

THE WOMAN'S PAGE

SOCIETY

BY GRACE CARROLL

All Contributions to this Page—Society, Women's Clubs, and Personal—Should Be Telephoned to the Society Editor by Friday of Each Week.

Spring is essentially a period of entertaining, for it just precedes that time when folk are deciding on early summer trips to the coast or a vacation in the mountains—affairs are at their gayest and inspirations in numbers come to the society matrons for delightful bridge afternoons and luncheons. The country round in fact has been transformed by the past few days of balmy weather and orchards are white with fragrant fruit blossoms; trees and ground alike are clad in new coats of green by Mother Nature, so is it any wonder that interest has been awakened in things generally.

Social affairs preceding Easter aside from a few were of a more or less informal character. However, the week past has been full of interest and various social events are making up for what the Lenten period lacked in social pleasure.

The links at the Roseburg Country Club are popular now too, hardly a day passing when several devotees do not go around. Easter day saw a number of groups at the club, the adults golfing or playing a few rubbers of bridge, and the younger folk taking part in the annual Easter bunny and egg hunt. Refreshments were served, the folk at the end of the hunt and in the evening there was a supper. Informal gatherings of family and friends at dinner characterized the day in town. A number of folk entertained out of town guests over the week-end.

The Easter Ball sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary was a pleasant affair Monday evening at the Oriental Gardens ball room. Mrs. S. J. Shoemaker and Mrs. C. J. B. Biddle were hostesses of the affair. The evening was a success and the ladies of the week and Mrs. Leo A. Wells and Mrs. J. B. Biddle continued their series with two attractive afternoon parties. A number of folk were seen at the week-end. Among the interesting events of the past few days was the card party given by the ladies of St. Joseph's Catholic church at the parish house on the evening of April 20, bridge and five hundred supplying diversion for over 100.

Middle Week and Better Homes week are in the office and extensive plans are being made for their observance in the city. In connection with Better Homes Week there will be the county wide essay contest sponsored by Mrs. J. C. Bonner, chairman of the committee arranging for the week's observance, in which all tradeshmen and schoolboys and girls are to compete for prizes.

Mr. and Mrs. Harding Entertain for House Guests
For Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Keller of Portland, their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Harding were 6 o'clock dinner hosts at the Hotel Umpqua Thursday evening, placing covers for 16.

Following the dinner hour the group were guests at the Harding home on Watson street for bridge. Mrs. Keller received the guest prize, Mrs. Sutherland and Mr. McClintock received first prizes.

Mrs. J. E. Clark and daughter, Miss Nedra Clark, are spending the week-end in Salem as guests of friends.

Woman's Club Play to Be Given in Music Week
Elaborate preparations are underway for the presentation of the musical comedy, "Hello There," by the Roseburg Woman's club on May 4 and 5 which occurs in National Music week at the Antlers theatre. The proceeds are to be used by the club women for the building fund.

The comedy contains an attractive plot and is filled with laughable situations. Two hundred people are being enlisted for the play and talent of Roseburg will participate in leading characters. The play is to be given under the direction of the Rosebud Zura Producing company of Chicago, personally directed by Miss Zura. It is to be gorgeously costumed by the company and promises to be a fine offering.

Group Entertained at Dinner
Mr. and Mrs. Bert G. Bates entertained a few intimate friends at dinner Saturday evening at the Howell Apartments. Easter favors formed a pretty decorative note at the table. Covers were placed for Mrs. Ella Lough, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lockwood, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. James T. Goodman, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Carr and the hosts.

Mrs. Rice Asks Matrons to Sew
Mrs. M. F. Rice asked the matrons of the Social Light Club to form a sewing society on Friday for one o'clock luncheon. Decorations in keeping with the spring season were used about the room. During the afternoon the group sewed.

Visitors Honored at Country Club

Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Wallace of Monte Vista, Colorado, who have been guests of Dr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Brundage at their country home, Seattle Place, and of Mrs. Wallace's mother, Mrs. S. E. Collier, in Roseburg, were honor guests at a no-host dinner at the Roseburg Country club on Thursday evening, a group of 30 of their intimate friends gathering to bid them adieu before their departure for home the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace are former residents of Roseburg and have been warmly welcomed by their stay in the city. A number of delightful social affairs have been arranged for their pleasure.

Catholic Ladies Sponsor Pleasant Affair Thursday

Protagonists of interest among devotees of bridge and five hundred was the card party sponsored by the ladies of St. Joseph's Catholic church on Thursday evening at the parish house, 120 at- tending the affair.

The parish house was transformed with bright decorations and bowls and baskets of lovely spring blossoms. Eighteen tables of bridge and five hundred were in play and at the close of the evening refreshments were served. Four prizes for each game were awarded the players.

During the evening Miss Helen Casey, delighted with two vocal soloists, accompanied by Miss Naomi Scott on the violin and Miss Marion Ness at the piano.

Having charge of the affair were Mrs. T. H. Ness, chairman, Mrs. John Koenig, Mrs. Richard Willett, Mrs. H. Bodley, Mrs. L. J. Barnes and Mrs. H. McClintock.

Mrs. Watson E. Hoag has as her house guest at her home on Hamilton street her sister, Miss Mary Pomeroy, of Cleveland, Ohio. Miss Pomeroy is spending two months in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Orr Entertain for Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Orr entertained at luncheon on Wednesday for their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. S. Orr, of Portland, Wash- ington, at their home on East Douglas street. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. S. Orr, Rev. and Mrs. Joseph Knotts, Mrs. Ross, Mrs. H. R. Nerbas, Mrs. Will H. Gerretsen, Mrs. Philip Gillman and the hosts.

The afternoon was spent informally.

Mrs. W. W. Peter and daughter, Mrs. Cecil Richards, and son, Allen, left Friday for Wilder, Idaho, where they will join Mr. Peter and Mr. Richards to locate.

Umpqua Chapter D. A. R. Meets

Mrs. W. M. Campbell, Mrs. F. H. Churchill and Mrs. W. R. Willis entertained the members of Umpqua Chapter, D. A. R., at the Campbell home on North Jackson street Monday. Spring blossoms were used in profusions in the room.

Reports of the state convention held in Corvallis recently were interestingly given by Mrs. Watson E. Hoag, Mrs. F. H. Churchill, chapter regent, and Miss Katharine Hansen.

Matron Returns From East

Mrs. E. W. Endicott has returned to her home in Roseburg after spending five weeks in the east. She was in Rochester, Minn., a greater part of the time with her father who is recovering from an operation. She also visited in Kansas City and Lawrence, Kansas, with friends and enroute home stopped in Denver for a visit.

Miss McClintock Entertains Class

Miss Vera McClintock invited members of the Standard Bearer class to her home on Tuesday evening for an informal treat. The announcement was made that Mrs. Leroy Hatt will be the new leader for the class. Spending the evening were the Misses Pauline Baber, Frances Butner, Dorothy Grimes, Shirley Knight, Helen Bergh, Jean Whitney, Hazel Strickland, Alma Rice, Jessie Judd, Hazel Marchbanks, Margaret Hewitt, Elizabeth Abraham, Doris M. Marsters, Leda Gersham, Phyllis Shields and the hostess.

Club Women Hear Talk by Portland Man

W. C. Schuppert of Portland, assistant manager of the Oregon state insurance company, was in attendance at the meeting of the Roseburg Club Women on Tuesday afternoon and gave an address to club women on "Getting the things you want." Mr. Schuppert was presented by Mrs. M. McClintock.

Mrs. V. B. Jones, president of the club, presided at the address meeting. A social solo by Mrs. V. B. Jones, accompanied by Miss Gladys Strong, delighted the group preceding Mr. Schuppert's talk.

Groups Meet to Sew This Week

Groups of ladies met at the homes of Mrs. Max Meyers and Mrs. A. E. Gause one afternoon this week to sew for a Simon Varley family who recently lost all effects when their home was destroyed by fire. At the close of the afternoon refreshments were served by the hostesses of both groups.

Included in the list meeting for the afternoon were Mrs. Paine, Mrs. Kitzman, Mrs. J. M. Ritter, Mrs. Epperly, Mrs. J. C. Ritter, Mrs. Estelle Roberts, Mrs. Elsie McComas, Mrs. E. D. Penning, Mrs. John Burkhardt, Mrs. F. L. Bodley, Mrs. E. W. Sharp, Mrs. C. E. Tyneblood, Mrs. Oboya, Mrs. E. E. Drollinger, Ruth Bradford, Mary Teater, and the two hostesses.

Mrs. Harness Bids Club for Afternoon

Mrs. Russell Harness provided a pleasant afternoon for the members of the Northside Sunshine Club at her home on Thursday, asking them for sewing followed by luncheon at the tea hour. A waxy Easter day centerpiece was used at the table.

Enjoying the afternoon were the Mesdames Virginia Bush, Robert Chilton, Minnie Gaby, C. H. Cavender, Mrs. Fisher, Grand Patti, Roscoe Marsters and an added guest, Mrs. J. W. Danderton, and the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. McAllister went to Grants Pass Easter day to be the guests of relatives for that day.

ETHEL

— AND THE GIRL AT THE WHEEL TO-DAY

THERE IS NO ONE SMART COSTUME THIS SEASON

Any Number of Them Attain the Height of Style—Chic Expresses Itself in Simplicity as These Smart New Yorkers Bear Witness

Mrs. T. M. Robertson

By Betsy Schuyler

NBA Service Writer.

NEW YORK, April 22.—Looking over fashion's domain, one thought and only one crystallizes out of the atmosphere: "There is no such thing as the smart costume." Any number of them fairly shout "style" at you.

complicated cut, together with an effect of simplicity.

Restraint
Of course restraint has always been handmaiden to good taste, but given the simple silhouette, the general idea of either a two piece costume or a one-piece with the waist not too pinched and sleeves long or full at all, and fashion exerts all her ingenuity to create variety in detail.

Yokes and yoke effects either on shoulders or hips are extremely chic. I noticed Cora Legg chose a cream pointed lace yoke and fitted cuffs to match to mark as smart the blue crepe satin frock she wore to the last meeting of the debutante committee for the Butterfly Ball.

Triangular Buttons
Faustina Morro's given crepe silk frock, at one of these meetings, conceived chic in terms of triangular buttons of autumn coloring edging the collar and cuffs, running down the front and even encircling flowers on the skirt pocket.

Mina Duffree Arbuckle was the cynosure of envious gazes at a Ritz tea when she wore a soft black felt hat, brimless, with a tall crown that had three large creamy-pink roses cascading down to her shoulder like trailing arabes, from the right side.

Lydia Baldwin wore a tomato red flat crepe daytime dress with matching red oval wooden beads and was extremely stunning in the setting.

I saw June Hess and Grace Tingue at the Drake attending a meeting for the Butterfly Ball and both looked as fresh as spring flowers in their printed costumes.

June Hess's printed pussy-willow in four tones of blue tied itself snugly both at the V neckline and at the waistline. All of its richness came in a pleated front, inserted panel that had a real oriental up-in-the-front hitch to it. Fresh georgette formed the tiny vest.

June Hess and Grace Tingue

latest dinner ting which she wore to Sherry's last week. Oblong diamonds form the band. Everyone, it seems, must have at least two, or preferably more wedding rings. A wedding ring for each costume may be the next slogan.

Leather Insets
I noticed that Mrs. T. M. Robertson is welcoming spring days in a marvellous blue soft woolen coat that is entirely novel in the way contrasting blue leather insets are placed lengthwise from neck to cuffs. Smart blue pumps, blue purse and hat make her an outstanding example of how blue the smart women is this spring.

Runyans Entertain Group at Five Hundred

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Runyan invited a group of intimate friends to their home on Monday for an informal evening of five hundred followed by a supper. Bowls of buttercups were a pretty decorative note in the room.

Included in the group enjoying the evening were Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Heinline, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Bubar, Mr. and Mrs. Washington Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Bubar, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. W. Wharton and the hosts. The first prizes were received by Mrs. Morgan and Mr. Wharton.

Portland Folk Guests at Harding Home

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Harding had a guests at their home on Watson street for a few days this week, Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Keller of Portland. Mr. Keller is co-owner of the Benson hotel. They have been on an extended trip through California and Arizona. Mr. and Mrs. Harding entertained at dinner and bridge to Mr. and Mrs. Keller on Thursday evening.

Group Asked for Luncheon and Matinee

Mrs. T. B. Viridin entertained this afternoon for her two daughters, the Misses Eugenia and Louise Viridin, asking a group of their young friends for one o'clock luncheon, followed by a matinee.

May baskets filled with aprons, blossoms were used in the room and at the table and miniature baskets with flowers marked the 18 covers. Miss Dorothy Marsters assisted Mrs. Viridin.

Matrons Entertain With Afternoon Affairs

Mrs. Lee A. Wells and Mrs. L. B. Riddle were hostesses at two attractive afternoon affairs this week at the home of the former in Laurelwood, continuing a series given preceding Easter-tide at which they have entertained groups of prominent society matrons.

On Tuesday they invited a number for bridge and luncheon. First prize was won by Mrs. A. D. Abbott, second prize by Mrs. B. Casey and consolation prize went to Mrs. J. R. Wharton. They have asked a group of matrons for the afternoon again today.

Mrs. E. B. Stewart Invites Group for Bridge

Mrs. E. B. Stewart asked the matrons of the Entre Nous club and a few additional guests to her home on Moore street, Thursday afternoon, arranging three tables of bridge.

Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. R. K. Keller of Portland, Mrs. A. J. Hochradel, Mrs. H. C. Church, Mrs. Leon McClintock, Mrs. H. C. Waddell and the members were Mrs. A. G. Sutherland, Mrs. J. A. Harding, Mrs. H. D. Harris, Mrs. A. D. Abbott, Mrs. Joseph A. Denn, Mrs. J. C. Bonner.

Group Honors G. W. Cooper Monday

G. W. Cooper was honored at an interesting evening affair Monday at his home at Dixonville, the occasion being his birthday anniversary. Music and games were diversions of the evening and afterward a supper was served. A large cake, center with burning pins and blue candles, was cut by the honor guest.

Spending the evening were Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Boise, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. John Tinscho, Miss Tina Tinscho, Miss Lucille Cooper, Miss Thelma Cox, Miss Lenore Helliwell, Miss Edna Cox, Miss Agnes Fredrickson, Miss Grace Matlock, and Mariowee Christopherson, Leo Matlock, Albert DeBernardi, Leonard Cooper, Burrell Tinscho, Harold Barker, Kenneth Conn, Albert Fredrickson.

Mrs. Heinline Entertains Book Club

Mrs. C. H. Heinline arranged a charming one o'clock luncheon for the matrons of the Book Club and added guests on Thursday. Profusions of gay colored wild blossoms decorated the room and a large brass bowl of buttercups centered the luncheon table. Yellow chicks were used about the table and Easter eggs in yellow, lavender and pink marked each cover.

During the afternoon the group sewed and held a discussion of Al Smith's reply to Gov. Marshall. Guests were Mrs. Foster Butner, Mrs. A. J. Young and members present were Mrs. Washington Hughes, Mrs. Dean Bubar, Mrs. Paul Bubar, Mrs. Wm. Bell, Mrs. W. H. Fisher, Mrs. Chas. W. Wharton and Mrs. M. F. Rice.

Guild Members Have Pleasant Evening

The girls of the World Wide Guild of the Baptist church spent a pleasant evening on Tuesday as guests of Mrs. Earl Crawford at her home on Winchester street. The members of the guild played to give a Mothers' Day banquet at the Baptist church on the Friday preceding Mothers' Day in observance of the occasion. A program will be given in conjunction with the banquet.

During the evening the regular missionary program occupied the attention of the group and at the close a buffet luncheon was enjoyed. About 24 attended.

Mrs. Cecil Richards Honored at Pretty Affair Thursday

Mrs. Harry Barr and Mrs. Lyle Davis entertained at the home of the former Thursday evening with bridge and a shower honoring Mrs. Cecil Richards, who with her mother, Mrs. W. W. Peter, left Friday to make her home at Wilder, Idaho, asking a number of the honor guests' intimate friends.

Bridge honors were held by Mrs. Crosby of Medford and second prize was received by Mrs. Arthur Knauas.

Luncheon followed at one large table and smaller tables. Cana lilies and sweet peas were used in the decorations. Bidden were Mrs. Cecil Richards, Mrs. Arthur Knauas, Mrs. W. W. Peter, Mrs. C. D. Weber, Mrs. Crosby, Mrs. W. A. Barr, Mrs. James Smith, Mrs. Clyde Carstensen, Mrs. Will H. Gerretsen, Mrs. Woodley Stephenson, Mrs. R. C. Blaxall, Mrs. M. C. Ellison, Mrs. Horace Berg, Mrs. Lester Endicott, Mrs. L. L. Littlefield and Mrs. Heskett Baker.

Young Matron Honored at Afternoon Affair

The matrons of the young married peoples class of the First Baptist church spent a pleasant afternoon on Thursday as guests at the home of Mrs. A. B. Taylor on South Stephens street, the occasion honoring Mrs. George Caskey. The group chatted and enjoyed games and at the close of the afternoon luncheon was served at prettily appointed tables.

Included in the guest list were the Mesdames George Caskey, Frank B. Matthews, Clinton Corby, Alma Spanish, Warren Cloake, Paul Caskey, George Caskey, Joe Nicholson of Eugene, Nelson, Cyrus, Ritter, Stafferson.

Matrons Bid Group for Sewing and Bridge

Notable among the larger affairs of the week was the afternoon of bridge and sewing Monday at which Mrs. S. J. Shoemaker and Mrs. Guy Gordon entertained a number of smart matrons. The group of the former on East Lane street. Decorations in keeping with the spring season brightened the attractive rooms.

At the bridge tables Mrs. J. C. Humie received first prize and Mrs. S. L. Kilder second. The sewing prize went to Mrs. E. F. Maiden. The luncheon tables were charming with appointments in harmony with the rooms.

Bidden were the Mesdames R. L. Whipple, S. G. Sellick, C. S. McElhinny, H. Clay Dwyer, E. B. Stewart, C. B. Wade, C. K. Allen, G. V. Wimberly, J. R. Wharton, W. F. Harris, R. E. Geisner, D. C. Ziegler, Kenneth Quinn, Horace Berg, Greta Thornton, J. C. Bonner, S. L. Kilder, Paul Bubar, Roy Catching, Ralph Quinn, H. C. Church, A. A. Wilder, W. S. Jost, J. A. Harding, Wm. Bell, J. F. Barker, A. G. Sutherland, J. Harold Nichols, C. A. Lockwood, Chas. W. Wharton, Geo. Johnson, J. E. Sawyers, Lee A. Wells, L. B. Riddle, J. C. Humie, B. Casey, Dave Lenox, Geo. E. Honick, W. G. Paul, E. F. Maiden, Bert Wells, M. E. Shoemaker, B. R. Shoemaker, Gerald Geddes, Frank Lilburn, Geo. Wharton, Foster Butner, Ned Nixon, F. W. Chase, R. L. Bathrick, Carl Wimberly, A. M. Knudsen, Miss Gertrude Rast and Mrs. Hess Wharton.

Evening Bridge Club Meets at Denn Home

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Denn were bridge and supper hosts on Wednesday, inviting to their home members of their bridge club and added guests.

At the end of the game supper covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Keller of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Harding, Mr. and Mrs. Ben C. Ziegler, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Abbott and the hosts.

Old Fashioned Dancing Party Enjoyed

Members of Neighbors of Woodcraft, their families and a number of added guests spent a delightful evening Monday at an old-fashioned dancing party at the Knights of Pythias hall. In addition several (Continued on page 3.)

FLAPPER FANNY SAYS:

A man may keep his wife in clothes, but he can't keep her in money.