

THE WOMAN'S PAGE

BY GRACE CARROLL
All Contributions to this Page—Society, Women's Clubs, and
Personals—Should Be Telephoned to the Society
Editor by Friday of Each Week.

Social interests the latter part of the week have centered around various affairs arranged to honor the visiting teachers and those of the city schools attending the Douglas County Teachers' Institute, while Halloween has been the incentive for numerous masquerades and informal affairs in the entertainment of the younger groups who have been afforded a brief vacation by the meeting of the county's educators.

Thursday and Friday the ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church, south served noon dinners at the church. The banquet given by the Roseburg Rotary Club for the school teachers of the Roseburg district was a delightful affair on Thursday evening at the Hotel Umpqua, when over 150 guests, Rotarians and Rotary Annes gathered for the annual affair. On the same evening Mrs. Lillian C. Davis and Mrs. Edith S. Ackert entertained in honor of the teachers from the other districts in the county.

George Arliss to Be in Eugene

A recent announcement which will interest theatre-going folk is an early appearance of George Arliss, America's premier actor, who will be in Eugene at the Heilig theatre November 22 in his latest play, "Old English".

The Eugene Guard has the following to say about Mr. Arliss' coming:

Mr. Arliss is one of the older type of character actors and has been heralded throughout the world for his presentations, Mr. McDonald, manager of the Heilig theatre, states.

As Galasworthy in "Old English" Arliss has no lesson to discuss, no moral to point. He is concerned with humanity caught in a web of its own weaving.

Winthrop Ames is the producer of this drama and the manner in which he has completed the finished product is unsurpassable. It is said. The company includes the players who impressed New York the past two years. Irby Marshall, a prominent Australian actress, is included as are Molly Johnson, Henrietta Goodwin, Dora Lennox, Lillian Brennan, Ivan P. Simpson, Murray Kinnell, Henry Morrell, Allen Trotter, John Hall and many others.

Senior Masquerade Festive Affair

The annual Senior class reception was a very successful and enjoyable affair of Wednesday evening, when the members of that class and faculty gathered at the auditorium of the Senior high school in Laurelwood, each in costume, fancy, amazing and amusing. Games and stunts varied the evening's entertainment in the gallery decorated gymnasium and afterward refreshments were served by a committee at tables in the domestic science room.

Entertainment for Teachers Thursday Eve

On Thursday evening Mrs. Lillian C. Davis and Mrs. Edith S. Ackert joined in entertaining with a hard times party at the home of the former for the out of town teachers attending the institute this week.

Halloween decorations were predominant in the rooms and on the porch where the guests were assembled and enjoyed various amusing games and stunts during the evening. Later refreshments were served.

Mrs. Frank Lilburn, University of Oregon alumnus, was a guest at the Delta Delta Delta sorority house over last week-end and attended the reunion and banquet for the alumni and active chapter members given on Saturday night.

Young Folk Enjoy Halloween Party

On the evening of October 22 Mrs. F. A. Steinhauser and Mrs. George Holm joined in entertaining with a Halloween party for a group of young folk at the home of the former.

Games and comic stunts varied the amusement of the evening and afterward refreshments were enjoyed.

The guest list included Mrs. C. E. Phillips, the Misses Marion Thompson, Ethel Parker, Lola Diers, Arline Howard, Elizabeth Telford, Narcissus Golgert, Mildred Paulson, Ruth Rodley, Irene Rodley, Susie Jacoby, Lucia Rogers, Mildred Humphreys, Marvel Morgan and Francis Welsh, Lester Jordan, John Montgomery, Robert Montgomery, Walter Steinhauser, Russell Steinhauser, Arthur Matland, Robert Paulson, Ray Lehman, Vernon Davis, Vernon Hodgson, Dennett Rogers, Kirby Steinhauser, Malcolm Humphreys, Roy Davenport, Wallace Matthews, Berdett Lehman, F. R. Steinhauser and George Holm.

Halloween Is Inspiration for Choir Party

On Friday evening of last week Mrs. H. C. Parslow and Mrs. Frances Lintott invited the members of the Presbyterian church choir to the home of the former for their meeting and afterward a delightful Halloween party.

As each guest entered the grounds they were greeted by a ghost at the porch door, directing with outstretched arm to the scenes of festivity. Autumn leaves were combined with orange crepe paper decorations, forming a real Halloween atmosphere. The group spent the evening in amusing games and stunts and several musical numbers and readings were enjoyed. Afterward refreshments were served.

Enjoying the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Strang, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Ashcraft, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Arundel, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Fies, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Hamm, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ford, Mr. and Mrs. E. Hellwell, Mr. and Mrs. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Parslow, Mrs. Cooney, Mrs. D. S. Beals, Mrs. Frances Lintott, Miss Lucille Lenox, Miss Emma Lenox, Miss Margaret Crowell, Miss Jean Crowell, and Sidney Hoard.

Phyllis Quino Hostess Costume Party

Miss Phyllis Quino invited a group of her young friends to the Kenneth Quino home on Oak street last evening for a Halloween frolic and costume party.

Amid festive scenes the guests enjoyed games and contests and afterward luncheon was served at tables by Mrs. Quino, assisted by Mrs. Harold McKay and Mrs. Roy Catching.

Included in the guest list were the Misses Elizabeth Williams, Alberta Short, Eliza Hardman, Lois Ann Whipple, Jean McElhinny, Margaret Crowell, Betty Shoemaker, Patricia Neal, Melba Frew, Barbara Fulton, Barbara Clark, Mae Schnellbacher, Helen Catching and Betty Quino.

Camp Fire Girls Entertained Thursday

Another festive affair of the younger set this week was the Halloween party on Thursday evening for which Miss Mildred Koenig was hostess, asking the members of the Truchelo Camp Fire Girls to her home to make merry with games and stunts.

Refreshments were served at the close of the hostess assisted by Betty Shoemaker, Mae Schnellbacher, and Eliza Hardman.

Mrs. E. J. Brown Entertains Club

Mrs. E. J. Brown was at home Thursday, Oct. 21, to the Garden Valley Woman's Club and following the business meeting the ladies sewed and chatted. The hostess, assisted by Mrs. Calhoun, served a buffet luncheon to the members of the club. Mrs. Campbell, James R. Boyd, Dean Honey, A. N. Schneider, Fred Parrott, E. Niday, E. McCoy, G. McDaniel, E. E. LeBrie, R. H. Calhoun, E. W. Ewens, and D. S. Ferguson.

Club Bids Adieu to Matron Who Is Leaving

The members of the Sunshine Sewing Club of Days Creek called at the home of Mrs. L. Michaels on Thursday afternoon to surprise and bid adieu to this matron, who, with her family, is soon leaving to reside in Corvallis.

The club members presented Mrs. Michaels with a dozen silver teaspoons as a token of their regard. The afternoon was spent chatting and at the tea hour luncheon was served to the Mesdames W. H. Raymond, J. A. Snyder, Ray Wright, Cora Deyers, Talbot, J. O. Metz, J. Rainville, L. Newton, Myrtle Bronker, Rishel, Ruth McGee, Ralph Weaver, Emma DeWald, W. McGee, Alice Green, L. Michaels, and the Mesdames Frances Michaels, Winifred Rainville, Helen Michaels, Josephine Wright and Betty Michaels.

W. C. T. U. Meets at Marsters Home

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. A. C. Marsters asked the ladies of the Roseburg W. C. T. U. to her home for the regular meeting. Mrs. J. D. Osborn, president, presided at the business meeting and Mrs. S. E. Collier led the devotion.

The song, "Alliance" was sung by the ladies and afterward Mrs. Marsters and Mrs. Bettie gave very interesting talks on the state W. C. T. U. convention held at Gresham.

A social hour followed and refreshments were served to 25 ladies by the hostess, assisted by the Mesdames S. E. Collier, R. L. Gile, W. McNeill, R. W. Marsters and J. D. Osborn.

Enjoyable Halloween Party at Church

The ladies of the Presbyterian church extended an invitation to all the members of the church and the public to a Halloween party on Friday evening at the church parlors, which were transformed with decorations in keeping with the Halloween motif.

Games and various stunts were enjoyed during the evening and afterward refreshments were served. Mrs. C. D. Fies was general chairman of the affair.

Costume Party at McDonald Home

Halloween was again the motif for one of the entertaining costume parties of the week when Miss Helen McDonald asked a group of the younger folk to the J. S. McDonald home last evening.

Games and stunts added to the evening's fun and afterward refreshments were served. Blended to the affair were Frances Sellick, Opal Horner, May Henry, Molly Trull, Marjorie Pearl Guiley, Marion McAllister, Lorlene Ison, Lloyd Ison, John Rapin, Geo. Rapin, Donald Guiley, Edward Trull and Sandy McDonald.

Painter Is Visitor in Medford Monday

Medford has had a very interesting visitor this week, a painter of international reputation, Mr. William J. McCloskey, for whom a reception was given at the Snedeker Shop on Monday evening, when many southern Oregonians had the opportunity to meet this distinguished gentleman.

Several Medford folk have met Mr. McCloskey during his visit at the camp of his daughter, Mrs. Russell, in the Siskiyou the past few months and have viewed his several paintings which have graced the walls of the lodge. Mr. McCloskey is an American painter and studied in this country under Thomas Eakins of Philadelphia, later taking instruction under noted artists in Paris. Many of his portraits have hung in the most exclusive and noted galleries of Europe and all of the great larger galleries.

Circle Has Meeting on Thursday

The Northside Circle of the Ladies Aid resumed their winter meetings, holding the first of the season at the home of Mrs. Geo. K. Quino on 413 Pitzer street Thursday.

Election of officers for the year was held, those holding office being Mrs. A. J. Geddes, president; Mrs. C. W. Trent, vice-president; Mrs. Glenn McAllister, secretary; Mrs. O. Lewis, treasurer.

The ladies chatted during the remainder of the afternoon and at the close Mrs. Quino served luncheon.

Church Party Is Enjoyed Friday Eve

The members of the Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church sponsored a most delightful Halloween party on Friday evening, inviting the members of the church and friends for the entertainment.

Pumpkins, paper decorations and autumn leaves were combined to brighten the rooms where the guests made merry with games. Over a large black kettle stood a witch which drew attention and during the evening Elsie Carlton Strang, disguised as a gypsy, added to the fun with her fortune telling. Interesting readings were given by Mrs. E. Hellwell, Mrs. Scott and Mrs. W. M. Campbell. Mrs. Frances Lintott gave a pleasing piano solo and C. H. Arundel a pianologue. Numbers by a quartet were other entertaining features of the program.

Mrs. M. S. Hamm and a committee were in charge of the children's games. At the close of the evening refreshments were served.

Club Entertained at Home Mrs. Bates

On Tuesday afternoon the members of the Daughters of the Nile Club motored to Myrtle Creek where they were guests at the home of Mrs. G. R. Bates, with Mrs. Wm. Bell as joint hostess.

The ladies chatted in the attractive rooms, where chrysanthemums were used as decorations, and following a business meeting served on a quilt, which will be used in charity work this winter. Plans for entertaining the Daughters of the Nile Queen, who will soon visit in Roseburg, were also made known, and a banquet honoring the visitor will be given November 5.

Afterward the ladies were seated for luncheon at charmingly appointed tables.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Turner of Roseburg are being congratulated on the birth of a daughter this morning at Mercy hospital. The baby has been named Barbara Ann. Mr. Turner is the athletic coach of the senior high school.

Woman's Club Silver Tea Event of Next Week

Plans for the silver tea to be given by the Roseburg Woman's Club on Wednesday afternoon, November 3, at the I. O. E. hall have been rapidly taking form this week and committees are completing the program for that day.

The tea, an annual affair to raise money for the Federal Endowment Day fund, is open to the public and the ladies will receive during the afternoon. The affair is being held on Wednesday instead of the regular meeting day, Tuesday, to afford the clubwomen an opportunity to go to the polls on election day. Mrs. C. S. Heinline is in charge of the music and the program is being arranged by the officers, Mrs. Wm. Bell, Mrs. F. A. Bemis, Mrs. C. H. Bailey, Mrs. D. E. Carr, Mrs. A. J. Carmichael, Mrs. C. E. Caylor, Mrs. W. L. Cobb and Mrs. H. E. Coleman will have charge of the tea tables.

Roseburg Girl on College Dance Committee

Miss Evelyn Quino, the daughter of Judge and Mrs. Geo. K. Quino of Roseburg, who is attending O. A. C., was appointed a member of the committee in charge of the dance to be given in Portland tonight following the O. A. C. and Idaho football game at the Multnomah stadium which took place today.

Miss Quino is one of a number of students at the college from Roseburg who is prominent in student activities. She is a member of Sigma Kappa sorority and has been elected to the Madrigal club again this year. Miss Quino has also been selected for the women's quartet of the music school, which will broadcast from station KOAO at different times during the year.

Delegates Home From Convention

Delegates from the Roseburg schools to the convention of the Oregon congress of Parents and Teachers, which closed its 1926 sessions at Salem Friday, returned to the city last night. Reports will be given at the regular meetings of the P. T. A. in each of the city schools. That the convention was one of the finest to be held was the opinion of those attending from this city.

Mrs. F. H. Churchill of Roseburg county president of the P. T. A., attended and others were Mrs. John Runyan and Mrs. I. M. Irwin from the senior high school; Mrs. John Ferguson, representing the Benson school, Mrs. Conkey from the Rose school, and Mrs. Ernest Hellwell representing the Philbert school. Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Dusenbury represented the Melrose school and Mrs. Starbuck the school at Myrtle Creek. The holding of the county institute in Roseburg this week rendered it impossible for other teachers, who had planned to attend the convention, to be present for the sessions.

"Bab" Junior Class Play This Year

"Bab," Edward Child Carpenter's fourth play, which is based on the novel of the same name by Mary Roberts Rhinehart, is the selection made this year by the junior class for its annual presentation.

Books for the play have been ordered from New York City and tryouts will start Monday. The junior class has some real talent this year and the play is expected to be one of the most successful presented in the past few seasons. "Bab" possesses a very interesting plot and is said to be filled from start to finish with clean and inimitable humor.

Nebro Forensic Tryouts Being Held

Tryouts for membership in the Nebro Forensic Club, a senior high school organization, were held last week and several are expected to try out during the activity next Monday.

Aside from the usual program taken up each year by the club, the members will be afforded the opportunity of the study of theatricalism, taking up in detail lighting effects, stage settings and various points in connection with that work. As another feature a series of one-act plays may be given during the course of the year, which work will prove of great value to those interested in the theatre.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Booth motored to Portland mid-week to visit with friends and attend the opening of the Pacific International Livestock Exposition today.

Mrs. West Entertains Matrons of Club

Mrs. Birney West entertained the matrons of the Friday Bridge Club and an added guest, Mrs. Mary Verba Carruthers, recently arrived first and C. S. McElhinny the prize for the men.

A grand march added to the fun and afterward a supper was served over 100 guests at small tables.

The committee in charge of the affair included the Mesdames H. R. Nerhas, Paul Bubar, C. S. McElhinny, Geo. T. Bolter and A. B. Crawford.

Costume Party Is Enjoyed by Young Folk

Fancy and humorous were the costumes of the members of the Intermediate Christian Endeavor Society of the Christian church who joined in one of the most enjoyable masquerade Halloween parties of the week, taking place on Thursday evening at the church, which was transformed with corn husks, Jack-O-Lanterns, autumn leaves and other gay decorations.

Games and mirth-provoking stunts held the interest of the guests and a prize was awarded for the prettiest fancy costume, won by Miss Esther Wright, and for the most comic attire, the prize being received by Gordon Applewhite.

Afterward refreshments were served to about 25 young folk.

Department Added to Conservatory

Announcement has been made by Mrs. C. S. Heinline, director of the Heinline Conservatory of Music and Art, that a department of physical education and dancing has been added to the conservatory. For the past two years that branch of the conservatory has been discontinued and the reopening will greatly interest students who formerly received instruction in that department.

Mary Julia Robertson of Roseburg will have charge of the department, with classes opening this week, and will teach both private and class lessons. Mrs. Robertson is well known in the city and for six years received instruction in dancing at the conservatory. She also received instruction one season under Alice Mae Brown in Portland, and last summer took the course at Miss Buell's Academy of Dancing in Chicago.

The course of instruction offered includes physical education and classic, interpretive and ballet dancing.

L. F. T. Club Has First Dance of Season

The first social activity this season of the L. F. T. Club was an informal and enjoyable dancing party on Tuesday evening at the Knights of Pythias hall.

The affair was attended by a fair number and a good orchestra provided music for the dancers. At the intermission during the evening the annual election of officers was held. E. R. Thurber was elected president and J. C. Ponsler secretary. Dr. L. A. Wells and A. B. Crawford are the retiring president and secretary.

At the supper hour the group went to the banquet room where a committee served refreshments.

Rebekahs Have Gay Social Evening

All the games and amusements that come with the Halloween gayeties formed the entertainment for the members of the Rebekah lodge who enjoyed a social evening on Tuesday.

Attractive decorations in keeping with the season transformed the hall where the members took part in the amusing stunts and afterward a grand march, which preceded the supper. The affair was attended by about 80.

Reception for Teachers Gay Affair

The rooms of the Rose school were transformed into a very convincing Halloween scene with paper decorations and fall leaves combined to give a real autumnal appearance, when on Monday night the parents sponsored a reception for the teachers of that school.

The evening's program, was a very enjoyable and entertaining one, opening with a jolly song, led by C. S. McElhinny, with Mrs. McElhinny as accompanist, which was sung by all the assembled guests. The address of welcome to the teachers was given by Carl B. Neal, Mr. Hall, principal of the school, made the response.

The stunts opened with six comic acts in pantomime, Mrs. Kenneth Quino, Mrs. Paul Bubar and Mrs. Elmer Metzger taking part.

Grace Wickham Deets gave a delightful vocal solo and a duet by C. S. McElhinny and Elsie Carlton Strang was received by an appreciative audience.

During the evening various games and contests interested the guests, one of the most unique and drawing the most attention being the chamber of horrors. Fortune telling by a gypsy also was an attractive part of the entertainment. Prizes were given for the best stunts by the guests and Miss Verba Carruthers recently arrived first and C. S. McElhinny the prize for the men.

A grand march added to the fun and afterward a supper was served over 100 guests at small tables.

The committee in charge of the affair included the Mesdames H. R. Nerhas, Paul Bubar, C. S. McElhinny, Geo. T. Bolter and A. B. Crawford.

Out and Out Club Entertains Thursday

Amusing games and contests were the diversions arranged by the members of the Out and Out Club when they entertained the Double O Club members and their advisors Miss Edna Sandholm, at the parlors of the South Methodist church on Thursday evening.

Decorations in keeping with Halloween were a festive addition to the rooms where the guests were gathered to make merry. At the close of the evening refreshments were served.

Halloween Party Enjoyed Wednesday

The famed ghost that stalks on Halloween was only one of the amusing and unique things to greet the guests and arranged for their entertainment Wednesday evening when Mrs. W. W. Ashcraft and Mrs. S. Cawfield joined in entertaining the Past Noble Grand of the Past Noble Grand Club at the home of the former.

A short business meeting preceded the evening's diversion, and Mrs. C. G. Lewis, who is soon leaving to make her home in Eugene, was presented with a lovely gift by the club.

Games and music amused the group during the evening and afterward luncheon was served to the Mesdames V. T. Jackson, W. E. Clingenpeel, O. L. Johnson, W. E. Carman, D. H. Morgan, H. S. Hatfield, Maude Byler, Helen Vining, O. H. Pickens, C. C. Lewis, C. G. Ferrier, V. Alcott, Wm. Ogden, J. B. Pickens, Miss Mae Baldwin and added guests the Mesdames Leona McDonald and W. Austin.

Lodge Preparing for Annual Banquet

An event of next month which is being anticipated with interest by the members of the Fraternal Order of Eagles and their families is the annual Thanksgiving banquet and social on November 24.

At the regular meeting Wednesday evening a committee was appointed to formulate plans for the affair. At this time degree work was put on. The area is working under the ordinance committee and have a special dispensation in taking in new members. Several new candidates have received initiation into the lodge recently. The lodge meetings are held the second and fourth Wednesdays of each month.

Young People of Church Have Masquerade

The masquerade for the young people of the Baptist church on Friday evening at the church parlors was one of the most enjoyable of the Halloween season.

Hobgoblins, witches and cats decorated the rooms and guests in costumes of every description intermingled in the fun during the evening. Games and stunts proved interesting and afterward refreshments were served.

Reception for Teachers Gay Affair

The rooms of the Rose school were transformed into a very convincing Halloween scene with paper decorations and fall leaves combined to give a real autumnal appearance, when on Monday night the parents sponsored a reception for the teachers of that school.

The evening's program, was a very enjoyable and entertaining one, opening with a jolly song, led by C. S. McElhinny, with Mrs. McElhinny as accompanist, which was sung by all the assembled guests. The address of welcome to the teachers was given by Carl B. Neal, Mr. Hall, principal of the school, made the response.

The stunts opened with six comic acts in pantomime, Mrs. Kenneth Quino, Mrs. Paul Bubar and Mrs. Elmer Metzger taking part.

Grace Wickham Deets gave a delightful vocal solo and a duet by C. S. McElhinny and Elsie Carlton Strang was received by an appreciative audience.

During the evening various games and contests interested the guests, one of the most unique and drawing the most attention being the chamber of horrors. Fortune telling by a gypsy also was an attractive part of the entertainment. Prizes were given for the best stunts by the guests and Miss Verba Carruthers recently arrived first and C. S. McElhinny the prize for the men.

A grand march added to the fun and afterward a supper was served over 100 guests at small tables.

The committee in charge of the affair included the Mesdames H. R. Nerhas, Paul Bubar, C. S. McElhinny, Geo. T. Bolter and A. B. Crawford.

Costume Party Is Enjoyed by Young Folk

Fancy and humorous were the costumes of the members of the Intermediate Christian Endeavor Society of the Christian church who joined in one of the most enjoyable masquerade Halloween parties of the week, taking place on Thursday evening at the church, which was transformed with corn husks, Jack-O-Lanterns, autumn leaves and other gay decorations.

Games and mirth-provoking stunts held the interest of the guests and a prize was awarded for the prettiest fancy costume, won by Miss Esther Wright, and for the most comic attire, the prize being received by Gordon Applewhite.

Afterward refreshments were served to about 25 young folk.

Luncheon Honors Dean Butler

Roseburg alumni of the Oregon Normal school were assembled for luncheon yesterday at the Palace of Sweets to honor J. V. B. Butler, dean of men at the school, who attended the Douglas County Teachers' Institute in the city this week. Toasts and a few talks by several of the alumni were given, and college songs were sung. Covers were placed for 29.

Mrs. Fred Reed, Miss Wave Reed, and Donnellie and Barbara Prantiss are in Klamath Falls until the first of the week visiting with relatives.

Mrs. Bell Luncheon Hostess for Club

The matrons of the Book Club met as an organization for the first time this season on Thursday when Mrs. Wm. Bell asked the group to her attractive apartments, which were charmingly decorated with a Halloween motif, for one o'clock luncheon.

Bright colored nasturtiums centered the table where luncheon covers were placed for the Mesdames W. H. Fisher, Mose Rice, Paul Bubar, Washington Hughes, Dean Bubar, C. S. Heinline and Chas. W. Wharton and the hostess.

During the afternoon the ladies chatted and read short stories.

Thimble Club Has Entertaining Afternoon

Mrs. W. A. Jenkins provided a pleasant afternoon for the members of the Woodcraft Thimble Club and a few invited guests, following the business meeting the card games and conversation interested the guests. Afterward a dainty luncheon was served to the Mesdames Virgil Bush, Walter Kurtz, Harry Wheeler, J. B. P. land, A. H. Perrin, S. J. Crawford, J. T. Miller, and Earl Rhoades. Guests included Mrs. H. Harrison, Mrs. Frank Laurence, Misses Elita Woodin, Alice Jenkins and Nedra Clark.

Grand Lodge Officer Visits Chapter

Mrs. Stona Ward, Grand Lodge officer of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, was a

(Continued on page 6.)

SCENE FROM "MY OFFICIAL WIFE" A Warner Picture

THEATRES

ANTLERS THEATRE.

Irene's Gorgeous Gowns.

Irene Rich, featured with Conway Tearle in "My Official Wife", the Warner lecture, directed by Paul Stein, which comes to the Antlers Theatre Sunday for a run of 3 days, wears a galaxy of gowns of dazzling beauty. She is seen at first as

Helene, Countess Orloff, the court lady of aristocratic Petrograd society. Then, in the quiet brilliant garb of a Russian peasant. There are the later scenes when she is a singer in the glittering Viennese cafe, and when she comes as a guest, in all the regal splendor of the past, to meet the humble young nobleman whom she had sought for years that she might avenge a past wrong, but whom she now loves, though he wears the severe livery of a waiter. Instead of the gold lace and "panaches" of the days before war. A splendid cast supports Miss Rich and Mr. Tearle holds a high place on the English stage.

Conway Tearle's stage career includes association with Sir Charles Wyndham, Ellen Terry, Billie Burke, Ethel Barrymore, Viola Allen and Grace George. He has starred in many famous screen successes, among them being, "The Fall of the Romanoffs," "Stella Maris," "The Eternal Flame," "Ashes of Vengeance," and "The Common Law."

LIBERTY THEATRE.

Dramatic Screen Version of Jack London's World-Famed Sea Novel Great Local Sensation

Applause was abundant and the praise most sincere at the premier presentation of Jack London's celebrated picture story, "The Sea Wolf," at the Liberty Theatre yesterday. Produced by the Ralph W. Ince corporation with the cooperation of Mrs. Chasman London, widow of the distinguished novelist, "The Sea Wolf" is one of the most striking picture productions of the season. The principal featured roles are brilliantly enacted by Ralph W. Ince, Claire Adams, Theodore Von Eltz, Fritz Edwards and Mitchell Lewis.

There are numerous thrills in this captivating photoplay and the various characterizations are brilliantly portrayed.