BIBLE STANDARD TEMPLE REVIVAL DRAWS CROWD

The Thursday evening service at the Bible Standard Temple was well attended when the evangelist, Dr. Webber spoke on the theme: "What Think Ye of Christ?" He pictured very clearly the scene of those who rejected Christ and the actions and opinions of his enemies, related the mistreatment throughout his ministry here upon earth, also of the crucifixion and resurrection. Then he told of the friends of Christ and their opinion of Christ up to the angels and his heavenly father who said: "This is my beloved son hear ye him." The message carried deep conviction and many were moved to action before God. Don't fail to hear Dr. Webber tonight on the subject: "Water Baptism." Saturday eve: "Following Jesus."—Correspondent.

THEATRES

LIBERTY THEATRE

When a peaceful western ranch is invaded by a movie company, plenty of excitement for both sides is bound to follow. This is the theme of Tom Tyler's newest F. B. O. production, "Tom And His Pals," to be shown at the Liberty Theatre today when it begins a two day run. Not only are there many amusing moments when the Hollywood visitors are taught the ways of the ranch life, but there is much humor in the cowboy's delight with the beautiful leading lady who dresses elaborately in de-collette dinner clothes, every evening, and eventually teaches the ranchmen the intricacies of the Charleston. The picture abounds in action; there is some whirlwind riding, some cyclone hand to hand fighting and a big thrill scene where Tom scales a precipice to save a child.

Return of Peter Grimm's Coming to Liberty

"Can the dead return and commune with the living?"

MAJESTIC THEATRE

Betty Goodwin Now Real Western Girl

Betty Goodwin, who plays the lead in Pete Morrison's "Range Buzards" which comes to the Majestic today has become a real western girl. A native of Kentucky, she was always an expert horsewoman, but she added to that many other accomplishments. She is now an accomplished swimmer, a dead shot with rifle or revolver and is no mean hand with a lariat. Miss Goodwin says she wouldn't go back to playing parts in society pictures for anything. It will be remembered that Betty played important roles with Harold Lloyd, Betty Compson, Fola Negri and others before casting her lot with Pete Morrison.

LOS ANGELES—There may have been a mere coincidence in connection with a mother's advice to her boy, who has suddenly won fame and potential wealth. "Read your Bible and remember your prayers every night," wired Mrs. Jennie Young. The winner of the big swim carried the telegram when he was visiting movie studios.

NEW YORK—Alcohol made in Germany from garbage is much better than what is drunk in this town, judging from recent casualties. Major Chester P. Mills, prohibition administrator, says the German product is excellent. It has not appeared here because other methods are cheaper. For instance, he says, some druggists make 600 per cent profit bootlegging.
