PORT OF UMPQUA AGREEMENT NOW BEING AWAITED

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Representatives lawley and Crumbacker conferred Monday on the question of asking action in the new river and harbor bill. Modification of the Umpqua project to permit completion of the north jetty without contribution by local interests. It was decided to await further word from Oregon concerning acceptability of the condition that if the government finances the jetty, local interests shall become responsible for the improvement and maintenance of the channel inside.

As the matter stands the improvement can be placed in the bill on terms laid down by General Taylor, chief of army engineers, reading as follows:

"I, therefore, report that modification of the existing project for the improvement of Umpqua river is deemed advisable, so as to provide for the extension of the north jetty to a total length of approximately 8000 feet, at a total estimate cost of $1,253,000, or $700,000 in excess of the amount now authorized, with annual maintenance estimating $300,000, provided local interests give assurances satisfactory to the secretary of war and the chief of engineers that they will undertake the improvement and maintenance of the river channel to a depth commensurate with that secured over the bar.

Attention is invited to the probable increase of $100,000 over the above figures in the cost of completing the jetty if work is not undertaken while the wharf and tramway are still in the usual condition."

KLAMATH RESERVE INDIANS CONTEST WATER DIVERSION

(Associated Press Leased Wire.) WASHINGTON, April 21.—The right of the Federal Power commission and the Secretary of Agriculture to control the waters of the Klamath river in the Klamath National Forest Reserve was attacked in the supreme court yesterday by members of the Karok or Pehtsick tribe of Indians. It was asserted the government was proposing to deprive them of their rights to lands within the reserve. Counsel for the Indians said the government was proposing to permit the Electro Metal company of San Francisco to divert and use the waters within the reservation. The government has contended that whatever rights the Indians may have had to lands were lost when they failed to assert them before a commission which congress had appointed in 1851.

NEW PROHIBITION BEER AT LEGION SHOW

Roseburgers are to have an opportunity to sample some new prohibition beer, according to the committee in charge of the American Legion Hayseed Festival and Barn Dance to be given at the armory Friday and Saturday nights. After considerable correspondence the committee today received two 10-gallon kegs of the new beer and permission to sell it by the glass at their entertainment. The beer was today taken to the Roseburg ice plant and placed in cold storage until Friday night when the first keg will be opened and placed on sale.

The committee wishes no one to become offended because this beer is to be sold at their entertainment as it is fully sanctioned by the federal government and the prohibition enforcement department and is said to have medicinal properties.

This beer will be sold to no one unless they appear to be ill, and then only one glass to a customer unless they appear to be very ill, when they may have two, and in extreme cases perhaps three glasses will be sold. In very extreme cases, such as love sickness, it is planned to administer enough of this beer to effect a complete cure. It is hoped, however, that but few of these cases will appear as only a limited amount of the beer could be obtained.

The committee asks that no one come to the entertainment with cans or buckets as they will have no hope of filling them from the kegs. Those days are gone forever, the committee believes, and besides they want a little left so they can have a drink themselves, as they expect to be quite ill after the entertainment is over—and the committee is quite large. This is but one of the many features the committee has in store for the public. Forty dollars worth of high grade candy will be given away, as will another $40 worth of kewpies, dogs and parrots. Also there will be hot dogs, ice cream, cigars and cigarettes and all kinds of things for which to spend the pumpkin seeds you receive if you pay your admission. This is all in addition to the one-hour tree show.

NAVY EXPLOSION THAT COST THREE LIVES UNDER QUIZ

NEW LONDON, Conn., April 21.—With three seamen dead and nine others injured, six of them seriously, a naval board of inquiry had before it today the task of determining the cause of an explosion which shattered the battery room of the submarine S-19.

The blast took the lives of Ralph Edward McCormack, gunner's mate second class of West Lynn, Mass., Olley J. Cook, seaman, second class of Danville, Va., and Theodore Holst, Jr., chief boatswain's mate of Groton, Conn.

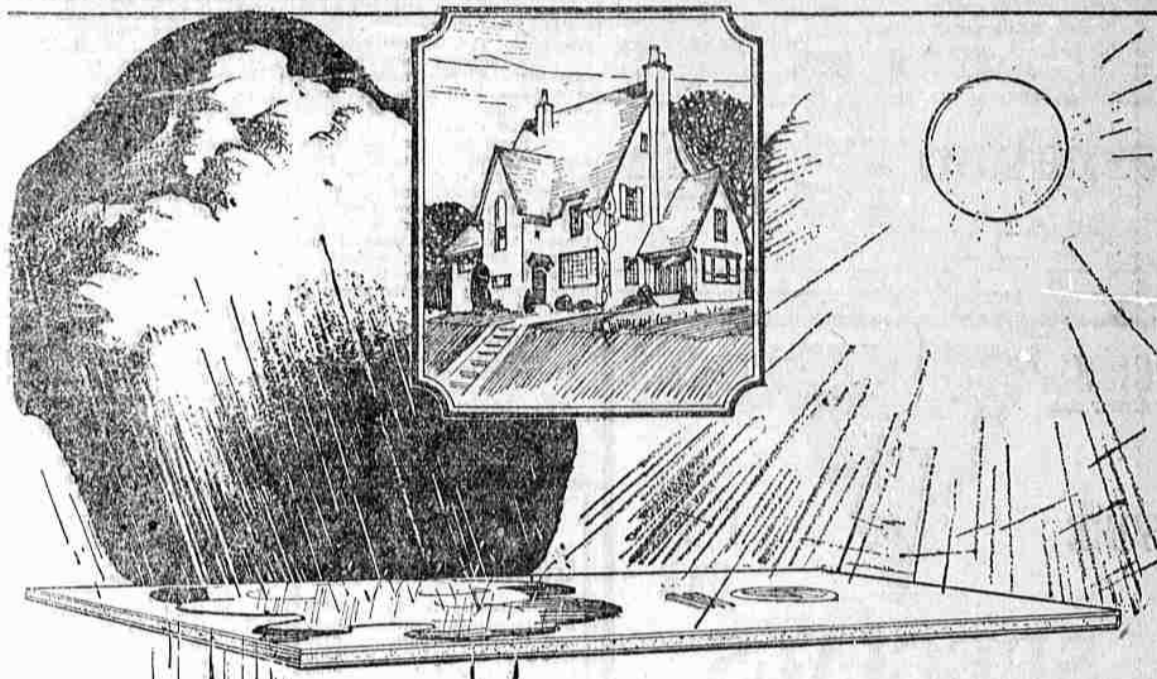

It was the second major disaster suffered by the submarine base here in less than a year. Last September the S-31, a sister-ship of the S-19, went down off Block Island with 21 officers and men after a collision with the steamer City of Rome.
