CONTROL OF PINE BEETLE AT DIAMOND LAKE ATTEMPTED

To prevent further destruction of trees by the mountain pine beetle along the east shore of Diamond lake, the forest service has just finished the cutting and burning of almost a thousand infested lodgepoles.

For the past three or four years, beetle known as the mountain pine beetle has killed thousands of lodgepole trees in the general vicinity of Mt. Bailey and Mt. Thielsen as well as in the large lodgepole areas immediately to the south. The wide extent of this infested lodgepole and the rapidity with which the beetles were freely migrating from one infested area to another made the control of the beetle too difficult and too expensive to undertake.

Beginning in 1925, the natural enemies of the beetles began to reduce them to such a degree that the beetles were forced to confine themselves to established com-

DERN AND WOODS TO MEET TONIGHT

Mr. Dorn, who holds the decision over Ted Thye of Portland, will meet Sailor Jack Woods at the Roseburg Armory in a finish match on Monday night, June 28th. A small admission of $1.10 for gentlemen will be charged and ladies will be admitted free. This match should be one of the best ever staged in this city and it is expected that a record crowd will attend. Manager Trumbull has arranged some fine preliminaries for the program. Tickets are on sale this week at the Palace of Sweets.

"WHAT KARNAK DID FOR ME WOULD FILL NEWSPAPER"

This Medicine Made Clean Sweep of His Troubles After He Suffered 22 Years Stomach Torture and Spent Thousands of Dollars Looking for Relief, Says Martin.

"I tell you, Karnak is so good and so far ahead of everything else I ever heard of that I'd go out of my way to tell people about it," declares G. B. Martin, of 215 Water St., Portland, Oregon.

"Why, I could say enough for this medicine to fill a newspaper," continues Mr. Martin. "Why, it's put me back on my feet in the best of condition after I had suffered for twenty-two years of the worst kind of stomach trouble and spent thousands of dollars looking for relief."

"I just can't eat a thing without gas forming afterward and pressing around my heart till I could hardly get my breath. Why, I would bloat so tight with gas that all around my waist line and through the pit of my stomach felt as sore as a boil. Nights I was in such misery I would simply have to walk the floor."

"Now after all these years of suffering Karnak has made a clean sweep of my troubles and put me in the pink of condition. Why, I eat just anything I want and never feel a trace of stomach trouble, gas, bloating or biliousness any more. I don't have an ache or pain, sleep like a top every night, and I can go through a hard day's work and still feel good. Why, more couldn't buy the good Karnak I've done me—just tell 'em to see me about it."

Karnak is sold in Roseburg by Nathan Pullerton, the Rexall store, and by all other leading druggists in Roseburg and every other town.
