

THE SENSIBLE SPRING AND SUMMER CEREAL

Springtime appetites are fickle until Carnation Mush [Wheat] tempts with its creamy-white, wafer-thin flakes. A cereal rich in energy because it's all wheat—but so easy to digest, so light, so delicious that you won't need to coax.

PORTLAND SOPRANO WILL APPEAR HERE

Roseburg will be especially favored next Tuesday night, April 27, when Mrs. Blanche Williams Segersten of Portland, a soprano heralded by the press as gifted with extraordinary voice, will give a concert in the Holistic conservatory. Mrs. Segersten is returning to Portland after a long concert tour in many principal cities of the west, having sung to capacity audiences everywhere. The artist has a charm all her own, she sings with an easy grace, having complete mastery of her technique necessary for the proper presentation of simple or dramatic themes. She has appeared many times in Portland and newspaper comments are loud in praise of her ability and accomplishment. The Oregonian credits her with "brilliant voice and vivacious manner." The Portland News says: "She is an artist of great ability with a voice of natural beauty and charm."

Mrs. Segersten is soloist in the First Presbyterian church of Portland, having studied under Otto Wedemeyer of Portland and Percy Rector Stevens of New York. She will be assisted by Mrs. Willa Wilkison Johnson, an unusual and splendid accompanist, herself an artist at the piano who is found to be in sympathy with the singer at all times.

TWO IMPORTANT REAL ESTATE DEALS ARE COMPLETED THIS WEEK

Two important real estate transactions have been completed in the past week. John Walters, of Toledo, Oregon, has disposed of his 16-acre ranch in Garden Valley, to W. H. Whitley, of this city. The latter expects to make a number of improvements on the property, and will make his home there.

The 26 1/2-acre stock ranch, on Oak Creek, belonging to G. W. Vaughn, has been sold to W. S. Bryant, of Willbur, who will take immediate possession of the property. These deals were consummated through the Holbig and Groves Real Estate office.
