Roseburg has a scout, Tom McDowell, of Trout Two, who is the champion box of the state of Oregon. He won that honor at Portland last November and it is expected that he will not parade as a "Jack Dempsey," but step and defend his honor against all comers as all true sportsmen should.

The rally is free to the public and no contributions will be taken. Every man, woman and child in Douglas County are urged to attend and enjoy the program.

In preparing the program, care has been taken not to repeat the events of last year, because it is felt that that phase of the work is highly important in a rally in that it is important that the public in general be instructed.

BOY SCOUT RALLY TO BE HELD MONDAY NIGHT AT ARMORY

Demonstration of Scoutcraft to Be Given at Rally—Organizations to Participate.

Next Monday, February 16th, marks the sixteenth anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America. This organization, one of the few being chartered directly under Congress, has had a remarkable growth during that time. There have been over two million boys who have enjoyed the program and training of the Boy Scouts and greatly profited by catching a better character which will be a valuable reflection on them through life.

The success of the whole movement is in that it was first built on the "Good Turn." The Scout Motto, "Do a Good Turn Daily" is still the rule and guide of the 800,000 boys now active in the program.

Each year the Boy Scouts, all over America, celebrate their anniversary in some manner. Usually it is in the form of a rally or demonstration. The Roseburg Scouts have been staging a rally at the armory and inviting the public to attend. This year the affair is to be bigger than ever and better.

The Douglas County Concert Band, undoubtedly the best in the state, will play several numbers. Then the Umpqua Chiefs and Squaws, true boosters of Roseburg have their part and will be on the job to do it.

Then too, the Scouts in their desire to help the Camp Fire Girls, their sister organization, have invited them to take part in the program. They have accepted and have a fine program ready.

The Scouts are going on a hike today and at various times while resting will complete their preparation for the rally. The events of the rally are as follows: Band Concert; Pow-wow, Chief Umpqua and his braves and squaws; Hat Boxing Contest; Knot Tying (speed event); First Aid Demonstration showing Cravat Bandage for fractured jaw, spiral reverse bandage for forearm; Triangular bandage for head, bandage for fractured ribs, triangular bandage for foot, elbow bandage, knee bandage and sling for arm; Skit by the Camp Fire Girls; Trunk Feet; Fire Friction demonstration; Exhibition of Spar Lashing; Champ Nit (Showing poorest Scout in trying); Drill Exhibition and Pyramid building, by Melrose Troop of Scouts; "Know-your-stuff" baseball; Latest method of artificial respiration; Signalling with human towers; Fuzz Stick whittling contest and rescue, or transportation contest.

In preparing the program, care has been taken not to repeat the events of last year, because it is felt that that phase of the work is highly important in a rally in that it is important that the public in general be instructed. Roseburg has a scout, Tom McDowell, of Trout Two, who is the champion box of the state of Oregon.
