ZEPHENIAH—"THE PROPHET OF JUDGMENT"

ZEPHANIAH—"THE PROPHET OF JUDGMENT" of Jeremiah the prophet and of Josiah the good king and reformer.

His message is chiefly concerned with that great and terrible "day of the Lord" of which his predecessors Joel and Amos had so much to say.

For over half a century during the reigns of the wicked kings Menasseh and Amon, idolatry and all manner of wickedness had gone unrestrained and had all but exterminated the worship of the true God.

It was little wonder that the prophet saw in the ravages of the Cythian hordes, pouring down upon the neighboring nations, a harbinger of the fearful judgment that Judah deserved for her sins, and which she was to receive in that "day of the Lord."

The key-note of his message is struck in chapter one, verse twelve: "And it shall come to pass at that time, that I will search Jerusalem with candles, and punish the men that are settled on their lees: that in their heart, The Lord will not do good, neither will he do evil."

When God is thus ignored by princes and prophets and plain people there is need of their being warned of what Zephaniah called "a day of wrath, a day of trouble and distress, a day of wasteness and desolation, a day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness."

There is need of their being reminded, too, as Zephaniah reminded them, that "neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them in the day of the Lord's wrath."

Unpopular preaching, indeed, for any age, but none the less wholesome and necessary!

Zephaniah, like Amos, prophesies the divine judgments to fall upon the surrounding gentile nations, but he goes further than any other Old Testament prophet in his vision of the conversion of the gentiles to the worship of Jehovah, and he is broad enough also not to demand that they come up to Jerusalem for their worship, but says, "Men shall worship him, every one from his place, even all the isles of the heathen."

In this fine forward look into the universality and spirituality of true worship Zephaniah is not excelled until Jesus says to the Samaritan woman, "Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father. But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth."

No prophet pictures judgment blacker than Zephaniah, but neither does any paint a brighter scene than the sunburst with which he closes his book as he sings of the glories of the Messianic Kingdom of Jesus Christ: "The Lord hath taken away thy judgments, he hath cast out thine enemy: the King of Israel, even the Lord, is in the midst of thee; thou shalt not see evil any more."

SUNDAY AT THE — CHURCHES —

The International Bible Students Association. Bible study at 939 W. First Street, Sunday at 10:30 a. m. The Study is Peace and Good Will, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men."—Luke 2:14. Some of the questions to be discussed is what is the meaning of the title Shiloh? and what is good will? What are the three controlling factors of this world, what is the dominant motive of each? Are there any people now on earth who have good will toward men? If so who, are they and what is their present privilege and duty? Come and study with us.

Myrtle Creek Church of Christ. Next Sunday is going to be a great day. The Bible school is working for 125 in attendance, for this will be Rally Day. The Bible school has classes where everyone, old and young, can feel at home. Don't miss these morning services. Bible school at 10. Come and observe the Lord's Supper and hear the sermon on "The Last Great Rally," at 11 o'clock. Young People's Christian Endeavor at 6:30 invites you. At 7:30 song service and sermon, "Christianity on the Jewish Altar of Sacrifice." A basket lunch will be enjoyed at the noon hour at the church building. During the day we will be favored by special musical numbers from Miss Vera Champie and Miss Rozella Stram, from the Bible University. W. E. Stram, minister.

Bible Standard Temple. Church services are as follows at the Bible Standard Temple, corner Chadwick and E. Douglas: Sunday school begins promptly at 10 a. m. A number of good organized classes with competent teachers. Preaching at the 11 o'clock hour by the pastor, then again at 6:30 the Crusaders meet for their regular services. At 7:30 p. m. the regular evening Evangelistic service begins. The subject for Sunday evening will be "Babylon the Golden City." This will be one of real interest. Come and enjoy a spiritual feast. The services of which are evangelistic on Tuesday and Friday evenings at 7:30 are also of great help to all. Dispensational truths are taken up from time which is of real value to one and all. Regular services at Glengary schoolhouse every Sunday p. m. at 2:30. Drive out to these country services and enjoy the afternoon. The services are very well attended, the schoolroom being filled. The Bible Standard Temple waits to greet you with a glad hand and you will find that you will feel at home in this church. "Come as you are." Rev. F. E. Crook, pastor.

Catholic Church, Kane and Oak streets. October 10—Mass and sermon at 9:30 a. m. Catechism classes and Biblical instruction at 10:15 a. m. Rosary and Benediction of the M. B. S. in the evening at 7:30. Glendale—Mass and sermon at 9:30 a. m.

St. George's Episcopal Church, Cass and Main streets. The nineteenth Sunday after Trinity. Holy Communion at 7:30 a. m. Morning prayer and sermon at 11 a. m. Evening prayer and sermon at 7:30 p. m. Church school at 9:45 a. m. Bible class at 7:30 Friday in the Parish House. Church of the Holy Spirit, at Sutherlin. Evening prayer and sermon at 3 p. m. Church school at 2 p. m. Ascension Chapel at Riddle. Celebration of the Holy Communion at 11 a. m. on the last Sunday in this month, October 31st.

First Church of Christ, Cobb and Robins street. Bible study each Lord's Day at 10 a. m. and preaching at 11 a. m. Subject: "Excuses for not being and living a Christian." See Luke 14:18-19. Notice please the 20th verse—"The gentleman had just married and for that reason was bound to stay at home." "In the beginning woman had not only the greater but greatest influence over man and the same condition prevails today. Come and hear. See Gen. 3:12.

Presbyterian Church. Bible school at 9:45 prompt. We Roseburg Presbyterians believe that the Bible is (not contains) the Word of God—that the Holy Spirit dictated the very words used by the writers of the various books. Just how much do we read it, much less study it? Too many people in this city its novels of promise are a haven of refuge and life everlasting. Just what are they to you? Bring the young folks and begin a systematic study of this most marvelous of books—in fact the only book. Preaching services at 11 o'clock. Prayer meeting Wednesday 7:30 p. m.

Methodist Church, South, C. S. Coberly, pastor. Rally Day next Sunday. Services will begin promptly at 9:45 a. m. A program has been prepared, and will be given during the regular study period, taking the place of the Bible lesson. Preaching at 11 a. m. by the pastor, also in the evening at 7:30. Senior league meeting at 6:30 p. m., and Junior league at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. There will be a mid-week service Wednesday evening at 7:30, and a choir rehearsal Thursday evening at 7:30.

The First Methodist Church, corner of Main and Lane streets, Joseph Knotts, pastor. The Sunday school meets at 9:45 a. m. Let every Methodist be in his own Sunday school this Sunday. Our courses for the winter are well started. If you are not coming to Sunday school now is the time to start. The Junior league meets at 3 p. m. The Epworth league meets at 6:30 p. m. All young people who have finished high school are urged to be present and to become member of the new Young Peoples league which will be organized this Sunday evening. The morning sermon theme is "God's Lordship." The evening sermon theme is "Reward by Merit." Come and enjoy these services. Special music by the choir. Prayer meeting on Wednesday evening. A cordial invitation is extended to all, particularly stranger.

First Christian Church, H. E. Mow, pastor: Rally Day next Sunday. Remember its your day to attend the Bible school. There is a welcome for you there. We are trying hard to make it a place where you will feel at home. I received a letter the other day regarding my write up in this paper, about folks being a stranger but once in our Bible school. It was written from Washington, and said that he had visited our school once and that we certainly lived up to what was said in the paper. Now stranger come on and see if we can make good with you. The men's quartette will sing at the Bible school service. Of course you will want to be present at our popular Sunday evening service. Next Sunday evening sees the start of a series of sermons on Life Problems. The first subject is, "Choosing a Life Partner," and will be supplemented by the reading of letters from boys on "The Kind of a Girl I Want to Marry." Now girls, you write me a letter on "The Kind of a Boy I Want to Marry," for the following Sunday evening. Men's quartette will sing.

First Baptist Church, Lane and Rose, Frank B. Matthews, pastor. Sunday, October 10. 9:45—Bible school. Big attendance last Sunday and very fine exercises. 11—Morning worship. Pastor will preach on "Soul Purification." The choir is being organized to the year under the capable direction of Mrs. Charles A. Brand, of the Heiniine Conservatory, and will make its first appearance, singing, "We Walk by Faith," by Hine. Mrs. Clayte Black Osborn has the solo. 6:30—Senior and Junior B. Y. P. U. societies for young people hold their meetings. 7:30—The evening service. "A Preacher of a Great Gospel," will be the sermon topic. The choir sings, "The Way of the Cross," by Hine. Pastor answers the following questions: 1. "What do you regard as the most important advice to a young man about to be married?" 2. Should convicted criminals and murderers be pardoned?" 3. Are we breaking one of the commandments when we do not keep the Seventh day for worship?" The services are well attended, the music good, the spirit fraternal, the influence cheerful and helpful.

The Cheapest Thing You Buy

Investigation shows the average family expense is made up as follows:

Food	45 per cent
Rent and Taxes	16 " "
Charities, Entertainment, Recreation, and Literature	14 " "
Clothing	12 " "
Steam and Street Railway, Telephone, Gas and Water Service	4.97 "
Miscellaneous	7 " "
ELECTRICITY	1.03 "
	100 per cent

Electricity DOES MORE for LESS MONEY than any other item of family expense. It costs no more than before the war, while the average household costs have increased 65 per cent since 1913. If state socialism in electricity could bring about the millennium and supply electricity FOR NOTHING, it would not have scratched the family cost of living problem.

The electric industry now pays nearly two million dollars in taxes, does its share to develop our state, attracts large amounts of capital for investment, and with all is subject to complete regulation by the people. Yet this industry is singled out for a $53,000,000 experiment by the Housewives' Council, Inc., so-called "Water and Power" Constitutional Amendment, upon the plea of SAVING the householder A PART OF his light bill!

Electricity would be Oregon's MOST EXPENSIVE LUXURY if such a scheme were put in operation.

FUNERAL SERVICES ALFRED DURLAND SUNDAY AFTERNOON

The body of Alfred Durland, former Roseburg resident, who died in Seattle Thursday, death resulting from appendicitis, arrived here this morning accompanied by the mother of the young man, Mrs. C. S. Durland, who went to Seattle Wednesday on receipt of word of his illness. The funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Roseburg Undertaking Chapel and will be in charge of Rev. H. E. Mow. Interment will take place at the Masonic cemetery.

Orders taken for fresh grape juice from the Overland vineyard. Leave containers at Brand's Road Stand.

COACH TURNER WELL PLEASED WITH RESULTS

H. H. Turner, Roseburg high school athletic coach, left this morning for Myrtle Point where he was to serve as referee in the game this afternoon between Marshfield and Myrtle Point high schools. Coach Turner announced himself to be well pleased with the outcome of yesterday's game, when Roseburg trimmed Cottage Grove 20 to 0.

"The boys learned a great deal in that game," the coach declared. "They all made mistakes and they know just what they did wrong and will profit by these errors in the next game."

Although the game was rough and hard fought and time was frequently taken out for minor injuries, all of the Roseburg players are on their feet today and none the worse for the battle, and will be able to scrimmage again Monday.

The team is working hard to get into shape for the Eugene game, which they realize will be no one-sided affair. The Eugene game will be played in Roseburg on Saturday the 16th.
