

The sure way to cook rice

Is to add it to the boiling water a little at a time, so as not to lower the temperature. Hills Bros. follow this principle of control in roasting coffee. Only a little at a time is roasted, so that every pound gets an equal amount of heat. Superb flavor is the result.

It's Controlled Roasting that makes Hills Bros Coffee the choice of the West

OPEN a can of Hills Bros. Coffee. A wonderful aroma is released. Now, brew a cup and drink! That marvelous flavor—that richness is what won the great western empire.

Controlled Roasting—originated and patented by Hills Bros.—is what brings out this coffee goodness for you to enjoy. And as long as you drink Hills Bros., its enchanting flavor is there to greet your taste.

Ask for Hills Bros. by name and look for the Arab on the can. Send your name and address for a free copy of "The Art of Entertaining." Address Hills Bros., 2 Harrison Street, San Francisco.

COURT URGED TO COMPLETE ROAD TO LOON LAKE

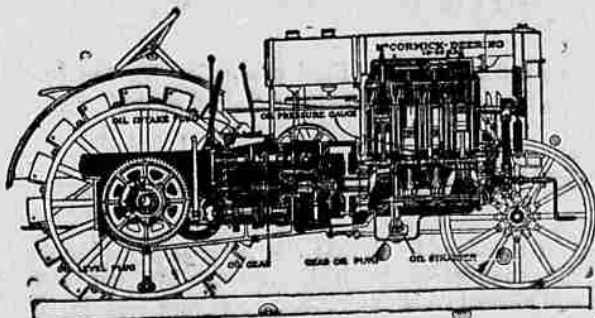

Two delegations appeared before the county court yesterday afternoon, one coming from Loon Lake and the other from Cow Creek. The Loon Lake committee was anxious to see work started again on the Mill Creek road, which will connect the fertile Loon Lake valley with the Reedsport road. Considerable work has already been done, but there remains a great deal of construction, while funds have been exhausted. The Loon Lake district, however, will receive several thousand dollars when the government pays the amount due the county under the terms of the O. and C. tax refund law, and this money will be available to complete the Mill Creek road.

The Cow Creek delegates are endeavoring to secure funds for the construction of a bridge to replace one which is in a very dangerous condition.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Oct. 8.—(Special)—Plans to make the Semi-Centennial celebration, October 18-23, an event of national importance are certain to be successful, announced Dr. James H. Gilbert, general chairman, today.

With the event little more than a week away, representatives from 155 institutions in all parts of the country have accepted invitations. In addition to distinguished educators who will appear on the programs of the various conferences on vital contemporary problems, more than 22 college presidents from universities in all parts of the United States will be here to witness the inauguration of Arnold Bennett Hall as fifth president.

Never officially inducted into the family of University buildings, Deady Hall, will be dedicated at a special program on Friday afternoon, October 23. This event especially is attracting attention of the alumni, among whom will be the two surviving members of the first class of 1876, Judge Robert S. Bear of Portland, and Ellen Condon McCormack of Eugene. On Friday also will be the memorial to the first president, John Wesley Johnson. Hundreds of alumni will be attracted here by the big alumni meeting Saturday morning, at which Dr. Hall will speak.

Among the noted speakers at the Semi-Centennial will be Dr. Clarence Cook Little, president of the University of Michigan; Dr. Frederick L. Paxson, professor of history at the University of Wisconsin, and Dr. Joseph Schafer, superintendent of the Wisconsin Historical Society, both of whom are noted historians.

Dr. Frank L. McVey, president of the University of Kentucky; Dr. Henry Suzzalo, president of the University of Washington; Dr. Arthur Crane, president of the University of Wyoming, and many other authorities in their particular fields.

With approximately 4500 invitations out to citizens of Oregon, it is expected that, if the weather is fair, the inaugural exercises will be held on Hayward field. If it rains, the attendance will have to be limited so the Woman's building may accommodate the crowd.

Excluding students, it is expected that about two or three thousand persons will attend the various programs of the Semi-Centennial ending in Homecoming on Saturday.

Hermann in Portland—"Prunes in Douglas county," observed Elbert Hermann, at the Hotel Oregon, where he is registered from Roseburg, "are like the politicians there: Plenty of them and small." It was a big crop, he explained, but the fruit was not as large as usual. Mr. Hermann a few months ago was being mentioned as a possible independent candidate for governor on a wet ticket and while he listened to the urgings of friends he finally rejected the temptation. Morning Oregonian.
