ROSEBURG WELL REPRESENTED AT U. OF O. CONFERENCE

University of Oregon, Eugene, Ore., Jan. 14.—(Special).—Fifty Roseburg high school students and Loye J. Reynolds, teacher, attended the seventh annual high school conference at the University this week end.

More than 500 students from all parts of the state, representing nearly every high school attended the sessions, which were separated into four divisions for the editors and managers of high school publications, student body officers, girls' league, and faculty advisers.

Besides a program in which were discussed vital secondary school problems there were two main entertainment features, the Oregon-Willamette basketball game and the banquet Friday night.

Roseburg representatives were: William Knight, Verline McDonald, Ray James, Daphne Hughes, and J. V. Long.

CARTER'S TIRE SHOP

The modern woman can shingle her hair, wear pants and have imitation sideburns like a man, but she can't grow an iron gray whisker and mustache like Nick Carter of Carter's Tire Shop, the place where you can always do better buying new tires, having your tires repaired and retreaded. Those new tires I told you about are going like fleas hopping in Spring time. Carter's Tire Shop, 445 North Jackson St.

STATE HIGH SCHOOL CONFERENCE AT EUGENE

(Associated Press Licensed Wire.)

EUGENE, Ore., Jan. 14.—The flow of delegates to the state high school conference, to be held on the University of Oregon campus today tomorrow, began yesterday, and an attendance of more than 550 is expected to register.

Student body officers, press representatives, officers of girls' leagues and faculty advisors will attend the sessions.

A general assembly this morning marked the formal opening of the conference. Following the general assembly, the meeting divided into sectional conferences.

Colds Ended overnight

There's a way to end colds so quick and efficient that we paid $1,000,000 for it. That way is HILLS. It stops colds in 24 hours, checks fever, opens the bowels, then tones the entire system. Millions employ it because it brings such prompt, complete results. Go try it now.

HILLS' Cascade-Bromide-Quinine. Be sure you get HILLS, in the red box with portrait. At all druggists—

Young men rising to distinction will find it profitable to pay close attention to details of business—and their personal dress. A refreshed suit each week, tie and hat will set you aside from the CROWD. Good appearance is a letter of recommendation.

THE GIST OF THE BIBLE BOOK BY BOOK

ARTICLE NO. 44
"THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES—THE FIRST HISTORY OF THE CHURCH"

The Acts of the Apostles might more properly be named "The Acts of the Ascended Christ," or "The Acts of the Holy Spirit Through the Church." Its seventy-one references to the Holy Spirit almost entitle it to be named "The Gospel of the Holy Spirit." It records the history of the early Christian Church from the ascension of Christ to the imprisonment of Paul in Rome about thirty years later.

St. Luke, in his gospel, had recounted "what Jesus began both to do and teach until the day in which he was taken up." Here in the Acts he recounts what Jesus continued both to do and teach after his ascension.

Chapter one, verse eight, gives us not only the key-note of the entire book, but indicates its plan and outline as well: "Ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you; and ye shall be witnesses to me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth."

Chapters one and two tell of the reception of the promised power on the Day of Pentecost; the witness in Jerusalem is recorded in 2:1 to 6:7; the witness in Judea in 6:8 to 8:3; the witness in Samaria in 8:4 to 8:40 and the witness "to the uttermost part of the earth" in chapters nine to twenty-eight.

The two chief witnesses for Christ in this book are Peter and Paul, the first twelve chapters being given chiefly to the witness of Peter in and about Jerusalem, the last sixteen chapters dealing with the witness of Paul "unto the uttermost part of the earth."

In the Petrine section the church is seen developing under the guidance of the Holy Spirit from a pronouncedly Jewish sect into a broad cosmopolitan body where all racial distinctions between Jew and Gentile are obliterated.

In the Pauline section the church becomes predominantly Gentile in its spirit and membership through the fiery zeal and ceaseless activity of Paul, the great missionary and apostle to the Gentiles, whose three missionary journeys are recorded.

The Acts records how the conviction of the resurrection of Christ and the coming of the Holy Spirit transformed Peter the cowardly denier into the courageous pentecostal preacher, and Saul the church's chief persecutor into Paul its chief apostle and missionary.

By such Spirit-filled witnesses the church spread out, as Christ commanded it should, from Jerusalem, its birth-place, to Samaria to break down an ancient prejudice, and on to Ephesus to purify it of the vulgarities of Diana, thence over into Europe to Athens and Corinth to supplant Greek culture by the nobler culture of the Christian ethic, and finally even to Rome, the center of world power.

Thus "the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved," not only individuals but nations, until, as his enemies charged, his disciples had "turned the world upside down."

All this they did against terrible persecution from both Jew and Gentile. "The blood of the martyrs became the seed of the church," verifying the promise of the great Head of the Church that the gates of Hell should not prevail against his church.

SUNDAY AT THE CHURCHES

Bible Standard Temple. Sunday services at the Bible Standard Temple. Sunday school at 10 a. m., to which all are invited who have no church home and those who have, we extend to you an invitation to visit our services.
