NEW TELEPHONE DIRECTORY BEING DISTRIBUTED TODAY

Patrons Advised to Consult Directory Before Placing Call as Numbers Have Been Changed.

Distribution of telephone directories was started today. The distribution is being done by Boy Scouts and the money received for the work will go to their summer camp fund. The telephone company has adopted this policy for several years, finding it to be an excellent method of getting the directories into the hands of the patrons, and at the same time afford the scouts a method of earning money for their camp.

The new directories were printed in the exclusive job department of the Roseburg News-Review and are complete in every detail. The material was compiled by J. R. Farrington, manager of the local telephone exchange, who has added to and extended the classified department and made a few other minor changes.

Mr. Farrington urges the patrons to consult the directory before placing calls to parties with whose number they have been familiar. A great many changes in numbers have been made, the company being forced, because of the addition of a number of new subscribers, to shift telephones about on different lines. Unless the directory is consulted before placing calls there is apt to be considerable confusion.

peting in local and national intercollegiate matches. The highest official scores for the entire season were the basis of the awards. Irwin, who is a member of the infantry unit, shot a score of 3396.5 out of a possible 3600 points. He and five others awarded sweaters, competed for the first time this year. Fifteen sweaters, the largest number ever given at O. A. C., were awarded to members of the team.

The O. A. C. rifle team won ninth place in the national intercollegiate team match at the R. O. T. C. Camp Lewis, this year. The infantry unit at Camp Lewis last summer won the coveted "Doughboy of the West" trophy. Three members of the team were members of the ninth corps area team which won the national R. O. T. C. rifle match at Camp Perry, Ohio, last summer.

CHILD IS THIRD DEATH VICTIM IN 3 WEEKS ON ROAD

(Associated Press Leased Wire.) LA GRANDE, Ore., June 8.—Kent Charles Seltz, 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Vern E. Seltz, proprietors of the Five Point filling station seven and a half miles west of here on the Old Oregon Trail highway, died in the hospital here yesterday afternoon, the result of injuries suffered when an automobile stage of the Motor Transit company ran over him as he was playing beside the filling station.

The stage, an extra called from La Grande and driven by Howard Burnett, 21, was turning around after picking up some passengers, when it ran over the boy. The driver says he didn't see the youngster until five feet from him and was unable to avoid him. No charges have been preferred against Burnett.

The boy was brought to La Grande, death following three hours after the accident while surgeons were attempting to save his life with an emergency operation. The boy's hips and abdomen were crushed. This is the third death on the Hilgard-Perry stretch of highway in the last three weeks.

450-MILE AUTO TRIP FOR YELLOW CAT IS FUTURE

(Associated Press Leased Wire.) WARREN, Ohio, June 8.—Two men from Atlanta, Indiana, were on their way home today after a futile 450-mile automobile trip here in search of a yellow cat. The men obtained a search warrant here, and with a justice of the peace searched the home of James E. Stillwell, but failed to find the cat. The men said Stillwell during a visit to Atlanta, had admitted the cat, and they thought he had taken it home with him. Stillwell said he had taken only a passing interest, and not the cat. He took the search philosophically.

PROMINENT FARMER AND ANOTHER FACE BOOZE SALE CHARGE

(Associated Press Leased Wire.) SALEM, Ore., June 8.—Harold Looney and Frank McGrath, of Jefferson, the former a prominent rancher in that section, were arrested here last night on a charge of possession and sale of intoxicating liquor. They are said to have made a sale to officers. When arraigned in justice court they took until this afternoon to enter their plea, and were placed under bonds of $1,000 each, which they posted. The arrest was made by state and county officers.

LEAGUE LAW HOLDS BRAZIL AS MEMBER FOR 2 YEARS MORE

(Associated Press Leased Wire.) GENEVA, June 8.—Members of the Brazilian delegation of the League of Nations told The Associated Press today they knew nothing about the reported intention of their country to resign from the league, as suggested in a dispatch from Rio Janeiro. League officials declared they had received no information confirming the Rio Janeiro report. They remarked that under an article of the covenant, no member can leave the league without giving two years notice of his intention to resign. Thus, even if Brazil announces her resignation, she will automatically continue in her rights as well as duties of membership for two years.

A united battle to defend the French and Belgian franchises was decided upon today at a private conference here between Premier Briand, M. Louchere and Foreign Minister Vandervelde of Belgium, and former Premier Theunis.

The French and Belgian statesmen agreed to consult Premier Mussolini so as to bring Italy into the communication to defend the Italian lira also.

NO ACCORD YET AT CONFAB ON OREGON TRUNK EXTENSION

NEW YORK, June 8.—Conferences between officials of the Southern Pacific and the Northern Pacific regarding the joint use of new railway facilities in southern Oregon were resumed today at the Southern Pacific offices, but no definite decision was reached at the forenoon session. The following statement was issued after the meeting:

Conferences between presidents Donnelly and Budd of the northern lines (Northern Pacific railway and Great Northern railway) at the office of the chairman of the executive committee, Southern Pacific company, with Messrs. Henry W. DeForest, chairman, William Sprople, vice-president, Paul Shoup, executive vice-president, and A. B. McDonald, vice-chairman, of the Southern Pacific company, president.

No definite conclusion was reached in regard to the southern Oregon situation, the matter being left for further consideration and future conference.

Unofficially, it was indicated that substantial progress had been made on the Oregon program but final agreement probably will be delayed for several weeks.

The conferences were interrupted this afternoon when Mr. Budd was called back west on other business.

The presidents of both the northern lines described crop and traffic conditions in their territory as satisfactory and predicted that earnings would be fully as good, if not better, than last year.

HEAVY RECEIPTS OF WOOL REPORTED

PORTLAND, Ore., June 8.—The Pacific Cooperative Wool Growers' Portland warehouse at 12th and Davis streets is rapidly filling with newly shorn 1926 wools. According to Manager R. A. Ward, receipts to date are running above receipts a year ago at this time. This is probably due, according to Mr. Ward, to earlier shearing and also the fact that the market has been very slow and dragsy with only a small amount of wool being sold.

Country prices for wools still range 25c to 29c with a top of 30c to 31c. Valley wools are bringing around 35c in the country. It is reported that the Pacific Cooperative Wool Growers recently sold over a hundred thousand pounds of light wool at from 35c to 40c.

On account of the fact that the wool trade, and growers as well, believe the wool market is near the low point of the year, growers are taking advantage of the financing and cooperative marketing service offered by the local association and are joining in large numbers. The Pacific Cooperative Wool Growers report that 167 new members have joined the Association since January first.

Great Writer's Ideas on Child Training

Gay, light-hearted and debonair though Robert Louis Stevenson was during most of his life, he held views on the training of children that, coming from him, seem astonishingly severe. Mr. Lloyd Osborne, his stepson, writing in Scribner's Magazine, described a conversation that occurred when he and Stevenson, then thirty-two years old and in poor health, were sojourning at Davos in the Swiss Alps.

One conversation I heard him have with a visitor at the chalet, says Mr. Osborne, impressed me deeply. The visitor was a fussy, officious person, who, after many preliminaries, ventured to criticize Stevenson for the way he was bringing up his son, R. L. S., who was the most reasonable of men in an argument, and almost over-zealous to admit any points against himself, surprised me by his unshaken stand.

"Of course I let him read anything he wants," he said. "And if he hears things you say he shouldn't, I am glad of it. A child should early gain some perception of what the world is really like—its baseness, its treacheries, its thinly veiled brutalities; he should learn to judge people, to discern human frailties and weaknesses, and be in some degree prepared and armed for taking his part later in the battle of life. I have no patience with this fairy-tale training that makes ignorance a virtue. That was how I was brought up, and no one will ever know except myself the bitter misery it cost me."—Youth's Companion.

Visiting Pest Bane of Busy Office Man

The "just-a-minute" man is a product of modern times, and is in no way related to the Minute Man of Revolutionary days. He is the worst pest with whom Detroiters live in public office and business life have to deal.

He always appears to be in a hurry. He dashes into the outer office of his victim, pulls out his watch, and breathlessly asks the secretary if he can see Mr. So-and-so for "just a minute." He is often successful in gaining admittance, and he usually stays about 30 minutes, or until long after he has worn out his welcome.

The "just-a-minute" man is legion. His visits sometimes take up several hours a day of one busy man's time. One business man admitted he could dispense with his secretary if it were not for the "just-a-minute" man. The secretary's chief duty is to intercept the pest and learn his business.—Detroit News.

The Case for Books

Why books, anyway? The answer is simple. Books, as yet, afford the only existing means of constantly and continuously enlarging the individual's range of experience; the only means of giving the individual thoroughgoing understanding of any of the great aspects of life; the only means of giving the individual that enduring perspective, broad vision and real knowledge which are necessary for his security, growth and happiness under civilized conditions. Other devices may give the same mental or emotional stimulation or delight, but no other devices can so thoroughly and enduringly tie man's mind together, link men into man.

Women in U. S. Treasury

The assistant treasurer of the United States informs us that in the spring of 1922 Mr. F. J. Sullinger, treasurer of the United States, prevailed upon Secretary Chase to permit him to appoint a woman to cut and trim United States currency. This work was then done with a share in the hands of men. He appointed Miss Jennie Dore and she thereafter expressed her "first day's work" so that the matter in her and in woman's favor." On October 9, 1922, the following women employees were appointed: Miss Fannie E. Halsted, Miss Annie Work, Miss Belle S. Tracy, Miss Elizabeth Stone and Miss Mary Burke. These women were the first for whom Congress regularly made an appropriation.

Equal to the Occasion

Frequently, during the dinner, the old sea captain had strayed the credulity of his ready wit, had evaded a number of cuts de sac. The supreme test came while he was describing a voyage in the South seas, "cruising along one morning," he began, "we passed an island that was positively red with lobsters." "But," said one of the guests, with unmerciful announcement, "lobsters are not red until boiled." "Of course not," replied the old salt undaunted, "but this was a volcanic island dotted with hot springs and geysers."

PENDELTON MAN KILLED IN COUPE ON REVERSE TURN

(Associated Press Leased Wire.) PENDELTON, June 8.—Eldon F. Harvey of Pendleton, was instantly killed last night at 10:30 o'clock when his coupe he was driving to Portland failed to negotiate a reverse curve two miles west of Arlington and crashed into the banked roadside. Impact of the collision was so terrific that he was thrown against the steel top of the car, crushing his skull.

He was picked up a few feet from the car by George Copfinger, also of Pendleton, riding with him, who was thrown from the car, escaping with a bruised chest and leg. Death was instantaneous according to physicians at Arlington called to the wreck, the entire top of the head being crushed to such an extent that the face was almost beyond recognition.

LA GRANDE BANK WINS AGAINST A BANKRUPT (Associated Press Leased Wire.) SALEM, Ore., June 8.—The supreme court today, in an opinion by Justice Benn, reversed and remanded for new trial the case of the United States National Bank of La Grande against E. E. Miller, appellant. The bank sued to collect a total of $16,523.37 on three promissory notes, and received judgment for $13,541.44. The defendant had been adjudged bankrupt.

ASSAULT CHARGE CARRIES $1000 BOND, UNFORNISHED

(Associated Press Leased Wire.) LA GRANDE, Ore., June 8.—Bert Hopkins, who is alleged to have struck Max Kell over the head with a revolver, inflicting a serious wound, in an argument in a Wallawa hotel Saturday night, was arraigned at Enterprise, Ore., late yesterday and bond fixed at $1,000, which he failed to raise. A preliminary hearing on the charge of assault with a dangerous weapon with intent to kill will await either the death or recovery of Kell.

3 reasons why Schilling Baking Powder is the pride of Western Kitchens

- Made from Cream of Tartar
A pure food product derived from luscious grapes. (No one has yet discovered a safe substitute for it. Ask your Doctor. He knows!)
- Baking Insurance
If for any reason you are dissatisfied with anything you ever bake with Schilling—merely tell your grocer. Instantly, he will pay you for the things you have used (flour, butter, eggs, everything) and for the full package of Baking Powder. We will pay him. No red tape—no strings. Schilling is sure—that's all!
- An Even, Fluffy Texture
Schilling Baking Powder raises a cake with myriads of fine, fluffy bubbles. Cream of Tartar always gives that fine, even texture that no substitute has ever been able to equal.
