RICKARD ACCEPTS BLAME FOR BAN ON NEGRO CHALLENGER

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—Jack Dempsey has never dodged Harry Wills and would rather have fought the negro challenger than Gene Tunney. If the bout could have been arranged, Tex Rickard today told the Associated Press.

To say that Dempsey fears Wills is a joke, said the promoter. "He considers him a class living, estimable citizen but a second-rate fighter."

At the same time, the promoter, in a detailed statement defending the champion's course, revealed that his own efforts to stage a Dempsey-Wills match were blocked two years ago after he had gone so far as to have the tickets for the fight printed.

Opposition on the part of the state athletic commission then was the barrier to the match, although previously the boxing authorities had approved it. New Jersey put up a similar ban and Rickard gave up all thought of trying to hold the contest.

"My experience with the Jeffries-Johnson bout long ago convinced me that a Dempsey-Wills match would not be a good thing for boxing," said Rickard. "As I became better acquainted with the game and talked with persons of influence I saw no reason to change my opinion."

Dempsey, however, Rickard disclosed, had repeatedly urged him to obtain Wills instead of Tunney for a title match. The promoter exhibited a series of telegrams to prove his assertion.

Start Will Be As Strong As Finish, M'Ewan's Grid Avowal

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)

EUGENE, Ore., Aug. 25.—Oregon is going out to win from the University of Washington Huskies when the two football teams meet in Portland October 9, in the opening coast conference game of the season for both teams, according to Coach John J. McEwan of the University of Oregon. The Oregon team isn't going to do what so many former teams from here have done in the past, take things easy at the start and finish strong. McEwan said. It's going to be a good start as well as a good finish, he said.

Realizing that the team will be handicapped this season because of a change in style of play, Captain McEwan said that strenuous practice drills will be ordered as soon as the players are able to stand the gaff. He has advised all candidates to get into condition before the practice sessions open on September 15, so that scrimmages work may be started early in the second week of practice.

Otto Vitus, powerful halfback, and Lynn Jones, plunging full back, will be on deck to bear the brunt of the Oregon offense. Wetzel and Minnaugh are other backfield veterans who will be back for more.

Several candidates will have their eyes on the quarterback post left vacant by the graduation of Louis Anderson, Carroll Woody, though light, is expected to put up a hard bid for the job.

Two letter men will be back to ers will decide one quarter of the proceeds, it is announced.

NEW YORK. — Colonel Sam Park of Beaumont, Texas, gives all his salary. He gets $1 a year as American vice consul at Biarritz. He is enabled to hoard all his old and lumber interests provide quite enough to cover his golf and sundry other expenses.

LONDON.—If John Bull's thirst continues he will get more than enough from alcohol to pay Uncle Sam. British liquor taxes last year amounted to more than $700,000,000. The year's installment on the United States debt was $23,000,000. The final installment will be $175,000,000.

PHILADELPHIA. — A constitutional amendment restricting eating is more necessary than one restricting drinking, in the opinion of Dr. John T. Buckley of the University of Southern California, as given at a dentist's congress.

STEEBENVILLE, Ohio.—Three fellows claim to be mayor of this city; of three others each asserts that he himself alone is the only legal cop. All are litigating about it.

MOON.—Pay $600 for the curing of his suffering son? "Neh," says Wilhelm Hohenzollern. He offers $200 to a woman specialist who said the job. She says she was advised to charge high or her services would not be appreciated.

PRESS REPRESENTATIVE FOR CIRCUS PREDICTS BIG TIME PERFORMANCE TOMORROW.

A. G. Wiseman, two-day advance press representative of Sells-Floto circus, was in Roseburg today. Mr. Wiseman says that the circus is this year bringing many new attractions, which have proven very popular along the route, and Roseburg people are to have a real treat tomorrow, when the circus shows in this city. Although Mr. Wiseman is usually two days in advance of the show, making the final arrangements in the city to be visited, he has been delayed somewhat in Oregon and is only one day in advance at present. The circus was at Salem last night and will be in Eugene tonight, and will reach Roseburg early tomorrow morning. Large crowds are turning out for each performance, he reports.

A live business training school. Students may enter at any time. Class and individual instruction. School has had thirty-seven years of successful operation. Its teachers take a personal interest in each pupil, not only while in school, but after the course is completed, to the end that the time and money invested in a training may be a good investment. We have an interesting booklet entitled "A Golden Investment". It will be sent on request.

It requires special experience and ability to properly move and transport a piano. If you want yours moved without injury let us hear from you.
