BIG BUSINESS TO SHOW IN ARIZONA POLITICAL QUIZ

Republicans Aver Moneyed
Corporations Have Put Up Huge Amount to Beat Cameron.

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)
PHOENIX, Ariz., Oct. 30. — Arizona politics marked time today, awaiting the arrival of Senator W. H. King, of Utah, here to conduct a last minute probe on behalf of the senate committee into slush fund charges hurled by Senator Ralph H. Cameron, Republican candidate for reelection.

Republican ranks were silent beyond the assertion that they would have no trouble proving that money from "big interests" representing eastern copper firms and California power industries, had been "poured into Arizona," on behalf of the candidacy of Congressman Carl Hayden, Cameron's opponent.

The Democratic headquarters likewise remained silent after L. B. Whitney, chairman of the state central committee, announced that he would assist that G. Henry Stetson, of Philadelphia, be summoned for questioning. This announcement was taken as indication that the Democrats would try to reopen the probe into 1920 campaign expenditures by Senator Cameron despite announcement by Senator James A. Reed, Democrat, that lack of time would preclude investigation.

Senator King is expected to arrive here tonight and to open the trial of this angle at the present inquiry immediately, continuing through Sunday to complete the hearing before election day.

FRIENDS FOR 30 YEARS BURIED SIDE BY SIDE

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 1.—William R. Arant and his companion for 30 years, Martin Bechtel, lie side by side in the Middleton, Ore., cemetery, where they were buried during the last few weeks.

Mr. Arant died October 18 at the age of 72, two weeks after Mr. Bechtel, and in respect to their great friendship of 30 years, they were buried in adjacent graves.

The two spent a great many years together on the Bechtel place near Sherwood, and later brought together at the old soldiers' home at Roseburg.

William Arant was born in McLean county, Illinois, February 16, 1853, and moved to Lewiston, Idaho, at the age of 23. In 1877 he volunteered for the army to take part in campaigns against the Indians. Later he was bailiff in the district court at Lewiston, and finally chief of police.

About the time Martin Bechtel left Idaho to make his home with his father, Sheldon Bechtel, near Owen City, Mr. Arant moved to Oregon also and the two remained together from then on.

Surviving Mr. Arant are his brothers and sisters; Mary Denny and S. E. Arant, both of Lewiston; Viola McConville, Spokane, Wash.; Melvin Arant, Los Angeles; and Jesse Arant, Oakland, Cal.; and a cousin, Franklin C. Arant, Ashland, Oregon.

Mr. Arant was a life member of the Pythian lodge.

BUILDING PERMITS SHOW INCREASE IN PAST FEW WEEKS

Several building permits have been issued during the past week. Richard M. Nelson is constructing a $100 garage on Military street. A. S. Coon is making a $5,000 improvement in the way of a super-serviced station at Stephens and Brockway streets. The California Oregon Power Company is building a reinforced concrete addition to their office to cost about $2,500. E. F. Patterson is to erect a $250 garage on South Kane street.

Building activities have shown a revival during the past two months after a period in which there has been little construction work. The building records all over the coast show a decline during the past year, except in a few places where buildings have been in progress. In Roseburg there has been little building of a major nature, but the present indications are that there will soon be a number of new buildings started.

ROSEBURG ON LOSING END OF 20 TO 0 SCORE

Local Team Exhibits More Strength Than It Was Credited With.

MARSHFIELD FAST

Coos Bay Players Complimented by Roseburg
Team and Coach for Clean Playing.

The game played Saturday between Roseburg and Marshfield was the best to be seen this year on Finlay Field according to those who witnessed the battle. The Roseburg team in holding the fast Marshfield squad to a score of 20 to 0 in favor of the visitors justified the statements that the team had improved in strength, and the spectators were treated to a thrilling fight. The first half was an even battle and ended without either team scoring, but in the second half Marshfield made three touchdowns and kicked the goal twice. The game was clean and interesting and Roseburg fans, who had expected Marshfield to run wild, were well pleased with the showing made by the local team.

Marshfield, however, should be given credit for playing a strong game than the score indicates. The visitors had the breaks against them, and three more touchdowns have been added except for bad luck.

Marshfield's second team started the playing and went through the first quarter. The second team was able to gain on Roseburg and three times forced the ball near the local goal, only to lose it without scoring, the ball being recovered by Roseburg twice after Marshfield fumbles. The visiting team then went into action, but was held scoreless during the second half. The Roseburg defense worked beautifully in that period and Marshfield, although threatening at all times, was unable to get through for long gains.

In the second half the visitors came back stronger and during the third quarter punched the ball over for the first touchdown and converted the goal, giving a score of 7 to 0. Roseburg held Marshfield for downs, saving the balance of the quarter, but in the last frame the visitors got away for two more touchdowns.

The first was on a beautiful run by Chapman, the fast Marshfield quarter, who was the outstanding player on the field. Chapman received a punt and went through a broken field 65 yards for a touchdown, and the goal was again converted, giving a score of 14 to 0.

Near the end of the game Marshfield scored again on a beautiful 35-yard pass, Sherill to Chapman, who was downed by Moffitt, the Roseburg quarter on the Roseburg 5-yard line. From that point it was an easy matter to drive over for the final score. The kick failed, leaving the score 20 to 0.

The Marshfield team is coached by Fred Osborn and is one of the fastest in the state. The team is light but exceptionally fast and plays a clean game. The Roseburg players and coach praised the sportsmanship and ability of the visiting team very highly.

The Roseburg squad showed up much better than in any previous contest, playing a strong game and exhibiting a great deal of headwork and strategy. On the defense the team made a fine showing and on the offense played a good game, although the team was unable to make any marked gains through the Marshfield line. On straight football the two teams were evenly matched, making most of its gains from end runs and passes.

Friday, next week, Roseburg plays at North Bend, and one week later plays the annual match with Grants Pass. The season will end on the 13th with a game with Ashland here.

THEATRES

LIBERTY THEATRE

"Battling Butler", Dashing Original

At last a comedy star has made a "different" picture. It is "Battling Butler," the new Buster Keaton mirth-provoker, now playing to capacity houses at the Liberty Theatre.

Keaton can always be depended upon to provide good entertainment. In "Battling Butler" he excels himself, for the picture has a real plot, is replete with love interest in addition to the kind of screen farce that made the frozen-faced comedian famous, and is clean and wholesome. Also, Buster has surrounded himself with an unusually capable cast. Saly O-

THE CALIFORNIA OREGON POWER COMPANY

OFFICES:

Medford, Grants Pass, Roseburg, Klamath Falls—Oregon
Yreka, Dunsmuir—California

Neil, Walter James, Tom Wilson, Francis McDonald, Mary O'Brien and other names to conjure with in Hollywood, have important parts. Miss O'Neil especially, in her role of Buster's sweetheart, and later, wife, gives an excellent performance.

The story of "Battling Butler," a successful stage play before it was brought to the screen, is a scream from start to finish. Keaton, wearing his traditional frozen-face, portrays a rich, pampered youth who goes to the country for an outing—and finds adventure. He falls in love, masquerades as a famous boxer to win the lady of his choice, whose family detests weaklings, and suddenly discovers himself hailed as a hero—the world's champion middleweight pugilist. To confess the deception impels him through a series of dangers his heretofore lax career. How he "saves face" and retains his wife's love is too novel a denouement to reveal to those who have not seen the picture.

ANTLERS THEATRE.

Melodrama that rushes headlong in a giddy pace through a whirlwind of intrigue. That's "My Official Wife," the Warner Bros. picture which opened yesterday at the Antlers Theatre for a run of three days. It is a story of Gaius, a Countess, who is betrayed, and who works her vengeance, when she has an opportunity to pose as the official wife of a Grand Duke's son in order to get into Russia, from which she has been expelled.

Irene Rich is the Countess—more alluring, more emotionally thrilling, than ever before. And the fascinating strength of Conway Tearle's acting has a sedative been displayed to better advantage than as the Countess's betrayer. These two head a cast that registers melodramatic perfection.

Perfection has been achieved largely through the genius of Paul Stein, a Viennese director, imported by the Warners to this country, as, several years ago they imported Lubitsch. From "My Official Wife," his initial American effort, it appears that he belongs near the top of the European group, now in Hollywood, that includes Lubitsch, von Stroheim and Sedstrom.

How Will Your Overcoat
Look
Next Season

That is the important question to ask yourself when you make your selection this Fall. Men who have worn our Adler Collegian overcoats in past years know the answer. They have learned to depend on Adler Collegian fabrics and tailoring for real service. They know that these overcoats will fit well and hold their shape after months of wear. That's why they come back to us, again and again.

They are proud of Adler Collegians, too, at the beginning of the season when everybody observes that you have a new overcoat. See the smart styles, new weaves and fabrics we are showing in Adler Collegians. They're priced to save you money. And they're tailored to "Keep You Looking Your Best" next season.
