BIGGEST STAGE IN WEST PLANNED SHOWING ROSARIA

PORTLAND, April 29—Entirely new and original idea in stage construction and operation are being worked out in the building of the production of Rosaria, pageant feature of the annual Rose Festival in Portland June 12 to 18. There will be 3,000 actors, singers and dancers in the cast.

The stage will be the largest ever erected in the West, and will be equipped with the largest and greatest assortment of scenery ever assembled for a Western production either indoors or in the open air.

Because of the size of the sets required in keeping with the unusually large proportions on which the entire pageant is worked out, the shifting of scenes with a minimum of delay and confusion presented a problem that has been solved by the perfection of a scheme of construction and mechanical equipment that will lift the heavy sets by counterweight action, through the floor of the stage. It will be possible to place the "drops," each 112 feet long and 24 feet high, smoothly and noiselessly, in 15 seconds, with a minimum of stage help that will be out of sight at all times.

There will be five complete changes in the action of Rosaria, the finale ballet being staged against a background of Mount Hood, 60 feet high.

The open air theatre stage will include an apron for the dance numbers, 162 feet long and 44 feet across, the first stage level will be 80 feet wide and 40 feet deep. One hundred and sixty thousand feet of lumber will be used in construction of the stage. Four thousand yards of burlap and two tons of paint has been ordered for manufacture of the scenery. One hundred thousand watt lamps will be used as footlights, and 1200 gelatine frames will be used for color effects.

THEATRES

LIBERTY THEATRE
If you like Jetta Goudal on the screen, you usually rave about her. If you are one of those who don't appreciate the exotic, the distinctive, the "different," but are open to conviction you will probably join the rapidly growing legion of Goudal enthusiasts when you see the emotional Jetta in "Fighting Love," her latest starring vehicle, at the Liberty theatre tonight.
"Fighting Love" is one of the most stimulating stories of that prolific and popular writer of best-sellers, Rostia Forbes. Action, color and exciting that takes in a wide range of territory, from the exotic atmosphere of Italy to the exotic environment of the Orient; intrigue, romance and high adventure, make this one of the really noteworthy pictures of the season. There is real drama in the story, genuine suspense in the building up of the sequences, and a vivid characterization by the magnetic Miss Goudal.

Fires for the sake of fire prevention.
This is the paradoxical occurrence in "The Fire Brigade," the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture coming to the Liberty theatre on Sunday. Several spectacular fires are included in this feature which was produced by Hunt Stromberg in cooperation with the International Order of Fire Engineers as means of promoting fire prevention. May McAvoy and Charles Ray head the cast.

ANTLERS THEATRE
Laugh waves mingled with crime waves are the ruling forces of "Too Many Crooks," the Paramount picture which is now running at the Antlers theatre.
The photoplay which marks Mildred Davis' return to the screen after an absence of almost four years, is a farce comedy of a wealthy debutante who believes she is capable of writing a good creek drama. To show realism she invites four members of New York's best underworld society to her home for a week-end party but she may study them first hand—which is what starts the laughs, mixups and thrills.

Through the entire production, despite its farcical nature, there runs a fine thread of romance between Miss Davis and Lloyd Hughes, who is co-starred with her.

Ion-a-tone, Dr. Smith's magnetic belt is absolutely as good as ion-a-co and sells for $18.50 less money. Why pay more? 1253 Winchester street.

FLASHES OF LIFE

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)

NEW YORK—Al Smith shall be no villain. A plan for him to play in a melodrama for the benefit of his old parish church has been abandoned. The rush for 800 tickets was too great. There were some offers of $100 a ticket. And there were misgivings about possible pictures of a potential presidential candidate. And Mayor Walker, who also was to take part, has a date to attend the Kentucky derby.

PHILADELPHIA—Senator Willis of Ohio left no doubt when in a speech before the Methodist men's council he predicted that some "eminent governors" would not be elected president. Digressing from his prepared speech he explained: "I meant nothing personal when I referred to Governor Alcohol Smith."

ROME—A conference of the adversaries of prohibition here next month will be attended by 200 delegates from eleven European countries. The United States will not be represented. Scientific arguments will be set forth.

LONDON—Big Bill Thompson is welcome to study England's preparations for war against Chicago. An invitation for a visit was extended in a banquet speech by Lord Lee of Fareham.

NEW YORK—Creditors of Mrs. Rita de Costa Lydig hope to realize something from her new book depicting what she terms the "tragic futility of fashionable life." They intend to attach the proceeds. Their lawyers say they will examine her as to the reports that she is receiving an income of $40,000 a year. In her bankruptcy petition she listed debts of $94,000.

PHILADELPHIA—Homer Saint Gaudens, who thinks that over-emphasis of business is responsible for "ard" lives of most Americans, has a recipe for making efficiency

A "Different" Attitude

The attitude of the Safeway Man toward his work is "different." It is reflected in the manner in which he serves you—the genuine interest he takes in seeing that everything is exactly as you like it. There are several reasons for this. First, he is just naturally that kind of a fellow—has to be to qualify as a Safeway Man. Again—if he has reached the position of manager—he shares liberally in the profits of his store. He gets almost a third of the net earnings—plus a salary. Also, he probably owns stock in the company—actually is "one of the owners of the business." This feeling of being vitally concerned in the progress of the business is shown in his efforts to serve you pleasantly, efficiently, and economically.
