

SOCIETY

BY GRACE CARROLL

All Contributions to this Page—Society, Women's Clubs, and Personal—Should Be Telephoned to the Society Editor by Friday of Each Week.

Entertaining seems to have been re-vent during the past week in spite of the prevalent inclement weather and no number of illness and the society matron has found varied interests, with everything from teas to benefits, which may be an indication that interest is a little keener for the approach of fickle Spring, who has for the past two weeks been enticingly hiding around the corner.

Among the smart entertainments of the week were the series of affairs at which Mrs. W. S. Jost, Mrs. Wm. Bell and Mrs. Foster Butler entertained a number of society women, arranging bridge and sewing for both Wednesday and Friday.

St. Patrick's came as an inspiration for various delightful social affairs, two which particularly centered about the day being the benefit card party sponsored by the Progressive Sewing Circle of St. Joseph's Catholic church and the Elks dancing party on Thursday evening.

There have also been a few visitors in the city to give the week's entertaining and several attractive affairs honored interesting out of town matrons. Clubs have been busy with entertaining this week, many arranging for luncheons or programs in the afternoon.

For this evening there is the concert of the Willamette University Glee Club at the Senior high school auditorium at 8 o'clock which holds special interest for Roseburg folk in the appearance of a number of boys from the city who are members of the club.

Smart Matrons Join in Entertaining at Two of Week's Large Affairs

Mrs. W. S. Jost, Mrs. Wm. Bell and Mrs. Foster Butler entertained out this week with a series of two smart pre-Easter affairs at the Jost home on High street, to which over 100 prominent society matrons and maids were bidden for both sewing and bridge, followed by luncheon on Wednesday and Friday.

Profusions of fragrant, Opheelia roses, tulips and violets were used in the attractive rooms and a lavender and yellow color motif formed a pretty background for the play.

Assisting on Wednesday afternoon were Mrs. B. C. Ziegler, Mrs. Clair K. Allen, Mrs. L. A. Dillard, Mrs. Dean Bubar and Mrs. Paul Bubar, Mrs. M. F. Rice, Mrs. H. E. Cully, Mrs. Frank Lilburn, Mrs. Washington Hughes and Miss Eva Rice assisted in the rooms Friday.

The bridge prize Wednesday was received by Mrs. I. G. Broadway and the sewing prize went to Mrs. M. J. Shumaker. On Friday Mrs. R. E. Gedney received the bridge prize and Mrs. H. E. Cully the sewing prize.

Mrs. R. L. Brockley and son, Bobby, returned midweek from Portland where they have been guests of Mrs. Brockley's parents.

State Lodge Officer Is Visitor

Mrs. Kate Bate of Elgin, Oregon, grand chief of the Pythian Sisters lodge of Oregon, made an official visit to the local chapter on Monday evening. Mrs. Bate gave a short talk and held inspection and instruction following lodge session. Afterward a social evening in her honor was given by the lodge, refreshments being served at the close.

Mrs. Bate is being accompanied by her husband on her official tour of southern Oregon. While in the city they were the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Parker.

Mrs. Joseph E. Joren is spending several weeks in Portland and eastern Oregon. She is visiting at Pendleton, where she is the guest of Mrs. J. W. Earle before her return to this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Blaxall Have Guests from Canada

Mr. and Mrs. R. Lynn of Calgary, Alberta, Canada, were visitors in the city a few days this week as guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Blaxall of Rainier Court. Mr. Lynn is a brother of Mrs. Blaxall. Mr. and Mrs. Lynn have been on a honeymoon trip south, including visits in California, Texas and Arizona, for the past five months.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Perkins, former residents of Roseburg who have been visitors here, are returning today to their home in Portland.

Miss Smith With Orchestra Playing for "The Mikado"

Miss Leta Smith of Oakland, a former Roseburg maid, who is attending the Oregon Agricultural College at Corvallis, is a member of the orchestra with the cast presenting "The Mikado" in this city on the evening of March 25. Miss Smith plays the cornet and is a talented musician. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Smith.

Niece Roseburg Matron to Wed Eugene Man Today

An affair of interest to a number in Roseburg as well as circles in Eugene is the marriage of Miss Ruth Durgan, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Durgan of Eugene, to Mr. Kelly Brandstetter, which is to take place today at the Episcopal church in Eugene. Miss Durgan is the niece of Mrs. Tom Wharton of this city, and as her guest has visited here several times. Mrs. Wharton went to Eugene Friday to be present for the ceremony.

The bride-elect is a charming young woman and attended the University of Oregon, where she has a wide circle of friends. Her fiancé is in business in Eugene.

A dinner for members of the wedding party and both families is to follow the exchange of nuptial vows.

Roseburg Girl on Class Team at O. A. C.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, March 19.—Constance Hendrickson of Roseburg, senior in home economics, played on the senior women's basketball team which won the inter-class championship. All players were guests at a banquet at the end of the season.

Mrs. Paul Bubar Entertains with Luncheon

Mrs. Paul Bubar was a luncheon hostess on Thursday, inviting to her home the matrons of the Book club. Seated about the charmingly appointed table centered with a bowl of violets were Mrs. Washington Hughes, Mrs. Dean Bubar, Mrs. Wm. Bell, Mrs. C. S. Hollins, Mrs. W. H. Fisher, Mrs. C. W. Wharton, Mrs. M. F. Rice and Mrs. Paul Bubar.

An informal afternoon followed luncheon.

Mrs. Osborn Luncheon Hostess for Social 8 Club

Mrs. J. B. Osborn arranged a charming one o'clock luncheon followed by an informal afternoon for the matrons of the Social 8 Club on Saturday.

Howls of violets and pink carnations with ferns were used in the rooms and at the table. Spending the afternoon were Mrs. R. L. Gile, Mrs. I. B. Riddle, Mrs. J. H. Booth, Mrs. Paul Bubar, Mrs. Washington Hughes, Mrs. M. F. Rice, Mrs. E. Chase and Mrs. Osborn.

Union Signal Day Observed at Meeting

The regular meeting of the Roseburg W. C. T. U. was held on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Louis Kohlhaugen on Military avenue. The president, Mrs. W. E. Daise, presided. Mrs. Joseph Knotts conducted the devotional services from the parable of the Sower.

Mrs. A. C. Marsters was in charge of the program which was arranged to observe Union Signal Day. She urged all members to subscribe for the publication. Mrs. W. E. Daise and Mrs. V. J. Micelli gave short talks also on the importance of this paper. A report from Mrs. J. O. Arthur showed that 1109 letters and 500 leaflets had been distributed by the W. C. T. U. during anti-narcotic week.

At the close of the afternoon a committee of ladies, headed by Mrs. H. R. Ferguson, served to the 35 members present.

Mrs. J. A. Denn Entertains Bridge Club

Mrs. Joseph A. Denn entertained at her home in Laurewood for the meeting of the Entre Nous Bridge club this week. Primrose were a pretty color note in the rooms arranged for bridge. High score for the afternoon was held by Mrs. J. C. Ponsler.

Refreshments were served at the end of the game. Mrs. Leon McClinton was a guest of the club. The club matrons present were Mrs. A. G. Sutherland, Mrs. J. A. Harding, Mrs. H. D. Harris, Mrs. Lee A. Wells, Mrs. J. C. Ponsler, Mrs. A. D. Abbott and Mrs. Denn.

Little Maxine Smith Is Hostess Saturday

Maxine Smith observed her ninth birthday on Saturday afternoon, inviting a group of small friends to the home of her parents on South Main street.

The little folk were entertained with games and afterward luncheon was served by Mrs. Smith, assisted by Maude C. Burt.

Bidden to the affair were Agnes Crawford, Betty Jane Dixon, Ethel Kenney, Frances Deardoff, Frances Snell, Grace Bubar, Genevieve White, Iris Pireau, Mae Debbitt, Mary Dunsberry, and Sue Hildeburn.

Matrons of Bridge Club Entertained at Luncheon

Mrs. Ben C. Ziegler planned a charming luncheon at the campus hotel for the matrons of her bridge club and additional guests on Monday. Covers were laid for the Mesdames J. I. Love of Eugene, R. E. Gedney, and members, H. D. Harris, H. C. Waddell, Dean Bubar, W. T. Craven, J. C. Ponsler, Geo. Bradburn, Wm. Bell, and the hostess.

The guests afterward went to the Ziegler home at 430 Vista avenue for play. Low bowls of colorful daffodils prevailed in the rooms. First prize for the afternoon was received by Mrs. W. T. Craven.

ETHEL

THE FLAPPER'S "DAILY DOZEN"

Mr. and Mrs. Compton Entertain with Bridge

A pleasant affair of the week was the bridge party to which Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Compton invited a group of intimate friends to their home on the corner of Kane and Oak streets Tuesday.

Honors for the evening were held by Mrs. C. S. McElhinny. Bright favors marked the covers for luncheon at the end of the game. Invited were Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Neal, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. McElhinny, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Pargeter.

Affair Honors Two Matrons of Legion

Following the regular lodge session of Mooseheart Legion last Friday evening, a surprise party was given honoring Mrs. Guy Calhoun and Mrs. Clarence Smilger, two members, on their birthday anniversaries.

Husbands of the members of the legion were guests at the affair and games and dancing were in progress during the evening. At the close refreshments were served to 75.

Interesting Program at Joint Meeting

An unusually entertaining program marked the joint meeting of Empqua Chapter D. A. R. and the Roseburg Woman's Club on Tuesday afternoon at the I. O. O. F. hall.

A group of delightful vocal solos by Mrs. E. D. Morgan Fowles, Portland matron, who is visiting here, accompanied by Mrs. C. S. Helmling, was enjoyed by the guests. The principal address of the day was by Dr. Frank B. Matthews of the Baptist church who discoursed on "Red Revolutionists in America." The program was in charge of the Mesdames C. B. Neal, Dean Bubar and L. B. Skinner of the club and Mesdames E. B. Stewart and Wm. Campbell of the D. A. R.

Ten was served from 4 to 5 o'clock in the dining room. Mrs. Foster Butler, Mrs. Wm. Bell and Mrs. J. C. Ponsler were in charge.

Mrs. E. D. Morgan Fowles, Portland matron, is being welcomed by friends here during her stay in the city. She is here with Mr. Fowles, field inspector, department of the Interior. Mrs. Fowles visited here last year.

Supper Is Attractive Affair Friday

A pleasurable affair of the past week was the St. Patrick's supper sponsored by Roseburg lodge No. 404, L. A. of B. of R. T. for members and the B. of R. T. Friday evening at the Knights of Pythias hall following the lodge meeting.

Unique St. Patrick's place cards of shamrocks and pipes were used at the tables. Covers were placed for 40. In charge during the evening were the Mesdames V. J. Lewman, H. A. West, G. H. Daudel, D. Y. Allison and H. Hess.

Two Matrons Entertain With Bridge Tuesday

Mrs. Harry Burr and Mrs. Cecil Richards planned a charming afternoon affair this week for a few young matrons, inviting them to the home of the former at 846 North Jackson street Tuesday for bridge.

Mrs. Lester Endicott received first prize at the end of the game. Luncheon covers were placed for Mrs. Lloyd Davis, Mrs. Joseph A. Denn, Mrs. Woodley Stephenson, Mrs. Lester Endicott, Mrs. R. C. Blaxall, Mrs. L. A. Littlefield, Mrs. Richards and Mrs. Burr.

Twelve a Day

Roseburg Singers to Be Presented in Radio Program

Elsie Carleton Strang has announced the program numbers to be broadcast from KMED at Modford on Tuesday evening, March 22, by her voice students. The program will open at 8 o'clock for an hour of especially splendid entertainment. Roseburg folk are particularly interested in the program as the singers are all from this city. Frances Lintott, teacher of piano, will accompany all numbers. The program, is through the courtesy of the California-Oregon Power company.

Ladies Trio—"Boat Song," Ware; "All Through the Night," Welsh; "Mistle Lee Taylor, soprano; Eva Rice, mezzo soprano; Grace Wickham Deets, contralto.

Solos—"West of the Great Divide," "The Rosary," Nevins; Grace Wickham Deets, Contralto.

Duets—"The Banquet Hour," Penn; "Love's Old Sweet Song," Molly; Elsie Carleton Strang, soprano; Lyman L. Spencer, baritone.

Solos—"Lonesome, That's All," Roberts; "Mistle Lee a Rose," Nevins; Mistle Lee Taylor, soprano.

Solos—"It's a Mighty Good World," O'Hara; "Little Mother of Mine," Burleigh; Lyman L. Spencer, baritone.

Duets—"At Dawning," Gadsman; "Frischella," Mistle Lee Taylor, soprano; Grace Wickham Deets, contralto.

Solos—"Carissima," Penn; "When I'm With You," Robison; Elsie Carleton Strang, soprano.

Ladies Trios—"Slave Song," Del Riego; "Old Black Joe," Foster; Mistle Lee Taylor, soprano; Eva Rice, mezzo soprano; Grace Wickham Deets, contralto.

Mrs. J. I. Love Is Visitor

Mrs. R. E. Gedney has been entertaining as her house guest for a few days this week, Mrs. J. I. Love of Eugene, a former Roseburg matron. During her brief stay in the city Mrs. Love has been a guest at several affairs. On Tuesday she was entertained at dinner by Mrs. C. L. Hampton and on Wednesday was the dinner guest of Mrs. W. F. Harris.

Home Economics Club Guests of Roseburg Matron

The Home Economics club of Melrose grange were the guests on Thursday afternoon of Mrs. H. M. Moreland at 121 E. Douglas street. A very pleasant afternoon was spent and dainty refreshments were served at the close. Those present were Mesdames Royce Lindsenbark, John Busenbark Sr., E. R. Fenn, Fred Goff, Carrie Krue, Clifford Mabley, J. A. Peterson, J. W. Plummer, Mary Plummer, and Emma P. Woods.

Mr. and Mrs. Helliwell Invite Group for Bridge

A pleasurable affair of the week was the bridge party planned Tuesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Donald Helliwell for a group of their friends at their home at 105 West Mosher street. Honors for the evening were held by Mrs. Geo. M. Bradburn and Elwood Strader.

Refreshments were served at the end of the evening. Mrs. J. Willett, Mrs. J. Koenig, Mrs. J. T. Bryan, Mrs. J. B. Sloan and Mrs. E. Prince being in charge. Several young ladies of the parish assisted at the tables.

Senior Class to Present "Grumpy"

"Grumpy," that well known and entertaining play which has a great appeal to the public, has been selected by the senior class of the high school for this year's class presentation. Rehearsals will soon start and the play will be given early this spring.

In the cast are Bill Knight, as "Grumpy"; Pauline Bubar as Virginia, "Grumpy's" granddaughter; Raymond Bell, Ernest Heron, "Grumpy's" ward-nephew and the hero; Tom McDowell, Rudbeck, "Grumpy's" butler; Rowland Hagar, Dr. McClaren; Elizabeth Abraham, Mrs. McClaren; Harold Ingram, Dawson, a valet; Adrian Bowen, Merridew, another valet; Allan Moore, Mr. Jarvis, the handsome and fascinating young man; Sam McConnell, Wolfe, the merchant; Helen Bergh, Susan, the maid.

Business Women Have Pleasant Social Evening

The Business of Professional Women's Club held a delightful social evening Friday at the Helmling Conservatory. Prospective members were invited to the affair and there were 14 additional guests.

The program, put on by the dramatic club of the junior high school, proved highly diverting. The show play, "The Independent Order of Unmarried Women," was very amusingly portrayed by members of the dramatic club. Mrs. David Oleson and Fern Scott directed.

(Continued on page 3.)

GLORIA'S ANKLE-LENGTH SKIRT

Does Her Approval of It Spell Concealment of Exposed Hose?

Gloria Swanson

By Betsy Schuyler
NEA Service Writer.

NEW YORK, March 19.—Hooray, we have something startling to write about. Gloria Swanson has sponsored the long skirt. This sartorial sensation almost caused the fashion writers of this metropolis to put an extra out on the street, after it happened.

For Gloria was the only lady present at the wedding of Mrs. Katherine P. Shires to Pierce A. Bodard, who did not reveal the customary length of extra short, flesh colored hose. Her gown was at least 12 inches longer than that of the bride, with only the tips of her blue slippers visible.

They Took Notice

Naturally everybody who was present sat up and took particular notice of what was happening right before their eyes. You can't miss she is matron of honor, playing Gloria in any gathering, but when second lead only to the bride, you can't miss such details as skirt lengths.

The frock was a very effective affair of powder blue chiffon, trimmed with flowering sleeves and wispy panels of periwinkle blue, and with it she wore a very wide brimmed and picturesque hat of blue horse-hair braid. White orchids, one of those ample armfuls, were a happy choice in flowers.

The bride wore gray chiffon over a lovely fuchsia shade, with large hat to match, and her bouquet was of white gardenias and orchids—a very effective combination if you should ask. Lois Wilson was there in a short lace frock, looking earning as usual.

Fashion Leaders

It does take these film people to start things, and I always give Miss Swanson the benefit of any sartorial doubts. I saw her in a simple yellow chiffon frock the other day that was down consoling with her ankles, so I imagine she herself is serious in the matter, but whether she is powerful enough to padlock our knees or not remains to be seen.

Mrs. Carroll Wainwright

Of course you know Gloria long since let her hair grow out to the stage where it is coilable—and I must say that she is much more individual with a bun at the neck than she was with clipped hair. But then much of her charm has always been the perfectly unbelievable things she could do with braids, puffs and odd bits of hair.

Evening clothes have been particularly rich and riotous lately. At the Plaza I saw Mrs. Havermyer put in a marvelous red velvet outfit with a big bouquet of waxy white gardenias on her shoulder, and Beatrice Pratt looking like something out of a story book in white velvet.

The silver fringe frock worn by Mrs. Charles C. Auchincloss made her a glamorous figure as she danced.

Sunray Seaming

Among the new items in street attire is the new sunray seaming—a simple system by which the effect of the sun's rays can be produced from collar to hemline. It looks very intricate and involved but is very effective. Worth and Vionnet both seem to feature it extensively in their new imports.

I notice this sun effect is also used on evening gowns, outflowing the rays with pearls or rhinestones. It is apt to break out anywhere.

Spring coats are very alluring. I saw one of white flannel lined with striped flannel, the stripes also forming a shawl collar and very nifty pockets.

Cape Coat

When Mrs. Carroll Wainwright, the former Edith Gould, sailed for Europe, I noticed she wore one of the new cape coats. Her's was of tan wool with a collar of striped chipmunk.

On Park avenue I saw Miss Charlotte Littlejohn in an attractive and very springlike coat. It was of gray with a cape collar and lined in round life waves.

In a week or so, if this moderate weather continues, we may expect much of the avenue.

Miss Charlotte Littlejohn