

PICTORIAL PATTERNS

Phone 565

Arriving Daily—the Newest in Spring

Coats and Dresses

COATS

Two beautiful lines in Sport models

$19.75 and $22.75

DRESSES

—at three popular prices

$12.50

$19.75 $29.75

30%
OFFLadies' Cotton and Wool
UnderwearChildren's
HOSE
Umbrellas

The Ladies' Shoppe

139 N. Jackson St.

LOCAL NEWS

STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

Have you a bad taste, coated tongue, poor appetite, a lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, trouble with undigested foods? Take Olive Tablets the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without griping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief. Eat what you like. 15c and 30c.

Vaughn drag saws and parts at Wharton Bros.

Everett Cooper returned to Melrose yesterday afternoon after attending to business affairs in this city for a few hours.

Visitor Tuesday—Mrs. C. P. Wilson returned to Reston yesterday afternoon after greeting friends and shopping here for a few hours.

From Glendale—J. J. Coppel, Glendale rancher, motored to Roseburg Tuesday, spending several hours looking after business affairs and trading.

From Reston—Roy Buell, of Reston, was a visitor in Roseburg Tuesday, spending several hours trading and looking after business affairs.

Visitor From Oakland—Mrs. F. Fortin returned to Oakland yesterday afternoon after shopping and greeting friends in this city for a few hours.

Mr. Taylor In—Myron Taylor returned to Glendale yesterday evening after visiting and attending to business affairs here for several hours.

From Melrose—Dave Churchill, Melrose rancher, was a visitor in Roseburg yesterday, spending several hours trading and transacting business.

Bibbels Visit—Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Bibbels motored from Glendale yesterday, spending the day here greeting friends and attending to business affairs.

From Glendale—George Casebeer, Glendale resident motored to Roseburg yesterday and spent a short time attending to business affairs and trading.

Markham's Visit—Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Markham, of Cottage Grove, spent yesterday and last night in Roseburg visiting with friends and on business.

Sylvester Valley P. T. A. Meet—The Sylvester Valley P. T. A. will hold their regular meeting at the school house on Thursday evening, January 28, for regular business.

Mr. Paul In—W. G. Paul motored to Roseburg from Dixonville yesterday, and spent a few hours looking after business affairs and trading.

LOCAL NEWS

Mrs. Davis Visits—Mrs. C. V. Davis, of Reston, spent yesterday afternoon in Roseburg shopping and greeting friends.

Here Today—Mrs. Anna Duker, of Milo, spent a few hours here today visiting with friends and shopping.

From Medford—Paul P. Pratten of Medford, a former resident of this city, spent last evening in Roseburg on business and greeting old friends.

From Brookway—Mrs. R. L. Bushnell, of Brookway, was a visitor in Roseburg yesterday, spending the afternoon here visiting friends and shopping.

Mr. Jenkins In—V. A. Jenkins, Looking Glass resident, was a visitor in Roseburg yesterday, spending several hours looking after business affairs.

From Ten Mile—Among those from the rural districts to spend a few hours this morning here attending to business affairs, was Alfred Swift of Ten Mile.

Visitors Today—Howard Lystul and J. O. Lystul, of Glendale, were Roseburg visitors today, spending the day attending to business matters and visiting friends.

From Milo—Mr. and Mrs. George Norman, of Milo, motored here this morning, spending several hours attending to business affairs and shopping.

Myers and Hardie sprayers at Wharton Bros. When you buy a sprayer from us you are assured that we are always here to back it up with a supply of repairs to keep it in first class working order.

Baker People Visit—Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Ryder, of Baker, were visitors in this city yesterday, enroute to coast points. Mr. Ryder with his brother publishes a road map book on the Old Oregon Trail at Baker.

Here From Portland—John R. Lee, of Portland, a former resident of this city, is spending a day or two in Roseburg on business. Mr. Lee is an employee of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company.

Former Residents Here—Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sykes, of Portland, are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Sykes until Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Sykes are on their return trip home from San Francisco, where they visited their daughter, Mrs. Steele Moorehead, over the past several weeks.

I. O. O. F. Club to Meet—The I. O. O. F. County Visiting club will meet with Philatelian lodge No. 8, on Friday evening, January 29, at which time visitors are expected from all neighboring I. O. O. F. lodges. The third degree will be exemplified by the following by a program and supper.

Visitors Leave For South—Mrs. W. H. Graham, of Melrose, New Mexico, with her daughter, and sister, Mrs. L. C. Bell, of Wichita, Texas, who have been visiting with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Black, and friends for the past three weeks or so, left this morning for their home in the south.

Expected Home From Portland—Mr. and Mrs. George N. Heas, who were called to Portland on account of the death and funeral of Mr. Heas, sister, Mrs. Stella Walser, are expected home today. Mrs. Walser has visited here a number of times and had a number of friends in Roseburg to greet her death. Funeral services were held Tuesday.

Railroad Agents Visit Today—George H. Nease, traveling freight and passenger agent of the Atchafalaya and Santa Fe Railway Company, and G. R. Webster, traveling freight and passenger agent of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway company, both of Portland, were business visitors in Roseburg today. Both men were here in regard to the transportation of the broccoli crops of Roseburg and Douglas county. Mr. Nease was also making a general trip of Oregon points looking over territory.

Insurance Representative Visits—W. C. Shuppel, superintendent of agents for the Oregon Life Insurance Co., was in the city today from Portland conferring with Charley McElhinny, local agent. He stated that the company's business showed an increase of thirty per cent last year over 1924, over a million dollars in policies being written during the month of December. He was very much encouraged with the splendid success attained by their Roseburg agent who has made an excellent showing for the year just closed.

Mrs. Harris Leaves—Mrs. H. D. Harris left this morning for Medford, where she will remain until Sunday visiting with friends. Mr. Harris will leave here, joining his wife at Medford, and they will go to California points to visit. From there they will leave for Ogden, Utah, making their home at that place in the future, and Mr. Harris will open his own business. Mr. and Mrs. Harris have been residents here for a number of years. Mr. Harris having been an employee of the Southern Pacific company in Roseburg. A group of friends were at the station to bid Mrs. Harris adieu.

SUCH POPULARITY MUST BE DESERVED

Squarely behind Chesterfield's success is the force of sincere man-to-man endorsement

LIGGETT & MYERS TOBACCO CO.

Purchases New Car—Phil Harth has purchased a new Buick 6 Coupe from the local dealer, receiving the car this morning.

On Business—Among the out of town visitors yesterday to transact business here for several hours was H. L. Engles, of Glide.

Leaves for San Francisco—L. P. Corbett, field representative of the American Red Cross in Oregon, who has been conferring with officers of the local chapter for the past several days, left today for his home at San Francisco.

Fines Are Paid—Two motorists were fined today in Justice Darling's court at Oakland. Mrs. Jack Leach of Coquille, was fined $25 for reckless driving. C. D. Jeans, of Eugene, paid a fine of $25 for speeding. Both complaints were filed by State Traffic Officer Thurber.

Sick bodies made strong

Dots and Dashes

SHORT NEWS OF THE DAY
AS RECEIVED OVER THE
A. P. LEASED WIRE.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—Opening of all income tax returns to public inspection was proposed in an amendment to the tax reduction bill introduced today by Senator Norris, republican of Nebraska.

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 27.—The body of the woman in black found in a vacant house here was identified as Mrs. Florence McAndrews, 40. She went to the house where she had formerly lived with her first husband to end her life.

BAKER, Ore., Jan. 27.—John M. Worley, for 50 years a resident of Baker county, is today observing the hundred and first anniversary of his birth. He was born in Linn county, Va. Mrs. Worley is nearing the century mark. They have 10 children, one of them 84 years old.

NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—The working control of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railway recently acquired by the St. Louis-San Francisco railway was strengthened today when Frisco interests obtained representation on the Rock Island board through the election of three new directors.

Here Today—Julia Burak, of Melrose, spent the afternoon here visiting with friends and shopping.

Mrs. Wilson Visits—Mrs. Anna Wilson, of Glendale, spent a few hours here today, shopping and visiting with friends returning home this afternoon.

Flue Fire Today—The fire department was called out shortly before noon today for a flue fire at the Currier rooming house at the corner of Stephens and Mosher streets. The firemen found a dangerous condition existing and were surprised that a serious fire had not previously developed. They found where wall paper had been pasted directly over an open hole in the flue without a metal covering of any kind. When the flue burned out today the paper was scorched, filling the house with smoke. Fortunately the department was called before any damage was done, and an investigation is being made to see that no other hazards exist.

EUGENE, Ore., Jan. 27.—Held for the grand jury on a charge of larceny, Eleanor D. Burtchall, 21, and Laura Pauline Breske, 19, University of Oregon students, were released from custody today on bonds of $2000 each. The two girls were arrested yesterday when quantities of goods alleged to have been stolen from local stores were found in their room at an apartment house here.

SALEM, Ore., Jan. 27.—An object believed to be the tusk of some prehistoric animal was unearthed by workmen digging a sewer in the northern section of this city early this afternoon. The tusk measured about seven feet in length and nine inches in diameter at its thickest point. It crumbled in the hands of workmen as they removed it from the ground.

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 27.—How to organize farm units to bring about the orderly marketing of products was the keynote of the evening session today of the annual meeting of the State Association of Commercial organization secretaries. Other phases of state development work under consideration were land settlement and advertising for tourists.

LONDON.—New evolutionists have been discovered in the Congo: natives known as the Datagani believe that apes are descended from disgraced men. "We are better and prouder than the apes; therefore we eat them," they told Rev. H. C. Graham, a returned missionary.

the Rock Island board through the election of three new directors.

Here Today—Julia Burak, of Melrose, spent the afternoon here visiting with friends and shopping.

Mrs. Wilson Visits—Mrs. Anna Wilson, of Glendale, spent a few hours here today, shopping and visiting with friends returning home this afternoon.

Flue Fire Today—The fire department was called out shortly before noon today for a flue fire at the Currier rooming house at the corner of Stephens and Mosher streets. The firemen found a dangerous condition existing and were surprised that a serious fire had not previously developed. They found where wall paper had been pasted directly over an open hole in the flue without a metal covering of any kind. When the flue burned out today the paper was scorched, filling the house with smoke. Fortunately the department was called before any damage was done, and an investigation is being made to see that no other hazards exist.

EUGENE, Ore., Jan. 27.—Held for the grand jury on a charge of larceny, Eleanor D. Burtchall, 21, and Laura Pauline Breske, 19, University of Oregon students, were released from custody today on bonds of $2000 each. The two girls were arrested yesterday when quantities of goods alleged to have been stolen from local stores were found in their room at an apartment house here.

SALEM, Ore., Jan. 27.—An object believed to be the tusk of some prehistoric animal was unearthed by workmen digging a sewer in the northern section of this city early this afternoon. The tusk measured about seven feet in length and nine inches in diameter at its thickest point. It crumbled in the hands of workmen as they removed it from the ground.

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 27.—How to organize farm units to bring about the orderly marketing of products was the keynote of the evening session today of the annual meeting of the State Association of Commercial organization secretaries. Other phases of state development work under consideration were land settlement and advertising for tourists.

LONDON.—New evolutionists have been discovered in the Congo: natives known as the Datagani believe that apes are descended from disgraced men. "We are better and prouder than the apes; therefore we eat them," they told Rev. H. C. Graham, a returned missionary.

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 27.—The body of the woman in black found in a vacant house here was identified as Mrs. Florence McAndrews, 40. She went to the house where she had formerly lived with her first husband to end her life.

BAKER, Ore., Jan. 27.—John M. Worley, for 50 years a resident of Baker county, is today observing the hundred and first anniversary of his birth. He was born in Linn county, Va. Mrs. Worley is nearing the century mark. They have 10 children, one of them 84 years old.

NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—The working control of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railway recently acquired by the St. Louis-San Francisco railway was strengthened today when Frisco interests obtained representation on the Rock Island board through the election of three new directors.

Here Today—Julia Burak, of Melrose, spent the afternoon here visiting with friends and shopping.

Mrs. Wilson Visits—Mrs. Anna Wilson, of Glendale, spent a few hours here today, shopping and visiting with friends returning home this afternoon.

Flue Fire Today—The fire department was called out shortly before noon today for a flue fire at the Currier rooming house at the corner of Stephens and Mosher streets. The firemen found a dangerous condition existing and were surprised that a serious fire had not previously developed. They found where wall paper had been pasted directly over an open hole in the flue without a metal covering of any kind. When the flue burned out today the paper was scorched, filling the house with smoke. Fortunately the department was called before any damage was done, and an investigation is being made to see that no other hazards exist.

EUGENE, Ore., Jan. 27.—Held for the grand jury on a charge of larceny, Eleanor D. Burtchall, 21, and Laura Pauline Breske, 19, University of Oregon students, were released from custody today on bonds of $2000 each. The two girls were arrested yesterday when quantities of goods alleged to have been stolen from local stores were found in their room at an apartment house here.

SALEM, Ore., Jan. 27.—An object believed to be the tusk of some prehistoric animal was unearthed by workmen digging a sewer in the northern section of this city early this afternoon. The tusk measured about seven feet in length and nine inches in diameter at its thickest point. It crumbled in the hands of workmen as they removed it from the ground.

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 27.—How to organize farm units to bring about the orderly marketing of products was the keynote of the evening session today of the annual meeting of the State Association of Commercial organization secretaries. Other phases of state development work under consideration were land settlement and advertising for tourists.

LONDON.—New evolutionists have been discovered in the Congo: natives known as the Datagani believe that apes are descended from disgraced men. "We are better and prouder than the apes; therefore we eat them," they told Rev. H. C. Graham, a returned missionary.

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 27.—The body of the woman in black found in a vacant house here was identified as Mrs. Florence McAndrews, 40. She went to the house where she had formerly lived with her first husband to end her life.

BAKER, Ore., Jan. 27.—John M. Worley, for 50 years a resident of Baker county, is today observing the hundred and first anniversary of his birth. He was born in Linn county, Va. Mrs. Worley is nearing the century mark. They have 10 children, one of them 84 years old.

NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—The working control of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railway recently acquired by the St. Louis-San Francisco railway was strengthened today when Frisco interests obtained representation on the Rock Island board through the election of three new directors.

Here Today—Julia Burak, of Melrose, spent the afternoon here visiting with friends and shopping.

Mrs. Wilson Visits—Mrs. Anna Wilson, of Glendale, spent a few hours here today, shopping and visiting with friends returning home this afternoon.

Flue Fire Today—The fire department was called out shortly before noon today for a flue fire at the Currier rooming house at the corner of Stephens and Mosher streets. The firemen found a dangerous condition existing and were surprised that a serious fire had not previously developed. They found where wall paper had been pasted directly over an open hole in the flue without a metal covering of any kind. When the flue burned out today the paper was scorched, filling the house with smoke. Fortunately the department was called before any damage was done, and an investigation is being made to see that no other hazards exist.

EUGENE, Ore., Jan. 27.—Held for the grand jury on a charge of larceny, Eleanor D. Burtchall, 21, and Laura Pauline Breske, 19, University of Oregon students, were released from custody today on bonds of $2000 each. The two girls were arrested yesterday when quantities of goods alleged to have been stolen from local stores were found in their room at an apartment house here.

SALEM, Ore., Jan. 27.—An object believed to be the tusk of some prehistoric animal was unearthed by workmen digging a sewer in the northern section of this city early this afternoon. The tusk measured about seven feet in length and nine inches in diameter at its thickest point. It crumbled in the hands of workmen as they removed it from the ground.

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 27.—How to organize farm units to bring about the orderly marketing of products was the keynote of the evening session today of the annual meeting of the State Association of Commercial organization secretaries. Other phases of state development work under consideration were land settlement and advertising for tourists.

LONDON.—New evolutionists have been discovered in the Congo: natives known as the Datagani believe that apes are descended from disgraced men. "We are better and prouder than the apes; therefore we eat them," they told Rev. H. C. Graham, a returned missionary.

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 27.—The body of the woman in black found in a vacant house here was identified as Mrs. Florence McAndrews, 40. She went to the house where she had formerly lived with her first husband to end her life.

BAKER, Ore., Jan. 27.—John M. Worley, for 50 years a resident of Baker county, is today observing the hundred and first anniversary of his birth. He was born in Linn county, Va. Mrs. Worley is nearing the century mark. They have 10 children, one of them 84 years old.

NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—The working control of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railway recently acquired by the St. Louis-San Francisco railway was strengthened today when Frisco interests obtained representation on the Rock Island board through the election of three new directors.

Here Today—Julia Burak, of Melrose, spent the afternoon here visiting with friends and shopping.

Mrs. Wilson Visits—Mrs. Anna Wilson, of Glendale, spent a few hours here today, shopping and visiting with friends returning home this afternoon.

Flue Fire Today—The fire department was called out shortly before noon today for a flue fire at the Currier rooming house at the corner of Stephens and Mosher streets. The firemen found a dangerous condition existing and were surprised that a serious fire had not previously developed. They found where wall paper had been pasted directly over an open hole in the flue without a metal covering of any kind. When the flue burned out today the paper was scorched, filling the house with smoke. Fortunately the department was called before any damage was done, and an investigation is being made to see that no other hazards exist.

EUGENE, Ore., Jan. 27.—Held for the grand jury on a charge of larceny, Eleanor D. Burtchall, 21, and Laura Pauline Breske, 19, University of Oregon students, were released from custody today on bonds of $2000 each. The two girls were arrested yesterday when quantities of goods alleged to have been stolen from local stores were found in their room at an apartment house here.

SALEM, Ore., Jan. 27.—An object believed to be the tusk of some prehistoric animal was unearthed by workmen digging a sewer in the northern section of this city early this afternoon. The tusk measured about seven feet in length and nine inches in diameter at its thickest point. It crumbled in the hands of workmen as they removed it from the ground.

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 27.—How to organize farm units to bring about the orderly marketing of products was the keynote of the evening session today of the annual meeting of the State Association of Commercial organization secretaries. Other phases of state development work under consideration were land settlement and advertising for tourists.

LONDON.—New evolutionists have been discovered in the Congo: natives known as the Datagani believe that apes are descended from disgraced men. "We are better and prouder than the apes; therefore we eat them," they told Rev. H. C. Graham, a returned missionary.

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 27.—The body of the woman in black found in a vacant house here was identified as Mrs. Florence McAndrews, 40. She went to the house where she had formerly lived with her first husband to end her life.

BAKER, Ore., Jan. 27.—John M. Worley, for 50 years a resident of Baker county, is today observing the hundred and first anniversary of his birth. He was born in Linn county, Va. Mrs. Worley is nearing the century mark. They have 10 children, one of them 84 years old.

NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—The working control of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railway recently acquired by the St. Louis-San Francisco railway was strengthened today when Frisco interests obtained representation on the Rock Island board through the election of three new directors.

Here Today—Julia Burak, of Melrose, spent the afternoon here visiting with friends and shopping.

Mrs. Wilson Visits—Mrs. Anna Wilson, of Glendale, spent a few hours here today, shopping and visiting with friends returning home this afternoon.

Flue Fire Today—The fire department was called out shortly before noon today for a flue fire at the Currier rooming house at the corner of Stephens and Mosher streets. The firemen found a dangerous condition existing and were surprised that a serious fire had not previously developed. They found where wall paper had been pasted directly over an open hole in the flue without a metal covering of any kind. When the flue burned out today the paper was scorched, filling the house with smoke. Fortunately the department was called before any damage was done, and an investigation is being made to see that no other hazards exist.

EUGENE, Ore., Jan. 27.—Held for the grand jury on a charge of larceny, Eleanor D. Burtchall, 21, and Laura Pauline Breske, 19, University of Oregon students, were released from custody today on bonds of $2000 each. The two girls were arrested yesterday when quantities of goods alleged to have been stolen from local stores were found in their room at an apartment house here.

SALEM, Ore., Jan. 27.—An object believed to be the tusk of some prehistoric animal was unearthed by workmen digging a sewer in the northern section of this city early this afternoon. The tusk measured about seven feet in length and nine inches in diameter at its thickest point. It crumbled in the hands of workmen as they removed it from the ground.

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 27.—How to organize farm units to bring about the orderly marketing of products was the keynote of the evening session today of the annual meeting of the State Association of Commercial organization secretaries. Other phases of state development work under consideration were land settlement and advertising for tourists.

LONDON.—New evolutionists have been discovered in the Congo: natives known as the Datagani believe that apes are descended from disgraced men. "We are better and prouder than the apes; therefore we eat them," they told Rev. H. C. Graham, a returned missionary.

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 27.—The body of the woman in black found in a vacant house here was identified as Mrs. Florence McAndrews, 40. She went to the house where she had formerly lived with her first husband to end her life.

BAKER, Ore., Jan. 27.—John M. Worley, for 50 years a resident of Baker county, is today observing the hundred and first anniversary of his birth. He was born in Linn county, Va. Mrs. Worley is nearing the century mark. They have 10 children, one of them 84 years old.

NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—The working control of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railway recently acquired by the St. Louis-San Francisco railway was strengthened today when Frisco interests obtained representation on the Rock Island board through the election of three new directors.

Here Today—Julia Burak, of Melrose, spent the afternoon here visiting with friends and shopping.

Mrs. Wilson Visits—Mrs. Anna Wilson, of Glendale, spent a few hours here today, shopping and visiting with friends returning home this afternoon.

Flue Fire Today—The fire department was called out shortly before noon today for a flue fire at the Currier rooming house at the corner of Stephens and Mosher streets. The firemen found a dangerous condition existing and were surprised that a serious fire had not previously developed. They found where wall paper had been pasted directly over an open hole in the flue without a metal covering of any kind. When the flue burned out today the paper was scorched, filling the house with smoke. Fortunately the department was called before any damage was done, and an investigation is being made to see that no other hazards exist.

EUGENE, Ore., Jan. 27.—Held for the grand jury on a charge of larceny, Eleanor D. Burtchall, 21, and Laura Pauline Breske, 19, University of Oregon students, were released from custody today on bonds of $2000 each. The two girls were arrested yesterday when quantities of goods alleged to have been stolen from local stores were found in their room at an apartment house here.

SALEM, Ore., Jan. 27.—An object believed to be the tusk of some prehistoric animal was unearthed by workmen digging a sewer in the northern section of this city early this afternoon. The tusk measured about seven feet in length and nine inches in diameter at its thickest point. It crumbled in the hands of workmen as they removed it from the ground.

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 27.—How to organize farm units to bring about the orderly marketing of products was the keynote of the evening session today of the annual meeting of the State Association of Commercial organization secretaries. Other phases of state development work under consideration were land settlement and advertising for tourists.

LONDON.—New evolutionists have been discovered in the Congo: natives known as the Datagani believe that apes are descended from disgraced men. "We are better and prouder than the apes; therefore we eat them," they told Rev. H. C. Graham, a returned missionary.

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 27.—The body of the woman in black found in a vacant house here was identified as Mrs. Florence McAndrews, 40. She went to the house where she had formerly lived with her first husband to end her life.

BAKER, Ore., Jan. 27.—John M. Worley, for 50 years a resident of Baker county, is today observing the hundred and first anniversary of his birth. He was born in Linn county, Va. Mrs. Worley is nearing the century mark. They have 10 children, one of them 84 years old.

NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—The working control of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railway recently acquired by the St. Louis-San Francisco railway was strengthened today when Frisco interests obtained representation on the Rock Island board through the election of three new directors.

Here Today—Julia Burak, of Melrose, spent the afternoon here visiting with friends and shopping.

Mrs. Wilson Visits—Mrs. Anna Wilson, of Glendale, spent a few hours here today, shopping and visiting with friends returning home this afternoon.

Flue Fire Today—The fire department was called out shortly before noon today for a flue fire at the Currier rooming house at the corner of Stephens and Mosher streets. The firemen found a dangerous condition existing and were surprised that a serious fire had not previously developed. They found where wall paper had been pasted directly over an open hole in the flue without a metal covering of any kind. When the flue burned out today the paper was scorched, filling the house with smoke. Fortunately the department was called before any damage was done, and an investigation is being made to see that no other hazards exist.

EUGENE, Ore., Jan. 27.—Held for the grand jury on a charge of larceny, Eleanor D. Burtchall, 21, and Laura Pauline Breske, 19, University of Oregon students, were released from custody today on bonds of $2000 each. The two girls were arrested yesterday when quantities of goods alleged to have been stolen from local stores were found in their room at an apartment house here.

SALEM, Ore., Jan. 27.—An object believed to be the tusk of some prehistoric animal was unearthed by workmen digging a sewer in the northern section of this city early this afternoon. The tusk measured about seven feet in length and nine inches in diameter at its thickest point. It crumbled in the hands of workmen as they removed it from the ground.

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 27.—How to organize farm units to bring about the orderly marketing of products was the keynote of the evening session today of the annual meeting of the State Association of Commercial organization secretaries. Other phases of state development work under consideration were land settlement and advertising for tourists.

LONDON.—New evolutionists have been discovered in the Congo: natives known as the Datagani believe that apes are descended from disgraced men. "We are better and prouder than the apes; therefore we eat them," they told Rev. H. C. Graham, a returned missionary.

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 27.—The body of the woman in black found in a vacant house here was identified as Mrs. Florence McAndrews, 40. She went to the house where she had formerly lived with her first husband to end her life.

BAKER, Ore., Jan. 27.—John M. Worley, for 50 years a resident of Baker county, is today observing the hundred and first anniversary of his birth. He was born in Linn county, Va. Mrs. Worley is nearing the century mark. They have 10 children, one of them 84 years old.

NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—The working control of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railway recently acquired by the St. Louis-San Francisco railway was strengthened today when Frisco interests obtained representation on the Rock Island board through the election of three new directors.

Here Today—Julia Burak, of Melrose, spent the afternoon here visiting with friends and shopping.

Mrs. Wilson Visits—Mrs. Anna Wilson, of Glendale,