WILL ALWAYS BLESS DAY SHE STARTED ON KARNAK

"Why, This Wonderful Medicine Has Simply Proved a Godsend to Me—Just Send Anyone to Me About It," Declares Mrs. Peterson.

"I will always bless the day I got Karnak for this medicine has simply been a godsend to me," declares Mrs. A. H. Peterson, Box 250, Route No. 2, Breverton, Ore., while in Roseburg, Ore.

"Four years ago I had a bad fall and was laid up in bed for several weeks, and ever since I suffered from extreme nervousness," continues Mrs. Peterson. "There was a severe throbbing in my side, too, and this together with the nervousness just put my stomach out of commission also."

"I could eat but very little and just suffered agony from gas bloating and belching. I used to lie awake most all night and worry and wonder if there was anything that would ever give me relief. Mornings I felt so sick, nervous and weak I could hardly do my housework. I had severe headaches and dizzy spells, and though I spent sums of money on medicine and treatments I kept getting worse as time went on.

"Oh, how thankful I am that I finally started taking Karnak. Why, this medicine just seemed to get to the roots of my troubles, and has made me feel like a new person in every way."

"I eat three hearty meals every day now, and there's not a trace of that indigestion, gas or biliousness left. That throbbing has gone from my side, my nerves are calm, and I sleep sound all night. I have so much new strength and energy I just enjoy my housework now, and I already told dozens of people what Karnak has done for me. Just send anyone to me about this wonderful medicine."

Karnak is sold in Roseburg by Nathan Fullerton, the Rexall store, and by all other leading druggists in Roseburg and every other town.

Students of the Roseburg High School have received their copies of the 1926 edition of "The Umpqua," the Roseburg high school annual, published by the student body. This year's edition is one of the finest ever put out by the school. It is bound in a handsome cover and contains interesting accounts of school activities. Special departments are devoted to each class, to the various student organizations, the athletic teams, and activities. The annual is profusely illustrated, having pictures of faculty members, all of the students, organizations, athletes, and snapshots which inject an interesting touch of spirit and humor. Attractive, decorative inserts divide the several departments. The annual this year is dedicated to the Umpqua Chiefs and Squaws for the help which those organizations have given the school. Liberal advertising space has been purchased by Roseburg merchants and by several outside firms. The annual was printed in the exclusive job department of the News-Review and is a specimen of high class workmanship and typographical art.
