GRAND JURY WILL PROBE CHARGES OF
U'REN VS. STEIWER

(Associated Press Local Wire.)

SALEM, Ore., Aug. 24.—District Attorney John H. Carson of Marion county today addressed letters to W. S. U'ren, Portland attorney, who alleges that Frederick Steiwer and John R. Latourette filed false statements of Steiwer's primary election campaign for nomination for United States senator, and to Mr. Latourette advising them that the Marion county grand jury will reconvene early in September and requesting them to appear before that body and submit whatever evidence they may have bearing upon the alleged violations of the election law.

The letters are in reply to requests received from both U'ren and Latourette for a grand jury investigation in this county of the false filing charges and all matters pertaining to them.

District Attorney Carson advises them that their letters to him requesting an investigation will be laid before the grand jury along with such other evidence and information they may have to offer bearing upon violations of the law coming within the jurisdiction of the Marion county court.
