LORD CECIL READY TO FAVOR SYSTEM

(Associated Press Leased Wire.) LONDON, April 1. — The British government will participate in the negotiations in any national steps leading to general measures of disarmament and Lord Cecil will go to Geneva prepared to urge some definite scheme. This was made clear in the House of Commons today by Godfrey Locker-Lampson, parliament-wholesale agent for the home office, answering a question raised by Arthur Ponsonby, who was a member of Ramsay MacDonald's labor ministry.

GENEVA, April 1. — The nations which have signed the protocol of the permanent court of international justice have been advised by the League of Nations to indicate to the United States government the difficulty of treating American reservations to admission to the court by direct exchange of notes and to point out the need for a general agreement. The league has made this recommendation in a circular letter addressed to all the court signatories inviting them to the conference to be held September 1, at Geneva to consider the American reservations.

MOVIE NOTES. Antlers Theatre. "Seven Sinners," the latest Warner Bros. Classic of the Screen, opens Friday at the Antlers Theatre for a run of two days. Marie Prevost is the star. Here is a mystery-comedy that is full of thrills and laughs from start to finish. The seven sinners are seven crooks, who find themselves imprisoned in a big country house, to which each has come for purposes of theft. They play a game of cheating cheaters that will hold any audience in suspense. Marie Prevost is charming as usual as the girl thief, and her natural vivacity and joyous good humor sets the pace for an evening of gay, swift entertainment. Majestic Theatre. A pretty all'p of a stenographer did what all the outlaws failed to do—rope and tie "The Demon" of Slocum Valley. Of course little Dan Cipri had a hand in it all, and that helped some. "The Demon," which is the title of the next Blue Streak Western picture play to be screened, at the Majestic Theatre commencing tonight, has Jack Hoxie for its star. Hoxie impersonates the character of Dane Gordon. Dane is a ranch owner in Slocum Valley and a silent partner in the firm of Gordon & Wade. Ranchers owning property in the valley are being made the victims of a mysterious band of outlaws who go about burning property and running off cattle.

BATH TUB STUNT LEADS TO CARROLL'S ARREST. NEW YORK, April 1.—Earl Carroll, theatrical producer, was indicted for perjury by the grand jury today and arrested.
