

The Model Dairy

Is starting deliveries of Clarified Milk

Morning or Night Delivery

Phone 44F-11

"More Cream per Quart"

We deliver whole milk.

LOCAL NEWS

Returns From Eugene—

Mrs. Jay Fulcher has returned from Eugene, where she enjoyed a visit with friends for a few days last week.

Condition Improved—

W. H. Levins of Elkton, who has been quite ill at Mercy Hospital, is reported to be somewhat improved today.

Here Few Days—

M. N. Butcher of Eugene, was an arrival yesterday and is spending a few days here attending to business affairs.

Spends Week-End—

Miss Edith Calvin returned to Oakland this morning after spending the week-end in this city visiting with friends.

Return From South—

Mrs. Lucile Watson and two children returned today from Orange, California, where they spent the past six months at the home of her mother-in-law.

Dismissed From Hospital—

Mrs. E. O. Rundell, of Strachan, Alberta, Canada, and Mrs. Tom Hughes, of Monroe, Oregon, who have been receiving treatment at Mercy Hospital, have been discharged greatly improved in health.

Visitors From Corvallis—

Mrs. E. O. Rundell, of Corvallis came to Roseburg today for a short visit. He is a brother-in-law of Mrs. T. H. Olsen of this city. Mrs. Olsen and her two children Kenneth and Helen are quite ill at their home with influenza.

Loses Clothing In Fire—

Robert E. Hilt, son of Dr. W. C. Hilt, county physician, lost all of his clothing, except that which he wore, and all his personal possessions in a fraternity house fire in Corvallis, where he is attending college, according to word received today by his parents.

Through From Marshfield—

Ed Knox, field representative of the Buick Motor Company in Oregon, arrived in Roseburg today from Marshfield, the first car to come directly through since the big slide between Marshfield and Coquille. Mr. Knox went over the old plank road between Marshfield and Coquille, making a trip that was both dangerous and difficult, but arrived without mishap. Although several cars have tried to get over the old

HER SISTER FROM

PARIS says:

Ze lover today is like ze paper match. For ze woman who strike his passion—beware!—if she try to hold him, she burns ze fingers.

LOCAL NEWS

In Monday—
O. G. Rogers spent a few hours in this city yesterday looking after business affairs and meeting friends.

From Drain—
Deputy Sheriff Ed Sterling, of Drain, was in Roseburg yesterday afternoon attending to business affairs.

Returns To School—
Harry Gustafson, of Portland, A. C. to resume his studies, after a brief visit with his parents in this city.

In Monday—
T. H. Hill, of Dixonville, was in Roseburg Monday and was looking after business affairs for a brief time.

Business Visitor—
Roy Stanley, resident of Olalla, was a visitor in this city Monday and was transacting business for a few hours.

From Brockway—
Mrs. L. B. Thrush, resident of Brockway, was among the visitors here yesterday and was shopping for a few hours.

To O. A. C.—
Among those returning to O. A. C. after visiting a few days with parents and friends are Adelbert and Bernhard Young.

Spends Day—
Miss Ina Farnsworth and Mrs. Sampson, teachers at Looking Glass were in yesterday shopping and visiting with friends.

From Melrose—
Mrs. John Busenbark, Jr., and son, of Melrose, were visiting with friends and shopping in this city for a few hours Monday.

To Visit In Grants Pass—
Mr. L. Friend, of Canas Valley, left this morning for Grants Pass, where he will enjoy a month's visit with friends.

From Portland—
J. N. Cochran, United States Naval recruiting officer and L. C. Thornton, of Portland, are spending a short time in Roseburg.

On Business—
Ben Jacoby returned to Looking Glass yesterday afternoon, after spending a few hours here looking after business affairs.

Visitor Monday—
Mrs. John Kinkie returned to Deer Park, near Canbyville, yesterday afternoon after visiting and shopping here for a few hours.

Visiting Monday—
W. S. Duer and daughter, Katherine, of Sutherlin, were visiting friends and spending a short time on business in this city on Monday.

From Glendale—
Virgil De Bernardi returned to Glendale today after spending Monday in this city looking after business affairs and meeting friends.

Visitors In Town—
Mr. and Mrs. Barton Hellmuth and son, Robert, of Yoncalla, were visiting with friends and relatives in this city over Sunday and Monday.

From Tillamook—
Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Van Dyck returned to Tillamook yesterday afternoon after visiting and attending to business affairs during the day.

From Looking Glass—
Stanley Shrink, resident of Looking Glass, was a visitor in this city yesterday, and was attending to business affairs for a few hours.

Arrives From Astoria—
Mrs. M. Swagert, of Astoria, arrived this morning on train number 52 and will visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ed Patterson, and her mother, Mrs. J. Freeman, who is ill.

Visits At Wickham Home—
Dr. Schute, professor and instructor of psychology and vocation at the Oregon Normal School, was a guest over the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wickham. Dr. Schute returned to the school yesterday afternoon, accompanied by Allen Wickham, a student at the Normal. They made the trip by auto.

Visit Is Enjoyed—
According to word received from Rev. C. H. Hilton, former pastor of the Roseburg Christian church, a very pleasant visit is being enjoyed in southern California by Mr. and Mrs. James H. Hutchings and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Poole of Roseburg. The local people have been visiting with Rev. and Mrs. Hilton and have made a number of trips to points near Glendora, where Rev. Hilton is now pastor.

Visiting In South—
Word has been received here by friends from Mrs. E. V. Hoover, stating that she and Dr. Hoover are now visiting in San Pedro, California. Mrs. Hoover states in her letter that the weather is extremely warm there. Dr. and Mrs. Hoover are guests at the home of their daughter, Helen. During their stay in the south they also have been visiting at San Francisco.

Suits Filed—
Two suits have been filed in the circuit court against L. W. Metzger, C. V. Oden and E. D. Duncan, of the Lane Mountain Lumber company have brought suit for $1,856, claimed to be due for materials furnished, and the Credit Service company is suing for $347, claimed due on accounts for materials. The lumber company owners are represented by Attorney Wimberly and the credit company by a Portland firm.

License Issued—
A marriage license has been issued to Loren W. George and Hazel Wells, both of Kirby.

Visits At Salem—
Platt T. Randall, accountant for Copco in Salem, returned last night from Salem, where he enjoyed a week-end visit with friends.

Visit at Corvallis—
Mrs. Louis Kohlhaugen and daughter Vernita, motored to Corvallis over the week-end to visit with Miss Bertha Kohlhaugen.

H. A. Thling Visits—
H. A. Thling, a former resident of Roseburg, now in the electrical business at Klamath Falls, was a business visitor in Roseburg today.

From Yoncalla—
Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Daugherty and family, of Yoncalla, were Roseburg visitors yesterday and were shopping and attending to business affairs.

From Melrose—
Mrs. R. Busenbark and daughter Joyce, of Melrose, were among the out of town visitors, spending a few hours shopping and meeting friends.

Wades In Portland—
Dr. and Mrs. Charles B. Wade are expected home tonight from Portland, where they have been visiting over the week-end. They made the trip by auto.

To University of Oregon—
Roy Jost, student at the University of Oregon, who has been spending a few days visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Jost, has returned to Eugene.

Returns After Visit—
Mrs. J. J. Jost left yesterday afternoon by auto for Turner, where he is employed by the Southern Pacific company, after visiting here over the week-end.

Return Home—
Mrs. T. G. Shrum and son, Junior, who have been spending several days in Glendale with the former's mother, who has been ill, have returned to their home in this city.

Leaves To Attend Meeting—
Mrs. W. D. Duer, of Sutherlin, was visiting in this city a short time yesterday prior to leaving for Portland, where she will represent Douglas county at the State Tuberculosis association meeting today and Wednesday.

Return Home—
Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hatch and family returned yesterday to their home at Cottage Grove after spending a few days here visiting friends and relatives. They were guests at the home of Mrs. Belle Schindler.

To Attend Meeting—
County Health Nurses Ellen Post and Josephine Jones, and Miss Marion Porter, secretary of the county health unit, are attending the greater part of the week in Portland attending the convention of the state tuberculosis association.

Leaves For Portland—
Morton Hadley, of Portland, who has been visiting with his father, Charles L. Hadley for a short time, returned yesterday afternoon to his home in Portland. Mr. Hadley is now doing research work for the Eastman Kodak firm, and will have his headquarters in the west for the next two years.

Miss Sappington Returns—
Miss Lucille Sappington, who has been spending the past few days in Portland visiting, returned home this morning. Enroute home she stopped in Eugene to see Mrs. C. S. Heinline, who is recuperating from an operation. Mrs. Heinline's condition is steadily improving and she is much better.

Visits At Wickham Home—
Dr. Schute, professor and instructor of psychology and vocation at the Oregon Normal School, was a guest over the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wickham. Dr. Schute returned to the school yesterday afternoon, accompanied by Allen Wickham, a student at the Normal. They made the trip by auto.

Visit Is Enjoyed—
According to word received from Rev. C. H. Hilton, former pastor of the Roseburg Christian church, a very pleasant visit is being enjoyed in southern California by Mr. and Mrs. James H. Hutchings and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Poole of Roseburg. The local people have been visiting with Rev. and Mrs. Hilton and have made a number of trips to points near Glendora, where Rev. Hilton is now pastor.

Visiting In South—
Word has been received here by friends from Mrs. E. V. Hoover, stating that she and Dr. Hoover are now visiting in San Pedro, California. Mrs. Hoover states in her letter that the weather is extremely warm there. Dr. and Mrs. Hoover are guests at the home of their daughter, Helen. During their stay in the south they also have been visiting at San Francisco.

Suits Filed—
Two suits have been filed in the circuit court against L. W. Metzger, C. V. Oden and E. D. Duncan, of the Lane Mountain Lumber company have brought suit for $1,856, claimed to be due for materials furnished, and the Credit Service company is suing for $347, claimed due on accounts for materials. The lumber company owners are represented by Attorney Wimberly and the credit company by a Portland firm.

License Issued—
A marriage license has been issued to Loren W. George and Hazel Wells, both of Kirby.

Visits At Salem—
Platt T. Randall, accountant for Copco in Salem, returned last night from Salem, where he enjoyed a week-end visit with friends.

Visit at Corvallis—
Mrs. Louis Kohlhaugen and daughter Vernita, motored to Corvallis over the week-end to visit with Miss Bertha Kohlhaugen.

H. A. Thling Visits—
H. A. Thling, a former resident of Roseburg, now in the electrical business at Klamath Falls, was a business visitor in Roseburg today.

From Yoncalla—
Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Daugherty and family, of Yoncalla, were Roseburg visitors yesterday and were shopping and attending to business affairs.

From Melrose—
Mrs. R. Busenbark and daughter Joyce, of Melrose, were among the out of town visitors, spending a few hours shopping and meeting friends.

Wades In Portland—
Dr. and Mrs. Charles B. Wade are expected home tonight from Portland, where they have been visiting over the week-end. They made the trip by auto.

To University of Oregon—
Roy Jost, student at the University of Oregon, who has been spending a few days visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Jost, has returned to Eugene.

Returns After Visit—
Mrs. J. J. Jost left yesterday afternoon by auto for Turner, where he is employed by the Southern Pacific company, after visiting here over the week-end.

Return Home—
Mrs. T. G. Shrum and son, Junior, who have been spending several days in Glendale with the former's mother, who has been ill, have returned to their home in this city.

Leaves To Attend Meeting—
Mrs. W. D. Duer, of Sutherlin, was visiting in this city a short time yesterday prior to leaving for Portland, where she will represent Douglas county at the State Tuberculosis association meeting today and Wednesday.

Return Home—
Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hatch and family returned yesterday to their home at Cottage Grove after spending a few days here visiting friends and relatives. They were guests at the home of Mrs. Belle Schindler.

To Attend Meeting—
County Health Nurses Ellen Post and Josephine Jones, and Miss Marion Porter, secretary of the county health unit, are attending the greater part of the week in Portland attending the convention of the state tuberculosis association.

Leaves For Portland—
Morton Hadley, of Portland, who has been visiting with his father, Charles L. Hadley for a short time, returned yesterday afternoon to his home in Portland. Mr. Hadley is now doing research work for the Eastman Kodak firm, and will have his headquarters in the west for the next two years.

Miss Sappington Returns—
Miss Lucille Sappington, who has been spending the past few days in Portland visiting, returned home this morning. Enroute home she stopped in Eugene to see Mrs. C. S. Heinline, who is recuperating from an operation. Mrs. Heinline's condition is steadily improving and she is much better.

Visits At Wickham Home—
Dr. Schute, professor and instructor of psychology and vocation at the Oregon Normal School, was a guest over the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wickham. Dr. Schute returned to the school yesterday afternoon, accompanied by Allen Wickham, a student at the Normal. They made the trip by auto.

Visit Is Enjoyed—
According to word received from Rev. C. H. Hilton, former pastor of the Roseburg Christian church, a very pleasant visit is being enjoyed in southern California by Mr. and Mrs. James H. Hutchings and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Poole of Roseburg. The local people have been visiting with Rev. and Mrs. Hilton and have made a number of trips to points near Glendora, where Rev. Hilton is now pastor.

Visiting In South—
Word has been received here by friends from Mrs. E. V. Hoover, stating that she and Dr. Hoover are now visiting in San Pedro, California. Mrs. Hoover states in her letter that the weather is extremely warm there. Dr. and Mrs. Hoover are guests at the home of their daughter, Helen. During their stay in the south they also have been visiting at San Francisco.

Suits Filed—
Two suits have been filed in the circuit court against L. W. Metzger, C. V. Oden and E. D. Duncan, of the Lane Mountain Lumber company have brought suit for $1,856, claimed to be due for materials furnished, and the Credit Service company is suing for $347, claimed due on accounts for materials. The lumber company owners are represented by Attorney Wimberly and the credit company by a Portland firm.

License Issued—
A marriage license has been issued to Loren W. George and Hazel Wells, both of Kirby.

Visits At Salem—
Platt T. Randall, accountant for Copco in Salem, returned last night from Salem, where he enjoyed a week-end visit with friends.

Visit at Corvallis—
Mrs. Louis Kohlhaugen and daughter Vernita, motored to Corvallis over the week-end to visit with Miss Bertha Kohlhaugen.

H. A. Thling Visits—
H. A. Thling, a former resident of Roseburg, now in the electrical business at Klamath Falls, was a business visitor in Roseburg today.

From Yoncalla—
Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Daugherty and family, of Yoncalla, were Roseburg visitors yesterday and were shopping and attending to business affairs.

From Melrose—
Mrs. R. Busenbark and daughter Joyce, of Melrose, were among the out of town visitors, spending a few hours shopping and meeting friends.

Wades In Portland—
Dr. and Mrs. Charles B. Wade are expected home tonight from Portland, where they have been visiting over the week-end. They made the trip by auto.

To University of Oregon—
Roy Jost, student at the University of Oregon, who has been spending a few days visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Jost, has returned to Eugene.

Returns After Visit—
Mrs. J. J. Jost left yesterday afternoon by auto for Turner, where he is employed by the Southern Pacific company, after visiting here over the week-end.

Return Home—
Mrs. T. G. Shrum and son, Junior, who have been spending several days in Glendale with the former's mother, who has been ill, have returned to their home in this city.

Leaves To Attend Meeting—
Mrs. W. D. Duer, of Sutherlin, was visiting in this city a short time yesterday prior to leaving for Portland, where she will represent Douglas county at the State Tuberculosis association meeting today and Wednesday.

Return Home—
Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hatch and family returned yesterday to their home at Cottage Grove after spending a few days here visiting friends and relatives. They were guests at the home of Mrs. Belle Schindler.

To Attend Meeting—
County Health Nurses Ellen Post and Josephine Jones, and Miss Marion Porter, secretary of the county health unit, are attending the greater part of the week in Portland attending the convention of the state tuberculosis association.

Leaves For Portland—
Morton Hadley, of Portland, who has been visiting with his father, Charles L. Hadley for a short time, returned yesterday afternoon to his home in Portland. Mr. Hadley is now doing research work for the Eastman Kodak firm, and will have his headquarters in the west for the next two years.

Miss Sappington Returns—
Miss Lucille Sappington, who has been spending the past few days in Portland visiting, returned home this morning. Enroute home she stopped in Eugene to see Mrs. C. S. Heinline, who is recuperating from an operation. Mrs. Heinline's condition is steadily improving and she is much better.

Visits At Wickham Home—
Dr. Schute, professor and instructor of psychology and vocation at the Oregon Normal School, was a guest over the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wickham. Dr. Schute returned to the school yesterday afternoon, accompanied by Allen Wickham, a student at the Normal. They made the trip by auto.

Visit Is Enjoyed—
According to word received from Rev. C. H. Hilton, former pastor of the Roseburg Christian church, a very pleasant visit is being enjoyed in southern California by Mr. and Mrs. James H. Hutchings and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Poole of Roseburg. The local people have been visiting with Rev. and Mrs. Hilton and have made a number of trips to points near Glendora, where Rev. Hilton is now pastor.

Visiting In South—
Word has been received here by friends from Mrs. E. V. Hoover, stating that she and Dr. Hoover are now visiting in San Pedro, California. Mrs. Hoover states in her letter that the weather is extremely warm there. Dr. and Mrs. Hoover are guests at the home of their daughter, Helen. During their stay in the south they also have been visiting at San Francisco.

Suits Filed—
Two suits have been filed in the circuit court against L. W. Metzger, C. V. Oden and E. D. Duncan, of the Lane Mountain Lumber company have brought suit for $1,856, claimed to be due for materials furnished, and the Credit Service company is suing for $347, claimed due on accounts for materials. The lumber company owners are represented by Attorney Wimberly and the credit company by a Portland firm.

License Issued—
A marriage license has been issued to Loren W. George and Hazel Wells, both of Kirby.

Visits At Salem—
Platt T. Randall, accountant for Copco in Salem, returned last night from Salem, where he enjoyed a week-end visit with friends.

Visit at Corvallis—
Mrs. Louis Kohlhaugen and daughter Vernita, motored to Corvallis over the week-end to visit with Miss Bertha Kohlhaugen.

H. A. Thling Visits—
H. A. Thling, a former resident of Roseburg, now in the electrical business at Klamath Falls, was a business visitor in Roseburg today.

From Yoncalla—
Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Daugherty and family, of Yoncalla, were Roseburg visitors yesterday and were shopping and attending to business affairs.

From Melrose—
Mrs. R. Busenbark and daughter Joyce, of Melrose, were among the out of town visitors, spending a few hours shopping and meeting friends.

Wades In Portland—
Dr. and Mrs. Charles B. Wade are expected home tonight from Portland, where they have been visiting over the week-end. They made the trip by auto.

To University of Oregon—
Roy Jost, student at the University of Oregon, who has been spending a few days visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Jost, has returned to Eugene.

Returns After Visit—
Mrs. J. J. Jost left yesterday afternoon by auto for Turner, where he is employed by the Southern Pacific company, after visiting here over the week-end.

Return Home—
Mrs. T. G. Shrum and son, Junior, who have been spending several days in Glendale with the former's mother, who has been ill, have returned to their home in this city.

Leaves To Attend Meeting—
Mrs. W. D. Duer, of Sutherlin, was visiting in this city a short time yesterday prior to leaving for Portland, where she will represent Douglas county at the State Tuberculosis association meeting today and Wednesday.

Return Home—
Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hatch and family returned yesterday to their home at Cottage Grove after spending a few days here visiting friends and relatives. They were guests at the home of Mrs. Belle Schindler.

To Attend Meeting—
County Health Nurses Ellen Post and Josephine Jones, and Miss Marion Porter, secretary of the county health unit, are attending the greater part of the week in Portland attending the convention of the state tuberculosis association.

Leaves For Portland—
Morton Hadley, of Portland, who has been visiting with his father, Charles L. Hadley for a short time, returned yesterday afternoon to his home in Portland. Mr. Hadley is now doing research work for the Eastman Kodak firm, and will have his headquarters in the west for the next two years.

Miss Sappington Returns—
Miss Lucille Sappington, who has been spending the past few days in Portland visiting, returned home this morning. Enroute home she stopped in Eugene to see Mrs. C. S. Heinline, who is recuperating from an operation. Mrs. Heinline's condition is steadily improving and she is much better.

Visits At Wickham Home—
Dr. Schute, professor and instructor of psychology and vocation at the Oregon Normal School, was a guest over the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wickham. Dr. Schute returned to the school yesterday afternoon, accompanied by Allen Wickham, a student at the Normal. They made the trip by auto.

Visit Is Enjoyed—
According to word received from Rev. C. H. Hilton, former pastor of the Roseburg Christian church, a very pleasant visit is being enjoyed in southern California by Mr. and Mrs. James H. Hutchings and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Poole of Roseburg. The local people have been visiting with Rev. and Mrs. Hilton and have made a number of trips to points near Glendora, where Rev. Hilton is now pastor.

Visiting In South—
Word has been received here by friends from Mrs. E. V. Hoover, stating that she and Dr. Hoover are now visiting in San Pedro, California. Mrs. Hoover states in her letter that the weather is extremely warm there. Dr. and Mrs. Hoover are guests at the home of their daughter, Helen. During their stay in the south they also have been visiting at San Francisco.

Suits Filed—
Two suits have been filed in the circuit court against L. W. Metzger, C. V. Oden and E. D. Duncan, of the Lane Mountain Lumber company have brought suit for $1,856, claimed to be due for materials furnished, and the Credit Service company is suing for $347, claimed due on accounts for materials. The lumber company owners are represented by Attorney Wimberly and the credit company by a Portland firm.

License Issued—
A marriage license has been issued to Loren W. George and Hazel Wells, both of Kirby.

Visits At Salem—
Platt T. Randall, accountant for Copco in Salem, returned last night from Salem, where he enjoyed a week-end visit with friends.

Visit at Corvallis—
Mrs. Louis Kohlhaugen and daughter Vernita, motored to Corvallis over the week-end to visit with Miss Bertha Kohlhaugen.

H. A. Thling Visits—
H. A. Thling, a former resident of Roseburg, now in the electrical business at Klamath Falls, was a business visitor in Roseburg today.

From Yoncalla—
Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Daugherty and family, of Yoncalla, were Roseburg visitors yesterday and were shopping and attending to business affairs.

From Melrose—
Mrs. R. Busenbark and daughter Joyce, of Melrose, were among the out of town visitors, spending a few hours shopping and meeting friends.

Wades In Portland—
Dr. and Mrs. Charles B. Wade are expected home tonight from Portland, where they have been visiting over the week-end. They made the trip by auto.

To University of Oregon—
Roy Jost, student at the University of Oregon, who has been spending a few days visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Jost, has returned to Eugene.

Returns After Visit—
Mrs. J. J. Jost left yesterday afternoon by auto for Turner, where he is employed by the Southern Pacific company, after visiting here over the week-end.

Return Home—
Mrs. T. G. Shrum and son, Junior, who have been spending several days in Glendale with the former's mother, who has been ill, have returned to their home in this city.

Leaves To Attend Meeting—
Mrs. W. D. Duer, of Sutherlin, was visiting in this city a short time yesterday prior to leaving for Portland, where she will represent Douglas county at the State Tuberculosis association meeting today and Wednesday.

Return Home—
Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hatch and family returned yesterday to their home at Cottage Grove after spending a few days here visiting friends and relatives. They were guests at the home of Mrs. Belle Schindler.

To Attend Meeting—
County Health Nurses Ellen Post and Josephine Jones, and Miss Marion Porter, secretary of the county health unit, are attending the greater part of the week in Portland attending the convention of the state tuberculosis association.

Leaves For Portland—
Morton Hadley, of Portland, who has been visiting with his father, Charles L. Hadley for a short time, returned yesterday afternoon to his home in Portland. Mr. Hadley is now doing research work for the Eastman Kodak firm, and will have his headquarters in the west for the next two years.

Miss Sappington Returns—
Miss Lucille Sappington, who has been spending the past few days in Portland visiting, returned home this morning. Enroute home