NORTHERN ROADS ANNOUNCE THEIR PLAN FOR MERGER

Will Lease Three Units to Operating Concern and Maintain Fourth
Separately.

(Associated Press Leased Wire.) NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—Plans for merging the Great Northern and Northern Pacific railways and their subsidiaries into the world's greatest transportation system have been announced. The plan, subject to approval by the Interstate Commerce Commission, calls for leasing the main lines of an operating company which also will be the Spokane, Portland and Seattle railroad. The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy, now controlled by the northern companies through equal ownership of 97 per cent of the stock, will continue as a separate entity.

A joint statement by Ralph Budd, president of the Great Northern, and Charles Donnelly, president of the Northern Pacific, says single control of the Burlington will be favorable to more decisive handling of its development policies.

"Steps that are now being studied," said the statement, "will further to a still greater degree a community of interest which has long existed between northern companies and which began when they jointly acquired control of the Burlington over 25 years ago and was enlarged when they built and acquired the Spokane, Portland and Seattle system. The two northern companies being thus permanently added to the group of more than 12,000 miles, very naturally seek to strengthen and extend that community of interest and to make it more beneficial to their stockholders and more serviceable to the public.

The statement referred to a proposal, made by the Interstate Commerce Commission as a basis for discussion, for separating the Great Northern from the Northern Pacific and grouping the Great Northern with the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul.

"On the other hand," the statement continued, "the Interstate Commerce Commission has sanctioned extensive unifications by stock control and lease. It is this sort of a unification which is now receiving study by the two northern companies."

The statement adds that when definite conclusions have been reached the northern companies will explain the situation to the governors and state commissions of the states through which the northern lines operate.

Umpqua Post

Rarin' to Go

The captains of the two member-ship committees of Umpqua Post No. 16 of the American Legion, made their reports last night at the regular meeting and urged the members to cooperate to the utmost in securing 1927 memberships. In furtherance of the plan of selling the organization to the ex-service men of the county the post last night voted to take a vaudeville show and orchestra to Glendale on next Monday night where an attempt will be made to sign up all prospective members in that section. A trip will later be made to the northern part of the county. Umpqua Post, under the leadership of Commander Rita-man, is setting a fast pace for the new year and plans now underway will make it one of the liveliest in the state. The boys scout troop, sponsored by the post was entertained at the Liberty theatre last week and later at a feed. The post last night voted to purchase a basketball for the boys. A big smoker for all ex-service men is planned for the near future. Following last night's session, sandwiches and coffee were served.
