

THE WOMAN'S PAGE

SOCIETY

By GRACE CARROLL

All contributions to this page, society, women's clubs, and personals, should be telephoned to the society editor by Friday

Former Roseburg Girl To Be Married

Of interest to Roseburg society is the approaching marriage of Miss Maurine Buchanan, of Astoria, a former Roseburg girl, to Mr. Richard Tallant Carruthers, also of Astoria.

The wedding will be an event of March 20 and will take place at the First Presbyterian Church of Astoria at 8 o'clock in the evening. A large number from this city and Astoria will be in attendance.

Miss Buchanan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Buchanan, who resided here a number of years ago. Miss Buchanan attended the public schools of Roseburg and attended high school here. After moving to Astoria with her parents she attended the University of Oregon and during the past year has been residing at home. Mr. Carruthers also attended college and is well known in Astoria.

Mrs. J. T. Brown, of Pendleton, has been the house guest this week of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Melton and has been the inspiration of a number of affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. Waddell Hosts to Group

Asking a group of their friends to their home on the evening of March 6, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Waddell entertained at 7 o'clock dinner. Decorations in keeping with the spring season were used in the rooms and following the dinner hour an evening of bridge and old fashioned dances were enjoyed.

The guest list included Dr. and Mrs. George Bradburn, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beamer, Dr. and Mrs. George Bacher, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Winston, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Craven, Mr. and Mrs. John Throne, the Misses Katherine DeVoe of Portland, Marion Porter and Mr. George Bradburn.

Matrons of Club Entertained Wednesday

Mrs. Walter Poole entertained the matrons of the Edenhower New Idea Club and a few added guests at her home on Winchester street Wednesday. A delicious buffet luncheon at 1 o'clock, preceded the afternoon's diversion. The ladies chatted and sewed and were entertained by humorous readings and songs.

Those spending the afternoon with Mrs. Poole were the Mesdames F. A. Clements, J. H. Porter, F. H. Appelhoff, F. L. Callkins, R. H. Williams, F. M. Curtis, C. F. Callkins, F. A. Stewart, A. A. Callkins, C. E. Marks, E. P. Ballou, E. D. Owen, C. B. Callkins and four added guests, Mesdames Wm. Fisher, Lee Goodman, C. L. Cavender and Norman Fisher.

Mr. and Mrs. Wetherell Honored Wednesday

To surprise Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Wetherell a number of their friends gathered at their home on Wednesday for the evening. Progressive five hundred was the diversion and first prize for ladies was received by Mrs. L. T. Whitney, first prize for men was awarded Mr. F. S. Register and Floyd Stevens received consolation. Afterward a dainty luncheon served at small tables, was enjoyed.

Visiting Matron Honor Guest at Affair

Mrs. J. T. Brown, of Pendleton, a popular visitor of the week, was honored last evening at an affair arranged by Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Graybill to which a group of the young married set were invited.

A yellow motif, carried out in fragrant early spring blossoms, was used in the rooms. During the evening several tables of five hundred were in play and following a dainty luncheon was served. Invited to meet Mrs. Brown were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gerretsen, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Denn, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Thurber, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Post, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Melton, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Morgan and Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Compton.

Mr. and Mrs. Wetherell Honored Wednesday

To surprise Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Wetherell a number of their friends gathered at their home on Wednesday for the evening. Progressive five hundred was the diversion and first prize for ladies was received by Mrs. L. T. Whitney, first prize for men was awarded Mr. F. S. Register and Floyd Stevens received consolation. Afterward a dainty luncheon served at small tables, was enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Wetherell Honored Wednesday

To bid adieu to Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hufham and family, who left Thursday for Pasco, Washington, to make their home, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Montgomery invited a number of friends to their home on Haynes street Tuesday evening for dinner.

Dinner Compliments Mr. and Mrs. Hufham

To bid adieu to Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hufham and family, who left Thursday for Pasco, Washington, to make their home, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Montgomery invited a number of friends to their home on Haynes street Tuesday evening for dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Compton Entertain for Visitor

Pinochle and five hundred were the interesting diversions arranged by Mr. and Mrs. Ray B. Compton when they entertained at their home for Mrs. J. T. Brown, of Pendleton, a visiting matron on Tuesday evening.

High scores for pinochle was held by Mrs. Jack Sagar and the five hundred prize was won by Mr. C. W. Parker. Mrs. Brown received guest prize. Luncheon followed the game. Invited to meet Mrs. Brown were Mrs. Stanford, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Shockley, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sagar, Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Graybill, Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Childs, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Melton and Mr. N. A. Simmliker.

Ladies of Neighborhood Club Entertained

Mrs. Agnes Wilson and Mrs. E. Edmonds were joint hostesses at the home of the former in Camas Valley one day last week, entertaining the members of the Neighborhood Club. A short business meeting preceded the afternoon's diversion. The ladies chatted, and sewed on the quilt which the club has been making, and later a dainty luncheon was served.

Those spending the afternoon were the Mesdames Winnie Brown, Seranton, L. Dick, M. Russell, J. Sigi, R. Larson, E. Brown, Louise Richter, I. Creasy, H. Mayer, B. Parrott, E. Church and Miss Deshae Brown and Miss Alice Seranton.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Stapleton, who have been spending the past several weeks enjoying a visit in southern California, returned to Roseburg Thursday. They suffered an accident at Wilmington, California, where they visited friends, when their car was struck by a car approaching when the woman driver fainted. Mrs. Stapleton was slightly injured, receiving a few cuts from flying glass.

Bridge Party Compliments Mrs. Conlee

Complimenting Mrs. W. R. Conlee, who left Thursday for Portland to make her home, Mrs. M. S. Allen and Mrs. R. L. Devaney entertained at bridge Tuesday, having a group of Mrs. Conlee's friends to the home of the former.

Delicate shades of yellow were used and lovely spring flowers were fragrant in the rooms. During the afternoon three tables of bridge were in play and at the end of the game a dainty luncheon was served at small tables.

Attractive Affair at Devaney Home

Twenty-two maids and matrons were entertained at an attractive bridge party Tuesday evening, for which Mrs. Leo Devaney was hostess at her home. A color motif of yellow was effectively carried out in the spring flowers throughout the rooms. Five tables of bridge were in play and high score was held by Mrs. A. B. Taylor. Second prize was received by Mrs. R. F. McJone. A dainty luncheon was served by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Huffham Entertained on Wednesday

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Huffham were entertained on Wednesday by Mr. and Mrs. George Bickle at the Roseburg ranch and a number of Roseburg folk were invited. The occasion also observed the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Bickle. Lovely daffodils were fragrant in the rooms where several tables of five hundred were in play. High scores were held by Mrs. B. F. Morgan and Mr. Stanley Baney and consolation prizes were received by Mrs. R. L. Russell and Mr. E. H. Huffham. At the close a dainty luncheon was served at small tables.

St. Patrick's Day Motif for Enjoyable Affair

St. Patrick's Day provided the motif for the affair given Monday by Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Mitchell who were hosts to a large group of the young married set at their home on 715 South Pine street. Lovely Japanese guinea and lamb-tongue fillies formed the dainty decorations in the rooms. Groups of contests and guessing games formed the diversion, and all were of an Irish character. One of the contests, in which three men were chosen to costume three of the guests in old-fashioned dresses, provided much amusement for the group. Following a buffet luncheon, of St. Patrick's character, was enjoyed.

Benefit Program Successful Affair

The benefit program under the auspices of the Masonic and Eastern Star lodges, was presented last night at the Masonic Temple before a large crowd of the members of the two lodges and their families and a good sum was realized to go to the fund for the new cottage of the Masonic and Eastern Star home in Forest Grove. The program was one of the most successful presented this year by the two lodges.

Mrs. Allen Hostess at Bridge-Luncheon

One of the attractive affairs of the week had Mrs. M. S. Allen as hostess when she entertained the matrons of the Eight-O Bridge Club and a few added guests at luncheon at her home Monday. A pretty motif of yellow, carried out in early spring blossoms, prevailed throughout the rooms, and following luncheon two tables of bridge were in play.

Truman Runyan Host to Group

A number of the younger high school set were entertained at a dinner-dance Saturday evening at last week with Truman Runyan as host at his home. A 6:30 dinner was served at a table fragrant with centerpiece of spring blossoms. Covers were placed for the Misses Mildred Sinniger, Margaret Hewitt, Myra Hartley, Dorothy Marsters, Arlene Kilbourne, Pauline Bubar, Daphne Hughes, the Messers Wayne Riggs, Raymond Bell, Stewart Stephens, Maynard Bell, Samuel McConnell, Milford Howard and Truman Runyan.

Group Entertained at Bridge

On Saturday evening of last week Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Denn were hosts to a group of intimate friends at their home. Bridge was the diversion and Mrs. Leo Devaney received first prize and Mrs. W. H. Gerretsen received second prize. At the end of the game a dainty luncheon was served at small tables.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Brun, Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Church, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Whipple, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wendell Wright, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Sellick, Mr. and Mrs. George Wharton, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wharton, Dr. and Mrs. Clair K. Allen.

Senior Class Play to Be Interesting

"The Private Secretary", a three-act farcial comedy, which is to be presented by the senior class of the local high school at the Antlers theatre March 25, is a play which is very popular among amateur productions and promises to be of unusual interest.

The cast is a well chosen one and each player is putting a great deal of work into his or her part. According to the coaches, Miss Mary McCullagh and C. G. Jrodgers, the production is rapidly progressing and should be one of the most successful amateur productions of the season.

Matrons Entertained by Mrs. Perrin

The matrons of the O. F. F. Five Hundred club and a few added guests were entertained on Thursday at the home of Mrs. A. H. Perrin on Harvard avenue. Several tables of five hundred were in play and high honors were held by Mrs. Joseph Shockley, second prize was received by Mrs. O. Welker and Mrs. Earl Rhoads received consolation. Small Easter tokens formed of baskets of candy and fruit were the luncheon favors.

Spending the afternoon were the Mesdames S. J. Crawford, Charles Wamsley, O. Welker, J. G. Stephenson, C. E. Hannan, C. E. Negley, Joseph Shockley, Earl Rhoads and added guests were the Mesdames J. W. Dowell, R. L. Russell and F. N. Fields.

Rev. E. W. Warrington, the former pastor of the Presbyterian church here, is visiting in Roseburg with friends. Rev. Warrington is now in charge of the student Y. M. C. A. activities at O. A. C. He will conduct morning and evening services at the Presbyterian church on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Huffham Entertained on Wednesday

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Huffham were entertained on Wednesday by Mr. and Mrs. George Bickle at the Roseburg ranch and a number of Roseburg folk were invited. The occasion also observed the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Bickle. Lovely daffodils were fragrant in the rooms where several tables of five hundred were in play. High scores were held by Mrs. B. F. Morgan and Mr. Stanley Baney and consolation prizes were received by Mrs. R. L. Russell and Mr. E. H. Huffham. At the close a dainty luncheon was served at small tables.

Benefit Program Successful Affair

The benefit program under the auspices of the Masonic and Eastern Star lodges, was presented last night at the Masonic Temple before a large crowd of the members of the two lodges and their families and a good sum was realized to go to the fund for the new cottage of the Masonic and Eastern Star home in Forest Grove. The program was one of the most successful presented this year by the two lodges.

Mrs. Allen Hostess at Bridge-Luncheon

One of the attractive affairs of the week had Mrs. M. S. Allen as hostess when she entertained the matrons of the Eight-O Bridge Club and a few added guests at luncheon at her home Monday. A pretty motif of yellow, carried out in early spring blossoms, prevailed throughout the rooms, and following luncheon two tables of bridge were in play.

Mrs. Brun Entertains Bridge and Luncheon Club

Attractive St. Patrick's favors and a bright color motif was used at the luncheon table yesterday at 1 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Irvin Brun, who entertained the matrons of the Friday Bridge and Luncheon Club. During the afternoon the ladies were entertained with bridge games and Mrs. A. J. Hochradel held high honors.

Mrs. Brun's guests were Mrs. A. J. Hochradel, Mrs. E. R. Thurber, Mrs. Birney West, Mrs. V. M. Petterson, Mrs. Fred Schwartz, Mrs. Clair K. Allen, Mrs. S. G. Sellick, Mrs. Charles B. Wade.

Club Entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Wimberly

Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Wimberly were informal hosts on Monday evening, entertaining the Five Hundred club at their home. Charming arrangements of daffodils brightened the room. First prize was received by Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Whipple and guest prize was received by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wharton. At the end of the game a dainty luncheon was served at small tables.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Brun, Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Church, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Whipple, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wendell Wright, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Sellick, Mr. and Mrs. George Wharton, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wharton, Dr. and Mrs. Clair K. Allen.

Fortnightly Club Spend Pleasant Afternoon

Sewing was the diversion arranged by Mrs. C. E. Mabley, who entertained the ladies of the Melrose Fortnightly Club at her home Thursday. Plans for a play, which the club will present in the late spring, were formulated and at the tea hour a dainty luncheon was served.

Mrs. Alfred Krone and Mrs. Moss were guests of the club and the members spending the afternoon were the Mesdames C. Burrows, J. W. Pruner, John Busenbank, Sr., E. R. Fenn, H. C. Conn, C. B. Busenbank, O. O. Matthews, G. W. Kruse, F. A. Dosa, R. Plumer and R. A. Busenbank.

First Dance of New Club Successful Affair

The formation of a dancing club, the members composed of the older set of high school pupils, was effected about two weeks ago, and the club sponsored its first dance last evening at the Moose hall. The dance was a very successful event and was well attended. Patrons and patronesses for the affair were a number of the parents of the club members.

The officers of the new organization is composed of Roy Houser, manager; Max Carman, Stewart Stevens and Truman Runyan, assistants; Wm. Knight, chairman of refreshment committee; Truman Runyan, treasurer. It is the plan of the club to have bi-monthly social meetings and dances.

Movie Notes

Liberty Theatre. "The Lady from Hell," the photo-drama at the Liberty Theatre today, is an adaption to the screen

The snows of winter may outlive their allotted time; robin redbreast may be tempted to linger longer in sunny southern woods; perhaps the first flowers of the season do not open their delicate petals until long after the calendar has said that winter was over—but feminine apparel is the one and only delightful sign of spring which never fails!

This spring of 1926 arrives! It brings with it a galaxy of new fashions unequalled in sheer beauty and smartness. Happy the woman who buys a complete new outfit from these simply irresistible models! She starts to buy—and first she looks at coats!

Coats

She can't quite decide whether to buy a stunning coat of a tweed fabric in a tapestry pattern with a natural wolf collar, or a finely tailored grey coat with an expressive flare.

She knows that the grey will always be dainty, appropriate, and becoming. She looks over all the mixture fabric coats—and they cast a spell on her; she simply must be in with the spring of style! Finally she chooses a diagonal weave in a really perfect Coat of hosiery for sport wear, business, motoring, shopping, etc.

Millinery

Hats are simple—the shopper wants two, one snug and close fitting and the other large and droopy. The first hat has a gicloga crown, with a crease in the back; a tailored ribbon bow with a small ornament gives it all the necessary trimming. The large hat is sea green transparent straw, with a large white flower trailing off one side. A hat of the garden variety!

Dresses

Now that the ideal coat has been

Mrs. Bannig Entertains Ladies of Club

The members of the Bollevue Club were guests at the home of Mrs. C. E. Banning of Dixonville one day this week, and following a short business meeting, the group was entertained by Mrs. C. H. Bailey, who gave several piano selections. The ladies chatted and later luncheon was served by the hostess.

Spending the afternoon were the Mesdames J. J. Keater, Wm. Pearce, T. Boyer, W. McLaughlin, Carl Dietz, Z. Parker, P. W. Beckley, C. E. Banning, Miss Hazel Keater and added guests, Mrs. C. H. Bailey and Mrs. D. Hunter.

Matron Honored at Affair Thursday

Mrs. R. W. Melsner and Mrs. E. E. Wadsworth were joint hostesses on Thursday at the home of the former on Parrott street, honoring Mrs. C. L. Spray. Cards and music entertained the ladies during the evening and a dainty luncheon was served.

The guest list included Mrs. C. L. Spray, Mrs. W. O. Cordon, James Yarbrough, Mrs. L. Bates, Mrs. J. Nicholson, Mrs. Fred Reed, Mrs. Bruce Stephenson, Mrs. R. Duncan, Mrs. H. E. Allison, Mrs. D. Y. Allison and Mrs. Howard Deas.

Antlers Theatre

A picture that will make a hundred million people laugh and sigh is the order D. W. Griffith gave himself when he produced "The Birth of a Nation" and "Way Down East".

Laughter rules it throughout, ranging from smiling drooleries to the heartiest outbursts of ringing mirth.

And running amid the higher peaks of gaiety is a sympathetic story of lovable humans very much beset at times with the minor problems of the lack of money, a free for all circus fight, flight to richer harvests on a blind-baggage of a railroad car and other rucful troubles.

The second of the George Walsh series "Blue Blood" being produced by the Chickadee Motion Picture Corporation provides a cast of excellence seldom seen in a picture. This production, which comes to the Liberty Theatre on Sunday contains every ingredient of first class entertainment and has been ranked by several New York newspaper critics as one of the best of modern comedy dramas.

Miss Cecille Evans, playing opposite Mr. Walsh, is an ex-mack Sennett bathing beauty and won fame, even among this famous collection of the most beautiful, for her million dollar limbs. Like Gloria Swanson she graduated from the Sennett ranks to play dramatic leading roles with companies, and reached the pinnacle of her desire when she was cast to play opposite George Walsh.

OLDER GIRLS HEAR SPEECHES; DECIDE TO TAKE A SWIM

(Associated Press Leased Wire.) EUGENE, Ore., March 13.—More than 400 girls, from all parts of the state of Oregon, are gathered here today for the fourteenth annual Western Oregon Older Girls conference, under the auspices of the Oregon Council of Religious Education. A similar conference will be held in Marshfield in June, and a third in Pendleton the same month.

Dr. Fred Grey of Seattle delivered a second of his series of lectures on "The Life of Christ" at the morning session of the conference today. Volma Willes of Portland led the discussion of "what shall we study." Other subjects before the conference were "what part of a girl's life should the church furnish," "are you a help or a problem in your church?" "are girls today better or worse than their mothers were?" and, "clothes."

Following the sessions this afternoon, the girls are scheduled to stage a swim in the pool in the woman's building at the University of Oregon. Officers for the conference for next year will be named tonight.

AMERICAN GIRLS CO-STAR IN MAIN ROLES OF OPERA

(Associated Press Leased Wire.) NEW YORK, March 13.—An immense audience had an opportunity of gratifying its curiosity regarding the new American opera stars when Marion Talley, Mary Lewis and Lucerna Hori took the three principal women's parts in the special performance of Offenbach's "Tales of Hoffman" today in the Metropolitan opera house. The performance was to provide scholarship funds for Roberts College of Constantinople, the American University of Beirut, and the Constantinople Women's college.

Miss Talley and Miss Lewis took their roles each for the first time

Antlers Theatre

The Chaplinesque scene of "Chilkoot Pass", shown as an introduction to Charlie Chaplin's great comedy "The Gold Rush" at the Antlers Theatre, under a United Artists Corporation release, was staged in the High Sierras of the California Rockies, almost on the exact locale where the first pioneers crossed — the Donner Party, famous in history of the early West.

The valiant band of pioneers crossed this range of mountains and in crossing suffered great privations. Many died of starvation, and it is a matter of record that they were compelled to eat their shoes, making a meal of roasted shoe leather. It is from this authentic data revealed in research that Charlie Chaplin conceived the idea for one of his great scenes in "The Gold Rush".

So perfectly did he fill the order that already this United Artists Corporation release is recognized by critics and competent experts as one of the great screen achievements, ranking in entertainment power with his historic "Birth of a Nation" and "Way Down East".

Laughter rules it throughout, ranging from smiling drooleries to the heartiest outbursts of ringing mirth.

And running amid the higher peaks of gaiety is a sympathetic story of lovable humans very much beset at times with the minor problems of the lack of money, a free for all circus fight, flight to richer harvests on a blind-baggage of a railroad car and other rucful troubles.

The second of the George Walsh series "Blue Blood" being produced by the Chickadee Motion Picture Corporation provides a cast of excellence seldom seen in a picture. This production, which comes to the Liberty Theatre on Sunday contains every ingredient of first class entertainment and has been ranked by several New York newspaper critics as one of the best of modern comedy dramas.

Antlers Theatre

A picture that will make a hundred million people laugh and sigh is the order D. W. Griffith gave himself when he produced "The Birth of a Nation" and "Way Down East".

Laughter rules it throughout, ranging from smiling drooleries to the heartiest outbursts of ringing mirth.

And running amid the higher peaks of gaiety is a sympathetic story of lovable humans very much beset at times with the minor problems of the lack of money, a free for all circus fight, flight to richer harvests on a blind-baggage of a railroad car and other rucful troubles.

The second of the George Walsh series "Blue Blood" being produced by the Chickadee Motion Picture Corporation provides a cast of excellence seldom seen in a picture. This production, which comes to the Liberty Theatre on Sunday contains every ingredient of first class entertainment and has been ranked by several New York newspaper critics as one of the best of modern comedy dramas.

Miss Cecille Evans, playing opposite Mr. Walsh, is an ex-mack Sennett bathing beauty and won fame, even among this famous collection of the most beautiful, for her million dollar limbs. Like Gloria Swanson she graduated from the Sennett ranks to play dramatic leading roles with companies, and reached the pinnacle of her desire when she was cast to play opposite George Walsh.

Following the sessions this afternoon, the girls are scheduled to stage a swim in the pool in the woman's building at the University of Oregon. Officers for the conference for next year will be named tonight.

AMERICAN GIRLS CO-STAR IN MAIN ROLES OF OPERA

(Associated Press Leased Wire.) NEW YORK, March 13.—An immense audience had an opportunity of gratifying its curiosity regarding the new American opera stars when Marion Talley, Mary Lewis and Lucerna Hori took the three principal women's parts in the special performance of Offenbach's "Tales of Hoffman" today in the Metropolitan opera house. The performance was to provide scholarship funds for Roberts College of Constantinople, the American University of Beirut, and the Constantinople Women's college.

Miss Talley and Miss Lewis took their roles each for the first time

POETS' CORNER

Signed Contributions for This Department May Be Sent to the Society Editor of The News-Review, and Will Be Used as Space is Available.

No pot of gold awaits me
At the end of the rainbow fair,
But my baby's kiss,
Oh, longed for bliss,
Will greet my arrival there.

No pot of gold could lure me
On to follow the rainbow's trail,
For my quest is this—
My baby's kiss
That's promised beyond the vale.
GRACE POTTER BEATTIE.

SONG OF DEATH.
When the wind is blowing softly
And the leaves come fluttering
Down
The air is filled with a sweet perfume
As they reach the ground,
Chimpanzees call to each other from
The leafless trees.
Dark clouds are gathering in the west, the sun is almost down.
We are growing old, every little thing our notice seems to hold,
Fall is always followed by the coming of spring.
So, death is only awaiting after a dream.
GRACE CREAR.

TO A BIRD.
Little bird with plumage,
Singing sweet your happy lay;
You seem so very happy now
In the maple's swaying bow.
Have you a message, that to bear
Would bring to him a smile or tear?

So perfectly did he fill the order that already this United Artists Corporation release is recognized by critics and competent experts as one of the great screen achievements, ranking in entertainment power with his historic "Birth of a Nation" and "Way Down East".

A ST. PATRICK'S DAY PARTY

Cream of Spinach Soup
Wafers
Asparagus with Butter Sauce
Chicken Salad
Hot Rolls
Butter
Mint Jelly
Nut Cake with Whipped Cream
Platachic Nuts
St. Patrick's Candies
Coffee

Shamrock Salad with Wafers
Hot Biscuits
Butter
Scalloped Potatoes
Mint Ice
Cakes
Coffee

Cream Cheese and Green Cherry
Sandwiches
Jellied Vegetable Salad
Tinted Green
St. Patrick's Brick Ice Cream
Erlu Loaf Cake
Green Tea

RECIPES
Cream of Spinach Soup.
2 C. boiled spinach, 2 tablespoons butter, 1 quart milk, slice of onion, salt and pepper.

Place the milk in a double boiler and add the onion, and bring to a boil, then remove the onion. Blend the flour and butter together, then gradually stir in the scalded milk. Add the cooked spinach, which should be passed through a sieve. Stir until thoroughly mixed, then season with salt and pepper. Serve in bouillon cups with a dot of whipped cream in the center.

Shamrock Salad.
Clean and remove the seeds from large green peppers and place in cold water. Mix cream cheese with a little cream; then fill the green peppers. Be sure the cheese is pressed well into the pepper. Place in ice box several hours or until firm. Cut in slices with a sharp knife and serve on a bed of lettuce with French dressing.

Three oranges, 3 lemons, essence of peppermint, 1 tablespoon gelatin, 1 quart cold water, mint leaves, 2 C. sugar, 2 egg-whites.

Summer together the water, the rind of two lemons and a handful of mint leaves and the sugar. When it begins to thicken into a syrup remove the leaves and rind and add the gelatin that has been dissolved in one-half cupful cold water; add the juice of the oranges and the lemons, and the essence of peppermint using a few drops. Color a deep green with vegetable coloring. Pour into ice cream freezer and freeze until mushy; then add the stiffly beaten whites of the eggs. Pack down in salt and ice, and let stand two or three hours.

Rhubarb and Pineapple Compote
There is no hard and fast rule for this recipe. Use twice as much rhubarb as pineapple. Stew the rhubarb. Add pineapple which has been put through the food grinder. Add the sugar, the proportion being three-fourths cup of sugar to one cup of fruit. Cook to the consistency of a marmalade. Fill jelly glasses and cover with paraffin. The rhubarb juice is very pleasing as an addition to fruit punches, lemonades, etc.

Erin Loaf Cake.
One C. butter, 2 C. sugar, 3/4 C. flour, 3/4 level teaspoons baking powder, 4 eggs, 1 C. milk, 1 teaspoon almond extract, Angelina cream, 1/2 cup rhubarb, 1/2 cup pineapple.

Place the milk in a double boiler and add the onion, and bring to a boil, then remove the onion. Blend the flour and butter together, then gradually stir in the scalded milk. Add the cooked spinach, which should be passed through a sieve. Stir until thoroughly mixed, then season with salt and pepper. Serve in bouillon cups with a dot of whipped cream in the center.

Clean and remove the seeds from large green peppers and place in cold water. Mix cream cheese with a little cream; then fill the green peppers. Be sure the cheese is pressed well into the pepper. Place in ice box several hours or until firm. Cut in slices with a sharp knife and serve on a bed of lettuce with French dressing.

Three oranges, 3 lemons, essence of peppermint, 1 tablespoon gelatin, 1 quart cold water, mint leaves, 2 C. sugar, 2 egg-whites.

Summer together the water, the rind of two lemons and a handful of mint leaves and the sugar. When it begins to thicken into a syrup remove the leaves and rind and