ALLEGED GERMAN MURDER PLOT SCOUTED BY POLICE

(Associated Press Lease.) (Wire.)
BERLIN, March 26.—The Prussian minister of the interior has sent a commissioner to Oederfart,

Czechoslovakia, to investigate the story of a youth under arrest there who said he had been designated by lot to assassinate the Prussian minister of the interior, Wilhelm Severing. The youth is quoted as saying that he fled from Germany

THE GIST OF THE BIBLE

By ALVIN E. BELL, D. D.

ARTICLE No. II
THE SECOND BOOK OF SAMUEL—"THE RISE AND FALL OF DAVID"

The Second Book of Samuel might appropriately be named "The Acts of King David." The first ten chapters tell of his glory, the last fourteen tell of his shame. The Bible "white-washes" no one, not even Israel's greatest king.

The forty years of David's reign chronicled in this book are the golden age of Jewish history. One of the king's first official acts was to conquer Jerusalem and make it not only the civil but also the religious center of his great realm, bringing into it the tabernacle and the ark of the covenant.

David would have gone further and built the temple had not God forbidden him to do so, and when forbidden to carry out this fond wish he was big and generous enough to be a mere gatherer of materials and allow another to have the glory withheld from him, herein teaching us all a much needed lesson.

Great and glorious was David as a general, as king and as the sweet psalmist of Israel, he fell into the grossest and vilest of sins. His sin of adultery with Bathsheba and his indirect murder of Uriah, her husband, represent the shame which, but for the grace of God, would have totally eclipsed his glory.

But no sinner was ever more genuinely repentant than David, or more ready to confess and admit the justice of the divine chastizements which fell upon him. Herein, again, he helps us all in such songs for the penitent as he gives us in Psalms 32 and 51.

Though repentant and forgiven, David nevertheless suffered the consequence of his sin in the kindred sins of his own children, which broke their father's heart.

Surely, in his case, "the chickens came home to roost." The one who thinks that he can mock God and "sow wild oats" and not suffer in the time of reaping needs to read this Second Book of Samuel.

That such a sinner as David could, by genuine repentance, become "a man after God's own heart" is an encouragement to us all. But the grace by which he was forgiven is still open to all in the more glorious kingdom of Christ the son of David and the Lord of David.

SUNDAY AT THE CHURCHES

Myrtle Creek Church of Christ—Services for Sunday, March 28. We should remember our Easter goal of 150 at Bible School, and make a good advance toward this number Sunday. The Revival Services continue with three sermons Sunday by Evangelist Arthur C. Baker, 11:00 a. m., "Hindering the Spirit," 2:00 p. m., "A Man After God's Heart," 7:30 p. m., "When a Man's a Man!" There will be a basket dinner at the church. The Endeavor will meet at 6:30 p. m. A cordial invitation is extended to all to come and enjoy these services.

First Church of Christ, Scientist—Regular services are held Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. This service include testimonies of healing in Christian Science. Sunday School convenes each Sunday morning at 9:45. All pupils from the age of 4 to 20 years may be admitted. The Reading Room, side entrance, is open daily from 2 to 4 p. m., except Sundays and holidays. Here all authorized Christian Science literature may be read, borrowed or purchased. The public is cordially invited to attend these services and visit the Reading Room. Subject of Sunday lesson: "Reality."

Gospel Life Line Services—Next Sunday, March 28, Capt. G. L. Hall, widely known evangelist and mission worker, will begin a series of meetings at the Melrose chapel, the first service occurring at 11 o'clock Sunday morning. A basket dinner will be enjoyed following the morning sermon, and then preaching again at 2:30 p. m. These services will be continued over a period of probably ten days, and the entire countryside is most cordially invited to attend. Capt. Hall is an entertaining speaker, and his mission work throughout the Northwest has won him hosts of friends from among all walks of life. Bring your baskets and come prepared to enjoy a full day at the Melrose chapel Sunday.

The International Bible Students—meet every Sunday at 10:30 a. m., at the Moore Hall. The subject of this Sunday study will be "A Ransom For All." The Only Bible For All—also "A Call To Action." What is the standard we are to live up to and how shall it be done? The standard that the spirit of the Lord now commands to be lifted up, is the standard of truth. It is the truth alone that will open the eyes of the people and the truth will make them free. The standard of the Lord serves as a two-fold purpose; to wit to mark the rallying point for the people and to define the way of righteousness and holiness through which the people must pass in order to be the recipients of the blessings which God has reserved for them that obey him. All interested are welcome to attend.

The First Methodist Church—Corner of Main and Lane streets. Rev. Joseph Knotts, pastor. The Sunday School meets at 9:45 a. m. If you have not been attending now is a good time to begin. The Junior League meets at 3:00 p. m. The Epworth League meets at 6:30 p. m. All young people are invited. The pre-Easter meetings are being held every evening at 7:30 o'clock. The theme for this evening is "Thoughts on the New Birth." The theme for Saturday evening is "No New Revelation." We are expecting a big service Sunday morning. The theme will be "The God-Man, Christ Jesus." The theme for Sunday evening is "How to Know you are not a Christian." Plan to attend the services all next week. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Bible Standard Temple—East Douglas and Chadwick streets; Rev. L. F. Burror, pastor. Our revival is reaching the boiling point. Evangelist Benham is here and many people are responding. If you have not been attending these revival services, you have been missing a treat of your life. If you like a good live song service, this is the place to come. Best singing in town. Evangelistic service each evening at 7:30. Afternoon services at 2:30 except Monday and on that day there will be no afternoon meetings. Sunday services as follows: Sunday School at 10:00, classes for all ages and splendid teachers in charge. You will like the homelike atmosphere at this Sunday School and Church. Preaching at 11:00 a. m., 2:30 and 7:30 p. m. Bring the whole family; your lunch and stay all day. A big day all day. We are expecting to see you there.

Methodist Church, South—Corner of East Lane and South Main streets; C. S. Coberly, pastor. Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Our Sunday school is well officered and has a splendid corps of efficient teachers. Come and see. Preaching at 11 o'clock, also in the evening at 7:30. Senior League at 6:30 p. m., and Junior League at 11:00 a. m. Wednesday evening prayer meeting begins at 7:30.

The following subjects will be discussed at the
