SKAGGS STORES TO BE MERGED INTO GIGANTIC CHAIN

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Nov. 3.—Consolidation of the Skaggs United stores company and the Safeway stores, Inc., to form a chain of 908 stores and markets in 10 western states was confirmed officially today by heads of the merged companies. The merger was rumored in August, but confirmed only in part.

The combined companies have net assets of $5,000,000 and annual sales of $60,000,000, officials said, although they declined to say what financial arrangements were made in the consolidation. Included in the new group are 784 retail grocery stores, 122 meat markets, six bakeries and allied businesses.

The three chains operate in non-competing territory, the two Skaggs groups being represented in San Francisco and the San Joaquin and Sacramento valleys in California and in many cities of Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana, Utah, Nevada, Wyoming, Colorado and Nebraska. The Safeway stores operate entirely in southern California, and consist of 450 units, of which 250 are in Los Angeles.

The new organization will be known in the north as the Skaggs-Safeway stores, with headquarters in Oakland, California, and in the south as the Safeway stores, with a home office here.

M. B. Skaggs will be president of the consolidated companies, with L. L. Skaggs and Edward Dale as directing heads of the merchandising operations. W. R. H. Weldon, president of the Safeway organization will assist in forming policies.

ROSEBURG AND OAKLAND

James Flood in the direction of "The Honeycomb Express," the Warner Bros. film now showing at the Antlers Theatre, has injected many subtly human bits of life.

In the opening sequences of the photoplay Irene Rich is shown as a rather dowdy mother. The children, however, are extremely modern, wearing the latest clothes, their dressing tables heaped with all sorts of cosmetics.

Ultimately, the mother, overhearing some of their remarks as to her own frumpiness, realize the penalty that her selfishness has brought. At last weakened by the thought, she later determines to console it. The result is startling. Mother, the meek and self-effacing, is transformed into a woman of beauty, poise and dignity.

Willard Louis plays the part of the lackadaisical husband. He has left for years that marriage is a ball and chain. Most of his time has been spent in bed when not courting the favor of a young gold-digging dame. Willard's acting in these sequences is ludicrous in the extreme. He talks in his sleep. Overheard by his wife, he invents vague fibs. He struggles for nights for elusive and wandering keyholes. He gazes water camelias. He views approvingly his jaws and paunch, in the mirror. When at last his actions have alienated his wife, and the gold-digger has ditched him as a poor lead, one almost pities him, so ingratiating is his portrayal.

JAPANESE THINK U. S. FILMS SHOW LIFE IS REALISM

TOKYO, Nov. 4.—Popularity of the American moving picture also is a problem for the Japanese producers and theater owners.

Their efforts to win the public away from the foreign-made films thus far has met with but little success, although the native producers are continuing their campaign for the home-made variety.

Picture makers here released 36,735,000 feet of Japan-made film last year. During the same time 13,236,000 feet of pictures was imported—mostly from America.

Like Comedies, Love Dramas

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)
CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., Nov. 4.—Buffalo county, South Dakota, has returned to the dominion of the red men as a result of the election Tuesday, when a full county ticket of Indiana candidates was victorious.

This is said to be the first instance in American history since the coming of the "pale face" government of such an occurrence.

The men on the winning ticket are Thomas Engelman, clerk of courts; Charles Fish, auditor; Thomas Gaut, register of deeds; Wallace Aakley, sheriff; Joseph Irving, assessor; and Thomas Tuttle, county commissioner.

All of the men measure up to white men holding similar positions in other counties in education and experience, and are all of a progressive nature.

SPECIAL REPORT CARD FOR SCHOOLS ON MONTHLY BASIS NOW AVAILABLE

Because of the fact that many of the schools of the county are operating on a monthly basis instead of periods of six weeks, the Roseburg News-Review has obtained from the county school superintendent a suitable form of report card for these schools and the cards are now on sale at a price of 25 cents a dozen. They are of standard form and provide space for reports for each of the nine months of school. Mail orders will be filled promptly.

NEW YORK—Demand for brevity of skirt has caused Paris dressmakers to measure customers more seated. The authority for this is Jacques Worth, broad shouldered and six feet tall, who is visiting us.

NORTHAMPTON, Mass.—Bicycling is a great fad at Smith college. More than 300 girls ride to class.

WASHINGTON—There's a new style rascote for the navy—black crepe in civilian mode. It costs all of $3.

NEW YORK—A Georgia peach, who is regarded as a perfect brunette, is waiting the footlights for leading lamps. Miss Norma Dyal lived at Mifflin, Ga., before coming to New York, going on the stage and meeting Lynn W. Nones, now her husband.

LONDON—The bobbies are so tired of answering questions of American tourists that inscriptions of "Cleopatra" are to be translated. The stone, inscribed 3,200 years ago, was brought from Egypt in the eighties.

LIBERTY THEATRE

Life, Love, Laughs in New Bill Hart Film

When the Government, in 1889, decided to open the Cherokee Land Strip to homesteaders, it meant the end of the cattlemen's regime. They had leased grazing lands and ranch sites on the strip from the Cherokees, but now they had to go with their vast herds. No wonder there was bitterness between the owners and hands.

This is the basis of "Tumbleweeds," William S. Hart's first production for United Artists Corporation release, which comes to the Liberty Theatre today, and in it the true tale of the famous strip between Kansas and Oklahoma is told for the first time on the screen.

Prior to the great rush for homesteads, when thousands of persons were camped on the border of the strip waiting the signal to go, Don Carver, a range boss, hating homesteaders, capitulates to a pretty girl among the invading army and decides to stake a claim himself.

He is confronted, however, with the rascality of her half brother and of a rival for her affections, who obtain his arrest as a "sooner." (One who tried to grab a claim before the opening.) But he escapes, gets the girl, which controls the water, and which his crimes were after, and wins the girl as well. This is the gist of the plot which abounds in many novel and thrilling situations, with the magnificent climax of the great dash itself, when thousands of vehicles of every conceivable sort carried homeseekers into the strip.

Anyone can find the thousands of things you find in the shops—but there is one gift that is yours, and yours only to give—your photograph, have your sittings now. Free, one 8x10 portrait with every dozen photos for $5.00 or over. Roseburg Studio, Salzman Bldg.

Notice of School Election to Increase Tax Over Than Six Per Cent Over That of the Previous Year.

Notice is hereby given to the legal voters of School District No. 4 of Douglas County, State of Oregon, that an election will be held in said District at the Junior High School on the 22nd day of November, 1926, at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon, to vote on the question of increasing the amount of the tax levy in said district for the year 1926-27 by more than 6% over the amount of such levy for the year immediately preceding.

Dated this 25th day of October, 1926.

V. T. JACKSON,
Chairman Board of Directors.
Attest: V. J. Micelli, District Clerk.
