GLENDALE WOMAN INJURED IN WRECK

Mrs. John Welliver of Glendale, received serious cuts about the eyes and face when she was thrown through the windshield of a car occupied by herself and Mr. Welliver Sunday evening. The lights of the car suddenly went out as they were just north of Canyonville, throwing the car into the bank.

Mrs. Welliver was brought to this city and injured were attended at Mercy hospital by Drs. Sether and Seely. She has several bad cuts about the face and eyes and one piece of glass penetrated the left eye, leaving a hole. It is doubtful whether or not the sight of this eye can be saved.

BAD FIRES STILL RAGING ON OREGON-CALIFORNIA LINE

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)

SACRAMENTO, Calif., June 8.—A brush fire started by lightning, was reported to the state forestry board today to be burning in the Dunsmuir Creek district of Trinity county.

State Ranger H. R. Powers, who made the report, stated that five fires also were burning in the Trinity national forest.

The extensive brush fire which threatened valuable timber areas in the vicinity of Hornbrook, Siskiyou county, Saturday, was under control today on the California side of the state line but still burning with considerable fierceness in Oregon, the board's reports showed.

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)

PORTLAND, Ore., June 8.—Menacing fires in slashings in the Vernonia, Rock Creek and Knappa districts in northwestern Oregon, were reported today to be under control, C. C. Scott, secretary-manager of the Oregon fire patrol association, said all the fires had been kept out of green timber.

Four donkey engines belonging to the Conaher Logging company were damaged by one of the fires.

About 60 acres of slashings were swept by a fire in the operation of the Cronset-Western company, formerly the Big Creek Logging company, south of Knappa. It was brought under control last night.

A blaze in the workhorses of the Oregon-American Lumber company, Rock Creek was controlled by 250 men. Another fire was in the Sunset Logging company's operations, north of Timber.

MEDFORD, Ore., June 8.—A message to the Mail-Tribune from Hornbrook, Calif., at 2 o'clock this afternoon stated that the brush fire raging since last Thursday along the Klamath river in northern California, was still burning but the efforts of 300 fire fighters had resulted in the flames gaining no headway in the last 24 hours.

The fire situation is again assuming a menacing aspect. The brush fire raging since last Thursday along the Klamath river in northern California, was still burning but the efforts of 300 fire fighters had resulted in the flames gaining no headway in the last 24 hours.

A force of men under the direction of the forestry service are battling to keep the fire from spreading to the Siskiyou national forest.

MISSOULA, June 8.—With forests in northwestern Montana and northern Idaho extremely dry, humidity dry and hot winds blowing, the fire situation is again assuming a menacing aspect.

Fire were reported to district headquarters here today from three national forests.

Several crews of men have been sent from Missoula to fight fires in the Lolo forest. In the Lolo forest a fire is being battled with gasoline pump engine near Woodside. Two serious fires are reported burning in the Kootenai forest.

SEATTLE, June 8.—C. S. Chapman of Portland, Ore., chief forester for the Washington-Timber company, will spend most of his time in Seattle until October 1 directing efforts of the Washington Forest Fire association against flames in the woods, it was announced today.

A well balanced program splendidly given combined to make the recital of the piano, hand instrument and violin pupils of the Heim Conservatory last evening a very entertaining and enjoyable one. Each pupil performed with real talent, showing excellent training and playing their selections with real artistry, and each selection was received by a large and a very appreciative audience.

The recitals will be continued this week, another being presented this evening promptly at 8 o'clock. All are open to the public. The concert hall is very comfortable as an electric fan has been installed for the hot weather.

Tonight's program is as follows: Soldiers of the Starry Flag, Grayson; Swain in the Woods, Winthrop; Beguina Orchestra, Mrs. A. J. Young, director; Trauerer, Schumann; Donald Fields; Valse, Warner; Kenneth Rada; Evening Shadows; Hathi; Nona; The Palm; Fanny William Shields; Dance of the Cigarettes, Greenwald; Louise Bandish; Marcel; Beethoven; Ayla Nepley; Rosella; Flower Song, Franklin; Robert Chase; Gondola; Woodhouse; Donald Fields; Kenneth Lawson; Mazurka Elegante; Kreutzfeldt; Wilma Howard; The Old Oaken Bucket; Harry; Chester Rice; Resurrection; Roman; Kenneth Lawson; Valse in F Flat; Durand; Allen; Margaret; Hasek; Harold; Ra; Hungarian Rhapsody; Koellig; Elizabeth Williams; Meadow Queen; Franklin; Isabel Harvey; Valse; Strong; John Zimrick; Hearts and Flowers; Danzel; Mendelssohn; Margaret; Hasek; Mazurka; Osgood; Walter Walker; To Spring; Grieg; Phyllis Shields; Serenade; Bladine; Gabriel Marie; Norman Hess; Rustling of Spring; Gindine; M.
