THE GIST OF THE BIBLE

BOOK BY BOOK By ALVIN E. BELL, D. D. ARTICLE NO. 29

THE PROPHECY OF AMOS—A LAYMAN PREACHING JUDGMENT

Amos denied being either "a prophet or a prophet's son." He was a herdsman and dresser of fruit trees, a plain layman of the southern kingdom drafted by the Lord to preach judgment to the northern kingdom.

It was the period of great prosperity in the days of King Jeroboam II and, as is usually the case, prosperity bred irreligion rather than godliness.

The burden of Amos is national accountability for national sins. God will bring every nation into judgment for its attitude towards him and its treatment of humanity.

Accordingly, he pronounces the judgment of God upon six surrounding gentile nations for the national sins that characterized them.

Finally he dealt with greater severity with the sins of Judah and Israel, because they had sinned against greater privilege and clearer light than their gentle neighbors had possessed.

The "key-note" of his message is struck in 3:12: "Hear this word that the Lord hath spoken against you, O children of Israel, against the whole family which I brought up from the land of Egypt, saying, 'You only have I known of all the families of the earth; therefore I will punish you for all your iniquities.'"

Among these iniquities of Israel, which he denounces are the injustice of the rich to the poor, "because they sold the righteous for silver, and the poor for a pair of shoes," "making the sabbath small and the shekel great;" also the animulism of its women whom he addresses as "ye kings of Bashan;" and chief of all, the mockery of their pretense of worshipping God when their hearts were not right.

His bold challenge to the nation was, "Prepare to meet thy God, O Israel!" To enforce his warning he pictured the coming destruction of the nation in five visions of judgment, viz., the locust plague and fire sweeping the nation; the plumb-line showing its crookedness; the basket of perishable fruit symbolizing its decay and the spiritual famine of God's withdrawal from the nation.

It is little wonder that such a plain preacher was invited to return to his land and mind his own business.

But the judgment Amos predicted came to pass within fifty years in the captivity and destruction of the northern kingdom of Israel.

The book closes with a promise to "raise up the tabernacle of David that is fallen and close up the breaches thereof; to raise up his ruins and build it as in the days of old."

In Act 15:16-17 St. James quotes this promise of Amos and claims its fulfillment in Jesus Christ and His church made up of both gentiles and Jews.

EUGENE SETS DANCE HALL LIMIT AROUND STATE UNIVERSITY

EUGENE, Ore., Aug. 28.—Dance halls in the University of Oregon district in Eugene are taboo. An ordinance restricting public dances and skating rinks in the territory east of Patterson street extending to the city limits on the south, east and north, was passed by unanimous vote of six councilmen present at a special meeting of the city council last evening.

One amendment to the original ordinance was made. The amendment allows private dances and dinners to be held without permit by student organizations in fraternity, sorority and student club buildings in addition to dances in private homes. The dances may be held on condition that they be operated without profit.

TWO KILLED WHEN HEADLIGHT RAYS CONFUSE AUTOIST

(Associated Press Leased Wire.) SALEM, Ore., Aug. 28.—W. F. Riecke, driver, and Ernest Harrod, a passenger, were killed when their automobile overturned in a ditch on the Salem-Dallas highway about 1 o'clock this morning. Both men lived at McCoy, A. H. Riecke and Waldo Harrod, also of McCoy, were occupants of the vehicle, equipped without lights. Riecke, according to his companions, was blinded by the headlights of an approaching car and failed to see the sharp turn. The machine was travelling between 25 and 30 miles an hour. It was stated that headlights from the overturned machine, shining beams high into the air, attracted the attention of passing motorists. The injured men died about half an hour after the accident.

STATE SURVEY EXPECTED ON UMPQUA ROAD

(Continued from page 1) was submitted by Mr. Hubbard to the highway commission members. He informs county officials that the proposition is satisfactory to the state and that the survey will be ordered in the very near future.

It is also anticipated that the highway commission will as soon as possible let the contracts for the Winchester Day-Cross survey line section of the Roseburg highway. Work has already been started on the Roseport-Winchester line section, and it is the desire of those in the western part of the county to have the road to the Cross easily kept finished at once.

CHANNEL SWIM PERFORMED BY SECOND WOMAN

"I think it's just great" the message read. "I tender my heartfelt congratulations."

Challenge Issued. NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—Walter Lisberger, automobile tire dealer, who financed the English channel swim of Mrs. Clemington Corson, today issued on behalf of Mrs. Corson a challenge "to everybody, Miss Ederle not excepted" to swim around Manhattan island for a $25,000 purse.

The challenge was issued after Mr. Lisberger had learned that Mrs. Corson had successfully crossed the channel.

Dudley Field Malone, attorney for Gertrude Ederle, when told of the challenge, said Miss Ederle would consider "such a challenge when it is received."

While $25,000 was fixed as the challenge purse, a brother of Mr. Lisberger, said at the latter's office today that he would go as high as $100,000 in backing Mrs. Corson against any woman swimmer.

Mr. Lisberger wants the proposed swim around Manhattan island to be made not later than October, before the water becomes too cold. The distance would be 42 miles. He said that since he had won $100,000 on a 20-to-1 wager, that Mrs. Corson would swim the channel because of willing to risk that amount of money.

Gertrude Ederle has received vaudeville, swimming and motion picture offers that aggregate nearly $1,000,000.

Dudley Field Malone, one of the welcoming committee, revealed that Miss Ederle had been offered contracts to more than $300,000, the two largest being for $100,000 each.

NAVY MOURNING DEATH OF FLIER JOHN RODGERS

In 1911 Rodgers became a pupil of the Wright Brothers in Dayton, Ohio. He was the second naval officer to become an aviator and the oldest flier in point of service in the navy at the time of his death.

He served Uncle Sam below water as well as in the air, as he was on North Sea submarine duty in war time. Recently he was relieved of his duties in the bureau of aeronautics and given command of an experimental long distance scouting squadron with a base at

ELKS ATTENTION

A special meeting has been called for Thursday eve, Sept. 2, 1926, to make final arrangements for the Marshall field visit. A large attendance is desired.

By order of the Exalted Ruler, J. T. GOODMAN, Secy.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—Commander John Rodgers will be buried in Arlington National Cemetery next Tuesday with naval honors.

Coolidge Sympathetic. PAULI SMITHS, N. Y., Aug. 28.—A message of sympathy was sent by President Coolidge to Rear Admiral John Rodgers, retired, of Havre de Gras, Md., on the death of his son, Commander John Rodgers, in an airplane accident at Philadelphia yesterday.

"Please accept my deep and sincere sympathy in the sorrow which has come to you," the President said. "Commander Rodgers' life will be an inspiration to the service as an exemplification of the finest ideals of our navy."

Rodgers' Aunt Dies. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 28.—Mrs. Serena Livingston Rodgers, widow of the late Augustus F. Rodgers, died yesterday at her home here following a year's illness. Mrs. Rodgers was an aunt of the heroine navy flier, Commander John D. Rodgers, who was killed yesterday.

NEW PARTITIONING OF CHINA LIKELY OUTCOME OF WAR

(Associated Press Leased Wire.) PEKING, Aug. 28.—Marshal Wu Pei-Fu, overlord of several provinces of central China by virtue of military power, is fighting today against a possible realignment of other war lords which threaten to overthrow him. A new partitioning of China appears possible by military chieftains who have divided China's provinces among themselves since the empire was overthrown in 1912.

Wu Pei-Fu, who allied Marshal Chang Tso-Lin in overthrowing the Peiping government last April and recently led their combined forces against the Kuomintang, so-called national armies of that fallen power, is personally attempting to rally his troops far to the south to prevent the capture of Wuhan and Hankow, his Hunan province capital. Chang Tso-Lin, formerly his enemy and more recently his ally, is doing nothing to aid Wu Pei-Fu, nor is he continuing the pursuit of the Kuomintang, driven from their base at Kalgan, near the Mongolian border.

S. D. KINKADE DIES AT LOOKING GLASS

S. D. Kinkade, a resident of Douglas county for more than 20 years, and of Looking Glass for the past number of years, passed away yesterday at his home after an illness of four years.

Mr. Kinkade was born in Illinois, January 15, 1859, and when a small boy crossed the plains with his parents, with them coming to Oregon to settle. In 1890 he was married to Lora Shields and to this union were born two children, Mrs. Ellen Kester, of Milwaukie, Ore., and Wm. Kinkade, of Looking Glass. Surviving besides his widow and two children are one brother, Tom Kinkade, of Looking Glass, and a sister, Mrs. Ellen Perdue, of Medford.

The funeral services will be held at the Looking Glass church Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and interment will take place at the cemetery there.

NO FOREST FIRES.

No new forest fires have been reported since the severe electrical storm of last Wednesday. Some-times these fires do not show up for several days after the storm, and so a careful watch has been kept, but so far nothing has been discovered. Ranger Charles Thurston, of the Wolf Creek district, made a flight over the national forest today, and was able to see over practically the entire county. He reported that no fires were visible, other than the old ones still smoldering inside the fire lines.

MARKET RATINGS (Associated Press Leased Wire.) PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 28.—Local produce markets closed weak and lower with little-street over-supply with most lines during the past week. Fruits and vegetables especially were in over-supply and prices suffered. Offsets were so liberal stocks accumulated and there was a wide range of quality and price at the market. Dairy produce was more plentiful than a week ago but there was still a good demand for quality stuff and top grades of butter and eggs still remained good property. On the dairy exchange prime first cubes were down a half-cent, closing at 38c. Underwood extra declined, closing at 18 cents. The rest of the list held firm at former prices. In the fruit markets, peaches, pears, apples, plums, plums and grapes have been in over-supply throughout the week. Prices have remained on the downward trend, reaching extremely low levels. Vegetables are plentiful, especially beans, corn, tomatoes and lettuce. New crop spinach is the exception to the general run of supplies. It is scarce and in demand at $2 a box.
