HAYSEED PARADE ON FOR TONIGHT

The American Legion Hayseed Festival parade will be staged on the streets of Roseburg tonight about 8 o'clock. All of the hayseeds who will participate in the "spectacle" at the armory on Friday and Saturday nights will be in line and the drum corps in farm regalia will lead the procession. Following the parade the legionnaires will return to the armory to continue the work of decorating. They worked until after midnight last night and hauled in hayracks, buggies, plows, anvils, etc. Hay has been scattered all over the building and lanterns will be used for lighting. The Hicktown Follies, a vaudeville show, will start promptly at 8 o'clock Friday and Saturday nights and continue for an hour. Admission to the Hayseed Festival will be 50 cents.

EDENBOWER HOME DESTROYED BY FIRE

A house belonging to F. H. Applehoff, local band director, and located in Edenbower, was destroyed by fire late yesterday afternoon. The house was occupied by Jack Wood, who teaches school at Olalla. The fire started on the roof, from a defective flue, and the fire was discovered in time for neighbors to help in the removal of household goods, practically all of the contents of the building being saved. Following the alarm a large crowd gathered to assist in saving the furniture, but nothing could be done to prevent the destruction of the house, which was burned to the ground. No insurance was carried on the building.

MISSING WINDJAMMER PUTS IN AT FRISCO.

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., April 22. — The four-masted schooner Irene, 130 days out from Grays Harbor for Miami, with a lumber cargo and for several weeks believed to have been lost at sea, put in here today with all on board half starved from short rationing and two members of the crew ill.

Poor weather conditions met the vessel from the time she prepared for sea in Grays Harbor, Captain A. E. Rosendal said, and the Irene was barbound for one week before she made the open sea. Then she met a stiff southeaster which compelled her to head several thousand miles west of the Oregon coast.

The Alvena, a sister ship, with which the Irene was racing to the Florida port, arrived at Miami, about two weeks ago.

MOTHER DOG BARKS ALARM, THEN DIES WITH HER PUPPIES

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)

BREMERTON, Wn., April 22.—Shephardine, after she ran back to save her eight pups, died with them here yesterday in a $9,000 kennel fire. The pups were three days old. Shephardine, a German police dog, was valued at $1,000.

When the fire started Shephardine appeared outside and barked. She darted in again and died while trying to drag forth her helpless offspring.

One other German police dog was killed in the blaze and four valuable animals escaped. The owner was George L. Carter.

WHERE QUALITY MEETS CONFIDENCE

Too Weak to hold a broom

No woman whose strength or vitality is low should struggle on, fatigued and ailing, day after day, without correcting her condition.

Are you suffering from these signs of run-down health—backaches—dizziness—exhaustion—headaches—loss of appetite—indigestion—constipation? Beware of these warnings! Don't go on suffering when perhaps all you need is a good general tonic.

In Lyko you get just the right formula to tone up the whole system. Your well-being is maintained only when stomach, bowels, kidneys and liver are all working properly. One of the medicinal ingredients in Lyko aids digestion; another keeps the bowels open; another acts on the kidneys; another corrects a torpid liver.

Thousands of men and women who have tried everything else without success claim Lyko is the most wonderful general tonic they have ever used. They prove that you, too, can get back your old-time vim and vigor. Why not get a bottle of Lyko from your druggist today and let it help you regain the glorious health and happiness that make life a joy?

Lyko Helped His Wife

An Oklahoma man, Mr. Gollion, tells about the help Lyko gave his wife after other remedies had failed. His letter says: "The wonderful relief Lyko has given my wife! She has been taking all kinds of medicine which did no good. I saw Lyko advertised and got it and it is doing her lots of good."

He Gained 17 Pounds

Mr. Johnson, resident of Kansas City, was amazed at the way Lyko built up his run-down constitution. He says: "When I began taking Lyko I was thin and gaunt, weighed only 130 pounds, and felt a great lack of 'pep.' Now I weigh 147 pounds, am full of energy and never feel tired."

PUBLIC SERVICE BOARD ORDERS IMPROVEMENTS

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)

SALEM, Ore., April 22—The public service commission yesterday issued an order granting an application of the state highway commission for an overhead crossing over the Southern Pacific tracks at Wren, near Corvallis, on the Corvallis-Newport highway. The cost is estimated at $29,000, the cost to be apportioned among the highway commission, the state and Benton county.

As a protection to traffic at the grade crossing of River road over the Portland Electric Power company's track near Island Station south of Milwaukie the service commission today ordered that the power company install electrical warning signals on each side of the crossing, check the speed of trains to 10 miles an hour and that Clackamas county replace the black top pavement at that place with cement pavement that will not be slippery when wet.

STEIWER BACKS PRIMARY

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)

PENDLETON, Ore., April 22—Frederick Steiwer, Pendleton candidate for United States senator, told a Steiwer-for-senator club meeting last night that he was for the direct primary. In two former campaigns Steiwer has submitted his candidacy directly to the people and was successful. A capacity crowd greeted the candidate for senator who has been making campaign tours throughout the state.
