All Contributions to this Page—Society, Women's Clubs, and Personals—Should Be Telephoned to the Society Editor by Friday of Each Week.

Tea, bridge and sewing parties, luncheons, and last of all, showers for June brides-elect, have made the week past an extremely interesting and wholly delightful one.

Several large events the first of the week took place, among them the dance and bazaar sponsored by the Business and Professional Women's club at Umpqua park on Monday evening. Numerous circles were present for the occasion, and with such a variety of diversions arranged for the evening every one found something in the way of interest. The proceeds are being used by the club to send the delegates to the state and national convention, the former taking place this weekend in Corvallis. The delegates from the Roseburg club attending are: Virginia Kohlhaugen, May Byron, Virginia Riggs and Effie Stanford. Dr. Lucetta Smith, president of the club, and Mrs. J. K. Falho, both members of the state executive committee, are also attending.

Of the events on the social calendar none could have been more gay than the bridge-ten at the Roseburg Country club which claimed the attention of a large number of women members of the club and guests. These affairs are to be continued in a bridge tournament, opening next month, one to take place each month during the summer, at the end of the period a prize to be awarded the player with the highest score. The series will not only keep alive interest in bridge during the vacation period but will afford devotees an opportunity for one keen competition each month.

Tuesday seemed singled out as a day for entertaining for on that evening the members of the Kiwanis club were hosts for their wives and mothers at a pleasing dinner in observance of Mother's Day at the Umpqua hotel.

The latter part of the week has been filled with a variety of social afternoon affairs, club meetings and events arranged by different organizations to raise money for the Red Cross in aiding those in the flood areas.

Mrs. M. J. Shoemaker and Mrs. B. R. Shennaker are having their friends together at a series of affairs. They are entertaining a group of twenty-two at the dining room of the former on Blakeley street at a luncheon and sewing party this afternoon and will be hostesses again on Tuesday and Friday of the coming week.

Mrs. W. F. Chapman and Mrs. A. Baum will be hostesses at three charming parties next week, asking groups of their friends for two bridge-luncheons and a sewing party.

The period for summer trips is almost at hand, several parties already having started on motor tours of the south or visits to famous points on the Pacific coast. Several are planning trips at the close of the school season, among them Mrs. Pearl Heath and Miss M. Ring, who are leaving Roseburg June 10 to visit in the east after which they will sail for Europe from New York City on June 29. They will spend the summer abroad studying art.

This is also the time for the opening of summer homes, several having been opened for the week end or an afternoon or so during the week.

Bride-Elect Is Honored at Dinner and Shower Friday

For the pleasure of Miss Lois Cobb, a charming bride-elect whose marriage to Virgil M. Cameron of Eugene will be a near event, Mrs. H. Lee Connolly planned a lovely dinner party and shower on Friday evening, bidding to her home on East Douglas street intimate friends of the bride-elect.

The table was colorfully set with a lavender and pink motif and pink candelabra shed a soft light on the appointments. Tiny cards attached to ribbons extending from the centerpiece were found at each cover and made known the wedding date, June 1. Covers were placed for Miss Lois Cobb, honoree, Mrs. Harrie Booth, Mrs. Wm. Cox, Mrs. Geo. M. Bradburn, Mrs. Fred Lockwood, Mrs. Donald Hellqvist, Miss Evelyn Quine, Miss Verita Kohlhaugen, Miss Vera McMillin, Miss Pernie Iversen, Miss Rosina Porter, Miss Vivian Orre and Mrs. Connolly.

The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Wm. Cox. The honor guest was the recipient of many lovely gifts for her bridal chest and during the evening the group sewed for the bride-elect.

Miss Sanders Is Hostess for Group

Miss Mary Sanders entertained a few friends informally on Tuesday evening at Brand's Stand north of this city, arranging dancing, a fruit display house. At the close refreshments were served.

Enjoying the evening were Misses Pave Geddes, Marjory Cochran, Mildred Cochran, Alleen Bruecker, Mary Sanders and Clifford Hess, Ivan Elliott, Adolph Byers and Keith Atterbury.

Bridge-Tea at Club Attractive Affair

Tuesday Afternoon

The bridge-ten at the Roseburg Country Club on Tuesday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock for lady members and guests was as wholly delightful as the anticipation was eager preceding the event, and over 90 prominent women attended during the afternoon.

The club rooms and veranda were transformed with profusions of lovely blossoms in baskets and bowls, snapdragons, appleblossoms and wild flowers combined with twigs of tamarack predominating in the springlike setting. Twenty tables of bridge were in play and honors for the afternoon were held by Mrs. J. M. Judd. Several groups found pleasure in sewing.

Mrs. George E. Houck and Mrs. J. P. Barker provided at the tea and coffee urns at the tables and Mrs. W. F. Chapman, chairman of the affair, with Mrs. A. Baum, Mrs. Chas. B. Wade, Mrs. Joseph A. Deen, Mrs. Irvin Bruun, Mrs. George Smith, Mrs. A. A. Wilder, and Mrs. L. G. Broadway had charge of the tables and assisted in the rooms.

The affair was one of the most colorful of spring events to be given at the club and the money derived will be used in refurnishing and decorating the club rooms. These bridge-teas will be continued during the summer months, the women of the club opening a bridge tournament next month, keeping the scores until the end of the season when they will be totaled and a grand prize will be awarded the player having the highest number of points.

Mrs. Sutherland Club Hostess Wednesday

Mrs. A. G. Sutherland entertained the members of the Entre Nous club and added guests at the home of Mrs. J. C. Pohler on West Oak street Wednesday, arranging three tables of bridge. Lady Hill-Ingdon rooms were used in decorations in the rooms.

Honors for the afternoon were held by Mrs. E. B. Stewart. Refreshments were served at the end of the game. Guests were Mrs. J. E. Love, of Eugene, and Mrs. Leon McClintock and club members present were Mrs. A. D. Abbott, Mrs. H. D. Harris, Mrs. A. Harding, Mrs. Joseph A. Deen, Mrs. E. B. Stewart, Mrs. J. C. Ponsler and Mrs. Sutherland.

Mrs. C. A. Lockwood is having a series of delightful afternoons at her country home, Rumble Inn, on the Umpqua, entertaining various groups at bridge or sewing on each Wednesday. She asked a few this week for an informal time.

Shower Honors Mary McCullagh

Miss Gladys Collins planned a charming affair for this afternoon honoring Miss Mary McCullagh, an attractive bride-elect, at a shower at the home of Mrs. Albert Abraham on Spruce street. Twenty intimate friends of the honor guest were bidden.

The rooms were brightened with profusions of spring flowers in colorful arrangements. During the afternoon the guests enjoyed refreshments for the honor guest, who received numerous lovely gifts for her bridal chest.

At the tea hour luncheon covers were placed for Miss Mary McCullagh, Mrs. M. F. Rice, Mrs. B. Casey, Mrs. J. K. Falho, Mrs. Milton Church, Mrs. W. M. Campbell, Mrs. H. M. Moreland, Mrs. J. M. Judd, Mrs. H. E. Larsen, Miss Hazel Goodwin, Miss Helen Casey, Miss Naomi Scott, Miss Alice Deland, Miss Maxine Lamb, Miss Frances Wright, Miss Edna Sandblom, Miss Eva Rice, Miss Georgia Engle, Miss Lucetta Smith, Miss Virginia Riggs, Miss Cresta Jacobs and the hostess.

Miss McCullagh is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. McCullagh, former residents of Roseburg, who are now making their home in California. Her marriage to Lee Stewart of Corvallis will be an event of June 11.

Couple Weds at Pretty Ceremony

On Saturday evening, May 7, a very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Rand on Hamilton street, when Walter Rand and Velma Poe were united in marriage by Rev. C. S. Coherly.

A wedding supper was served, covers being placed for members of the immediate families.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Loren Harvey, of Cottage Grove.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Rand have a large circle of friends in this city.

For the meeting of the Shelton Club next week Mrs. James Soules has invited the members to her home for the afternoon.

Approaching Marriage Former Maid of Interest

The following, taken from a recent edition of a Salem paper, is of interest to Miss Marster's large circle of friends in the city. The bride-elect is a member of a family well known both in Douglas and Whittemette valleys, former residents of this city, where Miss Marster and her sister attended school.

At an attractive dinner last night at the Walter L. Spaulding home at which Mrs. Spaulding and Mrs. Ralph Glover were hostesses, announcement was made that Miss Sylvia Marster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Marster, has named June 7 as the date of her wedding to Wade Ellis, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Ellis.

Tiny cards bearing the names of the betrothed and the date of the wedding were cleverly hidden in a huge basket of May time flowers—columbine, tulips, baby breath, with honeysuckle and wild iris—that centered the table. A tiny bride marked each cover and little streamers led from the place card bridges to the little notes in the flowers, each fastened to the message with a wedding ring.

The living rooms of the Spaulding home were beautifully decked with iris and tulips.

The guest group included Miss Marster, Miss Edith Lindsay, Miss Nancy Savage, Miss Grace Holt, Mrs. Sam Burkhardt, Miss Irene Bradford, Miss Laverne Kantner, Miss Jessie Miller, Miss Esther Erickson, Miss Dorothy Ellis, Mrs. Ben Ramseyer, Mrs. Waldo Marsters, Miss Lillian Barnett, Miss Velma Rominger, Miss Mabel Savage and Miss Maxine Glover.

Conservatory Recital Series to Open

Mrs. C. S. Heinline of the Heinline Conservatory has announced the dates for the spring recitals of the conservatory pupils, the first taking place May 18 with another following on May 26, both to be given at the First Methodist Episcopal church. Pupils of Mrs. Heinline and Mr. Germain, assisted by students of the voice department and readings by Marjorie Miller and Mrs. Bertha Hodges, will be presented.

On May 19 the voice recital of the students of Mrs. Charles Brand will be given at the First Methodist Episcopal church.

At the conservatory recital hall on May 22 the dancing pupils of Miss Lucille Sappington will be presented and on May 31 at the First Methodist Episcopal church the students of Miss Naomi Scott will be assisted by Lucy Scott Towner, her sister, who is a concert pianist of note, and Miss Helen Casey, soprano.

Local Matron Is Delegate State Assembly

Mrs. S. M. Kelley, who is the official delegate from Roseburg to the Redback lodge No. 41, I. O. O. F., to the state assembly in Astoria, left today for that city to attend the sessions which continue through next week. Mrs. Kelley is being accompanied by her mother, Mrs. F. L. Russell, who will spend the week visiting in Astoria.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Pfland were dinner hosts on Wednesday evening for Mr. and Mrs. George Reynolds.

Umpqua Squaws Make Plans for Carnival

The Umpqua Squaws met on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. W. B. Day, Mrs. Day and Mrs. Forrest Six joining in entertaining the group.

Most of the evening was taken up with arrangements for the annual carnival this month. Mrs. Horace Berg is in charge of the baby parade again this year and is planning additional sections to the parade as a feature. The Umpqua Squaws are extending every effort to get as many people as possible interested and to enter their children in the parade, which will be one of the most unusual and delightful of recent years.

As a feature of their part in the carnival the Squaws will have their booth on one of the street corners and sell strawberries and shortcake.

The organization is also making extensive plans for a float to be entered in the parade. Mrs. Lyman Spencer is in charge.

The Umpqua Squaws have added a donation to the relief fund, giving $10 for the flood stricken area.

Aside from called meetings, the last meeting preceding the vacation period will be in the form of a picnic and social affair on June 12 at which the Squaws will entertain the Umpqua Chiefs.

At the close of the evening the hostesses served a supper.

Mrs. Standley Entertains Club

Mrs. Vera Standley entertained for the meeting of the Camas Valley Neighborhood club on Thursday, arranging sewing for the division of the afternoon. A short business meeting followed and refreshments were served.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Ethel Brown, Mrs. A. Wood, Mrs. N. Hollenbeck, Mrs. W. Brown, Mrs. A. Smith, Mrs. L. Dick, Mrs. Edna Reetz, Mrs. Ruth Lawson, Mrs. Mildred Russell, Mrs. J. R. Russell, Miss Beale Brown and the hostess.

Then and Now

Fullerton P. T. A. Has Last Meeting of the Year

The Fullerton P. T. A. held the last and one of the most enjoyable meetings of the year on Thursday, May 12, guests for the evening being former members and next year's beginners.

The health nurses, Miss Millgate, Mrs. Blake and Miss Atwood, all gave interesting talks along their lines of work.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster Butler, J. E. McClintock, R. W. Marster and Mrs. J. E. Runyan each spoke of the achievements of the early years of the organization. Mrs. Louis Kohlhaugen, Mrs. A. B. Minn and Mrs. J. O. Arthur and Dr. Lee A. Wells told of the accomplishments of the last four years in work. Each gave the outstanding feature of their term of office.

W. M. Campbell made a few remarks on P. T. A. work, stating that he hoped as much would be done in the next fifteen years as had been accomplished in the past.

The new officers for the ensuing year were then installed and the following committees named: program, Mrs. Frank Liburn, Miss Swinney, and Mrs. Brown; reception, Mrs. Lee A. Wells, Mrs. Stephens and Mrs. Carpenter; grounds and press, Mr. Probie, Dr. Lee A. Wells and Mrs. Peterson; membership, Mrs. A. B. Minn, Mrs. C. Gorthy, Mrs. J. O. Arthur, and Mrs. Cyrus; magazine, Mr. E. Hellivell and Mrs. Rhoades.

Miss Swinney held a spelling contest from words sent out by the Oregon Teacher's association survey which proved very entertaining.

Light refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

Youngs Entertain Wisconsin Man

E. J. Schilling of Abbotford, Wisconsin, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Young at their home on Flint street for a week, left mid-week for his home in the east. Mr. Schilling has been spending the winter in Florida and Havana.

Club Meets to Bid Adieu to Couple

Mr. and Mrs. J. Wendell Wright entertained at their home at 1125 East Third street the members of the Northside Five Hundred Club one evening last week, the occasion being arranged to honor Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Hartley, members of the club who left Friday to make their home in Tecoma.

At 7 o'clock dinner was followed by five hundred. The evening's honors went to Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Church. At play were Mrs. Irvin Bruun, Mrs. S. G. Sells, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Hartley, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Whipple, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Wimberly, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Cracker, Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Church and Mr. and Mrs. A. Hochradel, guests, and the hosts.

Matrons Continue Series of Smart Affairs

Mrs. T. H. Ness, Mrs. Willard Johnson and Mrs. H. M. Moreland, continuing their series of lovely spring parties at which they have been entertaining groups of their friends, arranged a one o'clock luncheon, followed by bridge and sewing, at the Ness home in Laurelwood last Saturday afternoon.

The rooms were brightened with fragrant spring blossoms arranged in bowls and baskets and pastel colors were used in the luncheon appointments.

Mrs. W. F. Chapman, Mrs. A. Erickson, Miss Mona Porter, Miss Marion Ness and Miss Kathleen Ness assisted at the tables and in the rooms.

There were five tables of bridge in play and twelve at the sewing table. Miss Helen Casey received the bridge prize, second prize going to Mrs. W. F. Harris and the sewing prize to Miss Frances Wright.

Musical Given at Canyonville Enjoyed

The musical given at Canyonville to observe National Music Week was one of the features of the week enjoyed by a great number of people.

The program included a vocal solo by Mrs. Norris Fairbanks, of Clatsop, a number by the Girls Glee club of the high school, selections by the Community Male Chorus, a violin solo by Jeanne Mahoney, numbers by the piano pupils of Hedwig Watzig, all showing painstaking study and musical understanding and enjoyed by the audience.

The Community Chorus, made up of voices of Canyonville and Riddle people, will complete a busy season with a concert and minstrel act at Canyonville on the evening of May 20. Under the direction of Hedwig Watzig, a very capable committee is completing arrangements for the minstrel act.

Small Maid Has Anniversary Party

For Marion Elizabeth Church, the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Church, on her third birthday anniversary, Mrs. Church planned an attractive afternoon party on Thursday, holding 13 of her daughter's small friends.

Games were arranged on the lawn and at the end of the afternoon refreshments were served from a table in the yard. A large birthday cake with candles was the centerpiece.

The guest list included Patricia McClintock, Carolyn Allen, Virginia Gilmore, Betty Whipple, Mary Louis Roland, Nancy Roland, Charlotte Hays, Patricia Jones, Barbara Rimmer, Patricia Truitt, Shirley Mae Brown, Joan Hume and Doris Ann Shoenmaker. Mrs. C. K. Allen, Mrs. Leon McClintock and Mrs. E. P. Russell assisted Mrs. Church during the afternoon.

Junior P. T. A. to Have Extensive Program Tuesday Evening

An extensive and very interesting program is being prepared for the last meeting of the year of the Junior High School P. T. A. on Tuesday evening of next week at the school building. Among the important matters of business to come before the association will be the election of officers for the ensuing year and reports. The president, Mrs. R. D. Williams, will preside. Mrs. Williams will be the official district delegate from this parent-teacher council to attend the National Congress of Parents and Teachers at Oakland, California, the week of May 21 to 28, inclusive, and is leaving next Friday for the south.

The program, to which all parents and teachers as well as those interested in P. T. A. work are invited, will follow the business meeting. It is as follows: Introduction of the Junior High Boy Scouts.

Selections by Girls' Glee Club—(a) Violet Landon, (b) Sing Along, Penna., (c) The Water Lily, Rhys-Iterbert.

(d) A Song of Mother, Parla. (e) Berceuse, Godard; clarinet, Mervyn Beals; piano, Ethel Beals. (f) I Have Signed to Rest, Thee, Verdi; saxophone, Mervyn Beals; piano, Ethel Beals.

Occupation Skit, Girls occupations division. Duet, Coletta and Euleia. Langanberg.

Dialogue, Samuel's Proposal, Louise Hughes, Dorothy Duce Jackson.

Following the program, which will be given under the direction of Miss Goodwin, an exhibition of school work will be held.

The home economics department will have an interesting display of garments made during the past semester. Art and penmanship will include work from all the city grade schools and the junior high school. Work done by the boys of the Industrial art classes will also be on display. A special art exhibition of famous masterpieces will be held in the girls' rest room. An admission will be charged. The proceeds are to be used in purchasing good pictures for the various schools of Roseburg.

A display of regular school work will be held in the halls of the second floor. Every student of the junior high school will be represented in some way.

Woman's Club to Elect at Meeting

The important matter of annual election of officers in the Roseburg Woman's Club will center the attention of the club women at the meeting next Tuesday afternoon at the I. O. O. F. hall and as various items of business are to be taken up it is desired that all members are present for the session.

Aside from the election there will be the annual reports of officers and chairmen of committees who have had charge of the various affairs during the club year. A social hour will follow and refreshments will be served.

This will be practically the last meeting of the club until fall, the year's activities closing with a picnic next month, at which the delegates to the state convention at Bend at the end of this month will make reports. Mrs. H. D. Harris and Mrs. A. G. McMillin are the official delegates to the convention.

Ponslers Hosts at Bridge Party Saturday

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ponsler were hosts on Saturday evening, asking to their home on West Oak street, the members of their bridge club. The rooms were colorfully with back and bookshelves of Scotch broom and appleblossoms. Honors for the evening went to Mrs. A. G. Sutherland and Gene Parrott.

A supper was served at the end of the game, covers being placed for Mrs. H. D. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Harding, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Abbott, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Deen, Gene Parrott and the hosts.

Mrs. Dean Bubar Luncheon Hostess for Club Monday

Mrs. Dean Bubar arranged a lovely luncheon followed by bridge at her home for the meeting of the Monday Bridge club this week. Wistaria and branches of tamarack carried out the lavender and rose color motif in the rooms and a scheme of yellow at the table was formed with a low bowl of yellow poppies and candelabra.

The hostess was assisted by Mrs. John Thorne. The bridge prize went to Mrs. H. C. Waddell.

In addition to the club members present, Mrs. H. D. Harris, Mrs. H. C. Waddell, Mrs. J. C. Ponsler, Mrs. B. C. Ziegler, Mrs. Geo. A. Bradburn, Mrs. Wm. Bell, the guests were Mrs. J. R. Wharton and Mrs. John Thorne.

Mrs. A. D. Abbott and Mrs. A. J. Young have been elected to membership in the club.

Local Chapter D. A. R. Elects

The Roseburg chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, held the regular meeting at the home of Mrs. P. H. Churchill on East Cass street on Monday, holding election of officers among the various matters of importance.

GOWNS FOR GIRL GRADUATES

Modesty and Simplicity Are Their Motifs

BY HENRI BENDEL
For NEA Service.

NEW YORK, May 14.—This is the time of year when Fashion turns her spotlight on the "sweet girl graduate."

No one welcomes this season more than the couturier. For gowning the fresh, young beauty of the girl still in her teens is more a pleasure than a task.

I am adamant about certain rules for the graduation dress. It must capitalize the shy, sweet qualities that are inherent in the girl not yet out in the world.

No Sophistication

The graduation gown may have innocent grace that enhances a young girl's beauty. But the least sophisticated touch spoils it.

Modesty is the first rule. Long sleeves, an informal neckline, skirt over the knee cap and with enough fullness to permit sitting at ease.

Simplicity comes as the second guide post. Usually of white or some soft cream or beige shade, the graduation frock should have a total effect that spells smartness by simplicity. Georgettes, crepe Roma, lace and soft satins are best materials. No ribbons, bows, flowers, embroidery or gossams of any kind should it have.

Out of Place

One frock I will not make for graduation is the "party frock." Dresses without sleeves and with decorative necklines are absolutely out of place on the school platform at graduation time.

For a third rule, I always design a graduation frock so it may be used as a little dinner dress, or frock for the country club veranda after graduation. Future use is ever a consideration.

Diploma Time

One type of simple dress which I have found a favorite is fashioned of white crepe Roma, taking tiered ovals, insets or tuels in neckline effect as its unusual trimming. Its neckline is much the same line, a necklace makes. The skirt has front, back and side lap-shaped insets of tiny knife pleating and the tight cuffs ending the graceful sleeves and in a tucked inset.

This frock is especially suited to the girl who is inclined to be plump. For it is slightly flared and then caught tight at the hip-line with a ruffled belt that ends in a girlish bow.

Touch of Color

Of utterly different design is the exquisite beige thread run lace frock, pictured today. Eight little ruffles of the lace form the graceful skirt. Its narrow scarf collar gives it unique charm and a neckline extremely becoming to youth. For youth can stand a certain dignity and profit by it.

Its sleeves are slender and long, falling softly over the wrists onto the hand. The slightly flared waist is held in place by a lace belt which sports a buckle of white mold set with turquoise, a little touch of color for "good luck."

The Eyemard model in white georgette demonstrates this season's insistence upon tuels and more tuels for style. This two-piece model I have designed for an exclusive girls' school.

Pyramid Pleats

The pleats are extruded up the front and back of the house in the down to popular this spring. Three half-inch baste caught with the flash-light effect. Probably most interesting is the neck treatment—a bias fold forming the motif's collar which, instead of running around the neck, has its ends long to form a tie that gives youth to the model.
