CRUCIAL GAME OF COAST CONFERENCE ON PROGRAM TODAY

Stanford and Washington, Both Thus Far Unbeaten, Will Clash; Oregon U. Plays Cougars.

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13.—Eyes of far western football fans turned today to Palo Alto where the Cardinals of the Stanford University meet the Huskies of the University of Washington in what has developed into a pivotal game of the Pacific coast conference.

A win by Stanford would carry it to within reach of the conference title, the weak University of California eleven being its only remaining opponent in the conference.

A defeat would place it on a level with four other schools that have lost one game. Despite the fact that the Cardinals are strong favorites to win, the Huskies declared that they are out to repeat last year's victory.

A second conference contest at Pullman, Wash., between the University of Oregon and Washington State College, and an inter-sectional clash between the University of Arizona and Occidental College at Los Angeles, are other features of the day's gridiron program.

Oregon vs. Cougars.
PULLMAN, Wash., Nov. 13.—With three consecutive conference victories to their credit the Washington State College Cougars face the University of Oregon on a gridiron of mud in their homecoming game today.

Following an early season loss to Southern California, victories over Montana, Idaho and Washington have made the Cougars slight favorites. Coach Babe Hollingbery of Washington State has predicted a hard game and declared "it will be not anybody's game until the final whistle blows."

Rain for two days has made the field soggy and even with fair weather in prospect a muddy field is certain. Today's game is the fourteenth between the Cougars and Oregon. The state college won six, lost four, and tied three of the previous games.

QUEEN MARIE MUST PAY FULL FARE TO RIDE TO FLORIDA

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)
CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—Queen Marie traveled toward Chicago and its four-day stop-over today, with only a two-hour halt at Springfield, to break the journey.

She arranged to stop at Springfield long enough to place a wreath on the tomb of Abraham Lincoln, whose birthplace, near Louisville, Ky., she will visit next week.

The queen's itinerary after the present tour is completed at Washington on November 24 is in doubt. Although it is understood that the Southern Railway over which the royal party planned to travel to North Carolina and possibly Florida, has refused to accept a nominal fee for the entourage, negotiations are said to be continuing.

Still further complications are presented in the request of several railroads that their special cars making up the queen's train be made available for regular duty as soon as possible.

Colonel John H. Carroll, in charge of the train, is carrying on negotiations which he believes will keep the train virtually intact or provide substitute equipment.

WALLOWA LAKE RESORT TO BE GREATLY ENLARGED.
(Associated Press Leased Wire.)
LA GRANDE, Oregon, November 13.—The increase in the capital stock of the Wallowa Lake Wonderland Corporation from $50,000 to $150,000 was voted at a meeting of twenty stockholders here last night. The additional capital will provide for modernizing of the resort including installation of a golf course and tennis courts.

MAJORITY VOTE OF BRITISH STRIKERS FAVORS NEW TERMS

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)
LONDON, Nov. 13.—Delegates representing the striking coal miners, in conference here today, voted to refer the government's strike settlement proposals to the various districts with the recommendation that they be accepted.

Many of the delegates were dissatisfied with the terms, and there was the possibility for a time that they might reject the proposals without referring them to the districts.

The card vote of the delegates was 432,000 in favor of recommending that the district accept the terms, and 352,000 against the proposals.

NEW RECORD FOR BULLDOGGING AT NEW YORK RODEO

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)
NEW YORK, November 13.—Veteran cow bouncers in a rodeo in Madison Square Garden claim to have established a new world's record in bulldogging steers, by downing ten in an average of 17 1/2 seconds. The cowboys declare that six and one half seconds is the world's record for bulldogging one steer, but that two or three cowboys rarely come within striking distance of this mark in throwing three different steers.

CHICAGO READY FOR WELCOME TO QUEEN MARIE

Problems of Etiquette Are Ironed Out on Eve of Her Arrival.

HAND KISS IS TABOO

Royal Nod Will Suffice to Acknowledge Acclaim of City; Aliens Protest "Subservience."

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)
CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—Chicago donned its best today for Queen Marie, albeit, somewhat self-conscious about the endeavor to give her majesty a truly democratic, midwestern welcome.

Long before time for the queen's train to arrive, however, international committees succeeded in ironing out all but a few minor problems encountered in planning a welcome thoroughly characteristic of the midwest. The perplexity of city officials wondering whether to kiss the royal visitor's hand or merely clasp it, was disposed of by announcement that Queen Marie will nod her acknowledgement of introductions and most of the welcoming committee found some way out of the difficulties occasioned by the queen's arrival.

At the last moment, however, there arose the matter of precedent in the presentation of the committee. It was suggested that the alphabetical order of names determine the royal visitor's hand, but at once it was pointed out that Charles J. Vopka, for several years United States minister to Rumania, would thus be one of the last in the line.

The deadlock was broken when someone submitted that "there is no such thing as precedence in Chicago—let's do it alphabetically"—and there was agreement.

The city hall was abuzz from top to bottom for the official welcome to the royal party immediately after arrival at 5:30 p. m. Chief Collins was named to precede a military guard to escort her majesty to the Lake Shore Drive hotel after a brief reception at the city hall.

On the eve of Queen Marie's arrival it was learned that Samuel Hill, northwestern millionaire who experienced some difficulties while the queen visited in the northwest, has hotel reservations here and expects to arrive by train two hours after the royal special gets in. The reservations for Mr. Hill are not at the Lake Shore Drive.

The time also was made the occasion for a statement from the chairman of the Bukovinian and Bessarabian committee of Chicago protesting against "the subservience of Chicago officials to Queen Marie, the 'royal symbol of terrorism,' and demanded 'cessation of terror against the national minorities in Rumania.'"

SPECIAL RELIGIOUS SERVICES BEING HELD AT GREEN

The services during the past week which have been conducted at the Green school house by Captain G. L. Hall, have aroused considerable interest.

It is planned to continue them another week. Each night with one exception there will be delegations from each of the Roseburg churches to furnish special music and otherwise make the meetings interesting. On Monday night friends from the South Methodist church will attend, while Tuesday night will be Presbyterian night. On Wednesday night the day school will put on a program in connection with a pie social which has been previously planned. Thursday night a delegation from the Baptist church will attend and on Friday night the Methodist Episcopal church will have a delegation present.

It is also planned on Sunday, November 21st to hold an all day meeting and basket dinner at which time it is hoped that singers from the Christian church will be present.
