

Quality Merchandise at Unheard-of Prices

For Friday and Saturday Only

1 lot House Dresses at	$1.00	Voile Stepins, pair	$1.00
1 lot Ladies Skirts at	$1.00	Baronette Satin, yd.	$1.00
1 lot Ladies Corsets at	$1.00	All Figured Voiles, 3 yds.	$1.00
Ginghams, 5 yds. for	$1.00	Colored Silk Pongee, 1 yd.	$1.00
Devonshire, 3 yds. for	$1.00	Phoenix Hosiery, special 1 pair.	$1.00
Stevens Linen Crash, 5 yds. for	$1.00	Phoenix and Gordon Rayon and
Hope Muslin, 5 yds. for	$1.00	Silk Vests, each	$1.00
		Children's School Hose, 4 pair	$1.00

THE LADIES SHOPPE

139 North Jackson St., Roseburg

From Myrtle Point—
R. B. Golden and son, residents near Myrtle Point, were in Roseburg yesterday visiting and on business. They returned home last evening.

WOMEN WANTED

Umpqua Valley Canning Co.
ROSEBURG, OREGON

LOCAL NEWS

On Business—
J. Burnett, Glendale resident, was in Roseburg yesterday, transacting business and trading.

From Glendale—
O. C. Conder returned to Glendale yesterday afternoon after visiting and looking after business interests in Roseburg during the day.

Visit Here Enroute Home—
K. L. Henry and son are visiting here for a few days at the home of W. L. Torrey. They are enroute home after a motor trip through California.

Cornetist to Leave—
Abner Hodel, resident of Roseburg for over a year past and cornetist with the Douglas County Concert band, leaves tomorrow for Porterville, Calif., where he plans to locate. He will travel by auto with L. B. Kennedy, of Porterville, who, with his family, has been visiting in this city and Sutherlin for several weeks past. Mr. Hodel and Mr. Kennedy were formerly in business partnership at Sutherlin.

Dr. Rupert A. Moon
ELECTRO-CHIROPRACTOR
Nerve and Spine Specialist
293 Perkins Bldg. Phone 554

PIONEER

DR. DEAN B. BUBAR
OPTOMETRIST
Specialist in the fitting of Glasses
115 Jackson St.

DR. NERBAS
DENTIST
Painless Extraction
Gas When Desired
Pyorrhea Cured
Phone 438 Manoria Bldg.

DRUGLESS HEALTH CENTER
327 W. Cass Phone 491
DR. HARRISON FOLK
DR. CATHERINE MCNEIL
CHIROPRACTORS
(Painless Adjustments)
Electro-Therapy
Electronic and Vapor Baths

Malcolm Irvine, M. D.
Physician and Surgeon
Day and Night Calls
Myrtle Creek - Oregon

PRUNE DRYER
INSURANCE

Insure your fruit dryer and equipment now. Carry an adequate amount on fruit during drying season. Cost is small. Phone or call. We sell insurance and give real service to our policy holders.

G. W. Young & Son
Insurance
115 Cass St. Phone 417

LOCAL NEWS

From Melrose—
John Galla was a visitor from Melrose Thursday afternoon for a brief time and was looking after business matters.

In Thursday—
F. Parrott, Garden Valley rancher, was in Roseburg for a brief time yesterday transacting business and trading.

Miss Kamp Visits—
Miss Myra Kamp, of Umpqua, spent several hours Thursday in this city shopping and visiting with friends.

Visitor Yesterday—
Mrs. K. E. Sandquist, of Elgar, was a Roseburg visitor for a few hours Thursday, and was meeting friends and shopping.

From South Deer Creek—
O. Boone, South Deer Creek resident, spent a few hours in Roseburg attending to business affairs and visiting Thursday.

Visitors Thursday—
Mrs. R. E. Fenn and daughter returned to Melrose yesterday afternoon after visiting with friends and shopping in this city.

Here Thursday—
George Wagner and J. Wagner of Looking Glass, were in Roseburg yesterday afternoon attending to business affairs and trading.

Collector Here—
Dan W. Herring, of Medford, internal revenue collector, arrived yesterday to spend a few days looking after business affairs in Roseburg.

From Sutherlin—
Mr. and Mrs. W. Sebastian, who reside near Sutherlin, were in this city Thursday afternoon shopping and attending to business affairs.

From Oakland—
Harry Kellogg returned to Oakland yesterday afternoon after spending several hours in this city looking after business affairs and visiting.

From Glendale—
C. O. Garrett, Glendale resident, was in town yesterday and today attending to business affairs and visiting.

Return From Portland—
Mrs. Bruce Bridges and son returned to Roseburg this morning after spending the past week in Portland as guests of Mrs. Bridges' sisters.

From Oakland—
W. N. Crouch of Oakland, brother of Sam Crouch of this city, is spending a few days here visiting with friends and attending to business matters.

To Myrtle Creek—
A. A. Rogers of this city, left this morning for Myrtle Creek, where he will spend the next week attending to business affairs and visiting.

Arrives From Portland—
George A. Z. Harris, of the Oregon-Washington Stock Land Bank, arrived this morning to spend a few days on business. He will be the guest of W. F. Harris.

Return From Eugene—
Rudy Faiman and Dolores Williams returned to Roseburg this morning after spending Thursday in Eugene visiting friends and attending the Trail to Rail celebration.

Visit at Starnes Home—
Rev. and Mrs. Starnes, former Roseburg residents, now of Bend, are guests at the home of the former's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Starnes, for a brief time. They are enroute to attend a clergyman's conference in southern Oregon.

Visiting at Schloemann Home—
Mrs. Charles Hurst and two children, of San Francisco, are visiting in Roseburg as guests of the former's father, A. Schloemann. Her husband will arrive in a few days and they will later enjoy a trip on the South Umpqua. They will be here for about two weeks.

Return to San Francisco—
Mrs. Nina Wilson and daughter, Miss Marvel Wilson, who have been spending some time in Roseburg visiting as guests of the former's mother, Mrs. L. N. Park, left this morning for their home in San Francisco. Mrs. Wilson formerly made her home in Roseburg and has many friends here.

Game Law Violator—
Edward Riddle of Riddle, paid $50 in fines today for possession of game birds during closed season, and for hunting without a license. Riddle was apprehended with a Chinaman in his possession by P. A. Stollmeyer, deputy state game warden. Riddle pleaded guilty to both charges.—Albany Democrat-Herald.

Bussey Trades Locations—
Charles Bussey, who has been manager of the Standard Oil distributing station here for nearly two years, has been transferred to the station at Coquille. R. H. the former manager at Coquille, will take Mr. Bussey's place. The exchange of positions will be made the first of next week. Cottage Grove Sentinel.

New Resident Here—
L. G. Cornwell, who has been identified with the Anderson and Middleton Lumber company logging operations at Camp Creek and Ragland for the past two years, in the capacity of "high climber" and considered one of the best men in this section in his line, is removing his family this week to Roseburg, where he expects to make his permanent home, and will retire from the logging game, at present accepting employment as a truck driver.—Eugene Guard.

Marriage License Issued—
A marriage license was issued yesterday to O. W. Murdock of Melrose and Bertha Dryden of Oklahoma City.

To Attend Pageant—
Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Williams left by auto this morning for Eugene where they will attend the Trail to Rail pageant today.

To Portland—
Mr. and Mrs. John F. Brown of this city, left by auto yesterday noon for Portland where they will spend a week visiting friends.

Undergoes Operation
Mary Penland today underwent an operation for the removal of tonsils at Mercy Hospital. Dr. Seely was the attending surgeon.

To Portland—
Miss Hurlina Larsen of Portland, who has been visiting here as a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Shields, will return home this evening.

Return From Eugene—
Mr. and Mrs. Dick Busch and the former's sister, Mrs. C. E. Walter, returned last evening from Eugene, where they attended the Trail to Rail celebration.

Senator Hall Here—
Senator Charles Hall of Marshfield, was a Roseburg visitor this morning, on his way to Portland. He will stop in Eugene to attend the Trail to Rail celebration today, continuing on to Portland tomorrow.

Returning to Portland—
Jack Shields, who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Shields for the past three weeks, leaves tonight for Portland, where he is employed with the Peoples' theatre orchestra. Mr. Shields was formerly director of the Douglas County Concert Band here and is well known in Roseburg.

Forest Officials Here—
F. H. Brundage of the road department of the forest service from the Portland office, F. E. Bonner, district engineer and B. B. Burnett of the roads department of the San Francisco headquarters, today accompanied Carl B. Neal, supervisor of the Umpqua national forest on an inspection trip over the North Umpqua road to Steamboat. The forest service is starting work at once completing turnouts on the Bogus Creek-Steambot section, which was recently declared closed.

Former Residents Visit—
Fred M. Zigler, former resident of Roseburg, now employed in the mechanical department of The Timmerman, published at Portland, is paying his first visit to this city in twelve years. He will spend a week as the guest of relatives and friends. Mr. Zigler started his trade as a printer on the old Roseburg Plaindealer. He was accompanied here from Portland by his sister, Miss Zella Zigler, and her friend, Mrs. Frank Noble, of Seattle. Mrs. Noble, member of a pioneer Douglas county family named Patton, was born near Wilbur. Her husband at one time operated a grist mill in the southern part of Roseburg.

Return From Eastern Oregon—
C. L. Beckley was a business visitor in Roseburg today. Mr. Beckley with his wife and Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Beckley and family returned the first of the week from a trip through eastern Oregon. They motored through Burns and visited Prineville, Vale and in points in Malheur county. C. L. Beckley has a 120 acre farm near Nyssa, which he has planted to alfalfa. He states that despite the scarcity of rainfall in eastern Oregon, the crops are in good condition and that the region near Nyssa has a longer crop of hay than that of last year. Enroute home they motored over the Columbia highway and stopped over in Portland.

Leaves for Canada—
Miss Mildred Ohman left this morning for points in Washington and Canada, where she expects to visit for a month. Miss Ohman will stop in Eugene today to attend the Trail to Rail pageant, and will also visit in Portland. In Seattle she will be the guest of relatives.

Circus Advance Man in City—
Frank Zartman, advance man for Schell-Foto circus, which is to be in Roseburg on Friday, Aug. 28, was in Roseburg today in care of preliminary arrangements for the visit of the circus to this city. Mr. Zartman was for many years in the newspaper business in Ohio, but in recent years has been associated with the circus as a publicity expert. He is greatly pleased with the western country which he prefers to the east as a place to live.

Banion Girl Hit—
Miss Evelyn Gillen, aged 20 years, of Bandon, was brought to Mercy Hospital today suffering from a very critical illness. The family have been on a vacation trip and had started for their home, but on reaching Roseburg the young lady's condition became such that it was necessary to take her to the hospital, where she is reported to be in a very serious condition today. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. Gillen, of Bandon, and has been engaged in teaching school there.

ACCUSED OF WRITING
BAD LETTERS TO CAL
(Associated Press United Wire)
HERKULEY, Calif., Aug. 20
Charles Neal, 39, was arrested today for investigation by federal agents on a charge from Washington that he had written threatening letters to President Coolidge.

Yes, this laundry does knead the spots out of clothes—understand us—
just the spots we remove none of the wear. You will compliment us upon our work at the first opportunity.

Roseburg Steam
Laundry

PHONE 79
Roseburg, Ore.

MELONS!

Local melons and cantaloupes are at their best—Enjoy them while they last—Stone's have fresh supply daily.

Saturday Before Noon Bargains

MATCHES—Standard size, 6 boxes	21c	PINEAPPLE—Large can, limit 3	20c
TOMATO SOUP—Van Camp's, 3 for	23c	PORK AND BEANS—Camp- bell's medium, 3 for	25c

Prices Good For All Day

FLOUR—Best Hard Wheat, bbl.	$8.60	SOUPS—Campbell's, all varieties, can	10c
LARD—Local, 9 lb.	$1.95	MILK—Borden's, Carnation, Alpine, can	10c
LARD—Swift's or Morrell's, 8 lbs.	$1.95	CORN—Standard, 2 cans	25c
CIGARETTES—Camels Lucky's, Chesterfields, 2 for	25c	TOMATOES—Large cans, 3 cans	35c
TOBACCO—Star, Horseshoe, Climax, pound plug	73c	BUTTER—Best Creamery Saturday only, 2 lbs.	89c

SMOKED MEATS

HAMS—Best quality, lb.	43c	SQUARES—Sugar Cured, lb.	29c
BACKS— lb.	33c	SALT PORK—Eastern, lb.	29c

$5.00 Orders Delivered Free—Sugar Excepted.

California and Oregon

311 West Cass
Roseburg, Oregon

Buy the "Home Package"

Costs about the same as 3 small cartons. Gives you 50% more than others.

condition and that the region near Nyssa has a longer crop of hay than that of last year. Enroute home they motored over the Columbia highway and stopped over in Portland.

Leaves for Canada—
Miss Mildred Ohman left this morning for points in Washington and Canada, where she expects to visit for a month. Miss Ohman will stop in Eugene today to attend the Trail to Rail pageant, and will also visit in Portland. In Seattle she will be the guest of relatives.

Circus Advance Man in City—
Frank Zartman, advance man for Schell-Foto circus, which is to be in Roseburg on Friday, Aug. 28, was in Roseburg today in care of preliminary arrangements for the visit of the circus to this city. Mr. Zartman was for many years in the newspaper business in Ohio, but in recent years has been associated with the circus as a publicity expert. He is greatly pleased with the western country which he prefers to the east as a place to live.

Banion Girl Hit—
Miss Evelyn Gillen, aged 20 years, of Bandon, was brought to Mercy Hospital today suffering from a very critical illness. The family have been on a vacation trip and had started for their home, but on reaching Roseburg the young lady's condition became such that it was necessary to take her to the hospital, where she is reported to be in a very serious condition today. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. Gillen, of Bandon, and has been engaged in teaching school there.

ACCUSED OF WRITING
BAD LETTERS TO CAL
(Associated Press United Wire)
HERKULEY, Calif., Aug. 20
Charles Neal, 39, was arrested today for investigation by federal agents on a charge from Washington that he had written threatening letters to President Coolidge.

Yes, this laundry does
knead the spots out of
clothes—understand us—
just the spots we remove none of the wear. You will compliment us upon
our work at the first opportunity.

Roseburg Steam
Laundry

PHONE 79
Roseburg, Ore.

WOULD-BE WIFE OF THAW TURNS AUTO HOMEWARD

MARTINSBURG, W. Va., Aug. 20.—Forest Hope Walls, 17-year-old Los Angeles girl, who crossed the continent in a small automobile hoping to marry Harry K. Thaw, turned her face homeward today, traveling with her mother and a brother in the same old machine which brought them east.

WITNESS IN MELLETT MURDER CASE MISSING

CANTON, Ohio, Aug. 20.—Investigators into the murder of Don R.

Mellet, Canton, Canton publisher, today expressed fears that City Detective Floyd Streitenberger had fled Canton. Streitenberger had declared Louis Mazer, held for the murder of Mellett, was at his home at the time of the crime five weeks ago. Streitenberger is being sought by investigators for questioning.

If you want to buy or sell use classified ads for advertisements to the News-Review Classified Ads. It is within the reach of all.

For results use News-Review classified ads.

Look under the flushing rim

Flush-A-Way

is the only liquid deodorant that enables you to clean under the flushing rim of the toilet bowl easily and quickly—without fuss or muss.

Take your mirror and look under the flushing rim. It will tell you a story. Then put a little Flush-A-Way on the brush and FLUSH-A-WAY.

At Your Dealers

FLUSH-A-WAY for Toilet Bowls

DOBBS HATS

The DOBBS Jaunty is a Dobbs refinement of the last word from London where the edict has been issued in favor of smaller proportions in the fashionable hats. It will prove a welcome innovation to many men who appreciate the trim smartness of neat lines. The Dobbs Jaunty is shown here today—just as it is in the Dobbs shops on Fifth Avenue.

$7.50

Duds for Men, Inc.
QUINE BROS.