.

Camp Fire Girls Have Meeting Tuesday

The regular weekly meeting of the Tru-Ches-Lo Camp Fire group was held Tuesday at 4 o'clock at the Rose School building, with a good attendance.

One new member, Marion Schultz, was taken into the organization. Barbara Clark was elected song leader, taking the place of Louise Reed, who recently resigned from that post. The group are holding a story hour at 10:30 a. m. Saturdays at the Roseburg Public Library for the little folk of Roseburg.

Mrs. H. S. Burzaga, of Eugene, sister of Mrs. Tom Wharton, is the house guest this week at the Wharton home.

Luncheon and Afternoon Party for Mrs. Harris

Lovely carnations in shades of pink, charmingly arranged in baskets and vases, decorated the attractive motif in the rooms of the Gedney home for the six o'clock luncheon and afternoon party for which Mrs. E. E. Gedney and Mrs. W. F. Harris were gracious hostesses Wednesday, complimenting Mrs. H. D. Harris, and to which a number of her friends were invited for an afternoon of bridge and sewing.

Luncheon was served at one large table and smaller tables, centered with the carnations and the same motif was carried out in shades of pink on the favors and place cards. Following bridge and sewing formed the diversion. Mrs. Harris received guest prize and Mrs. J. C. Ponsler held high honors at bridge. Mrs. F. R. Dunlap received second prize, and Mrs. Paul Bubar received consolation.

Those playing bridge were Mrs. H. D. Harris, honoree, Mrs. J. C. Ponsler, Mrs. Paul Bubar, Mrs. O. D. McCallister, Mrs. R. L. Devaney, Mrs. H. F. Ogden, Mrs. H. C. Fee, Mrs. F. R. Dunlap, Mrs. W. S. Love, Mrs. C. A. Lockwood, Mrs. J. I. Love, Mrs. Albert Miedell, Mrs. Fred Hruby, Mrs. Harry Parson, Mrs. W. R. Conlee, Mrs. E. B. Stewart, Mrs. W. G. Burt, Mrs. L. A. Gouss, Mrs. C. S. McElhinny, Mrs. Ned Dixon, Mrs. Charles Russo, Mrs. Fred Sibang, Mrs. C. A. Lockwood, Mrs. M. S. Allen, Mrs. E. Sigler, Mrs. M. S. Allen, Mrs. and Miss Eva Rice, Thos. A. Long, Margaret Carl, Alice Post, and Messrs. Carl Lindsey, Elart Lindsey, Lloyd Wilson, Wm. Cooper, Steven Cooper and Max Carman.

Scholarship Loan Fund Tea on Tuesday

The annual Scholarship Loan Fund tea will be an affair of next week, being held at the Roseburg Women's Club rooms on Tuesday afternoon.

The business session of the club will be opened at 2 o'clock by Mrs. J. C. Ponsler, president. Founders day will also be observed at this time and the organization has invited all the former members of the club to be present. A number of former members have moved away from Roseburg, making it hard to get other points in the state during the past few years, but those who are residing in and near Roseburg, who have an opportunity to attend will be welcomed.

A delightful musical program is being prepared by the board of directors and officers of the club, and the greater part of the afternoon will be devoted to the program. Mrs. H. R. Norbas is chairman of the social committee and with her assistants is planning a number of interesting features for the afternoon. A committee, representing the Bellevue Club will attend the tea and a number of other visitors are expected.

Mrs. Bubar Entertains Monday Bridge Club

Mrs. Dean Bubar was a charming hostess Monday, having the members of the Monday Bridge Club.

Rose buds in arrangements in vases and bowls formed the attractive decorations in the rooms. Following the bridge game Mrs. Paul Bubar received first prize.

The hostess served a dainty two-course luncheon at small tables. Members of the club present were the Mesdames H. D. Harris, J. C. Ponsler, H. C. Waddell, J. I. Love, B. C. Zigler, George Bradburn, Paul Bubar and the hostess.

Mrs. Ponsler Receives Appointment

Mrs. J. C. Ponsler, president of the Roseburg Women's Club, has received notice of appointment to the district chairmanship of the Better Homes Movement in America.

The appointment was made by James T. Ford, National Chairman of Washington, D. C. Committees will be appointed soon by Mrs. Ponsler to assist in the Better Homes Week in April.

Gedney Home Scene of Luncheon Today

One of the attractive one o'clock luncheons and parties of the week had Mrs. E. E. Gedney and Mrs. W. F. Harris as hostesses today. C. the home of the former, at one of a series of affairs.

Pink formed an attractive color scheme, carried out in arrangements of carnations in baskets about the rooms. The table decorations and favors were in shades of pink. Bridge and sewing interested the group following luncheon, and six tables of bridge were in play during the afternoon. The guest list of bridge players included the Mesdames H. C. Church, Leon McCallister, Jack Cratton, Wm. Bell, R. R. Shoemaker, S. J. Shoemaker, Charles Wharton, Barney West, David Leno, A. Baum, W. S. Hamilton, J. I. Love, V. M. Setterson, of Eugene, Fred Schwartz, T. B. Virden, T. H. Ness, George Smith, Guy Gordon, B. C. Zigler, Dean Bubar, M. S. Allen, R. L. Devaney, S. L. Kidder, Clay Darby, J. E. Sawyers, C. A. Lockwood, J. C. Hume, George Bolter, and Miss Elizabeth Parrott. Those sewing were the Mesdames L. A. Dillard, E. J. Wainwright, George Seunior, of Portland, Earl Strong, Treva Benton, Charles Hamilton, Lemmy, of Canada, and Miss Crystal Jacobs.

The Daughters of the American Revolution held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. W. F. Thomas on Pitzer street Monday afternoon. After the business meeting, a social hour was held, featuring a paper on the subject of Citizenship in 1776 and Citizenship of today. Following the program dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

Loyal Women's Class Has Social Evening

The Loyal Women's Class of the Christian Church Bible school had an enjoyable social in the church parlors Friday evening.

An interesting program was presented, including a solo "Blest Be The Tie That Binds," by the class; Negro dialect song by Mrs. A. O. Ross; reading, Mrs. A. Brunson; reading, Mrs. Gibson; vocal duet, Mrs. Calhoun and Mrs. H. C. Fee, with piano accompaniment by Mrs. Sprague. The program was followed by an interesting and instructive address on China by Mrs. Abraham, and Mrs. Stagg gave an exhibit of relics brought from China by her. A blackboard contest was then given, a prize of a stand of beads being received by Mrs. Hudkins. Later a delicious luncheon was served the group. Those enjoying the evening were the Mesdames Iona Radabaugh, Clark, Cass, Root, M. C. Radabaugh, W. S. Just, L. DeLaney, R. Radabaugh, F. Churchill, Osborne, Hankins, R. Keller, Calhoun, Wade, Steele, Anderson, J. W. Gates, Gibson, Hutchings, Palm, Miller, Neal, A. Bruton, I. Bruton, Abrahamson, Metz, G. P. Radabaugh, A. O. Ross, Sprague, Shiner, Clem, Wood and Stagg.

Mrs. Harris Complimented at Bridge Party

In complement to Mrs. H. D. Harris, a popular matron, who is leaving the latter part of the month for Utah to make her home, Mrs. Jack C. Ponsler and Mrs. Warren G. Burt entertained at bridge at the home of the former on 515 West Oak street Thursday.

Early spring pussy-willows and Lady Hillman roses in charming arrangements decorated the rooms. Four tables of bridge were in play during the afternoon and at the end of the game Mrs. Harris received guest prize and Mrs. H. C. Waddell first prize. Mrs. A. J. Hochstadter received second prize. At the hour the hostess, assisted by Mrs. E. B. Dunlap, served a dainty two-course luncheon at small tables, with yellow and green candle favors at each guest's cover. The guest list included Mrs. H. D. Harris, honoree, Mrs. S. N. Allen, Mrs. L. A. Devaney, Mrs. S. N. Young, Mrs. J. I. Love, Mrs. E. B. Stewart, Mrs. W. R. Conlee, Mrs. Carl Reymers, Mrs. Fred Hruby, Mrs. R. E. Gedney, Mrs. W. F. Harris, Mrs. W. S. Just, Mrs. Dean Bubar, and Mrs. Fred Kellington of Portland.

Club Entertained at Williams Home

On Wednesday, January 13, the members of the New Idea Club of Edenbower entertained the ladies of the Garden Valley Improvement Club at a one o'clock luncheon at the home of Mrs. R. H. Williams.

The spacious rooms were tastefully decorated with garlands of smilax and big bowls of marigolds while the long tables were made gay in the club colors of long streamers of lavender and white paper depending from the chandeliers to the corners of each table. In the center of the tables were large baskets of mock hollyhocks in lavender and white surrounded by the smilax. At each place stood a demure lollipop lady dressed in lavender.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Fred Parrott, Mrs. R. A. Calhoun, Mrs. Peter Sinclair, Mrs. John Sinclair, Mrs. Richie, Mrs. Hugh Ritchie, Mrs. J. Erwin Page, Mrs. R. H. C. Wood, Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. E. E. LaBrie, Mrs. Niday, Mrs. G. McDaniel, Mrs. Earl McCoy, Mrs. Ferguson, Mrs. E. J. Brown, and Miss Parrott, members of the Garden Valley Club and Mrs. F. D. Owen, Mrs. F. A. Stewart, Mrs. J. H. Porter, Mrs. R. Meade, Cooley, Mrs. F. M. Curtis, Mrs. F. A. Clemens, Mrs. E. P. Ballou, Mrs. F. L. Calkins, Mrs. C. B. Calkins, Mrs. F. H. Appelhoff, Mrs. G. Hendrickson, Mrs. T. S. Sprague, Mrs. W. S. Cole, and Mrs. E. Marks, Mrs. C. F. Calkins, Mrs. Paul Beaver, Mrs. H. A. Calkins, Mrs. Roy McKinley and Mrs. R. H. Williams. The hostess, assisted by Mesdames Beaver, Calkins and McKinley, served luncheon.

The business meeting was dispensed with and the afternoon entirely given over to a social time. Many ninth proving games were played and there were several musical numbers. Mrs. Meade Cooley gave two piano selections. Mrs. F. A. Stewart gave a humorous reading and Mrs. J. H. Porter responded with two encores to her songs. She played her own accompaniment on her guitar on which she is an expert performer.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. F. D. Owen in West Roseburg.

C. E. Society Members Have Pleasant Evening

On Wednesday evening the members of the Christian Endeavor society had an interesting program and social time at the church parlors.

The intermediate C. E. orchestra gave a pleasing number and a violin solo was given by Lawrence Delaney. Following, Tommy Connelley gave a vocal solo. The third troop of Boy Scouts, organized from the boy members of the C. E. society, gave a demonstration of scout craft, including signaling, knot tying and scout games. The elder group of the church were called on to participate in the games and contests. Following the program the group were served luncheon by the ladies of the church.

The business meeting of the society will be held at the church parlors on Wednesday, January 27.

Popular Visitors Honored at Affair Thursday

Honoring two popular visitors, Mrs. Frank Ross and Miss Marla Helen Ross, of Portland, who are the house guests of Mrs. Ross' parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Bickel, of Garden Valley, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Stewart were hosts at their home, Laurelcreek Ranch, on Thursday evening.

The rooms were brightened with bowls of pink roses, smilax and marigolds. Progressive five hundred provided the evening's diversion, and radio music was enjoyed by the group. Miss Ross, who is a musician of ability and has a sweet contralto voice, gave several numbers, playing her own accompaniment. The hostess served a dainty luncheon at one large table and smaller tables centered with bowls of lovely yellow marigolds.

The guest list included Mrs. F. Ross, Miss Marla Helen Ross, Mr. and Mrs. E. Marks, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. George Bickel and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Collins.

Mrs. Canaday Entertains Class of Girls

A class of girls from the First M. E. Sunday school were entertained by Mrs. H. A. Canaday at her home on Saturday afternoon. Games, guessing contests and music formed the afternoon's pleasure, and later the hostess served the group a dainty luncheon at a table beautifully appointed, and with favors at each cover. Invitations were issued to fourteen girls.

Daughters of Nile Benefit Card Party January 22

The Daughters of the Nile benefit card party will be an event next week to which a good assemblage of society folk will gather at the Masonic hall. The affair will be on Friday evening, January 22.

Mrs. Max Raff, chairman in charge, with Mrs. Fred Hruby has been spending a great deal of time and work making preparations for a successful affair. Tables for five hundred and bridge will be in play during the evening and ladies' and gentlemen prizes will be awarded. The proceeds from the party will go to the fund for children of the Shrine Hospital in Portland. This is the second of a series of successful benefit card parties the Daughters of the Nile are giving this winter and a good number are expected to attend.

Arrie Black Graham to Sing at Baptist Church

Mrs. Arrie Black Graham, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Black during the past few weeks, will be a soloist at the Baptist Church on Sunday night at 7:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Graham was one of the most popular musicians of this city several years ago and is well known in musical circles here. She has a sweet contralto voice of pleasing quality. She will also sing a duet with Mr. C. S. McElhinny Sunday evening at the church.

Mrs. Boyer Hostess to Club Thursday

Mrs. E. E. Boyer entertained the Bellevue Club at her home on Thursday, inviting the members for the afternoon.

Following the business session the ladies chatted until the tea hour, when the hostess served a dainty luncheon to the Mesdames P. W. Beckley, J. J. Kester, G. W. Kincaid, J. O. Arthur, Z. W. Parker, R. C. Lovelace, V. A. Lovelace, W. A. Pearce and Berger.

Smick P. T. A. Has Meeting Friday

The Smick P. T. A. had an interesting meeting at the school house on Friday evening of last week, holding their regular business session.

Business Women's Club Banquet New Officers

The meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club last evening was one of the most enjoyable of that organization. The installation of officers which followed the short business session was conducted by Mrs. H. B. Yount, and was very impressive. The officers installed were: Miss Ethel Webb, president; Dr. Lucetta Smith, vice-president; Miss May V. Byron, secretary; Miss Grace Taylor, treasurer; Mrs. Virginia R. Jones, sergeant-at-arms.

The installation was followed by two readings, "The Woman of 1850," and "The Woman of 1950," by Mrs. C. E. Russo, assisted by Mrs. James Clark, Miss Dorothy Winston and Mrs. Yount. The leader and the assistants were in costume typical of the times represented, which added much to the amusing situations depicted in the selections.

Between the two readings, Mr. Walter Germain, director of the Boys' Band, gave two trombone solos, with Miss Sappington at the piano. The club then adjourned to the Hotel Rose, where a banquet, honoring the new officers was enjoyed. Before and during the banquet, Mrs. Young's orchestra entertained with several selections. The orchestra is composed of Mrs. Young, violin; Mrs. Shockey, cornet; Mrs. Rapp, cello; and Miss Sappington, piano.

Mrs. Myers sang two solos, with Miss Veranita Kohlhaugen as accompanist, which were enjoyed by the group. The banquet was further enlivened by impromptu toasts, "Wise and Otherwise," which were responded to by various members. Following these the new and retiring officers each expressed their appreciation to the club and suggested some phases of work that might be pursued in the future.

The January prize for the largest attendance went to Mrs. Charles Brand. The committee who planned the delightful evening included Mrs. Yount, Mrs. Hess and Miss Dorothy Winston.

Mrs. V. E. Setterson, and daughter, of Eugene, are house guests of Mrs. Fred Schwartz over Sunday. Mrs. Peterson will also visit at the home of her brother, Mr. Davis, during her stay in Roseburg.

Matrons Entertain Thimble Club

Mrs. L. S. Taylor and Mrs. Wm. Kepper graciously entertained the members of the Woodcraft Thimble Club at the home of the former on Miller street, Friday afternoon. The officers nominated for this year were: president, Mrs. F. S. Rochester; vice-president, Mrs. S. S. Cawfield; secretary, Mrs. Earl Rhoades; treasurer, Mrs. Chas. Wamsley; Board of Finance, Mrs. Leona McDonald, Mrs. O. L. Johnson and Mrs. Wm. Kepper. After the business meeting the ladies pleasantly spent the afternoon in needle work and conversation, and a pot luck luncheon was served to the following ladies: Mrs. Cawfield, Mrs. Whitney, Mrs. Bush, Mrs. Pingel, Mrs. Burton, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Grimm, Mrs. Wamsley, Mrs. Palm, Mrs. Branch, Mrs. Register, Mrs. Jewell, Mrs. Hubbard, Mrs. Dalton, Mrs. Wetherel, Mrs. Morgan, Mrs. Kurtz, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Kepper, Mrs. Fields, Mrs. Rhoades and added guests, Mrs. Barnett, Mrs. W. R. Thomas, Jr., and the Mesdames Mildred Grimm, Virginia Morgan, Betty June Kepper, Eloda Taylor, and Ruth Rhoades.

Mrs. H. L. McHenry, who has been a popular young visiting matron over the holidays, left this morning for her home in Portland. Mrs. McHenry while here was the house guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Kohlhaugen.

ROSE ROOM

SUNDAY DINNER $1.00
Served 4:30 to 8 p. m.
Phone 622 for Reservations.

Gassaway-Davis Nuptials on Friday Afternoon

At a pretty home wedding on Friday, Miss Nellie May Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Davis, of Roseburg, became the bride of Mr. Orran A. Gassaway, of this city, at 706 Mill street.

The ring ceremony was read by Rev. Joseph Knotts at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, before a few relatives and intimate friends.

The bride, charming in a frock of pale pink chiffon over pastel yellow satin, with a gold bandeau, caught with a rose at the side, in her hair, was given in marriage by her father. She carried a bouquet of carnations, sweet peas and roses in pastel shades, tied with white satin. Miss Mildred Long was the bride's only attendant, and was gowned in orchid crepe de chine. Ray Ward was best man.

Mrs. Gassaway is a popular young lady of this city, and a former student at the high school, where she was active in student body affairs. Mr. Gassaway has resided here for the past five years. He is the son of Mrs. E. B. Gassaway, of Coquille, California, and is an employee at the Roseburg Steam Laundry. Mr. and Mrs. Gassaway left last night for northern points and following their trip will be at home on 706 Mill street after February 1.

Mrs. Fisher Surprised by Ladies of Her Club

The members of the Northside Sunshine Club honored Mrs. Wm. Fisher on Thursday, the ladies gathering at her home for the afternoon for a surprise party.

Guessing games interested the group, and prizes were received by Mrs. F. S. Register and Mrs. Norman Fisher. Mrs. Ingles and Mrs. Marsters received consolation prizes. The ladies chatted and at the tea hour a dainty luncheon was served Mesdames Wm. Fisher, honoree, C. E. Cawfield, J. V. Deardorff, L. F. Ingles, E. P. Ballou, Fred Bowen, Roscoe Marsters, F. H. Chilson, E. Harness, George Marsters, Robert Chilson, F. S. Register, B. S. Nichols, J. M. Bartley, M. Colby, Norman Fisher, Walter Poole, Marsters and Miss Ina Laubach.

LOCAL NEWS

Scout Executive Here—

John H. Piper, regional Boy Scout executive, arrived in Roseburg today for a brief conference. He is returning to Seattle this evening.

Attend Wrestling Match—

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Bert G. Bates and William Reibel motored to Eugene yesterday where they witnessed the Ralph Hand-Ai Karasick