

Opening Announcement!

Douglas Building & Loan Ass'n

A LOCAL ORGANIZATION

(Incorporated under the Laws of the State of Oregon. Under State Supervision and Control.)

ABSOLUTE SAFETY

Home Office: First State and Savings Bank Building, Roseburg, Oregon.

The DOUGLAS BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION is a local Oregon corporation organized and managed by successful and prominent men in your own locality, men who are known to you to have made a success in their own private business, and who, with the exception of those who are charged with the actual management of the association, are serving you and your association without reward and only with the thought and desire to be of further service to the community by encouraging thrift and home ownership among their neighbors.

We invite you to become a member of our association by starting a savings account with us on which you will receive a very satisfactory rate of interest and at the same time you will provide for your future and those you love most.

We will take pleasure in telling you all about our new plans of savings and protection if you will call at our office or drop us a line.

SAFETY

The United States Comptroller of the Currency's report, recently published, in comparing losses to investors by different institutions of savings, gives statistics showing that Building and Loan Associations throughout the United States, of which there are now over ten thousand, representing a total investment of over Four Billion Dollars, have suffered losses totaling only seven thousandths of one per cent of the assets of these associations, thus establishing a record for safety not equaled by any other form of investment.

"THE MAGAZINE OF WALL STREET," America's foremost financial journal, in its edition of October 27th, 1923, rates a Building and Loan Association Savings Account in the same class for absolute safety as U. S. Treasurer's Certificates, and also states that Building and Loan Savings return a higher earning.

WHAT IS A BUILDING & LOAN ASSOCIATION?

These Associations, under the laws of Oregon, may be called either Savings and Loan or Building and Loan Associations. They are primarily Savings Institutions, designed and organized to provide a safe and profitable method for the investment of small savings. For example, you and 99 other people have $10.00 each to invest. The only institution open to you for this small amount would be the Savings Bank at a low rate of interest, but by pooling these savings into a common fund, the $1000.00 so accumulated could be profitably invested in a choice first mortgage, each member of the association thus formed, sharing in the earnings of their combined capital, thus guaranteeing themselves, not only first mortgage security for their savings, but also a profitable rate of earnings usually available only to those who are able to invest their money in large amounts.

MOVIE NOTES

ANTLERS THEATRE

Antlers Will Show New Bebe Daniels Comedy.

A sparkling, rollicking comedy, laid in the society atmosphere of Palm Beach and other Florida beauty spots, glorified by the bewitching presence and humorous antics of Bebe Daniels, and depending for its thrills upon the speedboat racing in what picture-goers may expect to see at the Antlers Theatre Sunday, when "The Palm Beach Girl" begins a three day's run.

Just picture Bebe as a gawky country girl trying to learn the manners and mannerisms of the smart social set, falling in love with a handsome millionaire, adventuring with bootleggers and running wild in a sixty-mile-an-hour speed boat, and you'll begin to realize the hilarious fun and hysterical thrills wrapped up in this picture.

The story was adapted from the yarn by Byron Morgan and the play, "Please Help Emily" by H. M. Harwood, and is packed crammed with speed, spice and suspense. There are enough funny gags and comedy situations to keep audiences in a constant uproar of laughter.

"A Sainted Devil," Rudolph Valentino's production with Nina Sidi, Helen D'Arcy, Louise La Grange, Ingar, Godowsky and others playing in support, was shown for the first time last night at the Antlers Theatre. The story is by Rex Beach. Joseph Henabery, who made "The Stranger," directed.

"A Sainted Devil" is "The Sheik" and a sort of Spanish "Robin Hood" combined—a tense, exciting love-drama, with the star in the role of a young Spaniard who roams South America in search of a notorious bandit who had stolen his bride on his wedding night.

MAJESTIC THEATRE

Johnson's Jazzband Boys.

This is a high-class colored organization, who have just completed an eastern tour, and are now enroute to Canada to open in Western Vaudeville time.
Their act consists of 8 people who sing, dance and play all the latest jazz music. They have the distinction of having played before the late President Harding and President Coolidge, and bring with them a personal letter of recommendation from the late Senator Clarke. The Majestic is glad to present this act to the people of Roseburg, knowing it to be the best musical treat of the season.

LIBERTY THEATRE

"Sandy" Said To Be Most Dramatic Picture of Year.

There are two very different girls in "Sandy"—Fox Film's dramatic serial of married life which is coming to the Liberty Theatre tomorrow, where it will remain till Tuesday.

Madge Bellamy plays the part of Sandy and Gloria Inge the part of Judith Moore. "Sandy" is from the modern school—a flapper, yet not a flapper, in the accepted sense.

She is one whose defiance of the old conventions has a deeper urge—although she herself understands less than any other the meaning and the beauty of the impulse that fights for dominance in her undisciplined heart.

Red-haired, gay, daring—"Sandy" is, despite her large chatter, inwardly a precious child.
Judith is the opposite type. Quiet and restrained, she is an ardent girl, hiding many a storm and many a dream behind her calm plainness. How the plain girls suffer! The world never knows indeed, never cares!
She loves Douglas Keith. She has known him since childhood.

His long walks with her, his boyish talk—those moon evenings to Judith. Sometimes she—the plain little nobody—in certain her love is returned. Again—she despairs. Can any man love her? Will she ever win romance from life?

What happens to these two girls when tragedy strikes at the heart of "Sandy"? How does the golden card meet the reverses of life? What are the reflections of plain little Judith?

DR. MATTHEWS OF SEATTLE TO BE BAPTIST PASTOR

Dr. Frank R. Matthews, of Seattle, has been called to the pastorate of the local Baptist Church and will come to Roseburg about the first of September to fill the pulpit, the church having been without a regular pastor since the departure of Rev. H. L. Caldwell, who left in the spring for Pasadena, where he is now located.

Dr. Matthews, who is about 33 years of age, has had 23 years of experience in the ministry. He has been in Seattle 20 pastor of the University Baptist Church for the past seven years, and prior to that time spent in years at Redlands, California and 13 years at Newton, Massachusetts. He is considered one of the best preachers on the coast. He was in Roseburg several weeks ago and met the membership of the local church.

Among the Sick at Mercy Hospital

Mrs. Bert Verbeek of Biddeford has been admitted for treatment. A P. G. bridge at Astoria is still being torn a sprained back, concealed while engaged in farming operations at his home.
Loy White of Roseburg has been admitted for treatment. He recently came home from the veterans' hospital at Walla Walla and is still suffering from influenza contracted during the war.
Jack Greenwood of Houlton is suffering from sprained back, as a result of a bad fall while working with the road crew on the North Umpqua.
Mrs. C. Olson of Elmer, who has been receiving treatment, has recovered sufficiently to return to her home.
Mrs. W. H. Sibbold of Looking Glass, is doing quite well following an operation performed yesterday.

A matter of time

When you first met one of the people now your friends, he was only a face and a name. You saw him oftener, listened to him, learned what he was doing, what his friends thought of him... claimed him yourself as friend. It was only a matter of time.

It is only a matter of time before you will also claim as friend many a product which advertising is introducing to you. It may be a truer watch, a quieter door-closer, a longer wearing silk stocking, a better oil for your car. If you notice more in the advertisement than just appearance and name, you may want to be friends at once. You will learn what the product means to others and can helpfully mean to you. Advertisements tell you frankly all that makes a product friendly. Qualities, mannerisms—what the watch, door-closer, oil is in the habit of doing. Advertisements make you acquainted before you give the product your faith. Since you choose your friends often, why not keep your choice wise?

Advertisements give you trustworthy friends that may prove indispensable to you
