This Christmas give health

THAN health, there can be no more valuable gift. And when you give an I-ON-A-CO, you are actually giving health. For the I-ON-A-CO has banished illness in literally thousands of instances. Even so-called incurable cases have responded to it. And as it attacks the source of disease, it has proved effective in almost every ailment known to medical science.

Easy to Use

The I-ON-A-CO is based upon the recent discovery of Professor Otto Warburg, which was demonstrated before the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research. Through magnetization, it improves the oxygen-carrying ability of the iron in the body, and thus increases oxidation of waste products in the tissue cells—the source of disease.

Inventor of the I-ON-A-CO

The treatment involves no drugs, no dieting, no exercise nor manipulation. You simply attach the I-ON-A-CO to an electric light socket, then place it about the shoulders or around the waist—without removing the clothing.

There is no shock, no discomfort of any kind. On the contrary, the treatment—which takes about ten minutes—is delightful.

Used in the Home

The whole family can enjoy the benefits of the I-ON-A-CO. It is used right in your home—or in your office. Get the entire story of this marvelous invention which has revealed a short cut to health. Call at our office, or at the office of one of our distributors. Or, if you cannot call, telephone, and a representative will give you a Free Demonstration in your home or office.

SENATE FIGHT ON SMITH AWAITING HIS CREDENTIALS

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—The senate fight over admitting Frank L. Smith as senator from Illinois was unexpectedly postponed today when Senator Ashurst, Democrat, Arizona, gave notice he would not call up his resolution barring the appointee "until Smith presents his credentials."

While in Washington a perturbed senate awaited his decision, the most definite thing Mr. Smith would say was that he might have a statement later in the day. Aside from the conference with Allan Moore, Republican national committeeman from Illinois and manager of Smith's successful campaign for senator, Mr. Smith had no meetings with party leaders on his day's program.

He said he had received only newspaper reports of action contemplated by the senate. In the event he decided to accept Governor Len Small's appointment to the seat vacated by the death of William B. McKinley, he would not comment on the senate sentiment, which opposes his sitting in the senate at the present session.

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)
HAZARD, Ky., Dec. 17.—Two mountain school boys, angered because one had been whipped by their teacher, called him to the front door of his home and killed him, according to information brought here today from Hydepark, county seat of Leslie county.

Mussolini---the lion-Hearted--

People in Italy began to whisper: "Mussolini's enemies are too strong for him. He will surely be destroyed."

But enemies did not daunt Mussolini. And to show the Italian people that he had courage and to spare, he strolled into the lion's cage at the Zoo in Rome and had himself photographed patting one of the lions on the head.

The advertisement succeeded. All Italy exclaimed: "Let Mussolini's enemies beware. He has the heart of a lion."

Mussolini was able to advertise his courage in this way only because he had courage. That is the basis of all advertising. Anyone who advertises must have goods that will stand inspection.

Advertisements speak tested truths. Read them. You can act upon them with assurance.
