Keeping in Touch With the Consumer!

Realizing that it is necessary to keep in touch with the public, and appreciating the good will of Douglas County folk, we have decided to give expression to our high esteem of the Consumer and the patronage we have long enjoyed, by giving them special values in this sale that they will always remember. We know of no better way of accomplishing this end than by offering this high class merchandise, the kind that we sell, at prices which mean a great saving to you. Then, too, the quality of these goods will enable you to judge for yourselves, better than we can tell you in any other way, the fact that you are getting wonderful bargains at the marked down prices during this sale. The old adage, "The proof of the pudding is in the eating," is still true, and we would like to have you come in and select the goods you may need, thus serving two purposes—SAVING AND RECEIVING EXTRA VALUES.
