PRUNE PICKIN'S

By BERT G. BATES

GOD EVENING FOLKS

Mercy, mercy, mercy—

If it ain't

Bath Night

Agin—

Time certainly scoots along merrily—don't it?

Semes like only last year that we hopped into a tub of suds.

But then, cleanliness is next to godliness—

And so many of us spend our time on the golf links Sunday—

That the least we can do is—

Take a bath on Satiddy night.

In the ol' days when we were just kids Maw uster hafta souse us in tubs and the procedin's took until about nine o'clock.

Nowadays the kids crowd the folks back and hop into the modern showers and tubs and by seven o'clock are off to the movies.

But then, our water awaits without—

Without wot? you ask—

Without us, of course!

S'long folks—

Hope you all have a nice clean change—

Of weather to morrow.

CHURCH NEWS

SPECIAL MEETINGS TO BE STARTED AT DILLARD

Evangelist James M. Taylor will begin a series of special meetings in the Methodist church at Dillard, Sunday May 23. Rev. Taylor arrived in Dillard Thursday and spoke at Camas Valley Thursday night and Ten Mile Friday night. He will speak Sunday morning and Sunday night in the Methodist church and Rev. Cheney, the district superintendent, will preach at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon. A real all-day meeting with old-fashioned picnic dinner at noon. Come and bring your basket and stay all day.

Rev. Taylor will spend the week here, preaching every night except Saturday on vital themes of the vital things of life and salvation. He will give much time to prophecy and the signs of the times, their relation to the second coming of our Lord, etc. Some of his themes for the first part of the week will be, "What is the Matter with Man?", "What is the Only Panacea for our 'Troubles'?", "What are We, and What Time is It?", "Who are the Jews—Then Who are You?" The entire week will be given to dealing with such themes as are vital and pertinent. They will interest you, instruct you, and if heeded will save you from much error. Come every night, the opportunity is great and it will soon pass.

T. F. ALLEN, pastor.

SPECIAL REQUEST

All members and friends of the Bible Standard Temple are requested to be present at the morning service at 11 Sunday. A special meeting will be held at this time in which all will be interested in. Be sure to be there. F. E. Crook, pastor.

NORTHWEST TO BE WORLD'S BUSINESS CENTER 50 YEARS

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)

NEW YORK, May 21.—World prosperity and culture is destined to center in the Pacific northwest within 50 years, according to a survey of the scientific probability made by Dr. J. Russell Smith, professor of economic geography at Columbia university.

Dr. Smith who is called the greatest international authority on his subject, has presented his conclusions in the American magazine, published today.

He expects an area extending 400 miles along the coast of Oregon and Washington, to outstrip New York.

Climate, water power and agricultural resources are three of the factors which point scientifically, he says, to the future ascendancy of the Pacific northwest.

O. A. C. OREGON ATHLETES VIE ON VERY POOR TRACK

EUGENE, Ore., May 21.—With the weather uncertain and the outcome of the meet even more uncertain, the Oregon Agricultural College University of Oregon track teams will battle it out in their annual dual meet here this afternoon.

Each team is doped as superior in six events, with the remaining three events uncertain. Breaks are expected to go a long way toward deciding the meet.

Heavy showers of the past few days, and overcast skies today, gave indication of a rather slow track.

RALPH TUCK ASSOCIATE MEMBER IN SIGMA XI

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, May 21.—(Special)—Ralph Tuck, of Roseburg, has been elected to associate membership in Sigma Xi, national science honorary, it has been announced. Tuck has been doing extensive research work on geology.

Nine students were elected to active membership in the recent election and 16 to associate membership.

Sigma Xi elects students to active membership who have published or have ready to publish the results of an original research problem. To qualify for associate membership the student must give promise of activity in scientific research, and excellence in some department of science.

Election to the organization is one of the highest intellectual honors that can be attained in the University.

Only seniors and graduate students are eligible, and the number of seniors may not exceed ten per cent of the number enrolled in science departments.
