All Contributions to this Page—Society, Women's Clubs, and Personal—Should Be Telephoned to the Society Editor by Friday of Each Week.

Varied forms of social activity marked the week, vacation events of the few clubs which have not disbanded for the summer show plans for brides of the month, luncheons and sewing parties sharing in interest.

The Roseburg Women's Club closed an active season with members meeting for their annual outdoor event on Tuesday at the country home of Mrs. W. C. Winston at Winston.

Of special note among smart entertainments the past few days were four affairs. Mrs. Joe Deets and Mrs. Grant Osborn joined in entertaining Monday evening for Miss Gertrude Wickham, a bride-elect. One of a series of affairs which they have planned for the pleasure of groups of friends was the attractive luncheon on Thursday for which Mrs. J. E. Barker, Mrs. J. C. Broadway, and Mrs. H. C. Waddell were hostesses.

Friday was outstanding with two charming parties. Mrs. E. A. Bemis is inviting a large group of society women for sewing, and Mrs. S. A. Sanford, Mrs. J. E. Sawyer's and Miss Gertrude Rast entertaining at the Sanford home with a garden and porch party, arranging a one o'clock luncheon followed by bridge.

In the evening was the dinner for Mrs. W. W. Gabriel of Portland, president of the Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers at the Hotel Umpqua and the dancing party at the Roseburg Country Club.

The week also saw the marriage of Miss Sylvia Marsters and Mr. W. Wade Ellis in Salem, the wedding being of special interest here, where the bride made her home for many years. Miss Mary McCullagh, the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. W. S. McCullagh, ex-Roseburg residents, will be wed Sunday to Mr. Lee Stewart, June 12, at the home of Mrs. J. E. Barker, where the bride made her home for many years. Miss Mary McCullagh, the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. W. S. McCullagh, ex-Roseburg residents, will be wed Sunday to Mr. Lee Stewart, June 12, at the home of Mrs. J. E. Barker, where the bride made her home for many years.

Wedding Former Roseburg Girl and Salem Boy Tuesday
A marriage of this week of interest in social circles in Roseburg as well as Salem was that of Miss Sylvia Marsters, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace L. Marsters, and W. Wade Ellis, at the home of the bride's parents, at 1556 Court street in Salem Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Sixty friends and relatives were invited for the wedding and a reception which followed the ceremony.

The bride is a member of a well known family and with her parents formerly resided in Roseburg, attending the schools here.

One of the living rooms of the Marsters home was banked with palms, ferns, roses, delphinium and peonies in pastel shades for the setting. On either side of a gorgeous basket of pink and white gerberas stood tall standards of yellow and white ornamental tapers. The single ring ceremony was used, Rev. H. D. Chambers, pastor of St. Paul's Episcopal church, a friend of the family in Roseburg years ago, reading the service.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Faye Sparks sang "Sylvia" (Spaulding) and "At Dawning." Miss Beryl Marsters, sister of the bride, accompanied the soloist.

The bridal party descended the lawn stairway and assembled at the floral bower to the strains of Lehengrin's Wedding march, played by Miss Beryl Marsters. Miss Leone Spaulding, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding, was the flower girl. She was arrayed in a frock of old-rose and lace and carried rose petals which she scattered in the path of the bridal party.

The bride was very lovely in her beautiful frock of Sage blue tulle with inserts of georgette, elaborated with silver and gold heading. She wore a coronet of pearls and silver fashioned flowers in her hair and her pumps of brocaded silver corresponded. Her bouquet was a shower of Cecil Brunner roses, white sweet peas and orchids.

Miss Georgia Ellis, a sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor and wore a gown of green georgette. She carried roses and sweet peas. Miss Eulalia Lindsay, in a frock of rosewood georgette, was the bridesmaid. She carried an arm bouquet of roses and sweet peas.

Collas Marsters, the bride's brother, was best man.

The reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Marsters after the ceremony. Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding and Mrs. Ralph Glover received the guests.

Assisting in the dining room were the Misses Maxine Glover, Winnifred Albrecht, Beryl Marsters and Faye Sparks. Mrs. Glover received and Mrs. Spaulding entertained. The wedding cake was served by Mrs. Waldo Marsters.

Two Bridge Clubs Join for Play Monday

Mrs. J. C. Ponsler arranged a one o'clock luncheon at her home on West Oak street this week for the meeting of the Monday Bridge Club, covers being placed at attractively appointed small tables, each centered with vases of sweet peas in pastel colors.

At the end of the second course the group went to the home of Mrs. A. E. Kent, who entertained also on that day her bridge club, the two clubs joining in play. The rooms of the Kent home were charming with arrangement of roses.

Of the Monday bridge club at play were the Mesdames A. Baum, H. C. Waddell, H. D. Harris, Ben C. Ziegler, Geo. A. Bradburn, A. C. Abbott, Dean Bubar and J. C. Ponsler, and members of the other club present were the Mesdames B. Casey, Geo. Johnson, J. C. Hume, M. F. Rice, H. Clay Darby, R. L. Verdin, Chas. B. Wadley, R. J. Gedney, W. F. Harris and A. E. Kent.

The prizes were won by Mrs. Baum and Mrs. Hume. Mrs. Kent and Mrs. Ponsler served light refreshments at the close of the game.

Matrons Entertain at Smart Luncheon on Thursday

Quite the loveliest event of the latter part of the week was the one o'clock luncheon at the J. E. Barker home at 333 East Lane street on Thursday, planned by Mrs. J. E. Barker, Mrs. I. G. Broadway and Mrs. H. C. Waddell, one of a series of affairs at which they are entertaining groups of their friends.

The rooms of the attractive Barker home were a riot of color with profusions of cut flowers. Baskets and vases of Scotch broom, bluebells combined with anemones, roses, sweet peas and delicate colored lilies made a lovely setting. Vases of garden flowers and maidenhair fern centered the exquisite appointed tables. Covers were placed for sixteen.

Mrs. Geo. A. Bradburn assisted the three hostesses.

Another afternoon party is being planned for next Wednesday.

Bride-Supper Is Arranged for Club

Bridged, followed by a supper, was arranged one evening recently by Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Abbott in entertaining the members of their club.

Lady Hillington roses combined with wild flowers were used in the rooms where the guests were seated for play. The prizes went to Mrs. Ben C. Ziegler and A. G. Sutherland.

Included in the group were Mrs. Mrs. Joseph A. Deun, Mr. and Mrs. Ben C. Ziegler, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ponsler, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Harding, Gene Parrott and the hostess.

Club Women Gather for Last Event of Club Year

One of the most interesting vacation events of clubdom occurred on Tuesday afternoon, the members of the Roseburg Women's club assembling at the home of Mrs. W. C. Winston at Winston for their outdoor meeting, an annual enjoyable affair, which marked the close of an active year.

Cara conveyed the members to the beautiful Winston home near the Umpqua river, where a one o'clock buffet luncheon was served, followed by a short business session.

Matron Hostess for Delightful Affair

Mrs. F. A. Bemis entertained for one of the several delightful affairs of the week, on Friday afternoon bidding to her home on Fowler street a group of society women for sewing.

Combinations of pink LaFrance roses and pink and white peonies decorated the attractive room. Musical selections were enjoyed during the afternoon and at the tea hour luncheon was served. Assisting in the rooms and serving were Mrs. W. H. Kenny, Mrs. L. O. Maddux, Mrs. Leona McDonald, Mrs. Harold Bemis and Miss Adele Bemis.

The list included the Mesdames W. H. Kenny, Geo. Birchard, Elmer A. Pettay, Edith Reams, Bodie, H. D. Harris, Wm. Bell, M. F. Rice, Chas. A. Brand, Foster Butler, W. S. Jost, Walter Good, G. McMillin, Leona McDonald, Walter Singleton, L. O. Maddux, Bertha Parrott, H. Lee Connelly, B. W. Maddox, A. M. Knudsen, F. A. Clemens, Richard Willett, J. T. Bryan, B. L. Eddy, Helen Smick, A. C. Marsters, S. E. Collier, T. E. Singleton, Harold Bemis and Miss Stephanie Parrott.

Younger Set Honors Maid Leaving Soon

Out of door attractions seem to gain in importance since the arrival of June and picnics are by no means the least of entertainments arranged by various groups to spend a day enjoyably. A delightful affair in this form, took place last Sunday when a group of the younger school set assembled at the forks of the Umpqua river, the affair being arranged as an adieu to Miss Lillian Shields, who is leaving for Portland to join her parents in making their home.

The honoree is a popular member of the younger set and attended school in the city a number of years. Diversions during the day were found in games, swimming and boating with other outdoor sports and in the evening a supper was served.

Included in the list were the Mesdames Lillian Shields, Esther Wright, Ethel Bennett, Ollie Lawrence, Iris Taylor, Marjorie Knight, Helen Zimrick and Glen Bacon, Loren Johnson, Garland Iles, Harold Bacon, Robert Dawe, Mervyn Beale, Dick Maddox and Mr. A. T. Lawrence.

Local Matron Receives District Office

Mrs. Thelma Johnson, of this city, was elected district guardian neighbor of the Neighborhoods of Woodcraft at the district convention at Bandon June 6 and 7, and Florence Holland of Marshfield, who formerly held office of district guardian, was elected district guardian for the district.

Other officers elected were Mrs. C. E. Leabo, of Creswell, clerk; Mrs. Laurena Zimmer, Eugene, banker; Mrs. L. Burton, Junction City, attendant; Mrs. Wilson, Colton Grove, inner sentinel; Mrs. Thompson, Alton, outer sentinel; Mrs. Alma Hillingham, Colong, manager; Mrs. Pearl T. Hand, Oakland, Mrs. Hedeelon, Langlots and Mrs. Wilson, managers; Mrs. Winters, Bandon, musician; Mrs. Chandler, Phoenix, flag bearer; Mrs. Gillitt, Grants Pass, home council; Mrs. Grace Smith of North Bend was the installing officer.

Dr. William A. Kaykendall, of Eugene, was present for the meeting Monday and read a very interesting paper on "Why I am a Member of the Neighbors of Woodcraft." He is the Grand Physician of the order.

Those who attended the meeting highly praised Bandon for the hospitality during the two days. The next district meeting will be held at Springfield in 1928.

Among the entertainments arranged for the visitors was the dance on Monday evening at the Silver Spray gardens and on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Bandon was opened for the guests. Mrs. Grace Smith of North Bend, past district guardian neighbor, presented Mrs. Thelma Johnson, with a myrtlewood cavel and block during the time she presided at the meeting.

Eugene Folk Guests of Houcks

Interesting visitors here Thursday were Mrs. George H. Houck, (Flora Campbell), of Boston, her mother, Mrs. Dagald Campbell, and Mrs. Campbell's sister, Mrs. Janet Gilkeson, of Eugene, who motored here for the day as guests of Dr. and Mrs. George E. Houck.

Mrs. Houck is to be joined later by her husband, Dr. Houck, who is the son of Dr. and Mrs. George E. Houck, and who will visit here the coming week. They are returning to the east following their visit in Oregon points.

Mary McCullagh to Become Bride of Lee Stewart

Miss Mary McCullagh will become the bride of Mr. Lee Stewart of Corvallis at a pretty church wedding on Sunday, June 12, in Portland, the event to be solemnized at Moreland Community church.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. W. S. McCullagh, former residents of this city, who went to California a year ago and who have been making their home in Portland recently. She is a graduate of the University of Oregon and is a member of Delta Zeta sorority. For the past two years she has been one of the instructors at the high school in this city.

Miss McCullagh, accompanied by Miss Eva Rice, who will be one of her bridesmaids, went to Portland last week. Other sorority sisters whom Miss McCullagh has chosen to attend her are the Misses Marion Newman and May Murdock of the University of Oregon and Miss Murdock of O. A. C. A reception at the home of Rev. and Mrs. McCullagh will follow the wedding.

Several from Roseburg will attend the ceremony. Mrs. J. M. Judd and daughter, Miss Jessie Judd, left by motor Friday, stopping at the home of Mrs. J. M. Judd and Miss Edith Judd, Miss Marion Newman and Miss May Murdock of O. A. C.

Miss Emma Ueland Coming From New York

Miss Emma Ueland, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Ueland of Roseburg, will return to this city in July from New York City, where she has been attending Columbia University, for a visit with her parents and friends.

Miss Ueland, who for several years was head of the home economics department in Roseburg high school, this season has been taking a teacher's course at the university, graduating this month with her masters degree. She plans to take a summer course at Pratt Institute in Brooklyn, following which she will start for the Pacific coast.

Miss Lucille Crank and Miss Evelyn Mares, well known here, as they also were instructors in the high school, have also been in New York City this year and were with Miss Ueland at the university.

Demonstration at Copco Store Next Week

Douglas county housewives will have an opportunity to inspect the latest up-to-date electrical ironing device for the home next week when a special demonstration of the new Super Simplex Ironer is held at the Copco Electric Store.

Miss Neva L. Bridges, factory expert, is expected to arrive here tomorrow to spend the week in Roseburg "ironing out" some of the domestic troubles now experienced each week by local housewives.

Mr. T. H. Ness, manager of the power company, has extended a general invitation to every woman in Douglas county to bring her ironing to the Copco Electric Store and let the Super Simplex Ironer do the work. Better still, the Super Simplex and Miss Bridges will come out to the house and do the ironing if any local woman will place a telephone request with Mr. Ness or Miss Bridges during the next few days.

Children's Day Program Open Public

The annual Children's Day program for the First Presbyterian church will be given Sunday morning June 12, at 10:30 o'clock. The public is invited to be present. The program is as follows: Hymn Number 44... Congregation That Sweet Story of Old... Choir Selection... Knight Orchestra Recitation and Songs... Primary Department Recitation... ### Wedding Date of Attractive Maid Is Announced

At a charming affair on Monday evening for which Mrs. Joe Deets and Mrs. Grant Osborn entertained for the former's sister, Miss Gertrude Wickham, at the Banks apartments on South Pine street, the honor was announced to a group of intimate friends June 25 as the date of her marriage to Mr. Hugh Whipple.

Eighteen of the honor guest's friends were asked for five hundred at the apartments of Mrs. Osborn. Profusions of roses, bluebells, sweet peas in delicate shades were used in the rooms, where there were three tables of five hundred and one of oak in play. Holding high honors at five hundred was Miss Lotus Knight and the rock prize was won by Miss Ruth Jennings.

At the end of the games the guests went to the apartments of Mrs. Deets, where luncheon covers were placed at small tables, a colorful motif of pink and blue corresponding with the room decorations. Centerpieces of cut flowers were used at the tables. Painted parasols, fashioned from hand painted handkerchiefs and gum drops, contained the announcements. Place cards carried out the table colors.

Assisting the hostesses in serving were Mrs. C. F. Wickham and Mrs. E. E. Block of Eugene. The invited list included Miss Gertrude Wickham, Mrs. Chas. S. McElhinny, Mrs. Ned Dixon, Mrs. Harry Burr, Mrs. Fred L. Strang, Mrs. A. J. Caraway, Mrs. A. B. Taylor, Mrs. C. H. Wickham, Mrs. E. E. Houck, the Misses Faye Geddes, Elvyn Strader, Verla Kohlhagen, Ruth Jennings, Louise Jennings, Lois Byrd, Lotus Knight, Grace Carroll, Mildred Cochran and Thelma Pearce.

The bride elect is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wickham, is a graduate of Roseburg high school, and for the past two years has been an instructor in the schools. She is quite musically talented and has a wide circle of friends in the city.

Her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Whipple of Drain. He also is a graduate of Roseburg high school and attended O. A. C. where he was a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity.

Mrs. S. R. Taylor, who has been spending the past few months in Roseburg visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. B. Crawford, left today for her home at Fort Jones, California. She was accompanied by her grandchildren, Agnes and Nivan Crawford, Jr., who will remain with her for the summer.

Mrs. Chilson Is Hostess Thursday

On Thursday afternoon of last week Mrs. Robert Chilson invited the matrons of the Northside Sewing Club to her home for sewing, a most interesting meeting was held just preceding luncheon. Red-roses were used as centerpieces at the tables, about which were seated the Mesdames E. P. Ballou, Minnie Colby, R. Horner, C. R. Cavender, Clair Pettit, Wm. Fisher, James Bartley, Geo. Marsters, E. M. Jones, B. S. Chilson, Fred Bowen, I. W. Incles, Alfred Stephens, guest of the club, and the hostess.

Two Camp Fire Groups Meet Jointly

The Truchee-to Camp Fire group and the Umpqua group joined in a meeting on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. H. E. Cully. The members received their literature and application blanks for the annual camp and Mrs. Cully read a list of the things each girl must accomplish to earn a free week of camping this year. Miss Betty Shoemaker received her prize as a result of the cake baking contest held during carnival.

Joint Recital Piano and Voice Students

The voice pupils of Elsie Carleton Stran and the piano students of Frances Lintott will be presented in a joint recital at 8 o'clock Monday evening at the Presbyterian church. ### Porch Party Is Charming Affair

Mrs. S. A. Sanford, Mrs. J. E. Sawyer's and Miss Gertrude Rast joined as hostesses for one of the most charming of the week's affairs, on Friday bidding a group of smart matrons and maids to the attractive Sanford home for a porch and garden party, one of a series of affairs, one o'clock luncheon being followed by bridge.

The porch was transformed into a garden bower with hanging baskets of blossoms, potted plants and cut flowers. The tables were prettily appointed in keeping with the decorations. Nine tables of bridge were in play following luncheon.

First prize was won by Mrs. J. C. Ponsler and second prize by Mrs. G. R. Child. The consolation prize went to Mrs. Bert Green.

Miss Florence Wharton, who arrived Saturday from Boise, Idaho, to visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. W. Wharton, is leaving today for Corvallis to spend two weeks working for H. C. Seymour of the O. A. C. extension department in Boys and Girls club work. Miss Wharton will return to Roseburg later to spend the remainder of the summer at her home. For the past two years she has been supervisor of physical education and dancing in the schools of Boise.

Miss Trefren Arrives for Visit

Miss Thelma Trefren, a former Roseburg maid, arrived Thursday from Tracy, California, where with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Trefren, she has been making her home for the past year. She will be joined here Sunday by her mother and her two sisters, the Misses Roberta and Elia Trefren and they will remain for a week's visit.

Following her stay here Mrs. Trefren, accompanied by her two younger daughters is going to Portland and later to Yuma, Arizona, to join Mr. Trefren and make their home. Mr. Trefren, who is employed by the Southern Pacific company has received the promotion of trainmaster with headquarters at Yuma. Miss Thelma Trefren after two weeks is returning to Tracy for the remainder of the season.

Mrs. Leona McDonald and Mrs. O. L. Johnson spent Wednesday at Marshfield and North Bend, there enjoying visits with relatives and friends. On Thursday they went to Coquille to be the guest of Mrs. Eva Cope, a former resident of Roseburg.

Mrs. McDaniels Entertains Club

The Garden Valley Woman's Club met on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Gurney McDaniels, the hostess arranging games for the diversion, followed by a luncheon.

The rooms were attractive with arrangements of cut flowers and potted plants. A short business session was followed by the entertainment. The prizes for the games were won by Mrs. R. S. Hutton and Mrs. Peter Sinclair.

Assisting in the rooms were Mrs. R. A. Calhoun and Mrs. Ed Brown. Seated for luncheon were the Mesdames R. S. Hutton, E. E. Sponaugle, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Hatfield, Mr. and Mrs. R. V. ### Enjoyable Affair at Bodie Home

The Presbyterian Missionary Society met on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. L. Bodie for a very enjoyable affair, the hostess arranging an indoor program, the guests later going to the porch and lawn for a social time.

In the evening the husbands and families of the members were asked for a 6:30 o'clock supper on the lawn.

Country Club Dance Delightful Affair

Quite the most delightful and interesting affair to be held at the Roseburg Country Club was the evening party last evening, a large number of members attending the event.

The club rooms and verandah were a veritable garden of flowers, five hundred choice blooms from the Roseburg Rose farm, being used in decoration. The hybrid tea roses predominated in the combinations used, making a striking and colorful setting. A great deal of credit is due the committees in charge for their efforts in arranging the fine entertainment.

Ott's orchestra played for the dancers and several clever features and favor dances varied the program. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Mrs. K. E. Bloom of Albany is the house guest of Mrs. E. R. Thurber for a few days.

State Officer P. T. A. Speaks at Meeting Friday

Mrs. W. W. Gabriel of Portland, state president of the Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers, who was a most interesting speaker on the program given last evening at the Junior high school auditorium, was honored at a 6 o'clock dinner in the Indian Room of the Hotel Umpqua, preceding the meeting, the affair being arranged by the various heads of the Parent-Teacher associations in the city.

Sixteen women, the officers and representatives of the various city associations and the county council were present for the affair. Mrs. Gabriel gave a short and instructive talk and each of the women there talked briefly on her part taken in P. T. A. work and what of office each holds.

Arranged for Farewell

Mrs. A. B. Crawford arranged a delightful affair on Friday evening as a farewell for her niece and nephew, Agnes and Nivan Crawford, Jr., who are to spend the summer at Fort Jones, California, asking a group of fifteen of their young friends for a theatre party.

Later the guests went to the Crawford home on Clauddick street for refreshments.

Bellview Club to Hold Annual Supper This Evening

An event about which interest of the Bellview club will center this evening is the annual club supper to be held at 8 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Beckley. Members will take added guests.

A very entertaining program has been arranged for the evening. Mr. W. G. Dun, being one of the speakers. Mr. Paul Larson has traveled extensively abroad, will tell of incidents occurring during his travel in foreign lands.

Club to Sponsor Public Card Party

A delightful affair in which dozens of bride and five hundred will find pleasure is the benefit card party to be given by the Business and Professional Women's club on Friday evening, June 24. The rooms formerly occupied by the Heintze Conservatory of Music in the Kohlhagen building have been secured for the affair.

Both bride and five hundred are being arranged and prizes will be awarded the players. Mrs. S. L. Kiddy is in charge of arrangements. Refreshments will be served at the end of play.
