THE GIST OF THE BIBLE

ARTICLE No. 13

THE SECOND BOOK OF KINGS—A STORY OF CORRUPTION AND CAPTIVITY

The Second Book of Kings is the saddest of all books of Jewish history, for this is the book which records the carrying away into captivity of Israel by Assyria in 721 B. C. and the captivity of Judah by Babylon in 586 B. C.

Of the twenty-seven kings of Judah and Israel who reigned during the three centuries covered by this book only six tried to serve Jehovah and lead the people in ways of righteousness, but even their reformations were shortlived, and the destruction of both kingdoms by the captivities became God's only alternative.

The people's sin of idolatry and persistent rebellion against God are aggravated by the fact that in these three centuries nearly all of the great prophets of the Jews lived and preached and pleaded and prayed for Israel and Judah. For this was the "Elizabethan Era" of Jewish literature which gave to all ages the writings of Isaiah, Jeremiah, Hosea, Joel, Amos, Obadiah, Jonah, Micah, Nahum, Habakkuk, and Zephaniah.

But the attitude of God's people towards the ministry and message of all these prophets is expressed in the complaint of Isaiah, "Who hath believed our report?"

Thus men failed God in His plan to make Abraham's seed a blessing to all nations. But though men fail, God cannot fail. His purposes must prevail, if not in mercy, then in wrath, and so the period of the captivity with the destruction of Jerusalem and the temple came.

This was the fire which forever purified Israel from idol worship. Whatever other sins Israel had after their return from the seventy years captivity in Babylon, idolatry was forever put away. They learned well the lesson God sought to teach them when he made them again the slaves of an idol worshipping nation.

The ten tribes of Israel never returned from their captivity, but of Judah a remnant of faithful souls did return to rebuild Jerusalem and the temple and to carry forward the divine plan and preparations for the coming and the enthronement of Israel's true King and Savior, our Lord Jesus Christ, who fulfills every ideal of kingship so miserably lacking in even the best of Israel's kings.

SUNDAY AT THE CHURCHES

Myrtle Creek Church of Christ—Our revival meeting, which closed last Sunday, met with splendid results. The inspired apostle assures the church whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for her benefit, upon whom the end of the age has come. (Romans 15:4; 1 Cor. 10:11.) Piping-hot applause

Applause is a heaven of happiness in life. We all love it. Stage folk thrill; athletes triumph at the call of praise. To the housewife applause comes more silently, in the warmth of appreciation expression that permeates the whole atmosphere of her dining room. Can't you picture the subtlety of smooth, flaky, piping-hot biscuits in this?

It wasn't the work of preparing hot breads that caused many a woman to supplant them with cold bread in her menus; it was the uncertainty she felt concerning the outcome of the batch. She couldn't feel sure of unvarying deliciousness.

But conditions have changed in the kitchen. The home cook can now maintain the heat in her ovens to exact degrees. She measures the ingredients of her cooking with careful exactness and she finds in Fisher's Blend Brand Flour positive uniformity as to goodness and baking quality.

Hot biscuits are coming back to enrich the daily diet in the home.

Seattle, Tacoma, Portland

"Blend's Mah Friend"

An All-Purpose Flour

BAKING POWDER BISCUIT

4 cups "Fisher's Blend Flour"
9 level teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
3 tablespoons of shortening, double for a "rich dough"
1 1/2 cups of milk

Sift together the dry ingredients. Cut or chop in the shortening with a knife, then mix lightly with the fingers. Add the milk gradually. Handle as little as possible. Roll out on a floured board; cut with a small biscuit cutter and bake in a hot oven for about fifteen minutes. This makes sufficient for six people.
