ILLUMINATION

By Alden Harness
(Written after seeing "Ben Hur," the famous novel by Lew Wallace, presented at the Antlers Theatre, April 27, 1927. The light, which appeared as the Christ in one of the scenes, suggested the verses. The poem was published in the June issue of the Reality Magazine.)

Revealing vast progression in a land.
That far beyond our border lies,
Where Harmony and Unity expand,
Destroying strife that would arise;

Revealing cities crowning distant hills
And spreading through the vales below,
Where knowledge of eternal Truth instills
The thoughts that shall forever grow;

Revealing the divine life and mind
Immortal beings radiate
In understanding of the Power behind,
The perfect laws they demonstrate;

Revealing governments in the control
Of those who manifest and prove
The freedom and supremacy and soul,
Of the domain of peace and love;

Pervading space to the remotest sea
Of worlds that only God beholds,
In endless light Eternity to me
This day, this holy day, unfolds.

Until June 30th only Rogers silverplated teaspoons —Given away— for Alpine milk labels

A beautiful teaspoon—guaranteed for 25 years—yours for only 8 Alpine labels. But not more than six spoons to a person.

NEVER before an offer more extraordinary than this. We make it because we want every Oregon woman to try Alpine—the milk with cream in every drop—and see for herself how rich and delicious it is, how economical for all cooking.

For every eight tall size Alpine labels or sixteen small ones that you bring before June 30th to our redeeming station listed at right—you will get an exquisite platinum-lustre-finish teaspoon—in the lovely new "Kingston" pattern of the famous SIMEON L. and GEORGE H. ROGERS 25-year guarantee silverplate—free. But not more than six spoons to a person.

So easy to get a service of teaspoons

Imagine! The very teaspoons you've always admired—always hoped to own—now offered for milk labels you would ordinarily throw away.

Be sure to get the whole service of six—you can, easily! Start using Alpine today. You'll be surprised to see how quickly the labels add up. Since Alpine keeps indefinitely, many women are buying a supply now just to make sure of their set of spoons.

There's cream in every drop of this delicious milk

There isn't a richer, purer milk than Alpine, say thousands of enthusiastic women who use it regularly.

And no wonder! It takes a whole quart of fresh, full-cream milk to make a pint of Alpine—with nothing added—nothing taken away but water.

Use this creamier, finer-flavored milk for all your favorite recipes. Try it for lighter cakes, for smoother sauces and ices, for more nutritious vegetables. And for a real treat, use it in the recipe given below.

Hermetically sealed in clean containers—air-tight—and sterilized—always fresh and pure is Alpine. More economical, too. Costs little—so rich it saves butter in cooking. Get Alpine today.

A delicious new layer cake you'll be proud to serve

Butter, 1/2 cup
Sugar, 1 1/4 cups
Eggs, 3
Flour, 2 cups
Baking Powder, 2 teaspoons
Vanilla, 1 teaspoon
Alpine Milk, 1/2 cup

Cream the butter and sugar, add the yolks of the eggs and beat until light. Add flour sifted with the baking powder; also the Alpine Milk, and flavoring; beat until light. Fold in the stiffly beaten whites of the eggs, and bake in three layers. Spread with chocolate icing.
