 establish a new normal school for La Grande, George Bear, secretary of the Packer Commercial Club, and Secretary Nelson of The Dalles Chamber of Commerce, appeared here yesterday.
 Appropriations totaling $694,210 for normal schools were recommended by the board of regents of normal schools yesterday.
 For the new normal school to be established at La Grande, the board recommended $175,000 for building and $40,000 for maintenance and salaries. For the Southern Oregon Normal at Ashland $150,000 was recommended for a new dormitory to house 150 students and $33,210 for maintenance. For the Moonmouth Normal $175,000 was recommended for a classroom and library building and $21,000 for maintenance. For the latter item the state budget commission recommended only $90,000.
 To Increase Speed Limit
 The roads and highways committee of the senate has approved a bill increasing speed limit of automobiles from 30 to 35 miles an hour. Senators Eddy and Bailey signed a minority report opposing the change.
 Representative W. C. North, Multnomah county, is contemplating the introduction of a measure calling for adjournment every Thursday noon. "The less we do up here the better the people of the state like it," he declared. "If the ways and means committee does not get down to serious work at once, I intend to introduce a resolution calling for passage of appropriations as listed in the proposed state budget and then adjourn immediately. The sooner we clear out of Salem, the better it will please citizens of the state."

 of the facts.
 "The mere fact that Feyerabend has changed his story," he declared, "is not the basis of any criminal charge."

Joseph Brownlee, father of the boy, discovered that the will was in the possession of Feyerabend, and he consulted Sergeant Griffith of the state police. They came to Portland and with Deputy Sheriff Christofferson questioned Feyerabend.

Brownlee, it was disclosed, carried an accident insurance policy, payable to his parents or his estate.

tate, which expired a half hour before he disappeared.
 Mrs. H. F. Wilde, 511 East Twenty Third street, at whose home Feyerabend and Brownlee lived together for several years, declared that her husband and not Feyerabend was responsible for the fact that Brownlee took out insurance. She also supported Feyerabend in a statement that the will merely covered money owing to him.
 "They were like brothers," she said, "inseparable. I would back Al Feyerabend in anything."
 A. L. Anderson, organizer of the Crag Rats, also made a statement in favor of Feyerabend, according to word telephoned from Hood River.
 A telephone message today from Hood River quoted A. L. Anderson, organizer of the Crag Rats, as saying that Feyerabend had been with members on the hunt for Brownlee and had not told them that he had been to the top of the mountain.
 "We believe in and stand by Feyerabend, and will do everything we can to help him out," Anderson said.

FIG TREES

Are Growing and Bearing Fruit in Oregon

The trees start bearing when only two years old and yield two full crops a year. Spraying is unnecessary because they are not affected by the usual pests that attack our northern trees and the fruit ripens absolutely clean. They are beautiful as an ornament and valuable as a producer. My strain is absolutely and unconditionally guaranteed to live and bear fruit. Write at once for full information about this ornamental sub-tropical fruit bearing tree.

VAN WINKLE OF OPINION STATE TO GET SHARE that the refund was to go to the counties alone, until it was discovered that the basis of distribution of the money was to be on provisions of an act of 1916, providing for distribution of receipts from forest reserve fees, which provides that "all moneys paid and received under the provisions of this act by any county shall be prorated, apportioned and paid to the state county, port districts, school districts, road districts and other subdivisions of the county in the same proportion as the taxes assessed, levied and collected by the county for the year covered by such payment are apportioned and paid, to the state, county, and each civil subdivision will receive the same amount as though the money had been paid by a tax payer for each year."

Says Schools to Share
 In commenting on this statute the attorney general says: "It seems to me that this language does not permit of any other construction since it is as definite as it could well be made and sets forth explicitly the disposition that is required by the act of congress to be made of such money."

In writing to the district attorney, the attorney general cites an earlier opinion sent to the state bonus commission, regents of the University of Oregon and Oregon Agricultural College and the normal schools, in which he held that not only is the state entitled to its share of the taxes, but that an amount equal to the various millage taxes is to be paid to the state.

AMERICAN GRAVES IN FRANCE TO GET STONES OF MARBLE
 PARIS, Jan. 12.—Marble headstones, it is reported, are to be substituted for the wooden crosses of 31,900 American war graves in Europe. Colonel R. W. Van Duyen of the graves registration service is said to have concluded a contract with a quarry firm at Pietrasanta, Italy, delivery to begin in February.
 Suresnes cemetery, near Paris, will be the first to be improved. The stones will be of two types, one a cross and the other the star of David.

TEMPERAMENT OR COLD?—MARY JUST REFUSED TO SING
 (Associated Press Leased Wire.)
 CHICAGO, Jan. 12.—Mary Garden's cold has upset plans for the American premiere next Monday of "Judith," which the opera star has predicted will be as sensational as "Salome." The production was postponed a week.
 Her indisposition prevented her singing "Carmen" last night, Miss Garden retiring to her hotel apartments and refusing to be disturbed. Chicago papers add a bit of temperamental disturbances to the official explanation of illness, and print rumors of a tiff between Miss Garden and Director Giorgio Polacco over yesterday's rehearsal of "Judith."
 "There was a tiff, yes," the Herald and Examiner quoted a spokesman of the auditorium, "but it was but one of many. There are always tiffs during rehearsals. Pah, it was nothing."

 At the similar meeting today of the First States & Savings Bank, J. H. Booth was elected President; Hyman Wolenberg, Vice-President; G. V. Wimberly, Cashier; Victor J. Micelli, Assistant Cashier; Harrie W. Booth, Director.
 The completion of the first year in the new quarters finds both banks with increased deposits and in prosperous condition.

FOUR PORTLAND YOUTHS HELD ON AUTO THEFT CASE
 Raymond Bailey, 16, Robert Bailey, 15, Lloyd Horsley, 19, and Harvey Eby, 17, all of Portland, were arrested here this morning on a charge of auto theft, and are being held for Portland authorities. The boys drove a car off beside the highway in the southern part of town, after the machine had run out of gasoline. They came up-town where they planned to make a sale of some of their possessions to buy gasoline to continue on their way. Officers picked them up and placed them in the city jail, and Chief of Police Vaughn telegraphed the Portland police to find out if the youngsters are wanted there. The car is claimed to be the property of Horsey's father, but the boy admits that it was taken without his father's consent or knowledge. The machine is being held in a local garage and the boys are in jail.

MYRTLE CREEK MAN IS FINED IN CHARGE OF ASSAULT AND BATTERY

Clarence Johnson of North Myrtle Creek was fined $5 by Justice of the Peace C. F. Hopkins this morning after entering a plea of guilty to assault and battery. The trouble arose when Mr. Johnson went to his farm and attempted to hasten the departure of a tenant who had been evicted. Max Newzell, a neighbor, took exception to Johnson's methods or remarks and the two engaged in an argument which resulted in Johnson striking Newzell, according to the report given the officers. Johnson entered a plea of guilty in the justice court and paid the fine imposed upon him.
