pane of glass in the area is reported to be broken.

Hastily recruited forces of men yesterday began the first task of clearing the streets of wreckage.

Tots Cry For Parents. Hollywood, located 17 miles north of Miami, was said to present the most pitiful scene in the hurricane area. Scantly clad children cried for their parents while great numbers of homeless, many clad in bathing suits scoured among the wreckage for traces of missing relatives.

Temporary relief headquarters were established in the city hall and the Hollywood hotel.

Long lines of people waited at the Red Cross relief units for scanty supplies, meted out only to persons showing written permission from civil and military authorities.

The entire sanitary system was wrecked by the storm and sanitary inspectors believe a large quantity of drugs and disinfectants is necessary to stave off an epidemic.

JUBILEE TO BE HELD THURSDAY AT THE ARMORY

Will Mark Anniversary of Filing of Aaron Rose Land Claim.

J. B. HORNER TO SPEAK

First Principal of Old Lane School to Make Chief Address—Band Will Play Concert.

The Aaron Rose Memorial Jubilee will be observed in Roseburg at the Armory on Thursday, September 23, marking the 75th anniversary of the filing of the land claim by Aaron Rose on the 610 acres of land, constituting the main portion of the City of Roseburg.

The committee in charge of the plans for arrangements has secured the promise of Prof. J. B. Horner, of the Oregon Agricultural College to be present as the principal speaker at the evening program.

Mr. Horner was the first principal of the old Lane school, which occupied the site where the Junior high school building is now located.

The building was destroyed some years ago by fire after having served as a place of instruction for a long period of years. The site which it occupied, and a portion of the grounds upon which the present school building is now located, was donated to the school district by Aaron Rose.

Mr. Horner is the author of an Oregon History which he compiled after long research. Much of the material was gained from personal interviews with late Binger Hermann and with Aaron Rose. From this great wealth of history and personal reminiscences Prof. Horner, who is an interesting speaker, will be able to give an address which doubtless will be exceedingly pleasing to all who take advantage of the opportunity to hear him.

The committee in charge of the celebration is asking that all merchants put out their flags Thursday and leave them out during the day. All buildings for which the sign were donated by Aaron Rose will be decorated with flags or bunting. Window displays appropriate to the occasion will also be urged. The buildings to be decorated are the Southern Pacific shop, Junior high school, Presbyterian Church, M. E. Church, Episcopal church, Catholic Church.

The Douglas Co. Concert Band is to participate in the program and instead of their usual Thursday night band concerts, the season for which has now passed, will play a patriotic concert.

All citizens with pioneer parentage are especially invited to be present. Autocs will be furnished for any elderly person who is a native of Roseburg or of the immediate vicinity and who needs transportation.

An opportunity is to be given on the program for a series of reminiscent talks by pioneers.

counsel, was denied by the three judges hearing the case and argument proceeded on the injunction suit.

Through a surety company, Richard was prepared to cover bonds up to $1,000,000 if necessary to prevent any court action from interfering with holding the fight.

Richard called upon to testify in the taxpayers' suit said that he had not advanced the fighters any money out of the receipts of the coming bout and had no such intention.

John R. K. Scott, counsel for Kearns, who obtained the attachment in court number five, then announced that he withdrew the suit.

Dempsey Strikes Back. ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Sept. 21.—Jack Dempsey, in an affidavit, filed in chancery court today, answering Jack Kearns' suit forcing him into receivership, charged Kearns with stealing $500,000.

Dempsey gave this as his reason for discharging Kearns.

The case was continued for two weeks.

Dempsey also charged that Kearns was at one time impeding on a serious charge.

Dempsey, in his affidavit, said he learned of Kearns' dishonesty and prison record about August, 1925. That part of the affidavit referring to Dempsey's reasons for breaking with Kearns read in part: "At or about the time I discovered that Max Kearns had been appropriating to himself certain monies which did not belong to him but which belonged to me which aggregated over the period involved in excess of over $500,000.

"It was on account of this fact and also because of the fact that on or before that time I discovered that Kearns was an ex-convict, having been in prison in the penitentiary in the state of Washington for a considerable period of time."

Marriage Referred to. Dempsey, in his affidavit, said that the knowledge of Kearns' re-ord so repelled him that he discharged him as an employe. The affidavit continues:

"I further told him I would not make known the reasons for his discharge but in view of the fact that in public print and in the affidavit which he submitted to this court, he states that the reason for my breaking with him was that he wished I contracted marriage with one Estelle Taylor and that my mistress wife became embittered against him because of his opposition to the marriage and so worked upon my feelings, that I refused to any longer recognize Mr. Kearns as my manager or abide by the terms of the contract."

$50,000 Advanced. Vice Chancellor Robert A. Ingersoll in announcing the continuance for two weeks, said that both Dempsey and his business manager, Gene Normile, both must appear in court personally and submit to examination.

Dempsey also disclosed that he had received a sum of $50,000 in advance from Fox Richard for the fight with Gene Tunney at Philadelphia Thursday night. Dempsey said this advance was in the nature of a loan and that Promoter Richard holds his note for the money. Dempsey got $25,000 last May and a second $25,000 in July.

Tunney Feels Like Victor. STROUDSBURG, Pa., Sept. 21.—Gene Tunney thinks only one day stands between him and his ambition of five years. The experts have brought on a majority report favoring his opponent but Tunney makes no secret of the fact that he thinks little, if anything, of expert testimony.

Formal training has ended for the challenger. He did some boxing yesterday and continued ring-side to sit up and take notice. He smashed punches home through openings barely visible to the naked eye.

Today light exercise was the order of the day.

All experts agree that Tunney is in perfect physical condition.

In his camp is a confidence about the fight that brooks no argument.

Tunney's mental condition is also amazing to men who have been with him almost constantly as he went through his long routine of training. Some of them are wondering what he uses for nerves.

KIWANIS HEAR FINE PROGRAM AT LUNCHEON

The Roseburg Kiwanis Club enjoyed a most delightful entertainment in connection with their regular weekly luncheon, held today.

Two vocal duets were sung by Miss Doris Price and Walter Fisher, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Frances Lintott. Little Miss Virginia Young entertained with a Spanish dance and for her encore gave a demonstration of the Charleston.

Rev. E. P. Runnels, who concluded his talk began last week on the subject of child welfare, finished his discourse with an entertainment which kept the Kiwanians in a gale of laughter. Scotch songs, readings and stories provided a program which was all too short and it was with reluctance that the Kiwanians permitted him to close.

H. O. Pargator spoke briefly explaining the task which has been accepted by the American Legion as a national organization, that of encouraging the voters to go to the polls on election day. He solicited the aid of the Kiwanians, urging that by their daily association in the business world they would endeavor to impress upon all voters the necessity of exercising their right of franchise.

Four new members were accepted into the club, H. O. Parslow, Barton Bellwell, Charles Stanton and Lester Emberton.

Two Cities Isolated. NEW ORLEANS, La., Sept. 21.—At 10 o'clock today the tropical storm was central a short distance west of Mobile and was swirling westward toward New Orleans, an advisory hurricane warning issued by the weather bureau here said.

Officials of the United States naval radio station reported at 7:20 o'clock this morning that they had been unable to communicate with either Pensacola or Mobile in twelve hours. They believed that the giant towers or other radiohorns at both of the stations were demolished by the hurricane which swept inland from the coast of Mexico yesterday. Many ships at sea, several Florida stations, the local headquarters of the Tropical Radio company and the radio station have been endeavoring without success since early last night to pick up wireless messages from Mobile and Pensacola.

MELLON AGAINST FURTHER SLASH IN U. S. TAXES NOW

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—Consideration of federal tax reduction should wait at least another year for a full test of the present rates, in the opinion of Secretary Mellon. At his first conference with President Coolidge since his recent trip abroad, the treasury secretary painted an optimistic picture of European conditions and expressed the belief that the American debt settlement impose no burden upon the debtor nations. He expressed belief that France will ratify the debt agreement with the United States.

Mr. Mellon, announcing that tax collections for September quarter had exceeded estimates and probably would approximate $425,000,000, said that there could be a slight cut in rates now but that he would not recommend such action.

RIOT BREAKS UP G. O. P. MEETING IN DETROIT, MICH.

DETROIT, Sept. 21.—The Wayne county (Detroit) Republican convention to name delegates to next week's state convention, broke up to a riot shortly after opening today.

There was fist fighting, yelling by delegates who milled about over the convention floor, and an ineffectual attempt by a police riot squad to carry the riot leaders from the hall. The hubbub ended only after police reserves had been called and one faction had left the place, organized a ramp convention and named its own delegates.
