ROSEBURG, OREGON, FRIDAY, APRIL 22, 1927.

IT'S STILL UP TO ROSEBURG.

Our disappointments continue. The projected Roseburg-Diamond lake highway will not be completed this year; and probably not next year either unless the present unfavorable attitude of the federal forestry bureau undergoes a radical change in the meantime. Special expenditures by the bureau in Douglas county this year, we are officially informed, will be confined to extension of the South Umpqua road toward the Jackson county boundary and repairs to the Rock Creek-Steamboat section of the North Umpqua road, together with the construction of turn-outs. No money has been allotted for road work between Steamboat and Big Camas, the gap of 22 miles that must be closed before the North Umpqua highway is complete. The state highway commission has formally designated this route on the forestry map for the building of a highway, but the federal bureau refuses to be hurried into accordant action. Perhaps sufficient funds are lacking. Anyway the bureau is not disposed to concern itself with the commercial viewpoint of communities in matters of this kind. It's first consideration in road construction is to get near enough to timber belts to reach them handily in case of fires. Being able to reach the timbered area between Steamboat and Big Camas, entering the former station by way of Roseburg or the latter by way of either Medford or Eugene, is sufficient for their needs and it will not spend several hundred thousand dollars building a highway between the two points if the matter is left to its own pleasure. It's still up to Roseburg to continue efforts to secure completion of this road—a road that would obviously prove of such great benefit not only to this locality but to neighboring sections as well. The county has expended thousands of dollars on the North Umpqua road in cooperation with the forestry service, and it has had the implied assurance that the highway would be built completely to Diamond lake. There is due appreciation of course for the work that is to be done this year on both the North and South Umpqua projects—both are equally deserving—but the work cannot be counted complete or entirely satisfactory until the older unit is finished to the lake. How many years will we have to wait before that desire is fulfilled?

SMITH BOOM IS HELD HARMFUL TO HIS CHURCH

lies to vote against a Catholic for the same reason.

"The present procedure of the Smith movement," Colonel Callahan said, "is obviously directed toward causing the violation of the sound principle of Catholic political conduct, which, when announced, was accepted with acclaim and enthusiasm throughout the country."

Smith Boom Decried

Colonel Callahan declared he has been observing "with growing alarm the deliberate attempts being made by certain New York newspapers to insist that Governor Smith be nominated for the reason that he is a Catholic."

"Coming from a Catholic peace meeting in Washington I find these New York papers seeking to fan the members of a political issue which if successfully injected will cause as much internal strife as any of the causes which, operating internationally bring about war."

I find these papers more seeking to have it appear that the religious issue has been injected into American politics by the McAdoo Democratic group."

Colonel Callahan declared McAdoo had nothing to do with the injection of the religious issue into the 1924 convention and that he had nothing to do with the bringing up of the issue at this time.

Colonel Callahan said he has not seen Mr. McAdoo, who is in this city.

Ritchie Gives View

BALTIMORE, Md., April 22.—Denouncing religion in politics, Governor Albert C. Ritchie said that from now until the end of the democratic convention in 1928 he would "proclaim and insist that religion shall not be a factor in determining any man's right to hold office whether it is the highest or lowest in the land."

Governor Ritchie made this declaration at a democratic mass meeting which was held last night, introducing it with a reference to the reply of Governor Alfred E. Smith of New York, on the subject of Smith's Catholicism, to a letter from Charles C. Marshall, the chairman of the meeting had made a reference to Governor Ritchie's prospects of "going to Washington shortly."

"Religion must never be a factor in the field of politics," said Ritchie, "and the close of the democratic convention in 1928 my voice shall be the first to proclaim and insist that religion shall not be a factor in determining any man's right to hold office, whether it is the highest or the lowest in the land."

GOOD EVENING FOLKS—

Johannchen H. Schlagenhauer (endorsing her pay check at bank window)—"You have forgotten the 'H'," explained the teller.

Whereupon Miss Schlagenhauer took her check and said: "Ach, so I haff!" And then wrote hurriedly: "Age—twenty-three."

HO-HUM! NOT! BUT CONFESSES.

Hi ho hum! We'll bet the fire ladders will be darn glad when the Spring housecleanin' is over.

"Father," said the four-year-old when dad returned from the office, "I wish you would speak to your wife. We've had a terrible scene."

"Can I see the Secretary of Agriculture?"

"Well, he's very busy, madam. What was it you wanted to see him about?"

"About a geranium of mine that isn't doing very well."

On to be a kid again. On a day like this we'd just like to sit along side a lazy stream and snark our dogs in the coolin' waters.

Her Friend—"Why don't you ask your husband's advice on the matter?"

Herself—"I intend to, as soon as I decide on what I'm going to do."

Yes, it does rain occasionally in Oregon but as yet we haven't had to build an Ark.

HEY!

As long as this nation can keep on growin' a crop of expert kite-fliers, we needn't worry about the future of aviation.

The June brides will soon be with us and gosh how we hate to see that time of the year roll around. The rest of us are kept so darn busy buyin' cut glass sugar bowls and salt and pepper shakers that it gets to be a nuisance.

Plagiarism is the curse of copyists. Ever time we say a cute thing in the column some wise hombre accuses us of stealin' it and then again when we make a smart crack that's worth while and original, the village cutups grab it for their own and spring it to our very face.

WHAT NO RELIEF?

The kind of relief our farmers need most is to help 'em shove the plow about this time of the year.

REMODELING OFFICES AND LOBBY TERMINAL HOTEL WILL START

Work preparatory to the remodeling of the offices and lobby of the Terminal Hotel is being started today. The switchboard is being removed to the opposite side of the office from which it heretofore has been situated and immediate work on remodeling the offices will be started. The contract has been let to J. E. Runyan. The walls of the offices and lobby will be redecorated and the woodwork refinished. It is planned to build a long wall on the south wall in the lobby and some new furnishings will be added to the attractiveness. The offices will be rearranged and a cloak room and office for the stage drivers will be installed in one part. The Union News company branch newspaper and restaurant, of which D. C. Talbot is manager, which adjoins the hotel lobby will also undergo improvements in the near future.

HOW ABOUT 'AGRARIAN'?

HARTFORD, Conn.—Pity the poor farmer—not because he may or may not need federal aid, but because the word "farmer" has been given an offensive and humiliating significance by certain side comedians. At least, so says Willard Rogers, who has requested the aid of the New England council in substituting the word "agriculturists" for "farmers." The older term, he says, has given tilters of the soil an inferiority complex.

FUNERAL WM. AGNEW IS HELD TODAY

The funeral of Wm. Agnew, well known resident of this vicinity who died Wednesday night at the age of 80 years, was held at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon in the chapel of the Roseburg Undertaking company, M. E. Ritter, funeral director in charge. A host of friends of the deceased filled the parlors for the services. Rev. E. P. Runnels, vicar of St. George's church, officiated at the beautiful service. The many beautiful flowers spoke of the high esteem in which Mr. Agnew was held in the community. Burial took place at the Masonic cemetery where the Knights of Pythias lodge was in charge and the lodge ritual was given.

NOW YOU ASK ONE

THE ROLLING SEA

The sea has figured in the history and the literature of all nations, including our own. Today we have a list of ten questions dealing with the sea and the men who have sailed on it. The answers are on the back page.

1—What island town south of Cape Cod was a century ago, a grant center for American whaling vessels.

2—Who wrote "Moby Dick," epic of the whaling industry?

3—For what is Richard Henry Dana, Jr. remembered?

4—In the old days of sailing ships, what were "catlines"?

5—What did the old-time sailors mean when they spoke of a seaman taking the "Shanghai passage"?

6—What did the expression, "Rounding the Horn," refer to?

7—Naval vessels nowadays are painted gray. What was the prevailing color for American naval vessels at the time of the Spanish war?

8—What was the first warship to mount heavy guns in a revolving turret?

9—What American playwright has written a number of dramas dealing with the sea and sailors?

10—Who is William McFee?

RATES ON-LINE ROCK SHIPMENTS TO FALL

SALEM, Ore., April 22.—Reduced rates on lime rock shipped from the quarries in Josephine county to the state penitentiary and on lime shipped out from the plant there, have been offered by the Southern Pacific company, through the public service commission. The reductions amount to about 15 percent in each case. This will make possible a reduction of about 25 cents a ton on lime shipped to farmers.

NEW YORK, April 22.—Three recently guarded airplanes like thoroughbred before a barrier, today jockeyed on flying fields in America and France, undergoing final priming before they hop off on their projected 3,600 mile flight across the Atlantic.

As daily tests brought the machines nearer perfection a start by two of the planes seemed possible at any time within the next few days. The Bellanca monoplane which recently set a new world endurance record was reported to be ready to start as soon as it was loaded, while advices from Paris said Captain Charles Nungesser, famous French flier, was awaiting only favorable weather.

The Bellanca plane is undergoing final tests at Curtis Field, L. I., after being equipped with earth indicator compass, drift indicator, altimeter, turn and bank indicators and almost every other accessory for a long cruise. Food and gasoline requirements already have been estimated.

Meanwhile Commander Noel Davis at Langley Field, Virginia, is conducting daily tests with his plane, "American Legion" experimenting with wood and metal propellers in the attempt to ascertain which will provide the greatest speed with least consumption of fuel.

KELLY-RAYMOND MURDER CASE TO BE TRIED EARLY

(Associated Press Local Wire)

LOS ANGELES, Calif., April 22.—The district attorney's office announced today that an early trial would be sought for Paul Kelly following the arraignment of the film player yesterday on an indictment charging him with the murder of Ray Raymond, musical comedy star.

Meanwhile, attorneys for Kelly were seeking to learn whether Dorothy Mackaye, stage actress, who figures in the love triangle, had been legally married to Raymond. She might be called as a defense witness to tell what she knew of the marital status of the actor.

Miss Mackaye, who collapsed after appearing before the grand jury last Wednesday, was under a doctor's care at her home in Hollywood today. The actress said she was destitute, explaining that Raymond's entire estate consisted of a $200 bank account which had been exhausted.

Events moved quickly for Kelly. In the morning he sat through a coroner's inquest and heard the jury's verdict which held him responsible for Raymond's death. In the afternoon Kelly appeared for arraignment in superior court flanked by his attorneys. Not once did he flinch as the formal murder charge was read to him. At 11 o'clock the order of the trial was asked for a continuance until next Monday to plead. The request was granted and Kelly was led away to the county jail where he is being held without bail.

ANNUAL FLOWER SALE BEING HELD TODAY; SATURDAY

The annual flower sale sponsored by the Benson Parent-Teacher association is being held today and Saturday in the Sykes building adjoining the Terminal hotel. A number of varieties of bulbs, potted plants and perennials are on display in the window. In addition the association is selling a linen luncheon set. Proceeds of the sale will go to the playground equipment fund. The association has installed a $65 playground equipment for the school children and the money derived from the sale will help pay for it. The committee in charge of the sale includes Mrs. John Ferguson, chairman; Mrs. P. W. Henry, Mrs. J. W. Bartley, Mrs. S. L. Klidder, Mrs. Irvin Bruyn and Mrs. J. F. Byrd.

LIQUOR FOUND IN DEATH CAR; DRIVER ACCUSED BY JURY

(Associated Press Local Wire)

PORTLAND, Ore., April 22.—A coroner's jury, which investigated the death of Thurman L. Parker, of Seattle, from injuries received in an automobile collision here Sunday, returned a verdict yesterday finding Walter Shierman, 24, of Silverton to blame for the accident. Testimony indicated liquor was found in Shierman's car. The coroner's jury recommended he be held to the grand jury.

Osaka Banks Hit

OSAKA, Japan, April 22.—All banks in Osaka, Kobe, and Kyoto were closed today after persistent runs yesterday. Business generally was paralyzed.

Local bankers assert that the banking structure is fundamentally sound and no alarm is called for. They accuse politicians at Tokyo of making a mountain out of a mole hill in connection with the affairs of the Bank of Taiwan. The political crisis which resulted from the bank's suspension, they say, created uneasiness, causing a run on the banks.

MARKETS

(Associated Press Local Wire)

PORTLAND, Ore., April 22.—Few changes in the general run of wholesale produce prices were reported on the local market in today's early trade. Butter eased lower in the face of California declines. Trading on the local dairy exchange fixed cubes at lower at 42c an aprime firsts also at 42c.

Fresh country meats and poultry were offered at nominally steady prices with receipts of good quality stuff sufficient to fill demands from buyers.

The egg market continues firm with prices unchanged. Storage holdings were increased 725 cases yesterday.
